🔊 George was visiting the library. He liked to do many things at the library. He liked to look at all the books. He liked to listen to the stories.

🔊 The librarian was reading a book about bunnies. It was a funny book. The bunnies could sing! George liked the story. But then he saw a book on the table. It was about dinosaurs. George liked them a lot!

🔊 George wanted to look at that book right away. So he climbed on the table to get it. The children pointed at him and smiled.

🔊 Then the librarian turned and looked at the table. The book about dinosaurs was gone! And George was running out of the room!

🔊 George went to find his friend. On the way, he saw a book about trucks. Then he saw a book about elephants. Soon George had a pile of books.

🔊 George saw a cart with books in it. He climbed on the cart to get a book about planes. Then he used the cart to carry his books. George was so happy! He wanted to look at all these books!

🔊 Then the cart began to roll. It was going faster and faster. And George was riding on the back of it!

🔊 Oh, no! The cart crashed!

George looked very funny with a book on his head. But now the books were all over the floor! So George and the children got to work. They put the books back on the shelves.

🔊 George took only three books home from the library. But he was still a happy monkey. He sat with his friend in a big green chair, and he listened to the book about dinosaurs. Such fun!
