AAA.com/hotels — lowest online rates 72% of the time

Travelers who visit AAA.com to book a hotel room are more likely to find a better rate there than on other leading websites, according to a 2014 survey. A direct comparison of hotel rates offered on competing sites showed that AAA.com offered the lowest rate available 72 percent of the time.

“This research reconfirms what we have known all along — that AAA consistently offers the best rate and value to travelers,” said Jim Lehman, President of AAA East Central.

“While no company can claim to offer the best rate all the time, the most salient finding is that AAA is the absolute lowest rate winner among the web sites included in the study.”

The independent survey of lodging rates compared rates available on AAA.com to Expedia, Orbitz and AARP. The study chose 10 cities and 10 AAA lodging partner properties within each city. It looked at 2-night weekend (Friday/Saturday) stays and showed that AAA.com had the lowest price (equal to or better than) 72 percent of the time.

Members who book through AAA.com automatically receive the best rates at Best Western; Choice Hotels, including Comfort Inn and Quality; Days Inn; the Hilton family of brands, including Hampton

A direct comparison of hotel rates offered on competing web sites in September 2014 showed that AAA.com offered the lowest rate available 72 percent of the time. The study measured AAA.com against Expedia, Orbitz and AARP. Ten cities and ten AAA lodging partner properties within each city were chosen to measure. The study looked at 2-night weekend (Friday/Saturday) stays and showed that AAA.com had the lowest price (equal to or better than) 72 percent of the time.

Inns; Hyatt Hotels; La Quinta Inns and La Quinta Inn & Suites; and the Marriott family of brands, including Renaissance Hotels, Courtyard and Starwood.

“Today’s challenging economy places a tremendous strain on many Americans’ travel budgets,” said Lehman. “AAA.com is responding with access to the some of the best online hotel rates available.”

In addition to the member discounts, the AAA rate requires no pre-payment, is eligible for loyalty program points accrual and is backed by AAA’s Assured Stay® satisfaction guarantee with participating hotel chains.

AAA travel agents recommend making advance reservations for any hotel stay to ensure the best availability of rooms.

Online users can read descriptions of lodgings and their amenities in the online TourBook®, access Diamond Ratings and see photos of a hotel prior to making reservations. The TourBooks are interactive with AAA’s online mapping products like Internet TripTik® and AAAmaps.com, allowing you to select a hotel based on its proximity to attractions, addresses, events or other venues. Create an electronic routing with door-to-door driving directions, mark your choices right on your map and book your hotel stays directly from the site.

German Christmas Markets

Experience Old World holiday-season traditions! Germany's many unique Christmas markets and fairs, a tradition begun in the Late Middle Ages, are popular because of their enchanting festive atmosphere. Aromas of roasting chestnuts, savory sausages and freshly baked goods fill the air. Festively decorated, boutique-lined streets and stall-lined town centers brim with locally hand-made, high-quality crafts, toys, wood carvings and delicate ornaments.

Enjoy this escorted tour's convenience and efficiency by spending 4 nights in Nuremberg and 3 in Munich. You'll comfortably "settle in," taking short rides each day to the markets and landmarks surrounding the 2 base cities; forget about packing and unpacking each day!

Start in Nuremberg, with a tour featuring views of the imperial castle (Kaiserburg) and the site of the Nuremberg Rallies. Then visit your very first Christkindlmarkt.

Over the next few days, set out from Nuremberg to the historic and charming Bavarian towns (and their Christmas markets, of course!) of Rothenburg ob der Tauber (with its well-preserved medieval center), Bamberg (its Old Town is a UNESCO World Heritage site), Bayreuth (best known for its association with composer Richard Wagner, who lived here for a time) and Regensburg (also a UNESCO World Heritage site).

Journey to Munich, Bavaria's capital; enjoy a sightseeing tour, a Christmas market and dinner at Ratskellar Restaurant. An excursion to Neuschwanstein, the palace upon which Disneyland's Sleeping Beauty Castle is modeled, is a memorable experience. Continue on to Kempten (Germany's oldest town) and Augsburg (a university town) to explore their holiday markets. Return to Munich for a brewery tour/tasting and a farewell dinner at the famous Hofbräuhaus.

Dec 2-10 • AAA Member Rate: $2,999

Rate is per person (double occupancy), is subject to availability at time of booking and includes flights (Philadelphia-Frankfurt, Munich-Philadelphia), roundtrip airport/hotel transfers, motorcoach transportation, accommodations, 13 meals, luggage handling (1 bag/person), taxes/gratuities for included features and services of a AAA Tour Manager in Germany (if minimum-participation goal is met). Additional airline fees for baggage may apply; contact your travel agent for details.

California New Year's Getaway

Start in Los Angeles, seeing its historic Farmers Market, the Disney Concert Hall, the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels and LA Live. Stop at Olvera Street, the original heart of the Mexican community. Get acquainted with your fellow travelers at a welcome dinner at LA Prime on the 35th floor of your downtown hotel.

Day 2 features glitzy Rodeo Drive and star-studded Hollywood. See celebrity signatures at Grauman's Chinese Theatre and the medallions of Hollywood Boulevard's Walk of Fame. At Hollywood & Highland shopping/entertainment complex, enjoy views of the iconic Hollywood sign from the upper level. See celebrity homes in Bel Air and Beverly Hills. At Warner Brothers, get a behind-the-scenes look at making films and TV shows; be alert for star sightings! Return to your hotel with time to explore LA on your own.

On Day 3, at the Reagan Presidential Library, see an Oval Office replica, Air Force

One and a re-created state dinner. Drive the Pacific Coast Highway through exclusive Malibu to Santa Monica. Attend a New Year's Eve party in Long Beach on the Queen Mary; dine, dance and bid farewell to 2015 in grand style.

Day 4 is in Pasadena, at your reserved seat for the Tournament of Roses Parade! Then visit Universal Studios CityWalk before heading to San Diego.

Explore San Diego on Day 5; see Cabrillo Monument atop Pt Loma, with sea, harbor and skyline views. Drive through Mission Bay to Old Town (CA's birthplace) and La Jolla, a chic beachside hideaway. See Balboa Park, the country's oldest city park and one of it largest. Tour the world-famous San Diego Zoo on a doubledecker bus.

On Day 6, visit the USS Midway Museum, the longest-serving aircraft carrier of the 20th century. Travel to a winery for a private tour & tasting, followed by a sunset dinner cruise on San Diego Bay.

Be a snowbird & escape winter for 28 nights:

Rent a furnished Florida "nest" for your family and / or your friends!

Just because you don't own a home in Florida is no reason you can't be a "snowbird" and live the leisurely (and warm!) life-style of the Sunshine State for 28 nights (Saturday-to-Saturday weeks) in 2016. AAA Travel has just what you need: 4-week Saturday-to-Saturday rentals of a roomy furnished vacation home in peaceful Port Charlotte!

On the southwest Gulf Coast just 100 miles south of Tampa and 65 miles north of Naples, Port Charlotte is a premier ecotourism destination that's off the beaten path and free of crowds, yet offers sailing, boating, fishing, birding, shopping, dining, arts & more.

One of Sail magazine's 10 Greatest Places to Sail, the Charlotte Harbor area offers nature adventures like canoeing/kayaking on 53 trails, exploring 5 national wild-life refuges and discovering prime birding opportunities. There are more than 70 parks & preserves, 16 golf courses and numerous sporting events and recreational facilities. Cultural pursuits include visual arts, theater, dance and music (Port Charlotte is home to the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra). No wonder Money magazine called it Best Place to Retire.

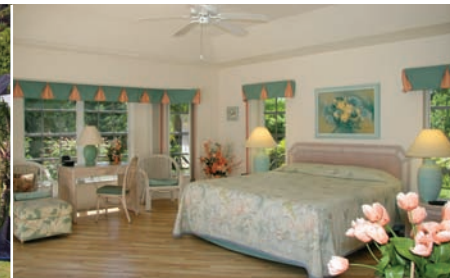

Choose from a selection of attractively landscaped homes, and use yours as a base from which to explore the local area's uncrowded beaches and/or the many attractions within comfortable driving distance. Or just settle in, take advantage of the screened-in swimming pool and laugh at winter back home!

Get away from it all...or invite family and/or friends to share some Florida fun with you. These 3-bedroom/2-bathroom (some with 2.5) homes can comfortably sleep 6 (bedding/linens provided). They feature fully equipped kitchens (dishwasher, stove/oven, refrigerator/freezer, microwave) and dining areas for everyone to gather in...screened-in heated pools for swimming, lounging and loafing! Living rooms feature entertainment centers (with cable). Optional weekly cleaning/linen service is available for an additional fee.

Imagine not having to shovel snow this winter...and watching the sun set over the Gulf of Mexico instead. Forget about bundling up just to go to the corner store...and slipping into a soothing pool after dining on your patio instead. With AAA's help, you can look forward to winter this year; contact a AAA travel agent now!

Rates vary by home selected, are subject to availability at time of booking and include accommodations, taxes & fees and pool heating fee. Visit AAA.com/HomeRentals.

Journey from Rome to Paris

Embark on a cross-continent European Grand Tour that begins amid the classic art and architecture of the Eternal City (Rome), traverses the bucolic Tuscan countryside to the bustling canals of Venice, threads through the postcard-perfect Italian Lake District into Switzerland's astounding Alpine valleys and reveals the beauty of Burgundian vineyards before culminating in elegance and style in the fabled City of Light (Paris).

All the way, your touring is enriched by expert guides and enhanced by signature experiences (see box below). Stay in centrally located luxury hotels, travel comfortably in deluxe motorcoaches with just 40 seats and more legroom than most other motorcoaches.
