JOHN COLTRANE PLAYS "COLTRANE CHANGES"

transcribed by

Masaya Yamaguchi

foreword by David Demsey
Artist Transcriptions

In the late 1950s, John Coltrane composed or arranged a series of tunes that used chord progressions based upon a series of key center movements by thirds, rather than the usual fourths and fifths of standard progressions. Its sound is so aurally identifiable and has received so much attention from jazz musicians that it has become known as "Coltrane's Changes." This book presents an exploration of his changes by studying 13 of his arrangements. It includes complete solo transcriptions with performance notes for each. Titles include: Body and Soul • But Not for Me • Countdown • Fifth House • Giant Steps • and more.
