

TOCCA

16/17 SEASON

WELCOME

Every season, the Torrance Cultural Arts Foundation works to bring the highest quality entertainment experiences to the South Bay. Curated especially for you, we bring touring artists and produce special events that allow local participation, all the while keeping the ticket costs as low as possible, but never sacrificing the quality of the experience.

We wouldn't be able to provide these wonderful experiences without the generous support of our sponsors and donors. Thank you to our Grand Marquis sponsor: The City of Torrance; Platinum sponsor: Toyota Motor Sales, USA; Silver sponsor: Robinson Helicopter Company; Bronze sponsor: Pelican Products and PBF Energy; Underwriters: Art to Grow On Children's Art Center, Castle Rock Winery and Torrance Bakery.

We continue to open the doors one hour prior to each performance so you can meet your friends or make new ones in an arts friendly environment. In addition, free parking, convenient location and great nearby eateries make joining us at the theatre a GREAT evening (or afternoon) out.

Thank you for your support in keeping the arts alive in the South Bay.

See you at the Theatre.

SOUTH BAY'S GOT TALENT III

Saturday, September 24, 2016 • 8:00pm

Come see the best talent that the South Bay has to offer in our third annual regional talent competition. Open to all ages and all different genres of performing. The best part is, the audience helps decide the winner. This is an event not to be missed.

THE BOY AND THE BEAST

Sunday, September 25, 2016
2:00pm

Doors open at 1:00 pm. First come, first seated.
Free film screening sponsored in part by the Japan Foundation.
In Japanese with English subtitles.

The latest feature film from award-winning Japanese director Mamoru Hosoda (Summer Wars, Wolf Children): When Kyuta, a young orphan living on the streets of Shibuya, stumbles into a fantastic world of beasts, he's taken in by Kumatetsu, a gruff, rough-around-the-edges warrior beast who has been searching for the perfect apprentice.

Despite their constant bickering, Kyuta and Kumatetsu begin training together and slowly form a bond as surrogate father and son. But when a deep darkness threatens to throw the human and beast worlds into chaos, the strong bond between this unlikely pair will be put to the ultimate test—a final showdown that will only be won if the two can finally work together using all of their combined strength and courage.

STORYTELLING WORKSHOP

Saturday October 1, 2016
2:00pm

Nakano Theatre

Storytelling Workshop accepts 12 students to work on their memoir writing, receive performance tips and enjoy a casual lunch together. The class will perform their stories in a show that afternoon. The total time is four hours. The last 90 minutes of the workshop, friends of storytellers may come to watch the performance, or the tellers may choose to videotape their tales. After refining their skills, the students find that performing in front of the class and guests has been a rewarding experience. And they now have tools they can carry forward to job interviews, first dates or future TV guest spots!

FACE TO THE SUN

Saturday, February 18, 2017 • 8:00pm

Nakano Theatre

Free. First come first seated.
Doors open at 7:00pm; performance at 8:00pm.

Be one of the first to witness a new play by Alison Minami at this staged reading directed by Michael Hagiwara.

Set in Havana at the dawn of the Cuban Revolution, Face to the Sun is a lyrical, language-driven, play with a multicultural cast. Haunted by memories of his homeland and fearful of another war-driven imprisonment by the Cuban government, Hamada, an upstanding leader of the Japanese Cuban community, decides to uproot his family and return to Japan. But his daughter Flora is running with a guerrilla and Isabel, his Cuban wife, is no longer attracted to him. Each of them must make a choice about love and loyalty to both country and family.

COUNTRY ROADS: A TRIBUTE TO JOHN DENVER

Saturday October 1, 2016 • 8:00pm

BACK BY OVERWHELMING DEMAND!

Looking like entertainment icon John Denver is one thing. Sounding like him, too, is—well, comparable to a “Rocky Mountain High” for the incomparable singer-songwriter Rick Schuler.

Rick has assembled a band and show that capture the essence of the legendary musician in every respect.

Rick’s Denver-inspired “Country Roads” lead him to Aspen, Colorado, where he attended his first John Denver tribute (the 13th annual) in memory of the popular entertainer’s life and music. During the course of the two-day event, Rick met several of Denver’s former band mates and close friends who were nothing short of astonished by the similarities the two shared in look, sound and musical talent.

Whether you’re a Denver devotee or not, you’ll want to catch Rick Schuler’s upcoming performance. Rest assured you’ll leave singing his praises and Thanking God for this Country Boy’s truly amazing talent.

CARNEY MAGIC: A SHOW ABOUT MENTORS, SECRETS, AND THE BEAUTY OF A PERFECT ILLUSION

Friday, October 7, 2016 & Saturday, October 8, 2016
 8:00pm

Nakano Theatre

Carney Magic is a theatre show that blends mind-blowing sleight of hand with intelligence, taste, and wit, into a unique evening of pure entertainment. This is definitely NOT your typical “magic show.” Carney’s approach is smart, engaging, and often hilarious.

Pinballing between jaunty comedic riffs and astonishing sleight of hand, Carney will have you reeling with his hilarious audience participation segments, as well as his embodiment of multiple characters.

Regarded by his peers as one of the top sleight-of-hand performers in the world, Carney has won more awards from Hollywood’s Magic Castle than anyone in its history, as well as the Academy of Magical Arts’ prestigious Masters Performing Fellowship.

You won’t see any big boxes, tigers, dancing girls or lasers: Just a quirky, likable guy, cracking-wise and doing some pretty amazing things ... and all the while, you’ll be laughing yourself silly.

A CELEBRATION OF JEWISH CULTURE THROUGH MUSIC & MEMORIES

Saturday, October 22, 2016 • 8:00pm

This celebration showcases 90-year-old survivor of Auschwitz concentration camp, Cantor David S. Wisnia.

Wisnia’s vocal talent contributed to his survival during the Holocaust as recounted in his recently published memoir: One Voice, Two Lives. Wisnia began singing in synagogue choirs and was a featured child soloist in pre-World War II Poland’s largest synagogue, the Progressive Tlumacki Synagogue. His repertoire includes Yiddish show tunes, liturgical, and popular music.

Wisnia’s grandson, singer-songwriter and pianist Avi Wisnia, joins his grandfather onstage. The program features two visiting cantorial soloists, Rivka Iza Foremniak and Menachem Piotr Mirski from the renewed Progressive Jewish community, Beit Polska in Poland.

Cantor Mike Stein, of Temple Aliyah in Woodland Hills, is internationally celebrated for his musical talent and energy. Cantor Paul Buch of Temple Beth Israel in Pomona is an outstanding cantorial voice. The vocalists will be supported by an instrumental ensemble from UCLA, under the supervision of Neal Brostoff.

Sponsored in part by Jewish Renewal in Poland/Beit Polska; Temple Aliyah of Woodland Hills; Temple Beth Israel of Pomona; and UCLA Mickey Katz Endowed Chair in Jewish Music

ART & STUDY OF TAIKO

Saturday December 3,
 2016 • 3:00pm

Staff and students of Asano Taiko US and LATI (Los Angeles Taiko Institute) present contemporary and traditionally inspired taiko repertoire in their end-of-year recital. Performances are interspersed with explanations of the roots and context of taiko, a demonstration of the “kuchishoga” aural teaching method, and commentary on the challenges of learning Japanese drums.

NEW ORLEANS CHRISTMAS WITH JEFF BORDES AND FRIENDS

Sunday, December 4, 2016
2:00 & 7:00pm

Back by popular demand, A New Orleans Christmas with Jeff Bordes and Friends is a heartwarming holiday show mixing the spirit of Christmas with the soul of New Orleans.

The whole family will love the lively arrangements of seasonal favorites led by jazz trumpeter Jeff Bordes. The show will feature special guests and will leave you dancing the Second Line in the aisles!

FREEDOM WRITERS STORIES FROM AN UNDECLARED WAR

Friday, January 13, 2017
8:00pm

Stories from an Undeclared War is a powerful documentary that tells the story of 150 at-risk Long Beach students who were once considered unteachable.

Inspired by teacher Erin Gruwell and the writings of Anne Frank, the students discover a new way to express themselves. The documentary follows the students' story from the first day of freshman year in 1994 to the present day. In a racially divided community where adolescents have been exposed to drugs, gang warfare, and homicides, Gruwell makes it her goal to teach the students to put down their fists and guns and to pick up a pen. To do this, she juxtaposes their typical reality in urban America with some of the worst examples of man's inhumanity to man. The once-hardened teens have an epiphany that they live in an undeclared war, and writing becomes their salvation.

A conversation with Erin Gruwell and several of the original Freedom Writers will follow the screening.

HYPNOTIC BRASS ENSEMBLE

Friday, February 10, 2017 • 8:00pm

Hailing from Chicago's South Side, Hypnotic Brass Ensemble is a group of seven brothers who come from an extraordinary musical family. The band freely mix the brass band tradition with generous doses of hip hop, soul and funk, creating an intoxicating and boisterous blend that is just barely contained on their newest release Fly: The Customs Prelude. They have toured throughout Europe, Asia, Australia, Africa and South America and played with everyone from Prince, Mos Def, Mick Jones (The Clash) and Damon Albarn (Blur, Gorillaz).

They've performed at Coachella, WOMAD AU, Jazz at Lincoln Center, the Sydney Opera House and Carnegie Hall. Their song, "War," was featured in the blockbuster hit movie, Hunger Games.

WHAT'S GOING ON: THE MARVIN GAYE EXPERIENCE

Saturday, March 25, 2017 • 8:00pm

What's Going On: The Marvin Gaye Experience is Brian Owen's tribute to the legendary artist and includes music selections that span Gaye's music-making career. Early solo hits like "Can I Get a Witness" and "I Heard It Through the Grapevine" share space with "You're All I Need to Get By" and other classic duets. And any Marvin Gaye song list would be incomplete without perennial (and challenging) crowd-pleasers like "Let's Get It On" or "Got To Give It Up."

Soul man Brian Owens is often referred to as the "second coming of Marvin Gaye." Owens, who has performed at the White House for First Lady Michelle Obama, dazzles audiences with performances that are full of soul and love well beyond his peers of today. His refined style combining classic soul with a slight modern touch is why audiences everywhere are calling him the new voice of American soul.

RAVE ON

RAVE ON

Friday, April 28, 2017
8:00pm

Rave On reinvents the ordinary tribute show with an electrifying, high-energy, rock 'n' roll extravaganza featuring America's Premiere Buddy Holly interpreter, Billy McGuigan, who is a dead-ringer for the legendary rocker, and is backed by the rockin' Rave On Band. Their incredible musicianship ignites the stage and breathes new life into the music of Buddy Holly.

In this rock 'n' roll tour-de-force, audiences will experience all the thrills of a Buddy Holly concert reimagined—including such hits as "Peggy Sue," "Raining in My Heart," "It's So Easy," "That'll Be the Day," "True Love Ways," "Oh Boy" and, of course, "Rave On." But that's only part of it! In a unique twist, Billy as 'Buddy' celebrates the birth of an era and pays homage to his fellow rockers Jerry Lee Lewis, Elvis Presley, Chuck Berry, Ritchie Valens and The Big Bopper.

Friday and Saturday
November 4 & 5, 2016
7:30pm

The legacy of storytelling continues. Daughter of famed singer/songwriter Harry Chapin, Jen Chapin's music is urban folk soul—story songs that search for community and shared meaning, powered by the funk and improvisation of the city. Critics have hailed her work as "brilliant... soulfully poetic" (NPR), "thoughtful ... worth-savoring" (People), "addictive" (Boston Globe), "smart, observant, lyrically deft, politically aware and emotionally intuitive." DANA LOUISE & THE GLORIOUS BIRDS

Friday and Saturday
January 20 & 21, 2017
7:30pm

The daughter of Ezra Idlet of the Grammy-nominated Trout Fishing in America, Dana Louise is a new songstress astonishing audiences with her vibrant, melodic vocals, adept finger-picking and cool sound. Now touring her debut album, she is joined by the Glorious Birds—Adams Collins (vibraphone and 5-string banjo), Ezra Idlet and Keith Grimwood (Trout Fishing in America/guitar, percussion and bass).

Drawing from jazz and bluegrass, and carrying a contemporary beat, the sound is roots-flung-into-the-future folk. Dana Louise & the Glorious Birds work to leave their audiences glowing with the magic music can bring: genuine human connection.

SALOME

Sunday October 23, 2016 • 2:00pm

by Richard Strauss

Considered scandalous when it premiered a century ago with its provocative "Dance of the Seven Veils," Richard Strauss' adaptation of Oscar Wilde's play has not lost its ability to shock. Set in Biblical times, this erotically charged opera centers on a tangled triangle: the persecuted John the Baptist, a lecherous King Herod and the monarch's pathologically seductive stepdaughter, Salome.

German soprano Nadja Michael is "mesmerizing throughout" in the title role (The New York Times), opposite bass-baritone Greer Grimsley "as a thunderous and dramatically compelling Jokanaan, [and] tenor Kim Begley is a magnificent Herod, singing with precision and tonal brilliance" (San Francisco Chronicle). Music Director Nicola Luisotti conducted "with flair and muscle. The orchestral playing was powerful and richly colored" (San Francisco Chronicle). Co-directed by Seán Curran and James Robinson.

This heartwarming story of starving artists falling in and out of love in 19th century Paris is a seamless mix of romantic passion, poignant tragedy and high-spirited fun. The outstanding cast is headed by superstar Romanian soprano Angela Gheorghiu as the ill-fated Mimì and by Polish tenor Piotr Beczala as her lover, the poet Rodolfo. Recorded Fall 2008, War Memorial Opera House, San Francisco.

"Audiences adore 'La Bohème,' and the San Francisco Opera's latest revival makes it easy to see why.... Glorious singing, gripping music and a touching love story ... were on brilliant display." -(San Jose Mercury News)

"This is opera truly not to be missed."

(San Francisco Examiner)

AIDA

AIDA

Sunday January 15, 2017 • 2:00pm

by Giuseppe Verdi

Sung in Italian with English supertitles

The grandest of grand operas, and a brilliant balance of spectacular pageantry and emotional intimacy. A bitter love triangle plays itself out against a backdrop of war and cultural oppression in this compelling tale of conflicting loyalties and forbidden passion.

As Aida, soprano Micaela Carosi's "voice wasn't only luminous; she was alive in the role ... every fear, frustration and outburst of love registered in her voice, face, body" (San Jose Mercury News). Tenor Marcello Giordani plays Radames, "mustering a ringing sound and suitably ardent phrasing" in the opera's clima (San Francisco Chronicle).

MADAME BUTTERFLY

MADAME BUTTERFLY

Sunday March 12, 2017
2:00pm

by Giacomo Puccini
Sung in Italian with English subtitles

One of the world's most beloved and dramatic operas, Madame Butterfly is a classic tale of colliding hearts and cultures set in 19th century Japan. Internationally acclaimed soprano Patricia Racette is Cio-Cio-San, a geisha tragically torn between two worlds and forced to make the ultimate sacrifice. Company Music Director Donald Runnicles conducts the San Francisco Opera Orchestra and Chorus in this stirring production that features some of Puccini's most popular music.

RIGOLETTO

RIGOLETTO

Sunday February 26, 2017 • 2:00pm

Music by Giuseppe Verdi; Libretto by Francesco Maria Piave
Sung in Italian with English supertitles

One of opera's most vivid and compelling characters, a vengeful court jester, desperately tries to protect his daughter from disaster in this heart-wrenching tragedy. The first of two world-class casts led by Music Director

Nicola Luisotti stars Željko Lučić, "whose vocal artistry is exceptional" (The New York Times); Aleksandra Kurzak, "a superstar in the making" (The Guardian, London); and, as the lecherous Duke, Francesco Demuro, "whose open, bright, superbly focused tone was reminiscent of Pavarotti" (Opera News).

"A powerful, rhythmically exciting Rigoletto."

Aleksandra Kurzak "was nothing short of remarkable." -San Francisco Chronicle

Torrance Theatre Company presents
THE DROWSY CHAPERONE

August 13, 20, 26 and 27 at 8:00pm

August 14 and 21 at 2:00pm

The Drowsy Chaperone is a loving send-up of the Jazz-age musical featuring one show-stopping song and dance number after another.

With the houselights down, a man in a chair appears on stage and puts on his favorite record: the cast recording of a fictitious 1928 musical. The recording comes to life and The Drowsy Chaperone begins as the man in the chair looks on. Mix in two lovers on the eve of their wedding, a bumbling best man, a desperate theatre producer, a not-so-bright hostess, two gangsters posing as pastry chefs, a misguided Don Juan and an intoxicated chaperone, and you have the ingredients for an evening of madcap delight.

"THE PERFECT BROADWAY MUSICAL!"
