A cornerstone of our community since 1907, the City of Eureka's Sequoia Park Zoo has only been in partnership with the Sequoia Park Zoo Foundation since 2004. The City funds the day-to-day operations of the Zoo (animal care, staffing, medical care & facilities maintenance), while exhibit upgrades, new exhibits, marketing, guest services & membership are made possible by the Foundation. This relationship is a great example of a successful public/private partnership formed for the betterment of our community.

Red Panda Exhibit

Debuting in July 2010, this exhibit marked the first brand new exhibit for a new species that the Zoo has built since Secrets of the Forest opened in 2005. The exhibit features our shining stars Shifu and Sumo, two Red panda brothers born at the Denver Zoo as part of AZA's Species Survival Plan program. This exhibit also launches our Asian Forests zone in the southwest section of the Zoo, where the gibbons and other Asian tree-dwelling animals will eventually reside as the master plan moves forward.

will eventually reside as the master plan moves forward.

Broke Ground on a New Exhibit

In October, a new walkway was laid that rerouted foot traffic along what seems like a strange detour on the way to the Barnyard. This was in preparation for groundbreaking the new flamingo, cavy and screamer exhibits. Before the autumn rains began, animal care staff carefully relocated 29 flamingoes and 3 screamers to off-exhibit holding quarters. That same day, demolition began on what had been the flamingo (and before that a waterfowl) pond, plus the old wallaby yard, and accompanying pathways

Demolition of old flamingo exhibit and hedges. Gone is the overgrown pampas grass, leaking pond and crumbling sidewalks. Animals and staff eagerly await Spring 2011 for the grand opening of these new and improved habitats.

Accreditation

Sequoia Park Zoo was once again accredited by the Association of Zoos and Aquariums after a year-long process of application, inspection and a formal hearing in front of the Accreditation Commission in Houston, TX. It was a long and rigorous year of hard work by staff and volunteers, but the rewards are plentiful:

Jim Maddy, CEO of AZA, presenting Gretchen Ziegler, Zoo Manager, with the new certificate

many new improvements to the facility were made, the Zoo was spiffed up like never before, and overall animal care standards are higher than ever. The Accreditation Commission gave accolades for the progress and improvements that have occurred since the last inspection in 2005, made all the more significant by our zoo's small size and resource challenges.

Axolotl

A little known member of the Zoo's living collection, an albino axolotl, moved back onto exhibit in the keeper kitchen window, after several years of residing off-exhibit.

Friend of the Zoo

7,289 hours were volunteered to further Sequoia Park Zoo's mission during 2010. Efforts include:

- 👤 Zoo Crew
- 👤 Board of Directors
- 👤 Community Service Projects
- 👤 Event/Gift Shop Volunteers
- 👤 Youth Assistant Keepers
- 👤 Spiff Up the Zoo

SPECIAL PROJECT CONTRIBUTORS

- Christine & Jalmer Berg Foundation
- Humboldt Area Foundation
- Humboldt Sponsors
- Robert L. Richards Memorial Fund
- Rotary Club of Eureka
- Save the Redwoods League

City of Eureka Zoo Budget
Fiscal Year 09-10

Total Budget: $617,704
No capital improvement funding due to budget cuts

CONSERVATION

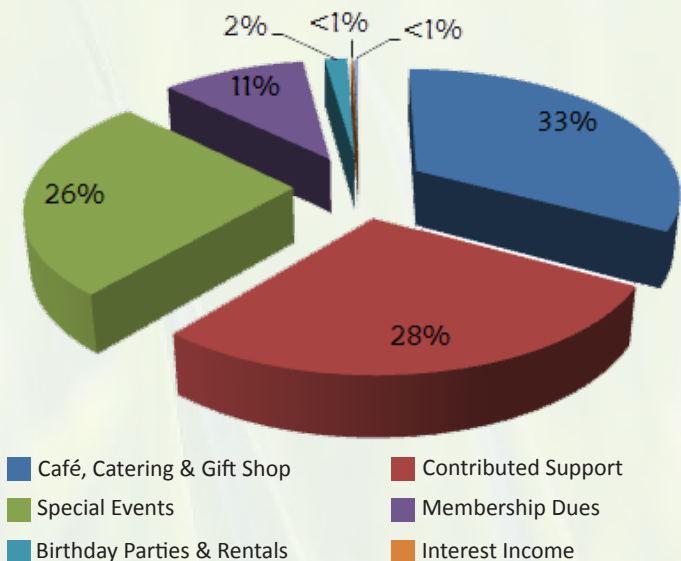

In addition to long-standing conservation efforts, in 2010 Sequoia Park Zoo added these new programs:

- ★ International Red Panda Day: 1,086 people celebrated on Nov. 13! Sequoia Park Zoo donated $650 to the Red Panda Network-enough to fund an employee for a season of Red panda population monitoring in Nepal.
- ★ World Oceans Week: In honor of AZA's sponsored World Oceans Day, the Zoo provided water pollution prevention demonstrations to over 300 visiting students during the week of June 7-11.
- ★ No Palm Oil Campaign: Harvesting palm oil has a negative impact on wildlife and is found in many foods we eat daily. This keeper-led program offers an animal-friendly buying guide.

ANIMAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Red pandas – This species was a first for Sequoia Park Zoo and therefore a first for animal care staff at the Zoo, so we had a lot to learn. Luckily the zoo community offers a wealth of support and information, with husbandry manuals, veterinary advisors, and a keeper workshop at the Cincinnati Zoo that our own Zoo Keeper Kelsey Kuhn attended. In spite of a rough start as the runt of the litter, Shifu, along with his brother Sumo, have thrived here at Sequoia Park Zoo.

Flamingo chick – After a two-year hiatus, our flock got serious about nesting and produced several nests and eggs, keeping staff busy with observations. When an egg was laid, it was pulled and placed in an incubator to keep it safe from predators. Of the 12 eggs produced, only one was fertile. A day after its first vocalizations were heard inside the shell, keepers returned it to an occupied nest, removing the “dummy” egg. A healthy chick was hatched! Even though the pair was inexperienced and a bit surprised to hear the egg talking back, they did a great job protecting and feeding the chick. It was another successful learning experience for all; this female flamingo chick is the 29th member of our growing flock.

Our flamingo chick sticks close to mom

ANIMAL COLLECTION ADDITIONS

- ★ Acquired two new female Guira cuckoos from Houston Zoo for companionship to our single female
- ★ Received two Red panda brothers born at Denver Zoo for our new exhibit
- ★ Added a new Madagascar giant hissing cockroach colony for our Education programs
- ★ Introduced a male Raven that was permanently injured in the wild and rescued by Humboldt Wildlife Care Center to our existing two females
- ★ One Chilean flamingo was hatched with help from keeper staff and successfully reared by foster parents in our flock
- ★ A hatchling Rubber boa donated from Coyote Point Museum was added to enhance our educational opportunities with these fascinating native snakes
- ★ Our elderly Coast giant salamander passed away from natural causes after living at the zoo for more than eighteen years

Number of youth inspired by education programs offered at Sequoia Park Zoo.

Our camps for kids served over 180 youth ages 5-12.

Over 1,600 people came through the front gates on school field trips. By providing an outdoor classroom, the Zoo complements science curriculum, thereby enhancing student learning.

Education to inspire conservation action!

This hands-on program allowed 21 youth to serve, learn and get dirty. Together they worked over 900 hours!

COMING IN 2011

Our Patagonian cavy's home is getting a makeover. Look for a new Flamingo, Cavy & Crested screamer exhibit this spring. And, if we're lucky, cavy babies!
