Greetings from the Chancellor

Dear Graduate,

Congratulations on your graduation from the University of Minnesota, Crookston.

The diligence and perseverance that have brought you to this point will serve you well as you embark on the next stage of your life. I hope the new ideas, new skills, and new ways of looking at the world you have learned through your studies have prepared you to realize your most cherished dreams.

On behalf of the entire University community, I congratulate you on achieving this important milestone in your life and offer you my best wishes for the future.

Sincerely,

Charles H. Casey, D.V.M.
Chancellor

Welcome to the Alumni Association

Congratulations, graduates! It is my privilege to welcome each of you as new members of the University of Minnesota, Crookston Alumni Association. An important aspect of our mission is staying in touch with alumni. Connections are fostered and kept current through the Torch, the alumni magazine; Alumni E-news, our electronic alumni newsletter; and the use of social media including Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, and LinkedIn.

I encourage all alumni to stay involved and support your alma mater! Feel free to contact me anytime.

Getting Ready to Graduate

Graduation Requirements

1. To be eligible for a University of Minnesota undergraduate degree, a student must present at least 30 semester credits awarded by the University of Minnesota campus from which he or she is seeking to graduate.
2. Students must complete at least half of upper division course work on the campus from which they are seeking to graduate.
3. At least 15 credits of the last 30 credits earned prior to the awarding of a University degree must be awarded by the University of Minnesota campus from which a student is seeking to graduate.
4. For students who seek an academic minor, to be eligible for record of a minor on the University of Minnesota transcript, students must take at least three (3) upper division credits in the minor field at the campus from which they will receive their degree.

To qualify for the associate in applied science or the associate in science degree, the candidate must complete a minimum of 64 credits with a GPA of 2.00 (C). To qualify for the bachelor of science degree, the candidate must complete a minimum of 120 credits with a minimum GPA of 2.00 (C). The faculty reserve the right to change requirements for the various curricula. However, the credits required for the degree will not exceed the total specified at the time the student enrolled.

Graduation Procedure

Degree candidates must complete an electronic application for degree (onestop.umcrookston.edu/registration/graduation_requirements.htm) by the end of the second week of the term/semester in which degree requirements will be met.

Honors

Candidates for the associate or bachelor's degree who earn a 3.75 GPA graduate with distinction; those with a 3.90 GPA graduate with high distinction. The honor is recorded on the student's academic record and diploma.

Diplomas

A University of Minnesota diploma indicates a student's name (as submitted on the eDegree Application), the degree earned, and any honors earned. A University of Minnesota diploma does not indicate a student's major; majors are indicated on the transcript only. Diplomas are mailed approximately two months after graduation. If you have not received your diploma after two months, please contact the Registrar's Office at 218-281-8547. NOTE: It is your responsibility to review your record for holds. Any student who has an outstanding financial debt to the University will not be allowed to graduate until the debt has been cleared. When you satisfy your financial obligation to the University, and your holds are released, notify the Registrar's Office.

Transcripts and Directory Suppression

If you are in need of a transcript reflecting your degree, you may request that a transcript be sent once the degree is recorded. If you have requested full directory suppression, please be aware that your name will not appear in the commencement program nor will it be released to newspapers. Also, we will not be able to confirm your degree to employers or others without your specific request in writing. If you have questions or concerns regarding this policy, please call the Registrar's Office at 218-281-8547.

Commencement Regalia

Academic apparel is a commencement tradition at the University of Minnesota. The Bookstore is your official campus graduation source; visit www.bookstores.umn.edu/crookston/grad.htm. All candidates for graduation are responsible for securing the following items:

Candidates for associate degrees wear:

- the silver associate gown
- the traditional mortarboard cap
- the appropriate tassel color

Candidates for bachelor's degrees wear:

- the black bachelor gown
- the traditional mortarboard cap
- the appropriate tassel color

In keeping with the guidelines outlined in the internationally accepted Academic Costume Code, nothing else should be worn on the academic gown. For further information about academic regalia, go to www.umcrookston.edu/events/Commencement/symbols/academiccostume.htm.

Tassels. Undergraduate candidates wear the tassel on the right side of the cap.

Associate degree tassel colors:

Agriculture	Maize
Business	Drab
Math, Science & Technology	Yellow Gold

Bachelor degree tassel colors:

Agriculture	Maize
Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences	White
Business	Drab
Math, Science & Technology	Yellow Gold
Natural Resources	Maize

Honor Medals. Official University of Minnesota honor medals denoting graduation with Distinction and High Distinction, distributed through the Registrar's Office, are the only enhancements to the traditional regalia that have been approved by the University for commencement ceremonies.

Your Graduation Day

Commencement is scheduled for Saturday, May 7, 2011, at 2 p.m., in Lysaker Gymnasium, Sports Center. A reception honoring the graduates will be held before the commencement ceremony from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Northern Lights Lounge in the Sargeant Student Center. All friends and family are invited to the reception and ceremony.

Commencement is a ceremonial event which includes the wearing of the traditional academic cap and gown by graduates and faculty. The cap is to be worn with the top parallel to the floor. The tassel is worn over the right temple until the degrees are conferred. No decorations should appear on the cap or gown. Honor medals denoting graduation with Distinction and High Distinction are the only adornments allowed. All students who participate in commencement are expected to dress in a manner that is in keeping with the occasion (no tennis shoes, shorts, etc.). Anyone under the influence of alcohol or other drugs will be asked to leave and will not be allowed to participate in the ceremonies.

Candidates will march and stand a good part of the time; thus, low-heeled, comfortable dress shoes are recommended. Since there are no secure areas to leave personal belongings, it is recommended that jackets, purses and other personal items be left with family members.

The Assembly Process

Degree candidates should report to the Eagle's Nest in the Sahlstrom Conference Center (in case of rain, report directly to the Sports Center) at 1 p.m. on Saturday, May 7, where you will receive an index card from the student marshal. This index card will include your name (write phonetic spelling on card), along with a number in the lower right hand corner. The number on the card represents your place in the procession. Do not lose this card. As you cross the stage during the ceremony, you will hand your name card to the reader at the top of the stairs who will announce your name.

Degree candidates will line up in front of the Bookstore in the hallway toward the Eagle's Nest. After you are lined up, please await the direction of the marshals to join the procession. Since the time is limited and the procession must start moving by 1:55 p.m., it is important that you arrive early.

The procession will be formed in ranks of two in the following order: Faculty; Associate Degree Candidates; Baccalaureate Degree Candidates; Platform Guests.

The Order of Events

The order of the general commencement ceremony is:

- Prelude
- Processional
- National Anthem
- Welcome from Chancellor Charles H. Casey
- Greetings from University Board of Regents
- Commencement Address
- Presentation of Candidates
- Conferring of Degrees
- Congratulatory Remarks from Alumni Association
- Speaking for the Class
- Passing the Torch
- Singing of Hail! Minnesota
- Recessional

These events are open to the public and no tickets are required. There is no limit to the number of guests that each graduate may have. The doors will open at approximately 1 p.m.

The Ceremony—Conferring of Degrees

A diploma folder is presented to each candidate participating in the ceremony. Official diplomas are mailed to the address you provided approximately two months after commencement.

Instructions for Receiving Your Diploma

As you march to the stage to receive your diploma, hand your name card (which you received from the student marshal before the ceremony) to the reader at the top of the stairs. One-by-one as your name is being read, proceed slowly across the stage to receive your diploma. After receiving the diploma, all candidates will return via the middle aisle to the same row they were originally seated in. Be seated. After all degrees have been conferred, it will be announced that the graduates may move their tassel from the right to the left side of their cap.

After the Ceremony

For the recessional, follow the student marshal out the north door of the building. Your families may join you outside, where it is a tradition for faculty to line up along the sidewalk to congratulate graduates.

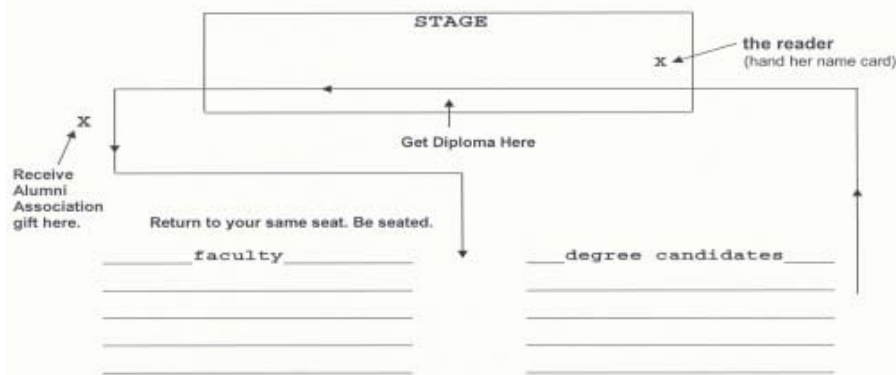

Items to Remember

1. Degree candidates must remain standing until after the National Anthem.
2. Male degree candidates must remove caps for the National Anthem. Watch the platform guests to see when to remove your cap and when to put it on again.
3. All degree candidates will receive a name card from the student marshal before the ceremony which will be handed to the reader (on stage) when you go to receive your diploma. Do not walk across the stage until your name has been read.
4. For the recessional, follow the student marshal out the north door of the gym.
5. Graduates or friends and family members of graduates who have questions related to disability accommodations for commencement are asked to contact Laurie Wilson in the Office for Students with Disabilities. The U of M, Crookston generally has ten accessible parking spaces available in the vicinity of Lysaker; ample floor space for wheelchairs, scooters, and walkers; opens the doors to the gymnasium at 1 p.m. in time to accommodate preferential seating needs; and has secured an ASL Interpreter for persons who are deaf or hard of hearing. If your concerns are not addressed with these accommodations, please e-mail (lwilson2@umn.edu) or call 218-281-8587.

PLEASE NOTE CEREMONY MAP BELOW:

To receive diploma, graduates should approach the stage via the right, outside aisle (follow the direction of the student marshals) and return to their seats via the middle aisle. Be seated after returning to your seat.

General Information

Disability Accommodations and Accessible Seating for Candidates and Guests. Contact disability services at 218-281-8587 at least two weeks prior to the ceremony to request the program in alternate format or other accommodations.

Parking for Graduates and Guests. Commencement parking is free. Ample parking is available in Lot A, near Sargeant Student Center; Lot G, behind Kiehle Building and the Library; Lot C, Lysaker Gymnasium; or around the Campus Mall.

Guest Seating. Guest seating areas are located in the bleachers on both sides of the gymnasium and in chairs on the floor behind the faculty and degree candidates. Guest seating areas will be open 60 minutes before the start of the ceremony.

Commencement Etiquette. University commencement ceremonies are special events for all involved. If you choose to participate, graduates are expected to remain for the entire ceremony.

Electronic Devices. As a courtesy to those around you and to our graduating students, turn off pagers and cellular phones during the ceremony. We also ask that you refrain from using noisemakers.

Degree Information. Expect the University to mail you your diploma about two months after you complete your degree requirements, unless you have a hold which prevents them from doing so. Check for holds on your record at onestop.umcrookston.edu/registration/clear_holds.htm. Notify the Registrar's Office (contact information below) when you clear a hold in order to receive your diploma.

Commencement Photos

A professional photographer has been contracted to take individual photos of graduates before and during the May 2011 commencement ceremony. All graduates are encouraged to have an optional posed photograph taken in Sahlstrom Conference Center prior to the commencement ceremony in Lysaker Gymnasium. The photographer will also take a photo of each candidate as he or she receives the diploma folder from the Chancellor at the ceremony. A few weeks after the ceremony, a proof of these photos and an order form will be mailed to each graduate. At that time, you may order photos from the photographer. Please note: audience members should avoid crowding the stage or aisle ways throughout the ceremony.

Other photos taken during the 2011 commencement ceremony by University Relations will be posted after the event in an online photo album. Visit the site often to remember your academic achievements and relive the celebration. Small Campus. Big Degree. — Campus Profile

Today the University of Minnesota, Crookston delivers 29 bachelor's degree, 18 minors, and more than 40 concentrations, including several online degrees, in the areas of agriculture and natural resources; business; liberal arts and education; and math, science and technology. A coordinate campus of the University of Minnesota, the Crookston campus offers prestigious U of M degrees in an affordable, close-knit campus setting. Students use top-level technology, have access to system-wide resources, and take an active role in unique, career-oriented learning and research.

As a four-year, public university with an enrollment of over 1,400 degree-seeking students, the Crookston campus proudly carries on a 100-year tradition of educational service to northwestern Minnesota. Since its establishment as an institution of higher learning in 1965 and its transition to offering baccalaureate degree programs in 1993, the campus equips all students and faculty with laptop computers, provides individual attention that leads to success, and offers a hands-on approach that puts students ahead of the competition.

The U of M, Crookston is a transfer-friendly, fully accredited university focused on teaching, research, and outreach. Our land-grant charge dates back to 1905 when the campus was home to the Northwest School of Agriculture, a residential high school established as part of the University of Minnesota research farm on land donated by railroad magnate James J. Hill.
