

PROVIDING HELP. CREATING HOPE. EMPOWERING LIVES.

For nearly a century, since 1919, Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, Inc. has been assisting the poor, protecting the vulnerable, empowering the broken, advocating for social justice and promoting human dignity.

Over the past 98 years, the agency evolved in response to the changing needs of the communities in Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara counties. Today, Catholic Charities is one of the largest human services' agencies in the three county area, and functions as the social service arm of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

The theme of this 2016-2017 Annual Report is "Empowering Lives," an extension of Catholic Charities' taglines: "Providing Help. Creating Hope." "Empower" means to make people stronger and more confident, especially in controlling their lives and claiming their rights.

We will be showing, in this Annual Report's photos and text, some ways in which Catholic Charities of Los Angeles helps to empower our clients' lives through our various programs and services, by helping to raise the human dignity of these individuals and families so they can overcome their hardships and set achievable goals for long-term stability and self-reliant futures.

The safety-net services of our 22 community centers and seven shelters are aimed at breaking the cycles of poverty, homelessness, illiteracy and violence in society by meeting our clients' basic, emergency needs and, then, guiding them toward self-sufficiency while, ultimately, empowering and transforming their lives.

Most of our community centers and shelters provide educational classes and life changing, empowering services including: nutrition; ESL; financial literacy; tutoring; adult education; GED preparation; computer classes; parenting workshops; resume preparation and job skills; homeless prevention; Senior services; healthy marriage tools; legal assistance; child abuse prevention; and linkages to other sources of community support.

In FY 2016-2017, Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, Inc. provided the help to our clients which created hope in them that they would be able to obtain what they want for themselves, making real our commitment to "Empowering Lives."

Dear Friends of Catholic Charities:

Pope Francis calls us to go to the "peripheries," to go to the margins of our society and to every place where people are suffering and in need.

That has always been the mission of Catholic Charities — to serve the ones who live in the peripheries.

The peripheries in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles are the place where the poor live. They are the bitter fruits of neglect, exploitation, and injustice. They are all the places that our society is ashamed of and would rather forget about.

Poverty is always both spiritual and material. Pope Francis talks about the "existential peripheries," where people are emotionally wounded and feel as if their life has no meaning and makes no difference. Here we are talking about those who are homeless, those caught in the webs of addiction, young people who are without work and losing hope.

It is our Christian duty to help, to always extend the love of Christ to anyone who is hurting. To follow Jesus Christ means we are called to serve others from the depths of our heart. Following Jesus means going, as Jesus did, to the places of pain and injustice, it the places where people feel forgotten and alone. Catholic Charities shows us the way — serving hundreds of thousands each year through countless programs and works of mercy.

This latest annual report provides details of these programs and good works. What we see in these pages is that Catholic Charities is the heart of the Church, alive in the peripheries.

But Catholic Charities cannot carry out its mission unless we carry out ours.

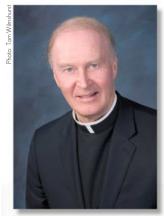

I pray that your hearts will be opened as you read this latest annual report and reflect on the great work that Catholic Charities is doing. We are doing so many good things for those on the peripheries. But we can be doing even greater things. This is the beautiful challenge that Our Lord puts before us.

I pray that all of us will find new ways to give generously to support the Catholic Charities mission of promoting the sanctity of every life, and building a society where all are welcome and all are treated with the dignity of the human person.

Entrusting your families to the tender care of Our Blessed Mother Mary, I pray that God grant you all peace and joy,

Charities

Dear Friends of Catholic Charities:

Catholic Charities reflects on another year of outreach to the poor and marginalized communities of the three counties of Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and Ventura. Because of the generosity of our Board, staff, volunteers and benefactors, we have been able to empower thousands of lives to move from destitution to self-sufficiency.

Pope Francis is constantly challenging society to serve the needs of the poor. He says in Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel) that "Each individual Christian and every community is called to be an instrument of God for the liberation and promotion of the poor, and for enabling them to be fully a part of society."

Catholic Charites has programs that serve those who live in the peripheries of our society. Elizabeth Ann Seton Residence, Good Shepherd Center for Homeless Women and Children, McGill Street House, Project Achieve and Angel's Flight are shelters that reach out to homeless individuals who are young, middle aged, old, male and female who are left on the streets trying to survive. Our staff are able to empower the homeless to become self-sufficient.

In addition to the homeless, Catholic Charities provides assistance to the homebound, unemployed, immigrants, refugees and abandoned. We appreciate, not only the staff, but also the volunteers who bring hope to those who feel hopeless. Catholic Charities is deeply grateful to our public and private donors who enable us the privilege to serve.

God bless,

CATHOLIC CHARITIES TACKLES HOMELESSNESS USING THE HOUSING FIRST APPROACH

- ◆ According to the 2017 Greater Los Angeles Homeless Count, 57,794 people were experiencing homelessness in Los Angeles County. The Central Coast Collaborative on Homelessness' 2017 Report stated there were 1,489 homeless individuals in Santa Barbara County. According to the 2017 Ventura County Homeless Count, there were 1,152 homeless people in Ventura County. Those three counties comprise the service area of Catholic Charities of Los Angeles.
- The Housing First approach to ending homelessness is part of HUD's Homeless Assistance programs. Housing First is a model that offers permanent, affordable housing as quickly as possible for individuals and families experiencing homelessness, and then provides the supportive services and connections to the community-based supports which people need to keep their housing and avoid returning to homelessness.

The Housing First approach is applied at the shelters and homeless programs of Catholic Charities of Los Angeles:

- ♦ San Pedro Region's Transition in Place Families (TIP) program, funded through the City of Long Beach, follows the Housing First model to quickly and successfully connect individuals and families, experiencing homelessness, to permanent supportive housing, without barriers to entry, such as sobriety treatment or service participant requirements, and without related preconditions that might lead to the program participant's termination from the project. Using a Transition-in-Place model, this project, facilitated out of Catholic Charities' Long Beach Community Services Center, provides assistance for each family to secure appropriate community-based housing, stabilized with case management and life-skills support, and offers up to eight months of rental subsidy, until the family is able to sustain economic self-reliance.
- ◆ The Crisis Housing program of Catholic Charities' Elizabeth Ann Seton Residence, in Long Beach, funded through LAHSA, applies the Housing First approach of accessing permanent housing, once families are placed in crisis housing. This program also provides housing assistance, case management and supportive services, responsive to individual or family needs, after an individual or family is housed.
- Catholic Charities' Good Shepherd Center for Homeless Women and Children's Hawkes Residence's Crisis and Bridge Housing for Individuals and Youth, located near Echo Park in Los Angeles and funded by LAHSA, implements the Housing First Approach to quickly and successfully connect homeless women to permanent housing without preconditions and barriers to entry, followed with supportive services.

Good Shepherd Center for Homeless Women and Children provides supportive services to help women maintain permanent housing.

Long Beach Community Services Center assists clients, through case management, to remain in their housing.

Elizabeth Ann Seton Residence provides housing assistance, case management and supportive services to clients who are in permanent housing.

Good Shepherd Center uses the Housing First approach to connect homeless women to permanent housing.

OUR LADY OF THE ANGELS PASTORAL REGION

Angel's Flight At Risk Youth Services' staff provide shelter for homeless, runaway and at risk youth, ten to 17 years of age, and a Safe Passages/Family Reunification Program for unaccompanied, undocumented minors.

El Santo Nino Community Services Center offers Adeste child care, MY CLUB after-school tutoring and mentoring for middle and senior high school youth, cultural and recreational activities, job coaching, and wellness programs for Seniors.

Good Shepherd Center for Homeless Women and Children provides emergency shelter with drop-in and mobile outreach programs, as well as transitional and Bridge housing with employment skills development and case management services.

St. Margaret's Center provides: groceries, sack lunches and senior food distribution; utility assistance; immigration processing; counseling; adult education; tutoring; CalFresh and MediCal applications; homeless programs; health screenings; workshops; and holiday programs.

St. Mary's Community Services Center offers light lunches for persons experiencing homelessness and supplemental groceries for low-income individuals and families.

St. Robert's Community Services Center offers a Weekend Food Program with brown bag lunches for the homeless and groceries for low-income, housed families.

SAN FERNANDO PASTORAL REGION

Catholic Charities' Glendale Community Services Center provides rental and utility assistance, case management and food pantry services.

Guadalupe Community Services Center in Canoga Park boasts an all-day pre-school for children in the area, mostly from low-income, Spanish-speaking families. It also provides sports and cultural activities for youth, and after-school tutoring.

Guadalupe Center offers important and essential English as a Second Language (ESL) classes, free of charge, for adults in the surrounding communities.

Accredited teachers enable adults to learn English as a Second Language at the Guadalupe Neighborhood Learning Center.

A dedicated volunteer has directed Catholic Charities' Loaves and Fishes II's community and poverty services program in Van Nuys for many years. The center helps many individuals and families by offering nourishing food, free of cost.

The Temporary Skilled Worker Center day laborer program at the Burbank Home Depot location is a collaborative project with the City of Burbank and offers an organized, safe venue for contractors and homeowners to engage temporary labor placement.

SAN GABRIEL PASTORAL REGION

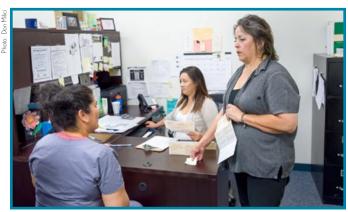

At Brownson House Community Services Center in East Los Angeles, a staff member gives a one hour nutrition class entitled "Mi Plato/ My Plate." The center also provides basic needs assistance with food, clothing, motel vouchers, transportation, utility and rental assistance.

Brownson House Community Services Center has support groups for women and the elderly, special events throughout the year, and a free lunch and summer program for youth, ages 7 to 12. A staff member calls Bingo games for senior citizens.

A homeless mother entertains her young daughter at McGill Street House, a transitional residence that is a collaborative program of Catholic Charities and the City of Covina.

Pomona Community Services Center, a collaboration between Catholic Charities and Inland Valley Hope Partners, provides a food pantry, homeless prevention and move-in assistance, case management and utilities' assistance, and a Christmas program.

San Juan Diego Community Services Center in El Monte provides basic needs assistance with food, clothing, motel vouchers, transportation, information and referral services, move-in assistance and utilities' subsidies.

Catholic Charities' clients in the El Monte area receive CalFresh application assistance and nutrition education workshops at San Juan Diego Community Services Center.

SAN PEDRO PASTORAL REGION

Elizabeth Ann Seton Residence, with a capacity of 44 individuals at a time, offers emergency and transitional shelter to homeless families, pregnant women, the disabled and the elderly, as well as family life skills' classes.

Elizabeth Ann Seton Residence moves homeless individuals and families from crisis situations to stability.

The Long Beach Community Services Center and the Pico Rivera Resource Center offer basic assistance with food, clothing, utilities, transportation, motel vouchers and linkages to community resources, with CalFresh application on site.

Long Beach Community Services Center offers case management and programs providing assistance to homeless families, as well as the Gatekeeper Project, which brings food, utility assistance and taxi vouchers to the frail elderly, so they can continue living in their own homes.

Project Achieve provides 6O to 9O-day emergency shelter to single men and women, 18 and older. The goal of the program is to move clients from "in crisis" to safe and stable housing and offers basic skills workshops and job and housing linkages.

Project Achieve receives funding from the Los Angeles Homeless Services Agency to provide Crisis Housing. All residents develop an Individualized Service Plan with their case manager, to review progress toward their goals and to develop new goals, as needed.

SANTA BARBARA PASTORAL REGION

The Moorpark Community Services Center and Moorpark Pantry Plus offer basic needs assistance with food, clothing, information and referrals, rental and utility assistance and holiday programs with gifts and grocery gift cards.

The Older Adult Services and Intervention System (OASIS) provides aging services, case management, in-home assessment, information and referrals, and also a holiday program to Seniors in Camarillo, Fillmore, Moorpark, Oxnard, Port Hueneme, Santa Paula and Ventura.

The Ventura Community Services Center has a food pantry and also provides information and referrals, rental and utility assistance, CalFresh and Covered California application assistance, as well as, holiday programs.

Santa Barbara Community Services Center offers case management, financial assistance, a food pantry, holiday programs, and individual and family counseling. It also provides a thrift store and gives vouchers to clients to use there for clothing and essential household goods.

Lompoc Community Services Center and Food Pantry offers case management, financial assistance and material services. Nutritious and supplemental food is also distributed through food pantries and mobile sites in Cuyama Valley, Guadalupe, Isla Vista and Sisquoc.

Santa Maria Community Services Center provides case management, financial assistance, food pantry and material services, as well as a Catholic Charities' thrift store.

ARCHDIOCESAN YOUTH EMPLOYMENT SERVICES (AYE)

A teen serves as an intern at Archdiocesan Youth Employment's central office where he assists with client intake, data entry, document preparation and general customer service.

A young woman graduated from This Way Ahead, AYE's partnership program with Gap, Inc., where she learned customer service skills for her permanent job with Banana Republic at The Grove location.

A young man is interning as a server at Cold Stone Creamery where he takes customer orders, prepares food and processes customer payment. Through AYE, he has gained transferable professional skills as well as valuable work experience.

CATHOLIC YOUTH ORGANIZATION (CYO)

Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) coordinates interscholastic athletics for over 17O Catholic schools with a selection of 2O athletic activities at Varsity, B and C levels. The quality program enhances youths' physical and mental development and maturity.

CYO is an after-school and weekend athletic program for Catholic elementary and junior high schools throughout Los Angeles County. It also provides a comprehensive coaching and officials' training and certification program.

CYO promotes and develops good sportsmanship, cooperation, camaraderie, respect, responsibility and the acceptance of both victory and defeat. The program targets boys and girls, ages eight to 14, many of whom are considered to be "at risk."

EMPLOYMENT SUPPORT PARTNERSHIP

Catholic Cat

Catholic Charities' Employment Support Partnership program, formerly called the Central Intake Unit, provided comprehensive case management, life skills workshops, microenterprise development, senior services, and nutrition training for refugees and asylees.

Employment Support Partnership (ESP), under contract with the Office of Refugee Resettlement, offered training and state licensing assistance to refugee women to open their own home-based childcare businesses, and also provided food, utility and rental assistance.

ESP, under contract with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, assisted refugees and human trafficking survivors, who have been in the United States for less than five years, in developing job readiness skills prior to obtaining employment.

ESPERANZA IMMIGRANT RIGHTS PROJECT

Esperanza Immigrant Rights Project offered legal services and Know Your Rights classes to adults, detained at Adelanto Immigration Detention Facility, preparing them for their immigration cases and trying to find them pro bono legal representation.

Catholic Charities' Esperanza program staff offered high quality legal services to unaccompanied, abused, abandoned and neglected children, both in custody and released from custody, in the greater Los Angeles area.

With funding from the Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR), Division of Unaccompanied Children's Services, Esperanza attorneys represented children who have no lawful immigration status, parents or legal guardians in this country and who are in ORR custody.

IMMIGRATION SERVICES

Immigration's services included: family reunification; Visa petitions; Special Immigrant/Religious Worker petitions; Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals; Adjustment of Status; Advance Parole; and also naturalization, employment and travel documents.

Catholic Charities' Immigration Services' clients were 83% Latino. Services included: citizenship certificates; applications and classes; Green Card renewals; passport photos; and immigrant document translations.

Immigration Services, recognized by the Board of Immigration Appeals, emphasized family reunification, English language acquisition, housing and job training. Services were available in Spanish, Vietnamese, Chinese, Arabic and Armenian.

REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT

Refugee Resettlement provided family reunification, case management, airport reception, orientation, financial assistance, assessments, referrals, home visits, tutoring, and job placement to refugees, Asylum Granted Clients and Trafficking Victims.

Refugee Resettlement offered newly arrived refugees a full range of services including ESL classes, mentorships, and life skills and job readiness workshops. Without this program, newly arrived refugees would end up on public assistance.

Volunteers were utilized as Job Mentors and English Conversation Partners by Refugee Resettlement to help clients find employment, understand American job culture, connect with established employment networks and raise communication confidence.

Good Shepherd Center for Homeless Women and Children empowers its homeless clients by providing emergency shelter, drop-in and mobile outreach programs, and transitional residences with supportive services.

Major Donors

Since 1919, Catholic Charities has served the needy and impoverished residents of Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara counties by providing emergency food and shelter, case management and supportive services. All programs are designed to empower clients to become more self-sufficient. With the financial support of individual donors, churches, foundations, corporations, organizations and federal, state and local governments, as well as in collaboration with other social service agencies, Catholic Charities of Los Angeles rendered many essential and empowering services to our clients during the past fiscal year (July 1, 2016 through June 30, 2017). Without the help of these dedicated partners, the work of Catholic Charities could not continue.

WAYS TO SUPPORT THE WORK OF CATHOLIC CHARITIES

The work of Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, including our financial and service delivery practices, is externally validated by the Council on Accreditation for Children and Family Services. Our commitment to accountability and transparency is authenticated by our coveted 4-Star Charity rating from Charity Navigator, an independent charity evaluator.

Our community centers continue to witness a rise in the number of people who struggle to survive and who seek critical basic needs assistance. While Catholic Charities has significantly developed its programs and services over the years, we still face considerable challenges in meeting our clients' growing population and needs. Here are some ways you can assist us in serving our vulnerable clients:

- ◆ DONATE ONLINE Visit www.CatholicCharitiesLA.org and click the red "Donate Online" button to make secure online donations or explore the "How You Can Help" section to learn about easy ways to support Catholic Charities.
- ◆ Join the Joyful Givers Circle Make a monthly pledge commitment as part of this group of dedicated contributors.
- ◆ DONATE YOUR OLD VEHICLE Hand over the keys to your car, truck, R.V. or boat and Catholic Charities will receive 80% of the sales revenue. Call (855) 370-4483 or visit our website: www.CatholicCharitiesLA.org/how-you-can-help/donate-a-vehicle.
- ◆ Have Your EMPLOYER MATCH YOUR GIFT Contact your company's Human Resources Department to obtain a matching gift form.
- ◆ Make a Memorial or Tribute Gift Honor someone special by making a donation in his or her name.
- ◆ SUPPORT THROUGH PLANNED GIVING Give through wills and trusts, charitable gift annuities, life insurance, appreciated securities, real estate, cash and other property. Visit www.CatholicCharitiesLA.org/plannedgiving to discover the variety of charitable choices and calculate what works for you.
- ◆ GIVE TO THE FUND FOR THE FUTURE ENDOWMENT Become a member of the Fund for the Future Society by contributing to Catholic Charities' long-term endowment.
 Through estate gift and life income programs, the endowment expands the agency's financial base so that it will continue to grow and meet the increasing needs of the communities Catholic Charities serves.

Catholic Charities' Moorpark Community Services Center in Ventura County hosts an annual "New Shoes to Begin the School Year" program as well as special holiday events for clients.
