Office of the Drug Director
Kirk Lane
Drug Director

It is a privilege and honor for me, as State Drug Director, to welcome you to the 2019 Arkansas Drug Prevention Summit. This year's conference brings together hundreds of attendees from all over the country to participate in events and sessions that further development in the field of drug prevention.

As we well know, drug abuse is a serious public health problem that affects almost every community and family in some way. Each day in our country, drug abuse causes serious illnesses, homelessness, violence and even death. The best way to combat this epidemic is through education and prevention.

The Arkansas Drug Prevention Summit brings together relevant field experts, professors and students alike, providing an opportunity to report, present, share and discuss prevention achievements, issues and challenges.

I salute you for serving diligently in your roles at the forefront of your profession. I am also extremely confident this conference will provide you with an important forum to network, empower and innovate.

I am looking forward to a highly informative meeting and getting to know many new colleagues working in a field so dear to all of us.

Kindest Regards,

Kirk Lane
Arkansas State Drug Director

2019 Arkansas Prevention Summit

STATE OF ARKANSAS
ASA HUTCHINSON
GOVERNOR

May 30, 2019

As Governor, I am pleased to welcome you to the annual Arkansas Prevention Summit, hosted by the University of Arkansas at Little Rock and MidSOUTH.

Alcohol and drug abuse in our nation has reached epidemic stages, and it is essential that community members launch unified prevention education efforts to eliminate the demand for drugs. The Arkansas Prevention Summit offers citizens the opportunity to demonstrate their pledge to drug-free lifestyles and encourages attendees to participate in drug prevention education activities, not only during this event, but year round, making a visible statement of dedication to a drug-free state.

I commend each of you for your commitment to Arkansas's future through the Arkansas Prevention Summit. On behalf of the State of Arkansas, best wishes for a memorable event and continued success!

Sincerely,

2019 Arkansas Prevention Summit Keynote Speakers

Kirk Lane is the State Drug Director. He began his law enforcement career in 1982. In 1986, he went to work for the Pulaski County Sheriff's Office for 22 years rising to the rank of Captain. His assignments during this time period include Patrol, Narcotics, Investigations, SWAT, and Honor Guard. In January of 2009, Lane retired from Pulaski County Sheriff's Office as the Investigation Division Commander and was appointed the Chief of Police of the Benton Police Department. He has attended the University of Virginia and University of Arkansas at Little Rock. He is a graduate of the Arkansas Law Enforcement Academy, the Drug Enforcement Administration's Drug Commander's Academy, and the FBI National Academy 197th session. He currently serves on boards representing Arkansas for the Regional Organized Crime Information Center, and is the Chairman of the Arkansas Chief's Association Legislative Committee. Director Lane also serves on advisory boards for the Criminal Justice Institute, the Arkansas Prescription Monitoring Program (PMP), and the Arkansas Alcohol and Drug Coordinating Council. Director Lane is an active member of the Arkansas State working group for Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention and received the 2012 Marie Interfaith Leadership Award for his work in this area.

General Arthur T. Dean became the Chairman and CEO of Community Anti-Drug Coalitions of America (CADCA) on August 31, 1998. His responsibilities as Chairman and CEO include providing strategic direction, diversifying and increasing funding, leading the board, being the primary spokesman for the organization and overseeing the operations and personnel of CADCA.

Before joining CADCA, he spent 31 years in the U.S. Army. He retired on August 31, 1998, at the grade of Major General. During his time in the Army, General Dean served around the world. He saw combat in the Republic of Vietnam and Saudi Arabia. He was a U.S. Army and Republic of Vietnam Senior Parachutist and an Army Ranger. He possesses numerous awards with the highest being two awards of the U.S. Army Distinguished Service Medal.

General Dean also is the 2016 recipient of the National Conference on Citizenship – prestigious Franklin Award for Citizen of the Year.

General Dean has served as a member of numerous boards to include the Executive Council of the Atlanta Area Boy Scouts of America; member of the Defense Science Board Human Resources Task Force; chairman of the Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training (MCTFT) Advisory Committee; co-chair and member, Advisory Commission, Drug Free Communities (DFC) Support Program, Executive Office of the President; member of the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism (NIAAA) Advisory Council; member of the Executive Committee (EXCOM) of the National Action Alliance for Suicide Prevention; and member, Board of Directors, The Madeira School. He currently serves as a member, National Advisory Council on Drug Abuse, National Institutes of Health (NIH) and Community Anti-Drug Coalitions of America Board of Directors, for which he serves as Chairman.

General Dean received his undergraduate degree in history from Morgan State University in 1967 and his master's degree in management and supervision from Central Michigan University in 1977. He is also a graduate of the Stanford University's Advanced Management Program and the U.S. Army's War College.

Henny Lasley, Executive Director, is one of the co-founders of Smart Colorado, founded in 2013, Smart Colorado is the only citizen led non-profit, non-partisan organization focused solely on protecting the public health and safety of Colorado youth as marijuana is commercialized and increasingly available. Smart Colorado provides information to policy makers, parents and adults, youth-serving organizations and the press about the impacts of commercialized marijuana. Henny was appointed to the role of Executive Director in 2016. She has been appointed by the State Marijuana Enforcement Division to serve on the stakeholder group focused on rulemaking for labeling and warning statements of marijuana products. Additionally, Henny serves on the State Health Department's Advisory Committee for the Healthy Kids Colorado Survey and is an active member of the Denver Partnership for Youth Success coalition. Henny speaks locally, nationally and internationally to health and prevention professionals, as well as policymakers and parents about Colorado's lessons learned and about today's marijuana and marijuana products and the impacts on kids.

2019 Arkansas Prevention Summit Keynote Speakers

Mitchell Moore is a Substance Abuse Professional who communicates very clear solutions in my own warm, open, caring style, to audiences of all ages. He has extensive training in substance abuse prevention with a specialty in tobacco prevention and underage drinking prevention.

He continues to be involved with local, regional, state and national issues improving substance abuse recovery and prevention.

He has extensive experience as an Executive Director of a charitable organization, managing programs and staff, overseeing statewide initiatives, writing grants, managing performance-based contracts and working with a team of professionals. He has many years of experience working with youth in both prevention and recovery settings.

Dolka Michelle Zelaya, is a Certified Prevention Specialist through the Prevention Credentialing Consortium of Georgia (PCCG), and she is the Project Coordinator for the National Hispanic and Latino Prevention Technology Transfer Center (PTTC). Zelaya firmly believes in the power of prevention through the extensive use of Evidence-Based Practices, comprehensive policies, we too can help our youth, their families and our communities to become healthy and productive.

Her seventeen years of experience working in the prevention field with minorities and high-risk populations is a vivid proof that prevention works! Zelaya has provided leadership for prevention programs at local, state and now national levels. From 2016- 2018 she worked at Georgia State University- School of Social Work and the ¡VIDA-LIFE! program. A health initiative for Latino Young Adults to prevent and reduce HIV, substance abuse and Hepatitis C.

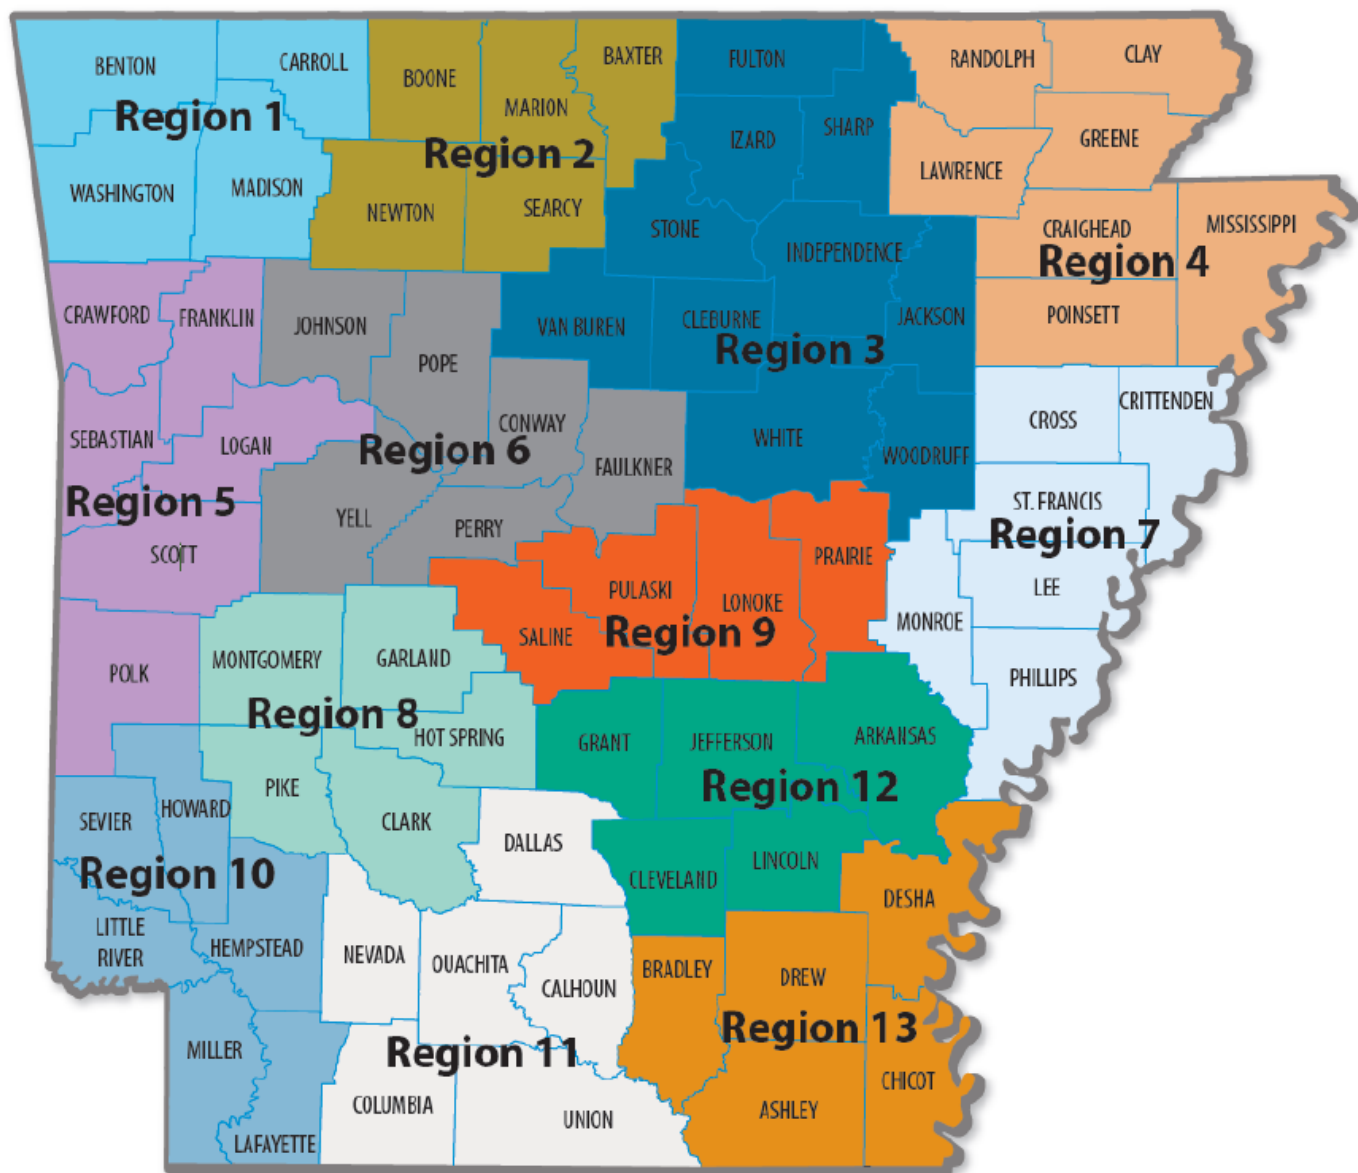

From 2013 - 2015 Zelaya also, worked as a Director of the Garrett Lee Smith Youth Suicide Prevention Programs; with the Georgia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities, where she successfully provided leadership, direction, and administration of a SAMHSA-funded Statewide Youth Suicide Prevention Project. From 2002 to 2012 she worked as a Director of the Prevention Department at the Clinic for Education, Treatment and Prevention of Addiction (CETPA) gaining expertise on creating, tailoring and implementing prevention programs among the Latino Community. As a youth educator/advocate she has done extensive work with alcohol, tobacco, substance abuse, and partnered with non-profit organizations, providing training, guidance and managing federal grants at the local/state level, creating community coalitions and task force both locally and statewide. Also, she has worked in a variety of settings including elementary, middle, high schools and universities, prevention clubhouses, summer camps, as well as those affected by suicide, the LGBTQ community, Latino communities, youth community, and military families. Zelaya serves on the Prevention Credentialing Consortium of Georgia and The Latino LINQ, Board of Directors.
