Camp Perry Opens National Matches with Resounding First Shot

By Craig Shoup, Fremont News-Messenger

ERIE TOWNSHIP - Cris Stone, vice chair for the Civilian Marksmanship Program at Camp Perry, said there are three “ping” sounds that link Camp Perry, Augusta, Georgia, and Omaha, Nebraska.

Stone, who opened the national competition matches at Camp Perry on Monday with the traditional First Shot Ceremony, said everyone is probably familiar with the ping a baseball makes off a metal bat during the College Baseball World Series.

Some are familiar with the ping sound a golf ball makes off a metal club at August National Golf Course, home of the Masters golf tournament.

“But the ping of an aluminum bat is not nearly the authoritative and resonant ping of a clip being ejected out of an M-1 rifle,” said Stone.

Nothing sounds quite like the boom coming from a rifle sending a piece of lead barreling several hundred yards away at a speed of hundreds of feet per second.

“There are only a few places known only by their locations rather than what happens there,” said Stone. “And that’s because of their history.

“College baseball players talk about the road to Omaha, or they say, ‘If we win this one we can go to Omaha,’” stone continued. “These places are famous destinations, because of the greatness of what has happened there.”

National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches

The National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are the annual U. S. National Championship in service pistol and service rifle shooting. The National Trophy Matches were established by federal law in 1903, are still conducted under the statutory authority of the U. S. Code (Title 36 USC § 40725-40727) and are now governed by the Civilian Marksmanship Program. Shooters from all over the U. S., civilian and military, test their skills and compete to determine the nation's best service pistol and rifle shooters. To fulfill the CMP's statutory responsibility to "instruct citizens in marksmanship," the National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are open to all shooters regardless of skill level. Beginners compete and learn while shooting side by side with champions. The tradition of the matches and their competitions for prestigious national trophies celebrate marksmanship excellence and provide incentives to develop individual marksmanship skills, equipment and a national competition infrastructure. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches are held in conjunction with the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships through a partnership between the two organizations. The Ohio National Guard and U. S. Army Reserves also provide vital support for the matches. The CMP National Trophy Rifle and Pistol Matches and the NRA National Rifle and Pistol Championships are collectively known as the NATIONAL MATCHES.

First Shot Ceremony Continued

Before he squeezed the trigger and sent a bullet barreling into the distance at Rodriguez Range to officially open the national matches, Stone said Camp Perry is one of those places, like Augusta and Omaha, that is known more by name, then the event that takes place.

Stone, a West Point, cadet, once shot at Camp Perry, saying it was a goal for many of the cadets to qualify for their team, because that meant they would shoot at famed Camp Perry.

“I knew if I made the intercollegiate team, then I would go to a place called Camp Perry,” Stone said. “I didn’t know Camp Perry, but I knew it had to be a special place.”

Many war heroes have shot at Camp Perry over the 113 years of its existence.

Stone’s shot is the latest in a long line of openings to the national matches where close to 4,000 shooters from around the world will compete in air rifle and pistol matches.

Mr. Cris Stone opted to fire his own M1 Garand for the First Shot Ceremony.

First Civilian Team in History Takes Home Gold Cup at National Trophy Pistol Matches

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

Team members Jon Shue, Tom Willats, Neil Roberts and Cecil Rhodes made history in the 2019 NTT event. Presenter: Col Randall Shears

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – “Civilian teams are not supposed to win the Gold Cup,” said Christopher “Neil” Roberts, smiling and having lighthearted conversation with the other members of his North Carolina Rifle and Pistol Association team – all still in shock at what they had just accomplished earlier that day.

He was referring to the award given to the Overall Scoring team in the National Trophy Team (NTT) Match fired during the Civilian Marksmanship Program’s (CMP) 2019 National Trophy Pistol Matches. The NTT is a prestigious event, won every year since 1920 by skillful military teams – that is, until this year.

Breaking the near 100-year history of the event, Roberts, along with teammates Cecil Rhodes, Jon Shue and Tom Willats, claimed the overall spot and the accompanying Gold Cup after outshooting both civilian and military assembled teams, with a combined score of 1109-30x.

“It was shocking,” said Willats, 56, of Raleigh. “It was really exciting.”

It was only just prior to the National Matches that they had discussed putting together a team for Camp Perry. The men have been acquainted with each other through competition for years, especially from the Eastern CMP Travel Games held annually at Camp Butner in North Carolina, where Shue and Willats have won the Pistol Team Match together in the past.

Regulars at the National Matches for over 20 years now, the men thought it would be fun to assemble a North Carolina team to fire in the NTT Match – and the melded chemistry of the group turned out to be more powerful than they had realized.

“We weren’t even sure who was going to be shooting until we were starting the match,” Roberts, 46, of Charlotte, joked. “But it worked out.”

It was his first time shooting the pistol team match at Camp Perry, serving as the “new shooter” (that is, new to the match) that is required for the NTT. Finally set with their team, the crew came into the match with only a goal of beating the other state association team, certainly not the mindset of taking home the ultimate prize.

“We were hoping to win the civilian part, the Oglethorpe Cup, then as we got to talking, we thought, ‘We might be in this thing...’” Roberts explained with a hearty laugh.

And, of course they were in it. The team had the talent, with all four members having earned Distinguished Service Pistol Badges years ago and having marksmen who had competed in the NTT before, aware of its unique challenges.

Rhodes, 62, of Clayton, who has been coming to Camp Perry for the last 22 years, had only fired in the team match once before and was let down by its outcome. This year, he picked the right time to try it again and credits his team for giving him a second chance.

“These guys carried me all the way. It was actually my worst match of the day, but these guys shot so well that it actually pushed us over the top, so it was really great,” he said with a smile. “I’m grateful to Jon for letting me shoot again. I had fun.”

Having now reminded the competitive shooting community that anything really is possible on the sacred grounds of Camp Perry, the guys think more civilian teams will sign up for the NTT in the future, and the men from the Tarheel State will be ready for them – already set on defending their title at next year’s event with fresh recruits in the works.

In other National Pistol events, team member Jon Shue, 38, not only took home the Gold Cup Trophy and the Oglethorpe Trophy

(the team's original aspiration), but also a slew of other hardware for his individual performances throughout the National Matches, including the Military Police Corps Trophy as the highest scoring individual in the NTT.

In addition to that, he was the overall winner in the CMP EIC Pistol Match and reached another first and personal achievement he's been after for years – the overall win in the National Trophy Individual (NTI) event, with a Camp Perry personal best score of 292-16x. For his win, he received the General Custer Trophy.

"It's pretty amazing. It's been a long time coming," he said. "It's one of those things where you shoot for it, shoot for it, shoot for it, and then one day you shoot your personal best. And that's what happened."

Shue also took home the Citizen Military Pistol Trophy as the High Civilian in the NTI and the Anheuser Busch Trophy as the High Civilian in the NTI-NTT Aggregate.

Other outstanding performances during the National Trophy Pistol Matches included SFC Adam Sokolowski, 40, of the Army Marksmanship Unit (AMU), who fired a score of 388-13 for the overall win in the President's Pistol event.

William Thompson, 67, of El Paso, TX, won the M9 EIC Pistol Match fired during the Small Arms Firing School by just one point – collecting a score of 261-3x.

Sam Kwon, 19, of New York, NY, nearly swept the Junior events, claiming the .22 Rimfire Pistol, the President's Pistol Match (for the second time) and received the G.P. Perry DeFino Trophy for his win in the Junior Individual Match for the fourth time in his career.

Team member Jon Shue looks on as team members shoot the NTT Pistol Course of Fire.

He also teamed up with the Overall Junior Pistol competitor of the matches, Heather Powers, 19, of West Falls, NY, in the Junior Team event to earn the top spot for the second year with a score of 545-15x.

Devin LaCross, 17, of Jackson, NJ, topped the CMP EIC Service Pistol Junior competitors, with a score of 281-4x.

New and Familiar Faces Top Standings During National Air Gun Matches at Camp Perry

By Ashley Brugnone, CMP Writer

CAMP PERRY, Ohio – The Civilian Marksmanship Program’s (CMP) National Air Gun events, fired each year alongside the National Trophy Pistol and Rifle Matches, gives experienced competitors and those simply looking for a fun challenge the rare opportunity to compete on a national level. With a variety of air rifle and air pistol competitions designed to accommodate most ages and abilities, everyone is welcome to come and give their best shot at becoming a champion.

Winning the 60 Shot Air Pistol Championship was Javier Medina, 52, of Morouis, PR, with a score of 566-13x. He also outshot second place competitor Scott Beyer, 47, of Lebanon, IL, by just one point for the win. Medina went on to also be the top competitor in the 30 Shot Air Pistol event, with a score of 287-7x.

High Woman of the 60 Shot event was Shelly Liu, 49, of Cary, NC, as Sam Kwon, 20, of New York, NY, claimed the High Junior title. Ben Amonette, 64, of Radford, VA, finished as the High Senior and fourth overall with a score of 560-12x.

Ronald Morales, 62, of Rocklin, CA, fired a score of 369-6x to top the 40 Shot Air Pistol Match.

In 60 Shot Air Rifle, the ladies led as Samantha Shultz, 17, from Fort Wayne, IN, claimed the top spot by one point, with a score of 611.9. She beat out fellow female competitor Abi Winegarden, 36, of Pittsboro, NC, who fired a score of 610.2. Junior Claudia Muzik, 13, of Green Springs, OH, finished in the third place position, with her score of 601.8.

Winegarden and Nicholas VanRyswyk, 17, of Coopersville, MI, fired exact scores in the 30 Shot Air Rifle Standing event, compiling scores of 300-20x. Jacob Day, 14, of Columbus, GA, trailed by just one point – having dropped a point in his first round of 10 shots and ending with 299-20x.

SFC Brandon Green, 34, of the Army Marksmanship Unit, earned the overall win in the AiR-15 Challenge, impressively only dropping two points for a score of 398-14x. He narrowly beat out competitor Brad Schoenemann, 19, of Lodi, WI, who earlier in the week had accompanied Green on the firing line during the President’s Rifle event, claiming the High Junior title.

During the Challenge, competitors fire in a 20 Shot Match using AiR-15 lead pellet air guns that mirror the look of highpower service rifles. Unlike previous years, where the Top 20 would compete in a shoulder-to-shoulder elimination Shoot Off, the Highest Scoring competitor of the event was named the winner.

In Bench League competition results, Rodney Snyder, 63, of Fremont, OH, overtook the AiR-15 match by firing a score of 309.2. Larry Kiraly, 66, of Perrysburg, OH, led the sporter match with a score of 314.7, as Philip Edwards, 71, of Marblehead, OH, earned the precision win, with a score of 319.7.

Thomas Wonderly, 73, of Portage, OH, led the 40 Shot Vintage Air Rifle Pneumatic Sniper Match, with a score of 394-9x.

A Top Center Shot competition was also held during the 30 Shot Standing Rifle and Pistol matches, where the competitors firing the top eight closest shots to center receive monetary prizes, based on the number of entries. In pistol, Glenda Hurt, 48, of Red Oak, IA, received $210 for earning the closest shot, while Frank Baumgartner, 16, of Fort Wayne, IN, received $51 for the closest rifle shot.
