United Way of Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey

In 2021, United Way of Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey celebrates 100 years. What began as a community chest in 1921, UWGPSNJ has transformed into a unique organization focused on fighting poverty and expanding opportunity throughout a nine-county footprint. As we reflect with great pride on our progress to date, we must offer our most sincere thanks to you, our United Way supporters, who give so generously to fuel our mission. We are most grateful for your continued support and look forward to launching into our next 100 years with your partnership!

United Way's Tocqueville Society is a national network of extraordinary philanthropists who contribute $10,000 or more annually to United Way. It's a network of the most committed donors that make a meaningful investment by helping our communities thrive. Tocqueville Society members' generosity and support help drive measurable results and greater impact in our region. These members embody the spirit of philanthropy and for that, we are most grateful.
