ABOUT US

The International Polo Club Palm Beach (IPC) is one of the most premier polo destinations in the world. It hosts the greatest high-goal teams and the most prestigious polo tournaments in the United States. World-renowned players and polo enthusiasts alike come to Wellington, Florida each winter season to enjoy their love of the sport in the most prominent and well-equipped polo facility the sport has to offer.

Spanning nearly 250 acres, IPC is the largest and most spectator-friendly polo facility in the United States. It is also home to an elite semi-private club. Players pilot ponies at speeds that can reach 35 miles per hour across a pitch the size of nine football fields. IPC also hosts a range of other outdoor field sports including rugby, field hockey, and soccer. In 2017, the Florida Sports Foundation named IPC the Large Market Sports Venue of the Year.

Polo Season

Created with players and spectators in mind, IPC includes seven state-of-the-art tournament fields. They can accommodate multiple games simultaneously, ensuring that the action continues from the first to the last game of the day. All polo matches are open to the public, with free admission Monday through Saturday.

SUNDAY POLO

The Florida polo season runs from January through the end of April. IPC offers a variety of ticket and hospitality options for our Sunday feature matches. Gates open at 12 p.m. on Sundays with matches beginning at 3 p.m.

Green Seats

Spread out over three sections (south, center, and north), Green Seats are situated along the field closest to the action. Full service bars are located on the north and south ends of the section.

Box Seats

Located above the stadium seats, the VIP box seats offer an impressive view of the action. These exclusive boxes can each seat eight. While the boxes are typically purchased as a set of seats, there are a limited number of individual box seats available for each match.

The Pavilion

The Pavilion's brunch features an ever-changing array of delicious items spread out over various stations. With a fun atmosphere and a field-side view of the polo match, The Pavilion is a prime ticket to the action.

Tailgate

On either side of The Pavilion, tailgate tents are set up for polo fans to enjoy a more fun and relaxed experience on Sunday. Reserve one of the coveted 10x10-foot high peak tents for the season and receive 12 tickets for each match to invite your friends and family to join you.
