

The Purcell School
for young musicians

SPRING
2020

EVENTS

WELCOME

The Purcell School is one of the world's finest schools for young musicians aged 10 to 18. Based in Hertfordshire, just outside London, the school provides a rounded education with music at its heart to around 180 talented students, most of whom go on to the top conservatoires and universities for music, many with scholarships. Whilst at Purcell, students share a common bond in their passion for music with a community boasting creativity and mutual support. Alumni include Oliver Knussen CBE; Catrin Finch; Yevgeny Sudbin; BBC Young Musician of the Year winners, Nicholas Daniel, Lara Melda and Martin James Bartlett and two-time Grammy winner Jacob Collier. We look forward to sharing our work with you whether you attend an event in school, in London, elsewhere or online.

Paul Hoskins

Director of Music

"I am very proud to be a Patron of The Purcell School, which provides such excellent opportunities for young musicians to achieve their goals. From my own experience of a specialist musical education, I know that really dedicated musical pupils will flourish in the specialised environment of The Purcell School.

The school's supportive family atmosphere allows pupils to immerse themselves in their musical studies alongside other talented young musicians, and to get closer to the heart of their music. I am very pleased to be able to support the school, and to help as many talented young musicians as possible to enjoy the opportunities available."

Vladimir Ashkenazy

Patron of The Purcell School

"I am blown away by the commitment, skill and infectious energy of the remarkable young musicians at The Purcell School.

The School is a vibrant place where creativity and discipline go hand in hand, providing specialist training for musicians of the future, alongside an excellent general education. It gives me great hope for the future of the music profession when I hear what these young people are capable of."

Sir Simon Rattle, CBE

President of The Purcell School

THE PURCELL SCHOOL CELEBRATES OLIVER KNUSSEN

The Purcell School for Young Musicians presents a whole day of stunning music-making, with four ambitious concerts given by over 100 outstanding Purcell students, staff, alumni and guests. Oliver Knussen was a Purcell student before he became the famous, beloved giant of the music world. These programmes honour his memory and all he did to promote music in the school, in the UK and throughout the world. Three daytime recitals in the Purcell Room and an orchestral concert in the QEH in the evening all showcase music with links to Knussen, as well as Beethoven's 250th anniversary. Sonya Knussen, the composer's daughter and a Purcell alumna, narrates Britten's Young Person's Guide.

"The Purcell School is an extraordinary place full of truly extraordinary young people. It is our privilege to nurture some of the world's most talented young musicians and many of them go on to have celebrated careers of international significance.

We provide both an excellent academic and musical education for pupils aged 9 to 18, with the majority of our pupils being full-time boarders.

The Friends of The Purcell School play a vital role in supporting these young people and, in doing so, significantly influence the future of music for generations to come. I would like to invite you to join the Purcell family and look forward to welcoming you to the School in the future." - Principal, Paul Bambrough
