

2021 CHILDREN'S CATALOGUE

'YOUR WORD IS A LAMP FOR MY FEET, A LIGHT ON MY PATH.'

Psalm 119:105

This season has certainly been one where I've found going back to God's Word hugely comforting and helpful, and I'm really pleased to notice a strong theme to our new releases this season.

We're offering promises of God from Scripture to even our very youngest readers with the delightful Tonight and You Are, then The Incredible Power of God's Word from Joyce Meyer – packing more than 200 Bible verses that speak into specific feelings and situations. We are helping our children explore how God's Word can offer help and comfort from an early age.

We're also very excited to release the long-anticipated NIV Children's Bible The God Files: the first full text NIV Bible with additional material for children 7+. This has been a labour of love for Andy Robb and our Bibles team over the past three years and it is well worth the wait!

Meanwhile, in a very timely book, Krish and Miriam Kandiah explore the racial diversity of the Bible with Whistlestop Tales. They have produced such fun and creative interpretations of Bible stories, exploring characters in a whole new way. I've never seen the story of Ruth explored from such a unique angle – and it's one I know quite well! Andy Gray has brought the project to life with his illustrations, and we've got a book that will feel like familiar territory to a lot of youngsters in the David Walliams/ Mr Gum/Treehouse series reading stage.

And later in the autumn we introduce a new kid on the block: Bobby Dean. Aled Jones has created a loveable role model for younger children and early readers in this delightful adventure series beginning with Bobby Dean Saves Christmas.

Thank you for your encouragement and support as we've launched the list in the past year. We've been thrilled at the success so far and we look forward to the many adventures to come – there's lots to be excited about!

As a parent, I've been challenged recently about the need to model my everyday Christian life to my children – to let them see what goes on in a 'quiet time' or how I pray when I hear a friend is sick or I am sad about an article on the news, or even how I respond when I can't find the car keys!

For me, using Scripture to speak comfort, hope and challenge in certain situations is one way of using the Bible; it's not the only way, but it is a good accompaniment to exploring the full story of Scripture. And this little book is a real help in encouraging my children to do the same.

With The Incredible Power of God's Word, Joyce Meyer has taken forty feelings and situations that children experience and she weaves in stories of Bible characters with her own prayers and experiences to offer Bible passages that speak into the situation.

This brightly packaged and fun-looking book packs a substantial punch! It equips children to turn to God using the Bible. I think there will be a good number of parents and carers who will benefit from dipping into this book alongside their little ones too!

Fear

When I am afraid, I put my trust in you.

—PSALM 56:3 NIV

We all feel afraid sometimes. Even Jesus felt afraid. But when Jesus lives inside of you, you don't have to be scared, because He is always with you. Maybe you're feeling afraid because you are going to a new school or you don't like being alone in the dark. Maybe it's because your mom or dad have gone out for the night. Any time you start to feel afraid, all you have to do is ask Jesus to be with you, and He can take that fear away!

Hi! I'm Daniel. I love praying to God and putting my trust in Him. When I had to spend a night in a lions' den because the king didn't want people praying to God, it was scary. But I knew God would protect me, and He did! You can give all your fears to God. He will always be with you.

I prayed to the Lord
and he answered me.
He freed me from
all my fears.

—PSALM 34:4 NLT

God hears my prayers, and He takes away all my fears.

Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord!

PSALM 31:24

*God is with me and He helps me.
I'm sure of it!*

The Lord is my light and my salvation: whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

—PSALM 27:1

God brings light to dark places and helps me to not be afraid.

The Bible has a
lot to say about fear.
Check it out!

"Don't be afraid for I am with
you. Don't be discouraged, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help
you. I will hold you up with my victorious right hand."

—ISAIAH 41:10 NLT

I do not have to be afraid because God is with me. He is on my side, and He makes me strong.

"This is my command—
be strong and courageous!
Do not be afraid or discouraged. For the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

—JOSHUA 1:9 NLT

I am strong and brave because God is always with me.

We have had so much fun putting this together!

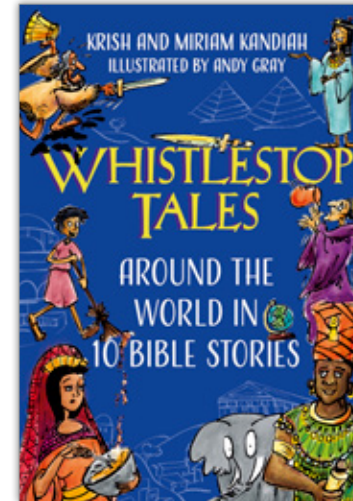

When Krish and Miriam approached us with the idea to represent Bible characters from around the world and showcase the racial diversity of God's people, the stories were already coming together. Then as they refined their storytelling with a children's expert, Andy Gray began to bring the characters to life. The end result is so fresh and energetic; the tales bring insight into Bible characters that even us adults will enjoy, and each story encourages you to go back to the Bible text to read it for yourself.

This story-led Bible exploration is designed to help children consider the backstory of familiar characters, to immerse themselves inside different cultures and relationships to make reading the Bible a richer experience.

WHISTLESTOP TALES: 10 BIBLE STORIES FROM AROUND THE WORLD

Krish and Miriam Kandiah | Illustrated by Andy Gray

Celebrate cultural diversity in the Bible with familiar tales retold in a fresh way...

Are you ready for a Whistlestop tale?

Each tale begins by anchoring the character in the modern-day setting of their home country for a deeper insight into the geographical context. Even adults reading along will have their perception of these Bible characters expanded as their stories unfold.

Combining biblical and theological expertise with a generous helping of artistic licence and childlike anarchic fun, Miriam and Krish Kandiah show incredible flair in their first children's book.

They've teamed up with illustrator Andy Gray and the result is a delightful fun-packed book of tales that will appeal to early readers and families acquainted with the David Walliams/Tony Ross books.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Dr Krish Kandiah is a theologian, author and activist, and works with the government to improve the lives of vulnerable children in the care system. He and his wife, Miriam, are birth parents, adoptive parents and foster carers and are passionate about helping children to flourish. Together they have authored fourteen books.

Andy S. Gray has been illustrating books and stories for over 25 years. He is also a dad, husband, magician, a Church of England minister and a DJ.

10 BIBLE STORIES FROM AROUND THE WORLD sample pages

Whistlestop Tales

'You've nothing to lose as it's on our way home, and it won't cost a penny. Surely, you're not too proud to try?'

For a moment Naaman thought the whole world had gone crazy. Why was everyone being so rude to him today? First the King, then the prophet and now this housemaid! He was far more powerful than any of them. He would show them. He would bathe in the river and prove to the world that he was right and they were wrong. Then he would have all the reasons he needed to destroy the country and everyone in it.

Naaman's nerves were so damaged that he couldn't feel the coldness of the water or the sharpness of the stones on his feet. When he was as deep as he could get, he washed himself all over from head to toe with the muddy water. Suddenly, with his uniform lying limp on the bank, and with his scabby, scaly, sore skin on show for all to see, he began to feel very unimportant.

It would be very easy to just peg these two board books as a great contemporary gift for a new baby or a Christening present, but with the reports about children's increased anxiety over lockdown, I wanted to flag that these books have a track record in the USA (published by Tyndale) for helping older children with sleep issues.

Establishing a bedtime routine that includes speaking out God's promises of peace and rest is something that will appeal to a lot of parents.

How does the UK version differ from the Tyndale version?

The UK version is a slightly larger format with more sturdy hardback binding and board pages to give it a gift-like feel. More important is the subtle but significant change in some of the branding and message. Working with the understanding of the author, we've changed emphasis to being more on the promises of God than the action of us 'claiming'. The power of speaking God's Word over and with our children is incredibly important, and the more gentle approach feels right for this side of the Atlantic.

TONIGHT: A BOOK OF GOD'S BEDTIME PROMISES sample pages

Tonight, lovely heart,
you will sleep in the shadow of Almighty God.

[You] will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
PSALM 91:1, NIV

When I was a kid I had to do a family history project for school. My Dad loves this stuff and he got so excited about it that he did the whole thing. I then handed it in and got a certificate of merit for outstanding work...

In the same way, I cannot accept any of the credit for this excellent Bible. Andy Robb and our Bibles team have been working for years on The God Files and we are so happy to finally unveil it!

For a long time there has been a gap in the UK's Bible range for this age group of 7+, often plugged by various US editions. And what Andy has achieved is a great balance of fun stuff to draw children in, and great teaching and guiding as children learn to grasp what they are reading when they open a Bible.

Young readers will know and love award-winning Christian children's author and illustrator Andy Robb from books such as 50 Weirdest Bible Stories and Professor Bumblebrain's Bonkers Book on Parables. But it's Andy's Amazing Agents of God series that has inspired The God Files. We're delighted to welcome him to the Hodder Faith Young Explorers list.

THE GOD FILES NIV BIBLE

Andy Robb

The number one Bible for every agent of God.

This colourfully presented Bible – in which each book is styled as a 'file' – will invite children into the story of Scripture by encouraging them to play their part as agents with a mission, inspired by the adventures and impact of the special agents they read about, such as Joseph, David, Esther and Mary. In addition to the Agent Profiles, The God Files features a wealth of extra content to help children explore faith, learn about God and to start them off on a lifetime of Bible reading. Each book of the Bible has an introduction that informs agents of the key facts about the file, such as 'Where the action happened', and 'Agents to look out for'. In each book, there are encoded verses to decipher, jokes, 'Undercover Investigations', 'Fascinating Facts', 'Agent Essentials' and much more.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Andy Robb specialises in developing books for the Christian market and aimed at the 7-11 age range. He has authored nearly fifty books to date which includes the successful Boring Bible series of twelve books and the 50 Bible Stories series.

The Bible also contains thirty two full-colour pages, packed with everything a young reader will need to become an agent of God – info on key agent activities, such as prayer, reading the Bible and what to expect at church (or, your 'Agent Outpost', as The God Files calls it), testimonies from famous Christians of the past and present, and notes on worship, the trinity and heaven – all vibrantly illustrated.

AGENT ESSENTIALS

POWERED UP

At the beginning of Exodus 31 we are introduced to a couple of tip-top craftsmen called Bezalel and Oholiab. These agents of God were given extra powers by the Holy Spirit to enable them to produce the very best fixtures and fittings for Israel's Tabernacle tent (where God would come and live among his people). Because every agent of God has the Holy Spirit living inside them, this means that we can also accomplish our assignments for God excellently.

in it. ¹⁹Aaron and his sons are to wash their hands and feet with water from it. ²⁰Whenever they enter the tent of meeting, they shall wash with water so that they will not die. Also, when they approach the altar to minister by presenting a food offering to the LORD, ²¹they shall wash their hands and feet so that they will not die. This is to be a lasting ordinance for Aaron and his descendants for the generations to come.'

Anointing oil

²²Then the LORD said to Moses, ²³'Take the following fine spices: 500 shekels^d of liquid myrrh, half as much (that is, 250 shekels) of fragrant cinnamon, 250 shekels of fragrant calamus, ²⁴500 shekels of cassia – all according to the sanctuary shekel – and a hin^f of olive oil. ²⁵Make these into a sacred anointing oil, a fragrant blend, the work of a perfumer. It will be the sacred anointing oil. ²⁶Then use it to anoint the tent of meeting, the ark of the covenant law, ²⁷the table and all its articles, the lampstand and its accessories, the altar of incense, ²⁸the altar

^e 23 That is, about 2.9 kilograms
^f 24 That is, probably about 3.8 litres of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the basin with its stand. ²⁹You shall consecrate them so they will be most holy, and whatever touches them will be holy.

³⁰Anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them so they may serve me as priests. ³¹Say to the Israelites, 'This is to be my sacred anointing oil for the generations to come. ³²Do not pour it on anyone else's body and do not make any other oil using the same formula. It is sacred, and you are to consider it sacred. ³³Whoever makes perfume like it and puts it on anyone other than a priest must be cut off from their people.'

Incense

³⁴Then the LORD said to Moses, 'Take fragrant spices – gum resin, onycha and galbanum – and pure frankincense, all in equal amounts, ³⁵and make a fragrant blend of incense, the work of a perfumer. It is to be salted and pure and sacred. ³⁶Grind some of it to powder and place it in front of the ark of the covenant law in the tent of meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you. ³⁷Do not make any incense with this formula for yourselves; consider it holy to the LORD. ³⁸Whoever makes incense like it to enjoy its fragrance must be cut off from their people.'

Bezalel and Oholiab

31 Then the LORD said to Moses, ²'See I have chosen Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, ³and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with wisdom, with understanding, with knowledge and with all kinds of skills – ⁴to make artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze, ⁵to cut and set stones, to work in wood, and to engage in all kinds of crafts. ⁶Moreover, I have appointed Oholiab son of Ahisamak, of the tribe of Dan, to help him. Also I have given ability to all the skilled workers to make everything I have commanded you: ⁷the tent of meeting, the ark of the covenant law with the atonement cover on it, and all the other furnishings of the tent – ⁸the table and its articles, the pure gold lampstand and all its accessories, the altar of incense, ⁹the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, the basin with its stand – ¹⁰and also the woven garments, both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they serve as priests, ¹¹and the anointing oil and fragrant incense for the Holy Place. They are to make them just as I commanded you.'

The Sabbath

¹²Then the LORD said to Moses, ¹³'Say to the Israelites, 'You must observe my Sabbaths. This will be a sign between me and you for the generations to come, so that you may know that I am the LORD, who makes you holy.

¹⁴'Observe the Sabbath, because it is holy to you. Anyone who desecrates it is to be put to death; those who do any work on that day must be cut off from their people. ¹⁵For six days work is to be done, but the seventh day is a day of sabbath rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day is to be put to death. ¹⁶The Israelites are to observe the Sabbath, celebrating it for the generations to come as a lasting covenant. ¹⁷It will be a sign between me and the Israelites for ever, for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed.'

¹⁸When the LORD finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two tablets of the covenant law, the tablets of stone inscribed by the finger of God.

The golden calf

32 When the people saw that Moses was so long in coming down from the mountain, they gathered round Aaron and said, 'Come, make us gods^a who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don't know what has happened to him.'

²Aaron answered them, 'Take off the gold earrings that your wives, your sons and your daughters are wearing, and bring them to me.' ³So all the people took off their earrings and brought them to Aaron. ⁴He took what they handed him and made it into an idol cast in the shape of a calf, fashioning it with a tool. Then they said, 'These are your gods, ⁵Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.'

Bobby is our new kid on the block. We are thrilled to have worked with Aled Jones to make his ideas a reality – and it will be exciting to see where Bobby goes from here!

For me, as a parent, one of the great selling points of the series is that Bobby Dean goes on great adventures but he is also a kid that I'd be delighted to have round my house if my child brought him home on a playdate – I can't say the same for Horrid Henry, Norm, and some of the other mainstream characters on the shelf! Bobby Dean models deep courage, an acceptance of people who are different and a great determination to fight injustice – all in a very relevant and gentle way.

BOBBY DEAN SAVES CHRISTMAS

Aled Jones

From the nation's best-loved choir boy, Aled Jones shares the adventures of Bobby Dean in his first ever children's book.

Sent off to school for the first time in his life, nine-year-old Bobby Dean is more than a little nervous. Busy making new friends, learning lines for the Nativity Play, and trying to not laugh at all of the head teacher's terrible jokes, he soon discovers that when he sings magical things can happen!

From rescuing kidnapped dogs to seeing ghosts, helping Santa, and even travelling back in time to make friends with a weary soldier at a very special football match, Bobby Dean's first term is going to be one full of wonder, adventure and the magic of song!

Ideal for children aged 5-7 this Christmas!

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Aled Jones MBE has been a household name since the 1980s. He is known as one of the world's most successful boy sopranos following his debut when he was twelve years old. Bobby Dean Saves Christmas is his first children's book.

with clouds of steam from the kettle, the rich smell of food, and the sound of his mum singing.

'Hello, Bean!' Bobby's mum said. 'Not joining in? You always sing with me!'

Bobby tried to smile, but as he sat down, his stomach did a little twist. Ruffian sat beside him and, once again, rested a paw on Bobby's knee.

'Nervous?' Bobby's dad asked.

Bobby gave a short nod.

'That's a good sign!' Bobby's mum said. 'It means you're off on a new adventure! And you can't have a new adventure without being a little nervous, can you?'

Bobby shook his head. 'I suppose not, no.'

'Singing always helps, remember that. Don't ever forget your voice, It's a little bit like magic!'

'Not if I sing, it isn't,' Bobby's dad said. 'I sound like a drain!'

Everyone laughed.

Bobby's mum plonked down on the table the biggest breakfast Bobby had ever seen.

'Not sure there's enough on that plate,' Bobby's dad laughed. 'I mean, I can actually still see some of the plate.'

'He's a growing boy,' said Bobby's mum. 'He won't always be a bean, you know. Some day, we'll wake up, and he'll be a bean stalk, taller than all of us! And you know why?'

'Do tell,' said Bobby's dad.

'Because of this very breakfast, that's why!'

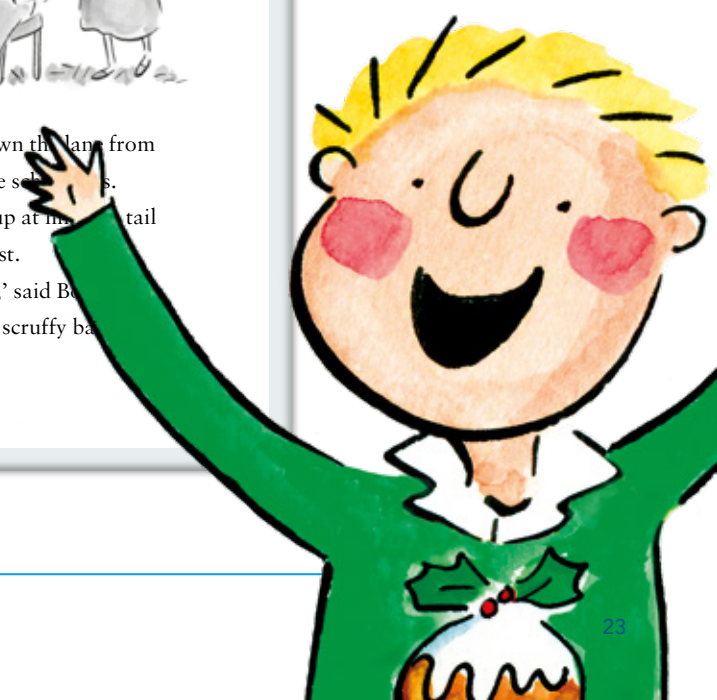

'This is true,' Bobby's dad replied, winking at Bobby, 'but I don't think he has to do all of his growing in one go, do you?'

After breakfast, Bobby walked down the lane from the farm to the road to wait for the school bus. Sitting by his side, Ruffian stared up at him, tail thumping up a little tornado of dust.

'No dogs allowed in school, pal,' said Bobby's voice wobbling a little. 'Especially scruffy boys.'

*I keep meeting people who are discovering The Wingfeather Saga!

With all four books of the saga now published in the UK, (books 3 & 4 were brought forward as books 1 & 2 were doing so well!) the momentum and excitement is really growing. As I mentioned at the launch of the first books, it feels like we are joining a party that's already in full swing; the online presence of fans is increasingly global.

If you've not done so already, have a look at the mini-film, the fan art and book summaries online at www.wingfeathersaga.com.

Tens of thousands of people tuned in online during lockdown to hear the author read the books, and now the entire saga is available on audio book download.

With the recent announcement of progress toward an animated mini-series, I think these books will be around for a long time to come.

And the world of Anniera is so worth getting your teeth into. Peterson has painted some of the strongest characters I've read in a children's book, and the story dips and dives into all sorts of places of challenge, mystery and humour. Rooted throughout is a relationship with a very real spiritual force 'The Maker' where prayer, worship and the unexplained are gently woven into the norm – as is deception, family fights, courage, fear, love, bad choices, sacrifice and redemption.

So many of the books for older children today are dystopian fiction, and I'm really proud to be offering an alternative, enchanting world that can bring encouragement like The Chronicles of Narnia or The Lord of the Rings.

We published these books back in 2018 with Jenny and I would encourage you to take a second look!

The Little Moments series are just delightful. They create a chance to slow together with your child and meditate on one piece of Scripture using the phrasing and illustration to open up the words of the Bible.

We began to see a need for children to 'slow' before the COVID lockdown, and, as we return to normal life, I think the need for such quiet moments will be a focus once more.

WHAT A BEAUTIFUL NAME

Brooke Ligertwood, Ben Fielding, Karalee Fielding and Scott Ligertwood

Building a rocket and shooting off into outer space is just a regular Monday in Oliver's world...

Based on Hillsong's Grammy Award-winning, viral smash hit song, come on a fantastical journey of discovery.

This rhyming story allows you to join Oliver and Leo as they experience firsthand the beauty, wonder and power of the Creator, and discover the Name they knew all along...

Written by the songwriters themselves – explore the popular worship song together in this charming book. After the story, there is a deeper reflection on the song, allowing parents and children alike to discover more about Jesus.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

More than a decade of friendship and serving together at Hillsong Church led to Ben Fielding and Brooke Ligertwood writing the Hillsong Worship song What A Beautiful Name in 2016. And in 2018 over a breakfast table in rainy New York City, the idea for this book came to life...
