CBI arrests Chidambaram

Ex-FM appears at Cong HQ out of nowhere to address Press conference, CBI-ED sleuths scale walls to enter his house

PNS ■ NEW DELHI

The hide and seek between former Union Minister P Chidambaram and the CBI ended after his dramatic arrest on Wednesday night. The CBI arrested Chidambaram from his Jor Bagh home minutes after he returned there from the AICC headquarters after addressing a Press conference in the presence of a battery of Congress leaders.

Around 8.15 Chidambaram, who was untraceable for over 27 hours, appeared in the party office and told media that he was not evading arrest and asked the CBI to wait till Friday, when his petition is listed to be heard in the Supreme Court.

Along with senior Supreme Court lawyers and senior party colleagues Kapil Sibal and Abhishek Manu Singhvi, he then drove to his residence nearly 10 minutes away from the Congress office. On his trail were CBI and ED officials. A CBI team reached his Jor Bagh residence 115-A within minutes of his return.

The CBI team first knocked at the gates to gain entry but finding no response, they scaled the walls. Once three officers reached inside, they opened the gates to allow other team members waiting outside. Soon a team of officers

Chidambaram, who is also accused of "wrongdoing" in the cases by probe agencies, termed the CBI/ED action as "political

I'll discuss Kashmir with PM Modi at G7 Summit, says Trump

India has made is no role for a third party

PTI ■ WASHINGTON

US President Donald Trump has said that he would discuss with Prime Minister Narendra Modi the situation in Kashmir and help ease the India-Pak tensions when they meet at the G7 Summit in France this weekend. But New Delhi has made it clear to the US that Kashmir is a bilateral issue between India and Pakistan and there was no role for a third party. Speaking to reporters at the White House on Tuesday while welcoming visiting Romanian President Klaus Iohannis, Trump said he was happy to try and help calm the situation in Kashmir amidst fresh India-Pak tensions after India revoked the special status of Jammu & Kashmir.

Trump's comments to a question on the tension between India and Pakistan came a day after he made separate phone calls to Prime Minister Modi and Pakistan

Prime Minister Imran Khan. Trump said he was happy to try and help calm the situa-tion in Kashmir. "I'm going to be with Prime Minister Modi. I'll be with him over the weekend in France," Trump said, referring to the G7 Summit in Biarritz during the weekend.

Hundreds of residents of the low-lying areas, who were temporarily shifted to makeshift tents after water entered their houses, can now breathe easily again as the water level of the Yamuna River started receding on Wednesday.

The Yamuna had breached the danger mark on Monday.

The water level is likely to recede further as Haryana has so far not released water from the Hathni Kund barrage in large quantity," a Government official said. At 4 pm, only 10,000 cusec water was released from the barrage. Officials said around 23,000 affected people were evacuated from the flood-plains to safer places. Over 18,000 of them were accommodated in more than 2,700 relief tents set up by the Delhi Government agencies.

Some tents remained vacant as many residents at the Yamuna Khadar didn't vacate their shanties.

Earlier on Wednesday, Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal met people affected by the flood and said the Government will ensure that there is no shortage of relief materials.

The Yamuna continued to flow well above the danger mark on Wednesday but Delhi Government officials said the water level was constant at 206.60 metres for several hours and was likely to recede.

safe and secure crossing facility for the pedestrians, the national Capital Region Transport Corporation (NCRTC)-the parent body of Rapid Rail Transit Corridor (RRTS) has decided to construct Foot over Bridges (FOBs) at seven locations, infamous on the alignment of Sarai Kale Khan-Ghaziabad-Meerut RRTS corridor for accidents and traffic congestion. The seven places where the FOBs will be constructed are Sihani Gate Chungi, Ordinance Factory (Murad Nagar), Railway Road (Murad Nagar), Railway Road (Murad Nagar), Railway Station Road (Modi Nagar), Modi Nagar Bus Stand, Hapur Road (Modi Nagar — Rajchopla) and Mohiuddinpur. The tender for the same has will start soon.

The officials said these FOBs will be constructed and will be thrown open for the public before the completion of the 82 km Delhi-Ghaziabad-Meerut RRTS Corridor.

"This corridor will pass through Yamuna, Hindon River, Indian Railway tracks, Eastern Peripheral Expressway (EPE) and will pass through densely populated areas of Delhi, Ghaziabad and Meerut. After Ghaziabad, it will run mostly on the median of Ghaziabad-Meerut Highway (erstwhile NH-

58) and this highway witnesses a heavy flow of traffic and is surrounded by densely populated area. Thus, the NCRTC has taken this step to construct FOB to ensure safety of the pedestrians as well as a smooth flow of the traffic during the construction period," said a NCRTC official.

The transport body further added that it will construct FOB's wherever necessary on the corridor. "The locations of the FOBs are being identified in close coordination with the local as well as state administration. Moreover, these areas do not have a single Fob and the pedestrians risk their lives while crossing the road. Thus, NCRTC is giving due emphasis to people's convenience at every stage of RRTS execution," said the official.

The train will have an operation speed of 160kmph but it 100kmph only. Currently, it takes four hours to reach Meerut from Delhi but once this corridor will be erected, the travel time reduces to just 60 minutes.

The civil construction work on 17 km long priority section between Sahibabad to Duhai, of this corridor has started and the piers and viaduct will be visible soon. This priority section is expected to become operational by March 2023 while the full 82km long corridor from Delhi's Sarai Kale Khan to Meerut and Modipuram will be open for public by March 2025.

The additional units of electricity units consumed for CCTV cameras will not affect the current electricity usage slab of the consumer. These additional units of electricity consumed due to CCTVs will not affect the subsidy being provided to them by the Delhi government.

Saifai Medical university freshers' heads tonsured

 \mathbf{I} n an alleged case of mass ragging, several first-year students of Saifai Medical University here were made to parade on the campus with their heads tonsured.

Even while promising "strict action" on a news channel, University Vice Chancellor Raj Kumar appeared to condone "mild" cases of this kind.

He said ragging at one time used to be a way of inculcating "sanskar" (tradition or manners) of the world of medicine among students.

Recalling his own experience as a student, he said ragging in those days was much worse, but the senior students would also care for the juniors and help them with their studies. A purported video clip on social media showed students in white coats walking in a single file, bowing their tonsured heads and also making 'salaam' gestures. Another clip showed appeared to be at least 40 students walking between buildings on the campus road. Some reports said all 150 male students in the latest batch of freshers faced this ragging.

A man in uniform, apparently a security guard, was also seen in the video as the medical students filed past.

Vice Chancellor Raj Kumar said he was not aware of the incident, but would look into it.

"We keep a strict watch on such activities and have taken action against those breaking discipline and have also suspended them," said the VC.

"I also want to assure new

Gaur, 89, who died here on Wednesday morning after prolonged illness, also courted controversies over his alleged sexist remarks against women.

In a long political stint, Gaur served as the state home minister and also held many other portfolios in the BJP-led governments in the state.

Gaur was in limelight in the early 1990s, when as the state urban development minister, he got the encroachments in the old city area of Bhopal razed with the help of bulldozers, despite strong protest by the Congress. The action earned him the tag of the 'bulldozer minister'.

He was respected both within BJP and by leaders of other parties. Chief Minister and senior Congress leader Kamal Nath got him airlifted to Delhi last month for his medical treatment and also visited him recently when he was hospitalised here. The OBC leader was Madhya Pradesh CM from 2004 to 2005 and represented his Govindpura Assembly seat seat 10 times.

Gaur rose to prominence in early 1990s, when he was the urban development minister in the state Cabinet headed by Sunderlal Patwa.

In 2016, he was dropped from the state cabinet by then CM Shivraj Singh Chouhan due to old age. Gaur took this as a slight and often said he resigned as CM in 2005 to pave way for Chouhan, at the behest of party patriarch L K Advani.

Despite the Government assuring that the interests of workers will not be harmed, the Ordnance Factory Board (OFB) employees began their one-month-long strike in response to the call given by three recognised Defence Federations. The workers are protesting against the move to corporatise the factories manufacturing weapons and ammunition for the armed forces and are the oldest manufacturing units in the country. There are nearly one lakh workers in OFB.

Workers employed in factories in Madhya Pradesh and West Bengal began their protest on Tuesday followed by more workers joining the stir on Wednesday even as the government emphasised the proposed corporatisation is aimed at providing greater flexibility in day-to-day functioning, increased operational freedom and autonomy in decision making, leading to enhanced productivity. This will enable the Ordnance Factories to respond faster to the futuristic needs of the Armed Forces and provide an impetus to the export potential of its products. Reports from Bhopal said cials of the defence ministry, led by additional secretary of the Department of Defence Production, along with the OFB chairman, had met the office-bearers of the federations on August 14 and August 16 to discuss the matter.

A joint press statement issued by the three recognised employees' federations claimed that talks with the ministry to resolve the matter have failed to reach a solution. "The strike commenced at 6 am on Tuesday. It is set to continue for one month, till September 20, if a solution is not reached before that. The federations urge the Centre to reconsider its decision to corporatise the ordnance factories and withdraw the same in the interest of the defence preparedness of our country and also the service life of 82,000 employees," the statement said.

Several committees, over the past two decades, have recommended the conversion of ordnance factories into a public sector company, it claimed. "But the ordnance factories being war reserve and solely dependent on the armed forces cannot function as a commercially viable PSU," the statement added.

BJP rejects 'vendetta' charge, says Govt doesn't interfere into probe

PNS NEW DELHI

Rejecting the Congress' against the Centre over the action of probe agencies against P Chidambaram, the BJP on Wednesday said the Union Government did not interfere in the investigation and he must face consequences for his deeds.

"If he has done something fishy, he must face consequences. Probe agencies do not work at the government's behest. They have powers to act independently," BJP spokesperson Shahnawaz Hussain said.

The Congress has strongly backed Chidambaram.

On Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra's assertion that the party will continue to fight for truth no matter what the consequences, BJP IT department head Amit Malviya took a dig at saying, "Priyanka Vadra's support for P Chidambaram is quite natural. After all she has the experience of standing by Robert Vadra too, who is also facing several investigations for serious economic offences."

CBI books NDTV's Prannoy Roy, wife, Vikram Chandra

PNS NEW DELHI

The CBI has booked NDTV, its promoters Prannoy Roy and wife Radhika Roy besides former CEO Vikramaditya Chandra and unknown public servants for allegedly violating Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) rules between 2004 and 2010. The NDTV has denied the CBI allegations.

The accused entity and individuals have been booked on charges of criminal conspiracy, cheating and corruption, according to the FIR. The agency on Wednesday conducted searches at Chandra's residence, officials said.

Under the CBI scanner are investments made by NCBU, a General Electric company at the time, in Network PLC (NNPLC), an NDTV company incorporated in London on November 30, 2006.

According to the FIR,

NNPLC allegedly got approval from the Foreign Investment Promotion Board (FIPB) board in violation of FDI rules in 2009.

NNPLC received total FDI worth USD 163.43 million and invested the amount in various NDTV subsidiaries through a web of complex transactions.

It is alleged that during May 2004 to May 2010, NDTV floated around 32 subsidiary firms all over the world, mostly in the tax havens of Holland, the United Kingdom, Dubai, Malaysia and Mauritius among

The CBI said most of these companies allegedly had no business transaction and were meant for financial transactions to bring funds from abroad.

Terming the transactions a "sham", the agency alleged that funds were invested by unidentified public servants through NDTV and laundered back to India through multiple layers of complex transactions and shell companies. Proceeds of corruption of unknown public servants was invested through NDTV Ltd," it alleged. It is alleged that these transactions are sham and funds are invested by unknown Public Servants through NDTV Ltd and later laundered back to India through multiple layers of complex transactions and shell compa-

"NDTV Ltd through its promoters viz Prannoy Roy and Radhika Roy, KVL Narayan Rao (since expired), Vikramaditya Chandra had entered into criminal conspiracy with unknown public servants with the object of bringing tainted money of unknown public servants through a web of complex transactions through the FDI route," a CBI Deputy SP who is the complainant in the case alleged.

The NDTV came out with a statement saying. "Despite a series of cases in which the investigation is deliberately stalled, agencies have found no evidence of any corruption by NDTV. Prannoy and Radhika Roy, the founders of NDTV, as also the company, have cooperated in all matters filed against them.

"As part of the continued persecution of free press, a new CBI case has been filed about a $150 million investment in NDTV's non-news business by NBCU, then owned by General Electric, a massive American conglomerate. The case makes the ludicrous charge that the transaction, declared to all relevant authorities in the US and India, laundered money for unknown public servants," it said.

"NDTV and its founders have full faith in India's judiciary at this crucial time and remain committed to the integrity of the company's journalism. Attempts to silence free and fair reportage through malicious and fabricated charges will not succeed. This is not about a company or individuals but about a larger battle to maintain the freedom of the press, something which India has always renowned for, it added.

Onion prices likely to shoot up

Onion prices are on the rise and may leave the consumers in tears in the coming days. Due to incessant rains and floods in onion producing states, the prices of the bulb have increased from ₹20-25 to ₹35-40 per kg in the retail market. According to onion traders, the wholesale prices have increased over the past 15 days in major markets such as Lasalgáon and Bangaluru.

Onion was sold at ₹20-25 per kg till the first week of August, But it is now being sold at ₹35-40 per kg in the retail market in Delhi. The sudden price rise has made homemakers sit up and take control of the house budget, as onion is an important ingredient for cooking and serving salads.

In a move to keep onion prices under control, the Centre on Wednesday warned of strict action against hoarding of onion amid supply dis-parts of major growing states of Maharashtra and Karnataka. The ministry has also decided to cap the retail price of onion at Safal (a Mother Dairy outlet) at ₹23.90 per kg (for Grade Á variety). Safal will receive buffer at the same rate.

Rajendra Sharma, who is the wholesale onion supplier of Agricultural Produce Committee Marketing Azadpur, said that the price is expected to increase further in the past one month. APMC Lasalgaon chairman Jaidutt Holkar told The Pioneer that this jump in prices will not last long as in the next 60 days a new crop will start arriving from the fields.

Maharashtra is the largest producer of onion, accounting for a third of the country's produce, followed by Madhya Pradesh, Karnataka, Gujarat Bihar and Andhra Pradesh Karnataka has the second largest area under the bulb. Madhya Pradesh is the second largest producer of onions due to high er yields. Also the sowing was lower in Central Karnataka due to the delayed start of the monsoon and its slow progress.

All the concerned stake holders, including representatives of Safal, NAFED (National Agricultural Cooperative Marketing Federation of India Ltd) and NCCF (National Cooperative Consumers Federation of India) were present in the meeting.

While stray incidents of stone pelting are still being reported from parts of Srinagar, the overall situation in Kashmir Valley is gradually showing signs of improvement. The security grid lifted restrictions from Lal Chowk area on Wednesday permitting local residents to move around freely. Markets in the area, however, remained closed and scanty traffic was witnessed during the day.

In Baramulla, a joint team of security forces eliminated a Lashkar-e- Tayyeba (LeT) terrorist identified as Momin Gojri in an overnight operation. A Sub-Inspector of State Police and a Special Police officer (SPO) received serious injuries in the gunfight.

According to police spokesman, SPO identified as

Incentives to filmmakers part of J&K Govt grants MoS Communication blockade I&B Ministry's J&K package

New Delhi: The Information & Broadcasting (I&B) Ministry is planning several incentives for film and television production companies to take their projects to Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh.

As part of the massive development push for the region by the Government, the I&B Ministry has held closed door consultations with representatives of the entertainment industry to chalk out a plan to encourage them to look at the region as a viable centre.

Among the proposals on table is a corporate package for production houses keen to visit Ĵ&K and Ladakh with their units for shooting films and television serials.

The Government is also open to amend the radio guidelines for setting up new FM stations in the region. Currently, small number of private FM channels are operating in Valley. A capital investment for erecting new screens in the region is also on the cards along with developing other infrastructure required for film making.

Sources said after taking inputs from the stake holders, the government will roll out it's incentive plan so that the locations, is used extensively for film production. The film crews had almost stopped shooting in the region since the destroyed peace in the Valley.

After the abrogation of Article 370 and reorganisation of the state, Prime Minister Narendra Modi had appealed to film makers to see J& and Ladakh as potential work areas.

The Prime Minister had appealed to the representatives of Hindi, Tamil and Telugu entertainment industry to look at Jammu and Kashmir as a destination for their projects. Walking the talk, the government now wants to meet all the infrastructure demands of the industry to smoothen status to its Mayors

Srinagar: In a significant development, the J&K Government has decided to accord Minister of State status to its two mayors. Junaid Azim Mattu is currently mayor of Srinagar while Chander Mohan Gupta is mayor of Jammu.

With this status, both Mattu and Gupta will enjoy expanded power and will be able to take executive decisions. As mayors, their roles and responsibilities were restricted to their municipal jurisdiction. Typically, a mayor is considered a ceremonial authority with limited power and state governments with all the resources continue to take most Recently, after the abrogation of Article 370, the Centre bifurcated the valley state into two union territories — Jammu & Kashmir with an Assembly and Ladakh without one. The Jammu and Kashmir

Reorganisation Bill was passed on August 5 in the Rajya Sabha and then in the Lok Sabha.

The controversial Article 370 allowed special status to Jammu & Kashmir for over 70 years. Barring matters related to defence, foreign affairs, communications and other matters which were specified in the Instrument of Accession of Jammu & Kashmir, the Centre required the approval of the State Government for other laws.

Life in the Valley is gradually returning to normal. While offices and schools re-opened on Monday, landline phone connections have been largely fueling anger in Kashmir Srinagar: It was an emotional stand cancelled given the situres restoration of all landline nections. "Out of 96,000 landation, Ahmad does not intend

He is getting married next week. But the communication blackout has complicated his largely wedding arrangements. While IANS most weddings in Kashmir cult without communication. In a sad situation like this, how can one even think of celebration? It is going to be a very simple affair," said Ahmad.

Ahmad's neighbours are also angry. "This has never happened in Kashmir, we have been caged," lamented Ghulam Mohiuddin. Others said the gag order was only fuelling anger. "It is triggering frustration in Kashmir and is a great provocation for the people," said Mohammad Hafeez. The Government calls the Khadi comes out with novel way to bestow dignity on humble 'mochi'

New Delhi: Khadi and Village Industries Commission (KVIC) which is in the forefront of popularising Khadi has come out with a novel way to bestow dignity on the humble 'mochi.' Acting on the principles of Mahatma Gandhi and call of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, KVIC has decided to give recognition to the people from the marginalised shoe-making community popularly known as Mochi.

the country, the KVIC decided to re-christen 'mochi' as 'Charm Chikitsak' at the training programme at the KVIC's e Gandhi Darshan premises in Delhi on Wednesday.

When KVIC Chairman Vinai Kumar Saxena addressed the inaugural session of 100 leather artisan trainees of Delhi as 'Charm-Chikitsak', some of the shoemakers broke into tears. For 60-year-old Ramsevak, it was simply unbelievable.

"We are getting a sense of recognition and security with this encouraging address of the KVIC Chairman, what we have not ever dreamt of in our lives," he said.

Saxena said that KVIC had always shown its commitment to uplift the social and economic status of the marginalized communities. "After the overwhelming success in Kumhar Sashaktikaran Scheme we planned to launch this Leather Artisans Development Scheme, in which small time shoe-makers, mostly sitting on footpaths - polishing and repairing shoes and chap-pals, from all corners of the country, would first be given proper training and then modern Shoe-tools Kit worth Rs 5,000. The kits will be equipped with all necessary articles needed to cure and beautify shoes and chappals," he said.

Saxena said earlier this month, 50 artisans of Sirohi district — one of the aspirational districts identified by the Neeti Aayog — in Rajasthan had been given training with the Shoe-tool Kits.

"We hope to distribute at least 10,000 such kits among our 'charm-chikistak' by the end of this year," he added.

Uddhav throws weight behind cousin Raj ahead ED summons

Says nothing will come out against him in probe

TN RAGHUNATHA MUMBAI

After the Opposition Congress and NCP, the ruling Shiv Sena on Wednesday came out in support of MNS chief Raj Thackeray on Wednesday, a day Enforcement Directorate (ED) for questioning in connection with a loan default

A day after the MNS chief said that he would "honour" the summons issued to him by the ED and exhorted his party workers to maintain calm and restraint on August 22, Sena president Uddhav Thackeray threw his weight behind his cousin Raj, by saying that he did not think anything would come in the case in which the latter was investigated.

At a news conference convened to welcome sitting Congress MLA Nirmala Gavit into his party, Uddhav reacted to the news reports about the summons issued by Raj in a loan default case and said: "I don't think anything will come out in tomorrow's questioning (of Raj Thackeray)". Reacting to the Sena president's comment, MNS spokesperson Sandip Deshpande — who had earlier dubbed the ED's summons to his party president as an "act of vendetta" — said, "All the people in the state are aware that there is nothing to the case. I am confident that my president will unscathed from this case". The Opposition Congress and NCP leaders had earlier slammed the BJP-led NDA Government for "misusing" the investigating agencies to "target" its critics. They had said that Raj was being "targeted" as he had campaigned against the Narendra Modi Government in the recent Lok Sabha polls.

Chidambaram, a paper tiger, charge Congressman, rivals

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN

There is no one in the American Nadu Congress Committee here is no one in the Tamil or in Shivaganga who are not happy with the Delhi High Court order refusing to entertain the anticipatory bail application filed by former Union Finance and Home Minister P Chidambaram who is always man in the State.

"All good things have to come to an end and this is what has happened to Chidambaram and his family," a senior Congress leader in TNCC told The Pioneer. The former Finance Minister who was the country's Home Minister for fairly long time is one of the most unpopular politician in Tamil Nadu, said the Congress leader who did not want his name to be quoted for obvious reasons.

"You have been writing about the weakness of the Congress in Tamil Nadu for some time. Chidambaram is the root cause of the pathetic situation of the party in Tamil Nadu. He is always known as a weekend politician and has no acceptability among the people of the State," disclosed the leader.

S Rangaraj, author and proprietor of Rare Books, said Chidambaram could be described as a paper tiger . "It is the media in Tamil Nadu which portrayed him as the State's strongman. For Chidambaram, what matters is his family and nothing more than that," said Rangaraj. The electorate Shivaganga, the home constituency of Chidambaram, said has alienated the voters because of his arrogance and intimidating nature. "He did contest the 2014 Lo election fearing defeat. Please remember that he manipulated to get elected to the Upper House from Maharashtra because of his close association with Sonia Gandhi and Rahul Gandhi," said Rangaraj.

Narayanan Thiruppati, the BJP spokesman said the solidarity shown by some of the senior Congress leaders in New Delhi was just a façade. "In the heart of their hearts, all of them are happy because it is an open secret that Chidambaram's antecedents are not above the board. He camouflages his crimes with the help of that idiomatic English with which he hopes to hoodwink the public," said Narayanan.

Chidambaram's woes are far from over. He has to appear before the Madras High Court on August 30 to face the cross examination in an election petition filed against him by the AIADMK candidate immediately after 2009 LS election.

Further boost to Sena, sitting Congress MLA joins its fold

TN RAGHUNATHA MUMBAI

In further boost to the ruling Shiv Sena ahead of the Maharashtra Assembly polls, sitting Congress MLA Nirmala Gavit on Wednesday joined the Sena in the presence of its president Uddhav Thackeray.

In a development that came four days after former MLA who had quit the Shiv Sena and joined the NCP and contested the recent Lok Sabha polls returned to the Sena, Nirmala joined the Shiv Sena. Welcoming Mrs Gavit into his party, Uddhav said that with Gavit's entry to the Sena would strengthen the party in Nashik district of northern Maharashtra. A sitting Congress MLA from Igatpuri, Nirmala is the daughter of veteran congressman from north Maharashtra. Nirmala, who had tendered her resignation to State Assembly Speaker Haribhau Bagade on Tuesday, had said that she was quitting the Congress and resigning as an MLA to ensure development in his constituency.

Nirmala's entry to the Shiv Sena came amid speculation that the Congress' former minister and sitting MLA from Indapur Harshvardhan Patil might also join the BJP.

The Shiv Sena and BJP have been poaching leaders from the Congress and NCP in recent months in the run-up to the State Assembly polls. First, it was NCP's former minister and once Pawar's close-confidant Jaydutta Kshirsagar from Beed district in Marathwada who quit the NCP and joined the Shiv Sena 10, sitting MLA from Shahpur Pandurang Barora quit the NCP and entered the Sena. Later, NCP's Mumbai unit president Sachin Ahir quit the party and joined the ruling Shiv Sena on July 25.

Subsequently, former MLA Dhanraj Haribahu Mahale who had quit the Shiv Sena and joined the Sharad Pawar-led party and contested the recent Lok Sabha polls from Dindori constituency had returned to the Sena on Friday.

The Sena might field him as its candidate from Dindor in the State Assembly polls.

Similarly, the NCP's three sitting MLAs Shivrajendra Bhosale (Satara), Vaibhav Pichad (Akole in Ahmednagar district) and Sandeep Naik (Airoli in Navi Mumbai) and Congress' sitting MLA Kalidas Kolumbar (Wadala in southcentral Mumbai) joined the

Chandrayaan-2 enters second lunar orbit

PTI ■ BENGALURU

ISRO on Wednesday said it has performed the second lunarbound orbit maneuver for Chandrayaan-2 spacecraft thatis currently in the lunar orbit for its rendezvous with the Moon.

All spacecraft parameters are normal, the Bengaluru headquartered space agency said after the maneuver.

"Second Lunar bound orbit maneuver for Chandrayaan-2 spacecraft was performed successfully today (August 21, 2019) beginning at 1250 hrs IST as planned, using the onboard propulsion system.

The duration of the maneuver was 1228seconds. The orbit achieved is 118 km x 4412 km," ISRO said.

The next Lunar bound orbit maneuver is scheduled on August 28, 2019 between 0530-0630 hrs IST. In a major milestone for India's second Moon mission, the Chandrayaan-2 spacecraft successfully entered the lunar orbit on Tuesday by performing Lunar Orbit Insertion (LOI) maneuver.

There will be three more orbit manoeuvres to make the spacecraft enter into its final orbit passing over the lunar poles at a distance of about 100 km from the Moon's surface.

Dt. 05.08.2019.

ISRO has said subsequentthe lander will separatethe Orbiter (on September 2) and enter into a 100 km X30 km orbit around the Moon. Then it will perform a seriesof complex braking maneuvers to soft land in the South polarregion of the Moon on September 7, 2019.

ISRO Chairman K Sivan has said the proposedsoft-landing on the Moon is going to be a "terrifying" momentas it is something ISRO has not done before, where as LOI maneuver was successfully carried out during the Chandrayaan-1 mission.

The health of the spacecraft is being continuously monitored from the Mission Operations Complex (MOX) at ISRO Telemetry, Tracking and Command Network (ISTRAC) in Bengaluru with support from Indian Deep Space Network (IDSN) antennas at Bylalu, near Bengaluru, the space agency has said. India's Geosynchronous Satellite Launch Vehicle, GSLV MkIII-M1 had successfully launched the 3,840-kg Chandrayaan-2 spacecraft into the earth's orbit on July 22.

Following the landing, the rover 'Pragyan' will rollout from lander 'Vikram' and carry out experiments on thelunar surface for a period of one lunar day, which is equal to 14 earth days.

The mission life of the lander is also one lunar day, while the orbiter will continue its mission for a year. The orbiter carries eight scientific payloads for mapping the lunar surface and study the exosphere (outer atmosphere) of the Moon while the lander carries three scientific payloads to conduct surface and subsurface science experiments.

The rover carries two payloads to enhance the understanding of the lunar surface. India's second lunar expedition would shed light on a completely unexplored section of the Moon, its South Polar region.

According to ISRO, the mission objective of Chandrayaan-2 is to develop and demonstrate the keytechnologies for end-toend lunar mission capability, including soft-landing and roving on the lunar surface.

On the science front, this mission aims to further expand the knowledge about the moon through a detailed studyof its topography, mineralogy, surface chemical composition, thermo-physical characteristics and atmosphere, leading to a better understanding of the origin and evolution of the moon, the space agency had said.

Ministers of State with Independent charge are Kapil Dev, Ashok Katehria, Neelkanth Tiwari, Ravindra Jaiswal, Shri Ram Chauhan and Satish Dwiwedi - the latter had defeated former Speaker Mata Prasad Pandey in 2017.

Neelkanth Tiwari, who has been given Independent charge, and Ravindra Jaiswal both belong to Varanasi, which is Prime Minister Narendra Modi's parliamentary constituency.

The 11 Ministers of State are Anil Sharma, Mahesh Gupta, Anand Swarup Shukla, Vijay Kashyap, Giriraj Singh Dharmesh, Lakhan Singh Rajput, Nilima Katiyar, Chaudhary Udaybhan Singh, Chandrika Prasad Upadhyaya,

Of the 23 new ministers inducted — six are Brahmins, four Thakurs, three Vaishyas and 10 Dalits. Western Uttar Pradesh has been given a sizeable representation in the council of ministers.

The dropping of Ministers including Chetan Chauhan, Swati Singh and Mukut Bihari Varma was also deferred, following a late night meeting between the Chief Minister, party State President Swatantra Dev Singh and Sangh leaders.

BSY reaches out to sulking MLAs as discontent continues to brew over Cabinet expansion

PTI BENGALURU

Aday after the expansion of the Karnataka Cabinet with the induction of 17 Ministers, discontent among those who failed to secure Ministerial berths refused to die down on Wednesday, even as Chief Minister BS Yediyurappa made attempts to douse the embers.

As the expansion brought an end to the nearly month long wait for the Cabinet to take shape, it led to some heartburn in a section of the party as several MLAs continued to make no secret of their displeasure after missing the bus.

Yediyurappa has sought to reach out to the sulking MLAs, specifically eight-time Hukkeri MLA Umesh Katti, whom several legislators who could not make it to the Ministry reportedly met. "For one hour yesterday I have spoken to him (Katti) in the presence of Basavaraj Bommai (Minister). Naturally he is pained at not getting an opportunity. — PAPER WITH PASSION — Chidambaram in a spot

Politically motivated or not, the ex-FM must cooperate. Otherwise the Congress can go down a slippery slope n the end, Palaniappan Chidambaram, the former Home and Finance Minister of India and one who artfully played power games to his benefit so long, should have surrendered with grace to the investigative agencies on the INX media case. For politics is never about right or wrong but smart positioning in a set context. He could have made a virtue of the rather incriminating accusations against him by wilfully surrendering under the law, flagged his honour, howsoever fake, instead of hiding out for hours after a lookout notice was issued against him. Which is why his drive to the AICC headquarters, claiming he was being framed, that the investigative agencies had not filed a chargesheet and that he was the victim of a political witch-hunt, didn't wash with anybody. The drama was not quite stage-managed to suit the image he had carefully cultivated over the years. Earlier in the day, every senior advocate in Delhi was either trying to figure out the whereabouts of or appearing for or against him in the Supreme Court. For a man regularly used to being feted in the media, a source of salacious gossip, himself a senior advocate and one of the cogs of the Lutyens' Delhi machine, he simply winced at a moment of crisis. His role in several scams and scandals has long been suspected and many of them reported diligently in this newspaper for years. His intervention in deals, the extent of its propriety and the legality or illegality of his actions, however is something for the courts to decide. That said, his battery of lawyers — all of whom are his senior colleagues in the Congress — has always managed to ensure that Chidambaram remained on bail for years, free from prosecution. This frustrated the attempts of the Enforcement Directorate (ED) and the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) to question him and his son, Karti Chidambaram, who, too, is accused in several cases alongside him. But this sudden rash of actions against Chidambaram now, as the carefully cultivated Congress ecosystem collapses in the capital after a successive election loss, seems to have caught him and his friends off guard, thus making the man nothing more than a common fugitive who feared arrest.

Chidambaram's refusal to surrender on very tenuous grounds actually strengthens the case against him. The man, who accused the Narendra Modi Government of letting economic offenders like Vijay Mallya and Nirav Modi escape, has been doing the same thing. While the Congress has closed ranks and accused the Government of vindictiveness, this argument has been shot down by the Delhi High Court and the Supreme Court as well. And herein lies the rub for the Congress Chidambaram, while a colossus in his own constituency of Sivaganga in Tamil Nadu, now held by his son, has never been a popular leader. While he was feted by a pliant media, particularly the business Press while he was the Finance Minister, rumours of his escapades, some of which would make Mallya blush, have been damaging to him in the long-run. By not surrendering, Chidambaram looked no better than any other on the wanted list. And if the Congress encourages this, the entire party could be badly damaged at a time where it is extremely weak and ruin any argument against the horrendous handling of the current economic situation by the government. Cases against Chidambaram are not all watertight. He can still be acquitted. It is also true that political winds could one day blow in his favour again. However, for any potential recovery, he had to craft his response to look like a victim yesterday. In fact, if he wants to play up the "political vendetta" theory, he should posit himself as the recipient of a hitback. During Chidambaram's tenure as the Home Minister in 2010, the CBI had arrested Amit Shah in a fake encounter case. When he applied for bail, the CBI opposed the move in the Gujarat High Court arguing that Shah might use his political influence to tamper with the evidence or threaten witnesses. Today, Shah is the Home Minister. Clearly, there is a full circle of an eye-for-an-eye by either side. While we do not see Chidambaram jumping off a dam like Harrison Ford did trying to escape from the law in order to clear his name, the current prognosis is grim.

Delhi roads unsafe

A report reveals how one person dies in an accident every five hours because of rampant behaviour s a signatory to the Brasilia declaration on road safety, India intends to reduce accidents and traffic fatalities by 50 per cent in the next three years. So when a most damning report on the state of Delhi roads was released by the traffic police, revealing that one person died in a road accident every five hours on an average in 2018, it raised a million eyebrows. Not only that, fatalities rose to a fiveyear high and remained the highest for any city in the country, the report added. Breaking down the bone-chilling statistics, the report concluded that nearly half of these crashes. 46 per cent to be precise, were hit and run cases where the vehicle could not be identified. Of the 1,690 deaths, one-third were caused by speeding and 7-10 per cent due to dangerous driving, usually reckless lane-changing and stunts. In other words, driving behaviour and the Delhiite's gross indiscipline were diagnosed as reasons for the nightmarish state of affairs and something which no existing policy or penalty has clearly been able to rein in. The report also highlighted the role played by defective road designs, pathetic street lighting (33 per cent) and callously unguarded civic works (40 per cent) in causing accidents. Shockingly, 20 per cent of road deaths were attributed to bumpy roads and potholes, a severe indictment of the city's planners and the Public Works Department.

While the Delhi government and civic bodies need to hang their heads in shame, the fact remains that the situation in the rest of the country is not much different. As per data given by the government in reply to a question in the Lok Sabha recently, almost 1.5 lakh people lost their lives in road accidents in 2017. This means every hour 17 people died on Indian roads due to an accident. The number of fatalities is one third the number of accidents, which amounts to 53 road accidents every hour. Uttar Pradesh is the worst affected state with 20,124 people losing their lives, followed by Tamil Nadu with 16,157 fatalities. Such alarming figures prompted the Union Ministry of Road, Transport and Highways to announce that 63 clauses of the Motor Vehicle Act, which include stiffer penalties for traffic violations, drunken driving and over speeding, will be implemented from September 1 after due vetting by the Law ministry. Pointing out that road engineering was primarily responsible for road accidents in the country, the ministry said that a ₹14,000 crore project had been prepared by the government to identify accident black spots and plug gaps in highways to reduce casualties. Assuming the Delhi Government and the Union government collectively provide safe, better designed and world-class roads in the national Capital, would the errant driver mend his ways or roadroll every civil corrective?

A haunting silence

It is the telling silence of nations in the immediate east of Pakistan that has given Islamabad a resounding wake-up call to go beyond change in nomenclatures nternational diplomacy and issues are expressed in semantics and subtle wordsmithing that require to be carefully deconstructed and deciphered for its real intent. In any dispute, contrarian positions are publically posited by competing parties and a virtual race for endorsement of either of the competing narratives ensues. The cue to reading the reaction to conflicting arguments lies in the deployment of certain keywords, expressions and tonality that is expressed by the receiving audience at the end of the conflicting pitches.

In the tense and hyphenated domain of India-Pakistan realm, the 'K' (Kashmir) word dominates above all. Herein, the operative library of preferred words from New Delhi's perspective has been "bilateral", "crossborder terrorism" and "internal affairs" among others; whereas, from Islamabad's perspective, it has been "international mediation", "plebiscite" and "UN resolution." Even the language syntax, emotions and phraseology in the war-of-words between India and Pakistan is decidedly more escalatory, shriller and beseeching when it emanates from Islamabad.

Historically, irrespective of the merits in the topical India-Pakistan arguments, the audience would typically respond in favour or against either of the countries — on the basis of a certain predisposed equation and preference. It's only some unrelated country with negligible stakes which would occasionally partake an unbiased assessment of the arguments involved, as indeed, would some of the multilateral formations. Therefore, the inevitable play of certain "blocs" or realpolitik considerations resulted in a pre-decided tilt at least till now.

Post the recent revocation of the "special status" for Jammu and Kashmir as well as the planned bifurcation of the State into two *Union Territories", diplomats from both sides of the Line of Control have been expectedly scurrying across the global capitals to posit their respective sovereign positions. The lines and angularities of the arguments are standard with Pakistan aggressively goading other nations into either condemning the Indian action or seeking mediation. As usual, India has been posturing "bilateral" note, defending its actions as rote "internal matter", whilst cuttingly alluding to the recurring concerns of "cross-border terrorism." Barring this time, the Pakistanis are caught by surprise by the unfolding script not toeing the usual "divide" that accompanied Islamabad's earlier pitches on Kashmir. Global reaction has not only tilted heavily in India's favour or at best elicited bored disin-"telling silence" or "zero reaction" from the supposed allies of Pakistan

Undeniably, Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan had inherited a country with its economy in shambles and a discredited sovereign perception as the "terror nursery" of the globe. With traditional allies like the US openly castigating Islamabad for its duplici-

Khan made quick dashes to China and to the Gulf sheikhdoms and made sure that he personally drove the visiting Princes from Saudi Arabia, Qatar and the UAE when they visited his country. As money started trickling in and the noose of corruption tightened against his political opponents, Khan felt even more confident of his own position, success and that of his country. He postured reconciliatory accent (whilst still undertaking a Pulwama in parallel), yet his eye on the global map with a changed "Naya Pakistan" was clearly work-in-progress.

S'erendipitously, Washington's U-turn in Afghanistan offered yet another opportunity to Islamabad to thaw its freeze with the US and Kabul towards its strategic advantage. Suddenly, the move by the Indian Government to revoke Article 370 and 35A in Jammu and Kashmir put the worth of "Naya Pakistan" and its global efficacy to litmus test. Islamabad went into yet another round of Khan has been running from pillar-to-post and personally calling up the leaderships in the Gulf sheikhdoms, Iran, Indonesia and various other supposed "allies". He also sought an emergency meeting at the United Nations Security Council (UNSC). But so far, it has come a cropper. The US, the UN and the EU have instead suggested "maximum restraint" and embarrassingly so from Pakistan's perspective, "bilateral resolution and engagement".

Reportage in Pakistan is full of actions taken by the Government to escalate the issue with various Governments but there is a virtual silence, which is attributable directly to the leaderships in pitched countries. Even nations like the UAF have invoked the "bilateral" chorus. Amid Pakistani calls for bans, suspension of diplomatic relations and "solidarity moves" for ostensible concerns in Kashmir, Saudi Arabia announced mega deals with a major Indian conglomerate.

Barring China, which has ments in favour of its "all-weather friend" Pakistan, it continues grappling with its own imploding destiny in Hong Kong. Basically, Pakistan remains stunningly isolated and ignored.

Sabre-rattling by the Pakistani deep state (military) and its local political classes notwithstanding, the reality of a persisting trust deficit and perceptions of sovereign incorrigibility still abound the Pakistani narrative. The transactional equation with China is also premised on the strategic investments of China Pakistan Economic

Corridor (CPEC), which necessitates that Islamabad remains reciprocally mum on the fate of Uighur repression in China. The recent round of tensions between India and Pakistan has driven home the importance of political morality, economic relevance and stability as opposed to regressive pandering to co-religiosity in forums like OIC or charm offensives. These are clearly not bankable levers in times ike this. While China will continue to indulge Pakistan for its own strategic rationale, the Pakistani "model" is an inherent anathema to Chinese sensibilities. Even the US may pander to some Pakistani whims as it will seek to extricate itself from Afghanistan. However, it has been the telling silence of all the countries in the has given a resounding wake-up call to Islamabad to go beyond change in nomenclature and its insincere concerns in Kashmir.

A garb of concern

Sir — The Indian Medical Association (IMA) has rubbished a Lancet editorial ('Fear and uncertainty about Kashmir's future' published on August 17) where the journal expressed concerns about the mental health of Kashmiris, saying that it had no locus standi in the matter and that its interference was not welcome. It is unfortunate that the reputed medical journal The Lancet founded by an English surgeon in 1823 — has committed breach of propriety in commenting on this political issue. This amounts to interference in an internal matter of the Union of India.

The vexed Kashmir issue is a legacy that the British Empire left behind. The Lancet has unnecessarily reacted to an internal administrative decision of the Government of India under the garb of concern of health of Kashmiris. Where was it when the Kashmiri Pandits were massacred and driven out of Kashmir? Or the Uighur Muslims, who are locked away in China's anonymous prisons? Did it study their mental health, too? Perils of supping with the devil

Even if the Doha talks result in a ceasefire and a pact leading to a Taliban takeover, it may not ensure a conflict-free Afghanistan wo important developments occurred last week which bode ill — if that is any longer possible — for Afghanistan and its people. The first was the conclusion of the eighth round of talks between the United States and the Taliban at Doha, capital of Qatar, on August 14. The second was the suicide bombing of a wedding in Kabul on August 17, which left 63 people dead and 182 wounded. There are indications that the talks are close to yielding a ceasefire and a peace agreement. According to a recent report by Shereena Qazi in Al Jazeera, a Taliban representative, who is a part of the organisation's negotiating team told the channel, "This round of talks has been very productive and we are near to an agreement that will be finalised and hopefully announced in the next coming weeks.

Further, Qazi's report quotes the United States Special Representative for Afghanistan, Zalmay Khalilzad, as saying in a Twitter post, "They (the talks) were productive. I am on my way back to (Washington) DC to consult on next steps." All this may have been regarded as a welcome indication that peace would be coming soon to war-devastated Afghanistan, but for the strong possibility that the outcome of the talks would mean defeat for the United States and a victory for the Taliban who would, sooner than later, take over Afghanistan

There are three reasons for believing that it would be so. First, the US President Donald Trump's determination to withdraw from Afghanistan at all cost suggests that he may agree to a peace settlement that is tantamount to selling the present democratically-elected government in Kabul down the river. That this is likely to happen is suggested by the fact that his administration has abandoned the resolutely-held US position that the talks would have to include representatives of that government. On the other hand, the Taliban, who have steadfastly refused to have talks with the Kabul government on the ground that it was a "puppet regime," have had their way. Third, the US continues the Doha talks notwithstanding the fact that the Taliban continue to launch vicious ground attacks and terror strikes.

The Trump administration's holding of talks with the Taliban without the Kabul government's participation has further eroded the latter's already diminished authority caused by the Taliban's sustained large-scale offensives from their bases in Pakistan, with the full support of the Islamabad government. According to a report by the Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction (SIGAR), as of January 31, 2018, 229 districts were under the Afghan government's control, which is about 56.3 per cent of the total. Fifty-nine districts, approximately 14.5 per cent of all, were under the Taliban's control. The remaining 119 districts, about 29.2 per cent, remained contested — controlled by neither the Afghan government nor the rebels. Even if the Afghan government is still able to maintain its grip over 229 districts, it is to a large extent because of the security umbrella provided by the presence of 14,000 American and 17,000 troops from 39 countries which are the US' NATO allies.

Understandably, the Taliban want these troops out even though they are in a non-combative role. According to Qazi's report, the Taliban representative it had cited had further stated, "The main part of the discussion is the withdrawal timeline and the technicalities of it." The Taliban, according to another report, have made it known that they will make no commitments unless a timeline for troops withdrawal within months is announced. Of course, there still are hurdles in the way. The Taliban are not a monolith. Its military leaders may push for a delay to secure a more favorable situation on the ground. Its more fanatical factions, divided by leadership rivalries and professions of varying degrees of fanaticism, may not want any deal at all unless it is on terms that enable them to re-impose on Afghanistan the fundamentalist Islamist nightmare that had characterized their earlier incarnation in power, which had ended with their military defeat in 2001. Also, the Afghan government may not agree to the settlement on offer.

Besides, even a ceasefire and a peace agreement leading to a Taliban take-over may not ensure a conflict-free Afghanistan. Some of the more fanatical Taliban groups may continue fighting to restore the pre-2001 order which reduced women to domestic slavery and banished all forms of entertainment. Also, the Islamic State has established a growing presence and mounted a number of attacks including that on the Kabul wedding on August 17. Its bitter rivalry with the Taliban is well-known and it is unlikely to leave a government led by the latter in peace.

Far from becoming a land of peace, Afghanistan may, post a "peace settlement," turn into battleground of contesting Islamic fundamentalist groups each with its own sphere of influence. Given their intense hatred for the US, some of these areas may well turn into launching pads for strikes against it. While they may not be able to strike mainland America, they may target Americans and their interests worldwide. In that case, a peace agreement signed by the Trump administration in haste may turn out to be a cause for profound regret later.

Upping deterrence ante?

Defence Minister Rajnath Singh's statement on revising India's No First Use nuclear policy in the future is open to interpretation

VIVEK MISHRA

¬he Indian Defence Minister's recent statement, anticipating a possible change in India's nuclear policy in the future, is open to interpretation, and what it means for its nuclear doctrine in coming times is contingent on how the contours of India's conventional escalation with its neighbour Pakistan shapes up.

The statement by Rajnath Singh signals a facile if not deep thought within the Narendra Modi Government for some time now on the need to revise India's No First Use (NFU) policy, especially when seen as a corollary to the former Defence Minister, the late Manohar Parrikar's statement in 2016 about being open to revision of India's NFU policy.

Rajnath Singh's recent statement on NFU seems only a step forward, as unlike previously, it does not come with "personal opinion"

India first adopted a NFU policy after its second nuclear tests at Pokhran in 1998. Soon after, in August 1999, the Indian government released a draft of the doctrine which asserts that nuclear weapons were solely for deterrence and that India would as a nation pursue a policy of "retaliation only."

The document also maintains that India "will not be the first to initiate a nuclear first strike, but will respond with punitive retaliation should deterrence fail" and that decisions to authorise the use of nuclear weapons would be made by the Prime Minister or his 'designated successor(s)'.

That the Defence Minister's NFU comment came in Pokhran, the site of the 1998 nuclear tests, gives wings to speculation. It also comes days within the Modi Government's decision to change the status of Jammu and Kashmir, but most noticeably, amidst an ongoing diplomatic and cross-border escalation with Pakistan.

If this is any indication, it shows that the rungs of conventional escalation between India and Pakistan may be reaching the fag end, and the Indian government wants to come out of the retaliation-counter-retaliation cycle with a conventionally inferior power, which is on a quest to gain conventional parity with India. Pakistan's constant threat of battlefield conventional superiority gap assessment visà-vis Pakistan, setting foundations of a strategically revisionist thought process within

Chances of nuclear policy revision seem more plausible in the light of the Bharatiya Janata Party's (BJP) historical assessments about making India a credible nuclear power through a directly proportional relationship between the country's political will to revise its nuclear policy and deterrence-based postur-

The Vajpayee Government's decision to conduct the 1998 nuclear tests and project India as a credible nuclear power is a case in point. The Pokhran link to Rajnath Singh's comments further underpins this government's conviction about the aforementioned propor-

The Defence Minister's assertion has

IF BALAKOT LOWERED THE THRESHOLD FOR INDIA'S CONVENTIONAL RESPONSE TO PAKISTAN AND ALTERED THE NATURE OF RESPONSE, A DOCTRINAL SHIFT FROM NFU TO FU MIGHT GO A LONG WAY IN USHERING AN ALTERED DETERRENCE-INDUCED BEHAVIOUR IN HOPEFULLÝ LEADING TO A BETTER FUTURE FOR BILATERAL TIES BETWEEN INDIA AND PAKISTAN

reignited the debate on the need for India's nuclear policy revision but whether it means that India is ready for a change in its NFU policy and will move to a First Use (FU) strategy is debatable.

Currently, there are various technological and financial constraints for New Delhi in erecting an effective first strike capability against Pakistan or China. A credible FU nuclear strike capability, before anything, would require significant investments in Command, Control, Communications, Computer, Intelligence, Surveillance, and Reconnaissance (C4ISR) and Target Acquisition (TA) capabilities. The essence of FU strike capability is pre-emption and accuracy, and would require an unfailing intelligence and shorter time-gap in the readiness military decision-making, mating weapons with warheads, leading to final pre-empting strike on the enemy.

India's first strike aspirations also face structural constraints, particularly apropos the decision-making paradigm that exists as of now. The civilmilitary gap in India's strategic forces decision-making is deliberately made to create a non-provocative yet punitively reassuring second strike stance towards the enemy and, most importantly, to avert any rash decision leading to catastrophe. Such a doctrinal posture makes a lot of sense when viewed in the light of India's non-alignment past, but is increasingly losing currencv in the eyes of a revisionist government and a rallying nation.

India's current civil-military gap is ideal for a country with a NFU policy. It's a purposeful decoupling to mandate civilian supremacy in strategic decisionmaking and create checks and balances. In direct contrast to this, the FU force structure would possibly require an ever-vigilant and ready strategic posture with quick and decisive calls for action with quick and decisive calls for action when needed, which in turn would need a smaller gap between the civilian go-ahead and the military's final call, leading to the targeting and firing of the weapons with nuclear warheads.

New Delhi's lessening of the civilmilitary gap can be seen in the context.

military gap can be seen in the context of the government's recent decision to appoint a Chief of Defence Staff (CDS), a five-star General with possibly a Cabinet rank whose role would supersede the three armed forces chiefs.

The centralization of power only consolidate general decision-making in one office, but is likely to reduce intra-forces rivalry on issues of budget and government favourability between the three wings of the armed forces. In the strategic context and in relation to the country's nuclear force posture, the office of the CDS is likely to be more in tune with its FU strategy than it will be with its current NFU strategy. As such, the Defence Minister's statement hinting at a possible revision of India's nuclear strategy could also be seen in the context of India's decision to appoint a CDS.

While it is unlikely that India will go for a doctrinal alteration anytime soon, it could serve as an extremely potent plank to fight the next general elections in 2024. Given the kind of investments needed for readying a FU force structure, a revision anytime oon will be difficult.

However, to the extent that deterrence behavior in nuclear states is as much psychologically induced as it is from concrete, stated and factored capabilities, the Defence Minister's statement has caused visible concerns in Pakistan.

Locating India's overall NFU strategy, its force posture towards hostile neighbours, the number of warheads and the escalatory potential in a comparative context, paints a picture of a benign nuclear giant.

Doing away with NFU will repaint this picture, besides possibly affecting this picture, besides possibly affecting stability in the region.

That is a price this government is considering to pay in the light of New ly lessening conventional gap with Pakistan, especially with Pakistan's increasing tendency to factor Tactical Nuclear Weapons (TNW) within conventional escalation spectrum, and with the solidifying China-Pakistan

If Balakot lowered the threshold for India's conventional response to Pakistan and altered the nature of response, a doctrinal shift from NFU to FU might go a long way in ushering an altered deterrence-induced behaviour in Pakistan, hopefully leading to a better future for bilateral ties between India and Pakistan.

An overlooked solution to climate crisis

Grasslands are, perhaps, the most neglected ecosystem in the world. However, their ability to meet the climate change challenge must galvanise nations into putting them high on the conservation agenda. The Government must take note rasslands across the globe, especially in India, have played a silent but stellar role in reining in the process of climate change. But according to a study by Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences (PNAS) journal, climate change, pollution and various environment alterations across the globe are changing their identity. One of the key contributions made by grasslands is their inconspicuous role in containing carbon levels in the atmosphere. It is this storage capacity for carbon that makes grasslands effective warriors against climate change.

Nearly, 30 per cent of the world's carbon is stored in these grasslands, which makes them crucial in combating climate change. But their ecology is shifting due to human activities, says a new study. The PNAS team conducted 105 experiments in different grasslands around the world. Each experiment focussed on particular global change factors like rising carbon dioxide, hotter temperatures and drought. Grasslands showed resilience to these factors in the first ten years of exposure, after that their species began to alter, the study said. Half of the PNAS experiments, lasting ten years or more, showed a change in the number of species in grasslands. The study also found that their identity can change rapidly without a reduction in the number of plant species but due to the change in individual plants. Even though the grasslands are resilient towards global change for around ten years, they are vulnerable due to the fast pace of global change Increasingly, the scientific community across the world is forming the opinion that the role of grasslands needs to be acknowledged. They intervention so as to arrest their degradation. They occupy more than 40 per cent of all the ice-free land in the world. These assets of nature have sustained humans for the past 300 million years — right from the time when the first homo sapiens appeared in Africa. They also provide food and shelter to various other species, including zebras and giraffes.

Closer home, grasslands happen to be the least understood habitat of nature. There is also a paucity of effective studies on their efficacy. Still, the fact that they play a pivotal role in keeping a check on climate change cannot be ignored. Grasslands in India share their existence with some trees, shrubs and herbs. They are found at various altitudes and in various geographical regions under different climatic con-

Thus, grasslands are also found in altitudes higher than 2,100 metres where the temperature is cold. Some are found at an altitude between 150 to 300 metres where the temperature is warm. Apart from the climatic conditions where the grasslands exist, there are other variants, mainly five major types.

Each of these has its own characteristic. The most widespread grassland in India are the Imperata type. Our country has no dearth of diversity of greens but there is certainly a shortage of robust policies to protect them against human exploitation. This usually happens when grasslands are misrepresented as barren lands and usurped by land sharks and land mafia.

In a country where standing trees in a forest are being felled to encroach land, grasslands naturally don't stand a chance. But matters such as these are of public knowledge. This is why it is even more puzzling that the National Green Tribunal (NGT) or even the Central Government has not come out with a forceful protection policy.

The apathy can be judged from the fact that semi-arid open areas are now being classified as wastelands, leaving them vulnerable to human intervention and encroachments. These so-called wastelands are, in fact, grasslands but neither are they given due recognition nor proper classification. The Government must not shift the burden of land requirement to cater to a burgeoning population onto the grasslands by labeling them as wastelands. Unless we course-correct, we will lose many hectares of grasslands forever. Additionally, the wildlife that is found on these grasslands needs to be recognised and categorised so that it get chances for survival. Currently, there is little or no study or data available for the rich flora and fauna available in India. The Government must also increase awareness and recognise the support of indigenous local people so that India can benefit from their efforts to conserve grasslands. In order to do this, we must take a cue from other nations where vast savannahs have been respected and conserved over centuries. The methods and systems followed by these countries are in public domain and available to be implemented in the Indian context. Grasslands are the life breath in the fight against climate change. They must be protected and conserved.

VENTING HATRED The original fury of Gamergate was sparked by the emergence of games as a cultural form which could be used to convey more than the simple pleasures of blasting imaginary enemies — and was beginning to attract newly diverse audiences. This process continues. No one subculture — not even teenaged white boys now owns games. This opening remains, a source of fury. But perhaps, five years on, it should also be viewed as a reason to hope. (The Guardian editorial)

On Tuesday, the Indian unit had closed at a six-month low of 71.71

The recovery in the Indian unit was seen despite headwinds in form of economic uncertainties, FDI outflows and rise in global crude oil prices, according to forex traders. Besides, investors continued to fret over long-lasting US China trade war.

Meanwhile, foreign investors pulled out Rs 770.81 crore from Indian equities on Wednesday, as per exchange dollar index — which gauges the greenback's strength against a basket of six currencies - fell 0.01 per cent to 98.18.

The 10-year Indian government bond yield was down 6.57 per cent on Wednesday.

"Despite brent crude price rising for last four consecutive sessions and higher dollar index levels, the rupee managed to recoup some of the losses registered in the previous two sessions," V K Sharma, Head PCG & Capital Markets Strategy, HDFC Securities, said.

Emerging market currencies advanced as investors assessed the latest remarks from the US on trade talks with China, he said adding that trading was muted ahead of the US Federal Reserve's July meeting minutes and Jackson Hole symposium later in the week.

Meanwhile, Financial Benchmark India Private Ltd (FBIL) set the reference rate for the rupee/dollar at 71.6483 and for rupee/euro at 79.3682. The reference rate for rupee/British pound was fixed at 86.7809 and for rupee/100 Japanese yen at 67.27.

India Inc reports lower revenue, profit growth in Q1: Report

The ongoing economic slow-down has started hurting corporates as well, with companies reporting a sharp decline in both revenue and profit growth numbers in the June quarter, a report said on Wednesday.

India Inc's net sales growth for the June quarter slid to 4.6 per cent as against 13.5 per cent for the same period last year, while the net profit growth moderated to 6.6 per cent as compared to last year's 24.6 per

The findings are based on an analysis of 2,976 companies which have reported their quarterly numbers by domestic rating agency Care Ratings.

"The first quarter of the fiscal year 2019-20 has been marked by disappointing and weak corporate earnings indicative of the overall slowdown in various industries and the economy," it said.

In what can be termed as a silver lining, the broader economic woes do not seem to have had an impact on the orgnaised sector jobs, as the employee expenses growth continued to be stable.

Employees compensation grew 10.6 per cent as compared to the year-ago period, the study showed.

growth slid to a five-year low of 5.8 per cent for the March quarter and is widely expected to come lower for the June quarter. There have also been reports of jobless growth and a skewed nature of economic growth, where the "have-nots" are being left behind.

From the operating profit growth perspective, the Care Ratings study showed a slide down to 4.1 per cent in June quarter as against double digit growth last year.

However, the operating profit margin was stable at about 20 per cent level, it said.

Excluding banks and financial sector companies, a survey of 2,574 entities showed tax outgo declining by 19 per cent during June quarter, as against a robust 52.3 per cent growth in the year-ago

The profit after tax for these companies fell by 11.9 per cent during the same period, as against a growth of 52.9 per cent registered in the year-ago

It can be noted that a slew of business leaders, including doyens like L&T chairman A M Naik and Bajaj Auto's Rahul Bajaj have been flagging concerns on economic growth and its impact on the corporates as

ASIAN MARKETS DROP AS TRADERS AWAIT POWELL SPEECH

Equities stuttered in Asia Wednesday as investors took a step back after recent gains, with focus now turning to a key speech by Federal Reserve boss Jerome Powell at the end of the week.

Rising hopes for China-US trade talks have provided a much-needed lift to markets over the past two days but with few fresh catalysts, dealers are keeping their powder dry ahead of Friday's address.

After positive signals from Donald Trump and some of his top advisers on Monday over progress in the talks with Beijing, and an olive branch with the delay of a ban on Huawei purchases, there have been few developments for traders to buy on.

Gold hits new high of ₹38,820; silver jumps ₹1,140

Gold prices traded weak with international spot gold prices but continue to hover around USD 1,500 an ounce.

In the national capital, gold of 99.9 per cent and 99.5 per cent purity rose ₹50 each to ₹38,820 and ₹38,650 per 10 gram respectively Sovereign gold advanced by ₹200 at ₹28,800 per eight grams. India's GDP growth set to slow further in Apr-Jun qtr to 5.7 pc: Nomura

Tndia's economic growth is set to slow further in the April-June quarter of this year to 5.7 per cent amid contraction in consumption, weak investments and an under-performing service sector, says a Nomura report.

According to the global financial services major, even though growth is set to slow further in Q2 (April-June) the economy is expected to see some recovery in the July-September quarter.

"High-frequency indicators continue to show familiar pain points — a deep contraction in consumption, weak investment, a slowing external sector and an under-performing services sector," Nomura said in a research note.

indicators are showing early signs of bottoming out. Data so far for July show that 53 per cent of indicators have improved compared with 31 per cent in June, the report noted.

Nomura's Composite

Leading Index (CLI) for O3 (July-September) has ticked marginally higher to 99.9 from 99.8 in Q2, led by higher industrial production growth, an improvement in visitor arrivals growth, equity markets and lower policy rates.

While the concurrent state of the economy remains quite concerning, nascent signs of green shoots and positive performance of leading indicators provide some signs that a recovery may be slowly materialising," the Nomura report said.

vating the problem.

Though there are increasing signs of the government taking stock of the slowdown, and possibly announcing some short-term measures to buoy business confidence, Nomura assesses limited fiscal space for any substantive stimulus.

"We currently expect GDP growth in Q2 to slow to 5.7 per cent YoY from 5.8 per cent in Q1, before improving to 6.4 per cent YoY in Q3 and 6.7 per cent in Q4," it said, adding that it was closely watching for signs of sustainability of the growth turnaround.

The Central Statistics Office will come out with the GDP figures for the first quarter (April-June) on August 30.

Meanwhile, the automobile sector is facing its worst crisis in two decades and reports suggest thousands of job losses in the auto and ancillary industry.

In the real estate sector, the number of unsold homes has increased, while fast-moving consumer goods companies have reported a decline in volume growth in the first quarter.

B'desh backs No complete withdrawal Modi Govt on Article 370

Bangladesh said on Tuesday that revoking the special status to Jammu and Kashmir is India's internal matter and maintaining regional peace and stability should be a priority for all countries.

Bangladesh' reaction on the issue came a day after External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar visited the country and held talks with the top leadership, including Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina.

"Bangladesh maintains that the abrogation of Article 370 by the Indian Government is an internal issue of India," the Ministry of Foreign Affairs said here in a statement.

"Bangladesh has always advocated, as a matter of principle, that maintaining regional peace and stability, as well as development should be a priority for all countries," it said.

Tensions between India and Pakistan spiked this month after New Delhi abrogated pro-

US 'prepared to engage' with N Korea in nuclear talks: envoy

AFP SEOUL

The United States is ready to sit down with North Korea to resume long-awaited working-level nuclear talks, a US envoy said Wednesday. Nuclear discussions between Washington and Pyongyang have stalled since a second summit in Hanoi in February ended without an agreement over differences on the extent of denuclearisation and sanctions relief in return.

But anticipation for renewed dialogue has been on the rise after the US and its security ally South Korea wrapped up their two-week joint military drill on Tuesday. "We are prepared to engage as soon as we hear from our counterparts in North Korea," said Stephen Biegun, the US special representative for North Korea, after his meeting with South Korean counterpart

Johnson told reporters.

The comments come amid speculation that Americans could meet with North Koreans at the demilitarised zone dividing the North and South to kick start working-level talks during Biegun's three-day stay in Seoul, which began Tuesday. The US envoy denied media reports he would soon take a diplomatic posting in Russia, saying he remained "focused on making progress" with North Koreans and "fully committed" to the goal of the denuclearisation in the North.

Pyongyang considers the joint military exercise by the allies a rehearsal for invasion and has routinely expressed anger at the war games. The drills are a grave military provocation" and a "challenge to and mockery of our efforts for peace", the North's official Rodong Sinmun newspaper said Wednesday in a

PTI HOUSTON

Howdy, Modi!", the community event to be addressed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi here next month has been sold out with over 50,000 people registering for the programme, the organisers said.

"Howdy", short for 'How do you do?', is a friendly greeting commonly used in southwestern United States

Over 50,000 supporters have already registered for the mega community summit in September at the NRG Stadium, the host Texas India Forum (TIF), a Houston-based nonprofit body, said. The live audience will be the largest ever for an Indian Prime Minister in North America and also the largest for a foreign leader in the US other than Pope Francis.

Potential attendees can still register for the free event. However, new registrants will be on a waiting list. Registration for the university students is open until August 29th as part of a special allotment, they said.

Prime Minister Modi is scheduled to visit the US next month to attend the United Nations General Assembly on September 27, prior to which he will travel to Houston to meet the leading businesses, political and community leaders here in Houston, the fourth largest city with a population of over 130,000 Indian-Americans.

The summit, with the tagline of 'Shared Dreams, Bright Futures' will highlight the contributions of Indian-Americans to enrich the American life as well as the key role it has played in strengthening relations between the two

"On behalf of the hundreds of thousands of Indian-Americans in Texas, and as cochair of the Senate India Caucus, I welcome Prime Minister Modi to Houston," said US Senator

'Every child should have the right start

Actress SONAM KAPOOR has joined the Bollywood bandwagon spreading awareness on children's rights, as part of #WhyTheGap campaign promoted by Save The Children India.

The actress shared a photo of her school days and tweeted, "My school days were the happiest. I believe that education is the path to independence and freedom. We should all be asking #WhyTheGap and working towards #TheRightStart for every child.'

She believes that every child should have the right start because true independence can be achieved through education.

'I know that all my films have not made wonders at the box office, but that has not stopped me from experimenting. Even if they don't work, I am glad about the roles I am offered. They are strong and well edged-out. As an actor, I am always looking for something different which is a new challenge and a great learning. -Shraddha Kapoor rdering food online or getting heavy discounts on meals during a dinner at some outlet has changed the definition of how we look at eating out today. And certainly, Zomato and the likes of it have a huge role to play here. However, even though this might have made ordering and deliveries easier and even increased the popularity of the outlets associated with such platforms, it never gave a clear picture of who actually raked in the profits and who stood at the other end.

Well, picture this. A person called X has started his own venture, conceptualising a tiny, cloud kitchen tucked in the corner of the city, which serves the food only through deliveries via various food apps online. He listed his outlet on Zomato and Swiggy. However, a few months later, the advent of a set of new rules by Zomato, which restricted the food preparation time for restaurants to 15 minutes, disappointed X. He and his team prepare the dishes from the scratch and cannot finish working on them in such a short span. Zomato, to keep up the delivery game, also instructed the restaurants that fines would be levied on them if they delay the acceptance of orders or miss the deadlines. This might have benefitted the food delivery service app in increasing its popularity but X certainly believes that such apps cannot dictate what and how he should sell to his customers. Another factor that hurts him and many like him in the industry is the concept of deep-discounting by food aggregators that has made many restaurants realise that they are losing more than they're gaining. And it has started to hurt the margins.

Launching a logging out campaign against the dine-in schemes, around 1,200 restaurants in major cities have delisted themselves from food aggregator apps like Zomato Gold, Dineout, Magicpin, NearBuy, etc. The campaign is led by the National Restaurants Association of India (NRAI). President Rahul Singh recently said, "It's decided that all aggregators will rejig their features, which will allow the rectaurant customer." which will allow the restaurant-customer ecosystem to detox from the addiction of deep discounts that has crippled the industry." As per the data, Zomato has said that it would consider redesigning its Gold membership, which allows users to avail one or two dishes or drinks free at the associated restaurants. It will also put on hold its Zomato Infinity offer, which enables the 'Eat As Much As You Can' offer. Over the past six days, Zomato has lost one per cent of its restaurant partner base of its membershipbased dining-out scheme service, Gold. Zomato founder and chief-executive Deepinder Goyal had tweeted against the campaign, urging restaurant owners to stop it and rather plan out sustainable options together. The tweet also added that the aggregator will make modifications to Zomato Gold, "which will result in a win-win situation for restaurants and consumers.

The online food delivery and dinein aggregators, including Zomato, have now agreed to tone down and rationalise their offers and heavy discounts. Ankit

DISCOUNTS NOT A PRIVILEGE

As the #Logout campaign is making waves in the food industry, here is a take of restaurateurs, who believe that units are not in the best of shape and as a result, food aggregators are scavenging from them. The latter, too, are now meeting them half way. By CHAHAK MITTAL

Mehrotra, co-founder and CEO, Dineout, tells us that the follow-up decision had been taken after they had an "insightful" meeting with the NRAI and restaurantowners regarding the campaign. He says that NRAI has acknowledged their "restaurant-first approach," and points out that over the past eight years, "we have always believed in sustainable discounting. Each of our 18,000 restaurant partners across 17 cities are free to decide their own promotions depending upon the day of the week and the time of the day and we do not believe in enforcing a common discounting strategy."

He draws comparisons and says that Gourmet Passport acts as a discovery programme for their curated list of 1,700 restaurants, "which restricts the unlimited 1+1 offer to three free dishes every restaurant per year, whereas, other platforms offer 1+1 every day of the year." He says that however, they are currently in constant discussion with restaurantowners to create a "win-win" situation for Zorawar Kalra, founder and managing director at Massive Restaurants, says, "In an industry with already razorthin margins, the deep discounting being offered by some of the aggregators creates huge pressure on the industry." He points out how the adoption rates were initially high to get on to this aggregate of platforms due to competitive pressures. "The picture that was initially shown was that of an increasing size of the industry. However, what started out as something that would increase footfalls to the restaurants and in general increase revenues, enhance the guest experience, has turned into massive discounts that render unprofitable sales. In many cases, it ends up costing the restaurant to service these offers. The restaurant lives and breathes due to its patrons and will go to the ends of the earth for them. We believe in a sustainable ecosystem whereby aggregators help increase the size of the industry in a sustainable manner by focussing on quality rather than discounting," he says and suggests that only then can restaurants and aggregator platforms jointly thrive. Savar Malhotra, managing partner of The Embassy Restaurant, Connaught Place, believes that it is a great initiative taken by NRAI and they are supporting the campaign because "we feel aggregators are misusing their pow-

Certainly, aggregators have built their products without taking into count any inputs from the restaurants. "They need to understand that the restaurant is the star. They are using our products to sell discounting addiction to the customer which is dangerous. Addiction of any kind is poor and especially, if you give discounts, it only has a negative effect on the industry in the long run," says Kalra and goes on to add that a typical margin of the restaurant is 15 to 18 per cent and some of these discounts amount to more than 25 to 30 per cent. Says he, "And sometimes it is even 50 per cent, which means the restaurant is losing money every time they serve a customer, which comes through one of these platforms.

Pointing towards the GST reforms where the input tax credit was removed from the restaurant industry, he says, it had even bigger "delusionary and deflationary pressure" on the industry and as a result, restaurants are finding it difficult to stay afloat. "One also needs to understand that the industry is the second largest employee of human capital in the country and contributes to almost two per cent of country's GDP. A few years ago before these aggregator platforms came on, their growth graph was good. The industry was growing at 21 per cent annually, which means every four years, it was doubling and margins were good," he says. It was the time when customers used to be happy when they were given a "complementary dessert or a cocktail." However, today, the difference has come. Even if the customers liked the place but didn't get a sop, they would walk out. "And restaurants simply cannot afford this. If the margin is 15 per cent, how can I pay a 25 per cent discount? It would mean I am losing out 10 per cent on every dish that I serve," adds

Talking about how they can redesign their schemes, Malhotra says, "Restaurants don't have heavy margins to afford the 'buy one get one free' concept. Also, we are here to make money and not to work for aggregators. Hence, any scheme that will be introduced should take the cost of products in account." Kalra suggests that the restaurants can serve better only if these platforms "do not come in the way" because Indians love eating out and it's always been a source of entertainment for them. He says, "We spend the highest amount of disposable income in eating out than any other form of entertainment. The restaurant industry is 40 times larger than Bollywood. The removal of discounts might create certain interim problems of some short-lived issues, where people who were addicted to discounts might start eating out less. But this will definitely change because people inherently love going out. Moreover, since the restaurant will be more profitable, it will be able to focus more on high quality rather than dilute quality to serve the discounted customers."

However, there are two questions which arise here. First, if these platforms are completely put away, many people and delivery partners would be left unemployed. What would happen to them? Second, there are many food outlets which had never associated themselves with these food apps. They have run on their original prices. Why did the registered restaurants then accept them in the first place, knowing that this might land them in losses?

Let's express art in motion

Kuchipudi dancer ARUNIMA KUMAR tells Sakshi Sharma that she wants to break the traditional notion associated with the dance form and use it as therapy to lift others

A s newer dance forms make their way into the art industry, it is important to revive these traditional dance forms and teach the younger generation about their richness too. Ustad Bismillah Khan awardee and Kuchipudi dancer Arunima Kumar feels the urge to fill this void and takes dance to places it has never been

She practises dance therapy with cancer patients in hospitals as she is a keen believer of inclusive art. "We tell them stories through dance, do chants, slokas and a lot of rhythm and footwork next to their beds. This brightens them up and helps them validate their existence,"

Arunima recalls one of the incidents when a girl, who could sing well, sang with them and the entire ward joined her. It was a treat to their eyes. Such positive activities help them regain their confidence in life. And in a similar way, she makes the cancer survivors dance as they start getting better. Everyone has a state of distress in life at some stage or the other but Arunima feels that when you are involved in art, it has the capacity to lift you up and teleport you to a very different world altogether, where you forget the worries of life.

She believes that art deserves to travel places rather than sticking to the stage. "There shouldn't be any restrictions in dance. It should encompass a diverse range of human activities and their ways of expression," she says and adds, "Folk dance culture began from farmers who danced and celebrated the harvest season. And people enjoyed that together irrespective of the age gap or the differences in financial status between them." But things are different today. She points towards the rigid structure that we are slowly getting accustomed to and it needs to break down. Her first step towards this, she says, was "visiting villages and slums and teach the natives about dance and its diverse applications across the world. When I interact with them and answer their questions, the kind of happiness I see in their eyes is unparalleled.

She is trying to change the dynamics of Kuchipudi and Indian classical dance across the globe by organising festivals that would showcase its richness.

She will be organising the third edition of the Kuchipudi International Festival in November in London, which would provide a platform to 80 to 100 artists to show their talent. It will include her students ranging from the age of four to 60, Natayanjali group from Cambridge, Bharatanatyam group and various others. She says, "It is a festival where we promote different dance forms and music but the focus remains on Kuchipudi. We also invite guest artists and facilitate innovative collaborations." Through this she wants to inspire children as they see amazing artists perform so beautifully. This generates curiosity in them to know the dance form and its roots. "Otherwise they just perform with each other and get bored after a few years. Through this, they are not just looking among themselves but their seniors as well," she adds. It also helps to inspire their parents and tell them how important it is to teach the child about our traditions and dance forms at an early age. The audience consists of a lot of foreigners also, this in turn is taking Indian classical beyond the borders. The festival also includes dances on mythological tales, the tales of Vishnu and Kalangan Rathna.

Talking about one of the most innovative collaborations with a step chain studio, she says, "They have dancers who perform Latin American style on wheel-chair. This year I have integrated Kuchipudi with it." She explains the idea behind this that such a dance form challenges the perception of body. When it comes to a disabled person, we look at them with sympathy as they can't dance. But, sometimes we cannot fathom their potential. "The way they dance with their challenge surprises me because they do it so beautifully," Arunima adds.

She has collaborated with Baluji foundation, the world's only blind orchestra and created a piece called antardrishti n them. It is a blind cast of musicians and four dancers who could see. She did that show in darkness as she wanted the audience to feel it and understand how it feels when your world is dark. Citing the experience as an amazing one, she says, "While I was working with them they could sense when I am well and when I am not. They could figure out my mood." She developed her love affair with Kuchipudi while she was learning it from Jayarama Rao and Vanashree Rao. Arunima says she found a home in terms of her dance school because she learnt a lot of tradition and history from them. Along with this she used to have makeup and abhinay session too. Talking about her journey, Arunima says, "It was a beautiful journey initially but was difficult to manage with my studies but I clinged onto it. I would skip a film with my friends but never skip the dance class." She feels it is this commitment which helped her step the ladder of suc-

Talking about the strong identity India is gaining at an international level, Arunima says, "I am very proud of that. I proudly wear my Indian outfits and bindi but I am extremely contemporary in my outlook. I understand the aesthetics of my society so that I stay relevant." But there is a huge gap to promote classical Indian art in the UK and Arunima wanted to fill this gap. She is trying to embed her art in the DNA of the British society. Indian art can surpass barriers, even if people don't understand our language they know what we do. She wants to make this art accessible to the global audience. Arunima feels that just like yoga, an entire ecosystem needs to be created to revive dance forms as well. She says, "Indian dance has music and techniques and is an extension of yoga. Our poses, postures and rhythm coupled with mythology offers so much altogether."

She works on social issues like mental illness and domestic violence as it affects her deeply and is close to her heart. Arunima shares further that she loves to integrate with anything that affects her and her performances are making a difference. Arunima says, "I am glad that at least I am provoking debate, I am breaking barriers. It's always difficult for me to do it, when I start I don't know how it will go, but at the end of the day when the artist and the audience have something to say about the performance, I think I have

Marvel breaks up with Spiderman

The Marvel Cinematic Universe will no longer produce Spider-Man films, after negotiations fell through between Disney and Sony Pictures.

The two studios have been sharing the brand

Spider-Man across a plethora of films since 2015. As part of the previous agreement, Marvel had also been acting as producer of the 2017 and 2019 standalone Sony Spider-Man films starring Tom Holland. Both films were blockbusters.

However, Disney and Sony recently broke the deal as they are unable to reach new terms for funding of future films. Marvel president Kevin Feige, who served as creative lead in the two latest films of the franchise Spider-Man: Far From Home and Spider-Man: Homecoming, will not have the same role in the two movies reportedly in the works, unless an agreement

A statement has been issued on behalf of Sony Pictures on their official Twitter handle. "Much of today's news about Spider-Man has mischaracterised recent discussions about Kevin Feige's involvement in the franchise. We are disappointed, but respect Disney's decision not to have him continue as a lead producer of our next live action Spider-Man film. We hope this might change in the future, but understand that the many new responsibilities that Disney has given him - including all their newly added Marvel properties - do not allow time for him to work on IP they do not own. Kevin is terrific and we are grateful for his help and guidance and appreciate the path he has helped put us on, which we will continue," the statement read.

The news left many Spider-Man fans in shock. Deadpool actor Ryan Reynolds also expressed grief. One fan tagged Tom Holland and Reynolds in a tweet, asking them for a crossover film featuring Spider-Man and Deadpool.

"Can we get a Spider-Man and Deadpool movie now," the person wrote. Responding to the tweet, Reynolds said, "You can. But you can only see it in my

Not only this, actor Jeremy Renner, who played Hawkeye in the Marvel films so far, tweeted, "Hey Sony Pictures, we want Spider-Man back please."

Modi inaugurates BHEL project in Bhutan

BHEL has installed 4x180 MW Mangdechhu hydroelectric project at Thimpu, Bhutan. It was inaugurated by Narendra Modi in the presence of Bhutan's Prime Minister, Dr Lotay Tshering.
With this, it has demonstrated its engineering and project management skills and a commitment to undertake challenging jobs as part of its responsibility towards relation building with neighbouring countries. The Mangdechhu Hydroelectric Project Authority (MHPA) officials have appreciated this effort.

BHEL has executed the electro-mechanical package for the project which includes design, manufacture, supply, transportation, ing of generating units and associated auxiliaries including pelton turbines, generators, governors, MIV, etc along with balance of plant items — bus duct, DC system, EOT cranes etc. The equipment have been supplied from BHEL's manufacturing units at Bhopal, Bengaluru, Rudrapur, Hyderabad, Jhansi and Mumbai, while erection and commissioning on site was carried out by the company's power sector in eastern region, Kolkata.

The run-of-the-river hydroelectric plant constructed on Mangdechhu river in Bhutan has a gross head of 692 metre, with four numbers pelton turbines generating 720 MW from the project. The project has been executed under difficult terrain conditions with limited road connectivity as well as frequent disruptions during monsoons. This pelton turbine is the highest rating vertical turbine, designed, manufactured and supplied by BHEL outside India. The state-of-the-art valmet DNA-based plant controls have also been deployed by BHEL for the first time for a hydro power project outside

This will enable the Ordnance Factories to respond faster to the futuristic needs of the Armed Forces and provide an impetus to the export potential of its products.

Indian players celebrate after scoring against New Zealand during Olympics Test event final match on Wednesday

PTI ■ TOKYO

The Indian men's hockey team won the Olympic Test event here on Wednesday, beating New Zealand 5-0 to avenge the loss it endured in their round robin clash.

Captain Harmanpreet Singh (7th minute) set the ball rolling before Shamsher Singh (18th minute), Nilakanta Sharma (22nd minute), Gursahibjit Singh (26th minute) and Mandeep Singh (27th minute) scored for India at the Oi Hockey Stadium here.

India had lost 1-2 to New Zealand earlier in round robin league-stage.

"We played very well. We managed to score our opportunities at the start of the game," Harmanpreet said after the tri-

However, Harmanpreet didn't miss out on a re-awarded penalty corner. He executed a perfect dragflick to put India in the lead. The Indian team continued to hold possession and put tremendous pressure on the New Zealand defense as they ended the first quarter at 1-0. Shamsher scored India's second goal through a penalty corner in the 18th minute. New Zealand managed to make only two circle entries in the second quarter as the Indian team scored three more goals.

Nilakanta found the back of the net in the 22nd minute scored in quick succession. Vivek Prasad intercepted the ball brilliantly to assist a goal for Gursahibjit and Mandeep converted a penalty corner just before the half-time whistle.

After an action-packed first half, the intensity dropped from both sides. New Zealand tried to make a few inroads in the third quarter as they took a shot in the 37th minute which went wide of Jarmanpreet Singh saved a penalty corner in the next minute as India and New Zealand played out a goalless quarter but the former held the lead at 5-0. In the last quarter, India ensured they stayed in the lead and didn't allow New Zealand to break through their defense throughout the match.

India's attacking approach in the match paid off as they walked off the pitch as winners of the competition.

EVES EDGE PAST JAPAN

The Indian women hockey team also won the Olympic Test event with Navjot Kaur and Lalremsiami leading the side to a 2-1 win over Japan in the final.

Navjot Kaur (11th minute) opened the scoring to put India ahead but the lead was neutralised within a minute as Minami Shimizu (12') scored for the hosts.

Lalremsiami (33') struck the winning goal for India.

India dominated the first 10 minutes, and finally managed to find the breakthrough when Forward Navjot kept her nerves under pressure and produced a fine finish in front of the goal

However, the next minute saw Japan strike back immediately with a well-crafted field goal which was put into the back of the net by Shimizu to make it 1-1.

The second quarter saw both the teams focus on their defensive structure and tread carefully in the attacking third.

It was an aggressive start from the Indian team after the half-time break as they won themselves a penalty corner in the 33rd minute.

India's prolific drag-flicker Gurjit Kaur stepped up to take the execution, but her shot was saved by the Japanese Goalkeeper Megumi Kageyama.

However, the rebound fell to India's young Forward Lalremsiami, who did not make a mistake in putting the ball into the back of the net to make it 2-1 for India.

It was a huge blow to the hosts who were finding it difficult to cope up with India's rhythm, but after some tough battles in the midfield, the Japanese team earned themselves back-to-back penalty corners in the 42nd minute.

However, India's defense was up to the task, and made sure that they protected their lead. India also had a penalty corner in the 45th minute, but could not extend their

The first chance of the last quarter came India's way but Kageyama made a diving save. Japan too got back-to-back penalty corners but Indian Goalkeeper Savita made a great save on the second attempt to make sure that India saw out a perfect combination and a winning A start will be foremost on skipper Viral Kohli's mind when India take on West Indies in their inaugural World Test Championship opener here on Thursday.

A win in the opening Test will be the 27th for Kohli as skipper and will put him on even keel with his predecessor Mahendra Singh Dhoni. A century in the game (19th as captain) will place him on par with Ricky Ponting.

On paper, a batting line-up that has Kohli, Cheteshwar Pujara, KL Rahul, Rohit Sharma and Rishabh Pant in the ranks should be termed clear favourites but this West Indies team, led by Jason Holder, is no

England found that out the hard way at the start of the year when they lost a Test series 1-2 in some of the most lively pitches on the Caribbean islands in recent times.

One such pacer-friendly wicket was at the Sir Vivian Richards Stadium in Antigua where Kohli and his men will be facing the Windies first up.

The last Test played here saw England scoring 187 and 132 but that was a different time of the year.

Nevertheless, Kohli and head coach Ravi Shastri, who recently got a fresh contract, will be wary of the challenge that can be posed by the new ball pair of Kemar Roach and Shannon Gabriel along with Jason Holder bowling his steady seam-up spells.

If there is pace and bounce, Kohli is likely to go with four specialist bowlers in which Ravichandran Ashwin and Kuldeep Yadav will be fighting for the lone spinner's slot. The three pacers, in all likelihood, will

that will be the skipper's primary worry and if he can get it right, that will be considered as a tactical victory.

In an ideal situation, if Hardik Pandya was available, Kohli would have been tempt-

The West Indies team in the Test format has been an understated one with players who have more talent than what the numbers currently show.

FAISEL FEATURES

In Shai Hope, John Campbell and Shimron Hetmyer, they have the three talented youngsters.

Roston Chase, during the 2016 series against India, had thwarted Ashwin for a whole fifth day in Kingston after West Indies were staring at an innings defeat. In addition to that, he is a steady off-spinner with 50 Test wickets.

Darren Bravo is their most experienced batsman with 52 Tests and nearly 3500 runs under his belt.

However, the kind of talent he is, an average of 38 plus with only eight hundreds doesn't justify that.

All eyes will also be on whether, the new "giant" of world cricket, Rahkeem Cornwall is given an opportunity.

His imposing physical structure may have grabbed attention but Cornwall has also been a performer with his effective off-breaks and handy lower-middle-order batustralia coach Justin Langer has told A instralia coach jusuil Langer has tole his side to avoid being drawn into a bouncer battle after Steve Smith was ruled out of the third Ashes Test against England.

Star batsman Smith suffered delayed concussion symptoms after being hit on his neck by a 92 mph bouncer from England fast bowler Jofra Archer during the drawn second Test at Lord's.

His absence from the third Test at Headingley starting today leaves Australia with a huge hole to fill.

Smith marked his return to Test cricket after a 12-month ball-tampering ban with innings of 144 and 142 during Australia's 251-run win in the first Test at

He also made 92, having retired hurt after being hit when on 80, at Lord's where Marnus Labuschagne, Test cricket's first concussion substitute, made a brave fifty in the second innings after being hit flush on the grille of his helmet by Archer.

World Cup-winning fast bowler Archer struck several telling blows on a Test debut that yielded five wickets.

Australia also have plenty of fast-bowling firepower at their disposal in Pat Cummins, Josh Hazlewood and Mitchell Starc. But Langer insisted his side would not be sidetracked from their goal of becoming the first Australia side in 18 years to win an Ashes series in England.
"We know what our plans are to beat England," Langer told reporters at Headingley, where the third Test starts on today.

"It's not an ego game," the former Australia opening batsman insisted. "We're here to win the Test match, not to see how many bruises we can give. "I'm sure the bouncer will still be part of every bowler's armoury, if it helps us get batsmen out then we'll use it, otherwise we'll keep sticking to the plan."

England are still without James Anderson after their all-time leading wicket-taker broke down with a calf injury after bowling just four overs at Edgbaston.

Smith and England opener Rory enough runs to play with.

Burns apart, both top-orders have struggled in the face of some quality fast bowl-

But England have stuck by Jason Roy, even though the World Cup-winning opener averages just 10 in four innings this

Roy, however, has mainly been a middle-order batsman in first-class cricket with Surrey. England coach Trevor Bayliss hinted at a reshuffle in the batting line-up, if not in personnel.

"We think we've got the best seven batters available to us at the moment in England... Whether we can change it round and make that (order) any better, I'm not sure, but we'll certainly have a discussion about it," he said. "There's one or two batting spots in the wrong positions but we're trying to do the right thing by the team," England's Australian coach added. Now the question is can England, who had Australia 122-8 in their first innings at Edgbaston only for Smith to steer his side to 284, take advantage of his absence? England will look for more heroics from Archer and hope that, with Ben Stokes fresh from an unbeaten century at Lord's, someone can give their attack
