Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee

Office of the Bishop

11 North "B" Street
Pensacola, Florida 32502
Office: (850) 435-3520
Fax: (850) 435-3565
Email: bishop@ptdiocese.org

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Greetings in the Lord. Once again, I thank you for your attention to all of the safety protocols that were put in place in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. We have been through many months of social distancing, masks, limited seating in our churches, etc., and it has certainly paid off. I shudder to think about how many more people could have been infected and even died as the result of contracting this virus in one of our churches or schools. Thanks be to God, the numbers are going down considerably, and we all pray that they will continue to decline until the virus is eradicated completely.

On March 20, 2020, I issued a dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. I took this action in communion with other bishops in our area and in the entire United States as a way to protect the faithful and forestall any large outbreaks. It was a painful – but necessary – move to make. I am grateful to the pastors of our parishes who could adapt, offer opportunities to participate via livestream, and configure the space in church to allow for the maximum number of congregants while maintaining a level of distance.

The time has come to end the dispensation and ensure that all baptized Catholics return to the practice – indeed, the obligation – of attending the celebration of the Eucharist (i.e., Mass) every Sunday and on Holy Days of Obligation. Therefore, the dispensation to attend Mass will end on the afternoon of June 19th. Thus, every Catholic in the Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee should celebrate Mass in person beginning on June 20, 2021 (or the Vigil on June 19).

The obligation to attend Mass is one of the precepts of the Church. It is considered a serious sin to miss Mass if one does not have a good reason to do so. Of course, one always has the ability to dispense himself or herself for a serious reason, such as sickness or the inability to attend Mass in person. Please see the second page of this announcement for more information on “particular dispensations.”

Some parishes will continue to offer livestream options for Mass every week, but this would only be for shut-ins and those who cannot attend in person. For the vast majority of Catholics, watching Mass on video does not fulfill one’s Sunday Obligation.

Our churches will still have some safety measures put in place – for instance, some distancing between people, not offering the Chalice for communion, and other measures – but for the most part they will be ready to welcome whoever wishes to come and worship with the community. You may wish to wear a mask in church or in large gatherings with non-family members, and that is perfectly acceptable, of course.

Let us go forward in hope together! We never know what the future holds, but we can be confident that the measures we have taken in the past have led us to the point where we can return (for the most part) to celebrating our faith in person, as God’s beloved sons and daughters.

God bless you always. I am,
Sincerely yours, in Christ,

Most Reverend William A. Wack, CSC
Bishop of Pensacola-Tallahassee

WATCH

THE BIBLE COLLECTION - PAUL THE APOSTLE

We are celebrating a feast day, consecrated for us by the blood of the apostles. Let us love their faith, their lives, their labours, their sufferings, their confession of faith, their preaching. This week we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, each of whom spread the Gospel to the nations in the earliest days of the Church. In honor of Paul, the Apostle of the Gentiles, enjoy this film the Bible Collection!

LEARN

LECTIO: PETER: EPISODE 1: PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the “rock” upon which Jesus would build his Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter in this Lectio series.

LISTEN

SET ALL AFIRE

NOTES:

A wonderful thank-you to the Ladies of the Resurrection
Catholic Church Floral Ministry:

Each of you have volunteered since January by giving your time, and sharing your efforts in flower preparation, design, and clean-up. You gave from your heart to help create something special all could enjoy. Some of you were unable to participate because of other commitments but we look forward to you joining us in the fall. Even the smallest task makes a difference whether a Thursday afternoon prep or Friday morning design. All participation has and will be welcome. Thank you to Martha Vonarx who provided arrangements during the pandemic. It was truly a gift from the heart.

My thanks to the following: Kathy Bilello, Margaret Crozier, Sandy Dulan, Mary Fransen, Lynda Gallagher, Kathleen Hall, Lindsay Hurrman, Brigit Iannuzzi, Dana Janousek, Pat Magee, Sandi Peterson, Maryann Porter and Teri Vice. You all have been wonderful partners and given many blessings and joy during these past few months. Enjoy summer break and after Labor Day the Floral Ministry will return. All are welcome and we look forward to seeing others become a part of this fellowship.

Sincerely,
Ellen Tabor
