

3 Days of Darkness - Confirmations & Impressions

July 27th, 2020

Last night I became aware of the possibility of a “communication disruption” in the future, a time when there might be a communication blackout of some sort. I hadn’t heard of this before, so I asked the Lord to confirm it in a dream. Now, I sometimes have dreams and rarely remember them, but this is what I dreamt about.

- I saw a school gym floor, but the wooden slats were warped and shuffled about, as if something had pushed up from beneath them and displaced them. (This is similar to another vision I had earlier about streets being “wavy.”)

- I saw a student sitting at a desk, operating what looked like a HAM radio of some sort. He was communicating with a friend, an astronaut in orbit out in space somewhere. As they were talking, there was suddenly a bunch of staccato static, and he heard screaming and then nothing. The scene changed from him on earth to up in space (at a space station?). The earth below blinked once or twice, then went completely dark, as if all the lights on the surface turned off. The people he had been talking to experienced a small astroid or meteor shower, small impacts on the outside becoming increasingly stronger. As they watched through a window the fragments continue toward earth, demons suddenly manifested OUTSIDE the station, looking in at them from space. Then the screaming began. End of scene.

Next scene. I was on earth, in a room filled with parents and students, and we were all waiting for something. Strangely enough, I had an understanding that we were all completely naked. Normally this would be alarming, but none of us acted like we KNEW we were naked. As in, we were aware, but we didn't care or something. It wasn't strange or weird or embarrassing... it just was.

Then a siren went off. This was BOTH a warning siren in the dream and a siren in real life, which goes off locally here around 5 and 6am some days. (It's random, and none of us have any idea where it is and what it's for, but it sounds off some days and not others.) So it went off in both the dream and in the physical world, and in the dream we were all ushered out of the room by some kind of large escorts, into a bunker or bomb shelter. End of scene.

As I was waking up, processing these things and wondering about them, warm and comfortable in bed, the Lord told me to get up and "Write the vision down." So I reluctantly shed the covers, grabbed my notepad and pen by the bed and wrote down these notes.

The dream seems to be in direct response to my request for confirmation, but for me that's not enough. It could be coincidental or an active imagination / subconscious mind feeding off what I'd read earlier. So I asked the Lord for another confirmation today, and that He would make it clear when it happens that, yes, there will one day be a communication shut off.

As I was having a quiet time this afternoon, my brother Kolby called me. We talked for a good 20 minutes, but toward the end I was talking to him and then suddenly realized he wasn't there anymore. After a clear call and no hiccups, the call had dropped without notice and the communication had suddenly been cut off. Immediately the Lord whispered to my spirit that this was the second confirmation, and it kind of took my breath away. I didn't expect it like that, but He provided me a clear, tangible example of what we can expect some day.

July 28, 2020

The question I have today is about communication blackouts. I have my own confirmations through a dream, plus yesterday's second confirmation that it is going to happen. Is there anything else you want me to know about it in regards to timing? Duration? Method? Anything at all that you want me to know?

- I see a spring or a coil that's stretched out until it is taut and completely flat. I see bolt cutters that are cutting the spring that has been stretched out. It cuts it in the middle and the two ends snap away violently on either side, disconnected.
- I see green lights in the background on the horizon.
- I see a record being lowered onto the platter of a record player. The label reads "2020's Greatest Hits." As it plays, the sound is only silence and static, the needle skipping across the surface. At one point it hits a groove that is so pronounced it pops the needle off the record, into the air and away from the surface.
- I see the image of a slingshot, with a large globe placed into the sling. It's pointed to the heavens, then released. Because of the friction, it ignites it as it flies upward into the air. It's like a flaming comet or asteroid, except it's happening in the middle of the day, against a clear blue sky. There are no clouds, I just see the flaming asteroid shooting across the sky.

Brother against brother. Man against mother, mother against daughter. Husband against wife. They will turn on each other in a frenzy, blinded and desperate for self-preservation.

August 2

Regarding Darkness:

In that day there will be a series of brown outs, leading up to that week.

Power fluctuations, Inexplicable spikes. They may not see the planet itself, but they will see the effects of the planet worldwide.

August 6

My impression today: A glorification will most likely take place in the middle of the three days of darkness.

God, is there anything else you want to tell me about three days of darkness?

It will be sharp and pronounced, like a spear traveling through the air. The vibrations will reverberate around the world. Do not be enamored by the colors. Remember the fear that follows it, but despite this hour, use this time to draw people to me. It is when people are stripped, when they are reduced to the core of their humanity, when all the toys and distractions are removed that they face themselves on their beds and see the need for a savior.

- I see a merry-go-round. No, not a merry go round, I see swinging chairs, the kind that are suspended by chains at the county fair. It's all going around and it's pretty fast, but it's lurching up and down. As it spins around, people are jumping and dropping, racing up and down as it's going around. In the middle of the chaos, people disappear, taken. A random selection of people are removed.

- I see an eagle flying around the globe It has three arrows in one hand, but they're all broken. It just flies nonstop.

August 7

One of the questions I have regarding the days of darkness is the duration. People are saying three days of darkness, but I don't know how many. Lord, is there a reason to believe that it's going to be three?

Three is correct. It has biblical precedent. Review Exodus.

What's going to happen over the rest of August?

- I see a bowling ball going down the lane, but instead of staying down the middle, it's actually going into the gutters and coming back out. It's banking from side to side, like it's ricocheting in and out of the gutters, back and forth until it finally hits the pins. It strikes with a very dramatic, excessive explosion, the pins actually exploding into other lanes. The ball disappears behind it. It doesn't return to the start of the lane. The cage to reset the pins doesn't come down. The lights in the entire bowling alley shut off, and there's darkness.

Lord, when it comes to candles for the 3 Days of Darkness, people are saying that we need "blessed candles." Can't we as Christians bless our own candles?

Absolutely. The Spirit that is within you is greater than any spirit without you or that will come against you. Remember, you are all priests, and you carry with that supernatural rights and power. Don't forget this. When Jesus walked on the water in the middle of the storm, there was no ignoring the chaos and the turmoil that was swirling around Him. He was fully aware of that, but instead of focusing on it, He realized the power within Him and the authority that He held.

You have the same authority in you, because you bear His name. You can speak to the waves, you can speak to the wind, you can speak to everything that comes against you, whether it's physical or spiritual or demonic or whatever. You don't have to cower in fear or terror. You can take control of the situation. Don't forget this.

Lord, can you tell me more about the 3 days of darkness? What's going to happen? What it's going to look like? What we should do during that time? Is there anything that you can tell me that would add to what I already know?

It will be a pervasive darkness. It will be identical to what I sent on Egypt, except this time there is a demonic element to it. When it happens, Satan's fallen angels will be released on the earth simultaneously. They will run rampant. And again, without

Christ — without the spiritual authority that Jesus provides — people will not find sanctuary or comfort.

Those who have embraced me will have me. Those who have held me close will have me close. Those who have honored me will be honored. Those who bow to me will be lifted up. Those who have surrendered will find sanctuary.

But those who have ignored me and chosen themselves, who have gloated in gluttony and self-indulgence, who have murdered the innocent and celebrated it, who have flaunted my design and intentions — they will find themselves at the end.

They do not want me. They do not want to know what I think. They do not want to know what I feel or what I value. They do not want anything to do with me. They want to worship their own gods, their own idols, their own comfort. They do not want to worship Yahweh, Jehovah, the God of the Bible.

So I will release them completely. I will remove my hand of protection that they have had up to this point, even though they were unaware of it. I will give them exactly what they want and what they have asked for: life without me.

This is an act of mercy, for when they are stripped of the idols around them, many will fall to their knees in truth and dedicate themselves to me. They all know, on some level, that I am. They know that I am the one who can save them, and it is in Jesus' name that they will be delivered. Some will respond to this knowledge that I have placed deep within them. Others will continue to ignore it, refusing to lower themselves. They will stand and be strong and their stubbornness, and they will acknowledge me only in their accusations and vitriol. They will rage against me, and they will not take responsibility. It is their choice. It is everyone's choice, and everyone must make it alone.

Do what the others have said to do. Cover the windows and don't look outside. Your electronic sources will be unreliable. You, too, will be stripped and reduced to what you have in hand and around you. Do not let yourself be defined by stuff, or experiences, the idols of your goals and schedules and calendars.

Embrace the silence. Adorn the darkness. Praise me, even in the center of the storm. You will have many choices, just like everyone else. Praises or curses. Faith or fear. Trust or doubt. Contriteness or contempt. I'm telling you this ahead of time so you can decide who you're going to be, and how you're going to react.

The experience will be different for everyone, it will not be universal or uniform, but everyone can prepare ahead of time, and decide how they want to step into the darkness: in stubbornness or surrender; severity or serenity.

Three days will seem like a lifetime to some, Three days inside is hard enough. Three days of complete darkness will break some. When it is over, the world will be changed. Everyone will be changed. Some for glory and gratitude, while others will be disgruntled and disillusioned and furious. There will be great loss and great gain.

Choose you this day whom you will serve. I'm sending you out ahead of time to tell them, to ring the bell, to sound the alarm, so that people will have the option of making a choice — whether they kneel in the light or kneel in the darkness. Whether they surrender their lives to Jesus now, or in the future.

There will come a time when every knee will bow and every head will be lowered and acknowledge that Jesus is the one true King. My heart is that everyone would come to Him beforehand. I do not want anyone, anyone to suffer. Yes, I can use suffering and bring people through it, to a place of healing and strength, but it is never my intention that they suffer to get to that point.

I am loving, and I am just. I am forgiving, and I am holy. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. My arms are always outstretched and ready to receive those who had come to me.

There will be a time when Heaven will be closed and the window of opportunity will be shut forever. Until then, as long as there is breath within you, you can confess your sin. You can entrust your life to Jesus and receive redemption and forgiveness and salvation. You can whisper this prayer until your last breath, and it will be heard and honored, and you will live again.

Satan is real. Demons are real. The coming Darkness is real. What is going to happen over the next few weeks and months and years is very real. But it doesn't mean you have to focus only on the dark side of this equation. Lift your eyes. Look to Jesus, lift your hands in praise. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Worship Me and you will disrupt their attacks.

Lord, what else about September?

- I see a box of snakes in a shipping crate, with bars on the upper portion of the window slats. The box is shaking, and the snakes inside are angry. In theory they could slither out through the gaps in the bars, but they don't. Then the box is dropped and it explodes, snakes going everywhere.

I see some of them surrounding a house, but it's completely sealed and glowing. They run into the outside of it, slamming into the walls, searching every angle to find an entrance, but there are none. Frustrated and angry, they leave to find a house with an opening they can exploit.

Pray for your own confirmations. Seek Him.
We don't have to be afraid. Faith in Him is key.

Some people watching this might be afraid, not because of what I'm saying or believe will happen, but because of what YOU believe will happen. We are eternal creatures. If you died on earth today, where would you go? He will give us in death what we asked for in life. Did we pursue God? Life in surrender to Jesus? Or did we tell Him to get lost? Did we choose ourselves, our passions and desires of what we knew was right?

He will give us exactly what we wanted. If we don't choose Him today, we won't have Him tomorrow.

If you feel the weight on you today, if you feel this inexplicable stirring inside you, if you're inexplicably crying as I'm speaking these words to you... that's the Holy Spirit. That's God opening his arms to you, wanting you to choose him and put everything else behind you. No matter what you've done, you can be forgiven for it all and finally experience the freedom and joy that can only come through accepting Christ. Tell Him you're a sinner. Tell Him you're sorry. Tell Him you recognize Jesus died in your place so you wouldn't have to. Then invite Him into your heart and thank Him for the free gift of your salvation.

If you prayed this and you meant it? You're done. You are in His hand and He will never let you go. No matter what you feel, what you fear, whatever happens in the future... you are His. You are sealed, and you belong to Him. Forever.

Nahum 1:7

The Lord is good, a refuge in times of trouble. He cares for those who trust in him.

We can trust Him. No matter what happens in the future, He is God and He is Good. Never forget that. Choose Faith over Fear.
