Third Sunday in Ordinary Time Sunday, January 24, 2020

Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

— Mark 14:17

FR. PAUL'S WEEKLY LETTER

Dear Friend of Carmel Mission,

This Sunday we celebrate "Sunday of the Word of God." This celebration is a gift to us from our Holy Father, Pope Francis, who in his Apostolic letter "Aperuit Illis" instituted the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time to be the Sunday of the Word of God. In Pope Francis' own words from this letter, "Devoting a specific Sunday of the liturgical year to the word of God can enable the Church to experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of His word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world." Jesus demonstrated that the Word of God is spiritual nourishment when He appeared to His assembled disciples after His Resurrection, broke bread with them and "opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures." (Luke 24:45)

One of the practices we developed at Carmel Mission through our video prayer messages during this time of the COVID pandemic is Lectio Divina. This very ancient form of studying and praying the Scriptures came into new prominence with the Second Vatican Council. The practice of Lectio Divina allows us to immerse ourselves in the Word of God, using all our senses to enter into the Scriptures in a visceral way, and opening our hearts and minds to the power of the Holy Spirit. If you are interested in learning more, and perhaps in practicing Lectio Divina with me, I invite you to view the Lectio Divina Prayer Messages on our website or our YouTube Channel.

As I reflect on the Gospel in the light of this focus on God's word I am struck by Jesus' words in Gospel, "Come after me and I will make you fishers of men." This invitation to Simon, Andrew, James and John, is the same that is offered to each of us. Being a follower of Jesus Christ requires us to cast the net of God's great mercy with patience, with perseverance, and with untiring love. Thank you for participating in this crucial work at Carmel Mission. Thank you for making the Word of God alive and active in your life.

I wish you and your loved ones continued blessings of good health, new hope and the inspiration of God's word,

Fr. Paul

LITURGY

The Altar Flowers are given today by Warren and Vickie Hoy in honor of their 23rd Wedding Anniversary.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally,

come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Altar Flowers Opportunity

As we have been streaming the Mass and providing other videos of the Mission and its grounds over this past nine months, we have received so much positive feedback from our community on the features of the flowers in our beautiful Mission gardens. The beauty of nature is a concrete reminder of the beauty of God, in whose image we are made. When we enjoy beautiful flowers, plants and trees we are celebrating the God's gift of the natural world.

We are so happy to continue the beauty of altar flowers at our Masses each week in the New Year. We invite you to consider sponsoring a bouquet for $90 in memory or honor of a loved one, to celebrate a birthday or anniversary or in thanksgiving to God.

The altar flowers will be a part of our streaming Mass as well as our outdoor Masses each Sunday and your dedication will included in our weekly e-bulletin.

Please contact Laura at liturgy@carmelmission.org for more information and to schedule your gift.

Thank you so much for your generosity and for helping to ensure that these symbols of beauty and life are part of our weekly celebrations.

Scripture Message

Today we hear in Mark's Gospel another story of how Jesus called His first disciples, different than we heard last week from John. In Mark's telling Jesus sees Simon and Andrew, and subsequently James and John, at work at their usual profession of fishing. He calls them to join him, and fish for people with the net of God's love. Many of the traits that had made them successful fishermen, patience, persistence, diligence, will translate well to the new work ahead of them of turning people towards God. Jesus says, "The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent and believe in the Gospel." The Greek word for repentance, metanoia, implies more than sadness for or awareness of sins. It means a turning of one's whole being towards God. This is the repentance that Jesus seeks. In the first reading, Jonah is successful in his action to save the people of Nineveh, an ancient enemy of Israel, turning them towards God. When God sees the people repenting, God's immediate response is mercy. Jonah himself was no stranger to God's mercy. When he first heard God's call he tried to flee, was swallowed by a whale and spat back out. He was an even more credible messenger as he had personally experienced God's mercy and redemption. Jonah shows us that it is never too late to repent, to turn towards God. Whatever has come before, God constantly shows us the way and invites us to follow where He leads.

LET THE MISSION BELLS RING FOR HIM

William (Knox) Mellon, Jr.
October 20, 1925 - January 10, 2021

Throughout the State of California our historic Mission parish communities have been deeply saddened to hear of the passing of William (Knox) Mellon, Jr., a once in a generation leader and advocate for historic preservation of the California Missions.

Knox was an Army Veteran serving in the Pacific during WWII with the 32nd Division, he earned Ph.D. in History and taught in his field at Immaculate Heart College. He was a board member for the Carmel Bach Festival, the Sam and Alfreda Maloof Foundation for Arts and Crafts, and he was a Trustees of the California Historical Society.

He served as the first California State Historic Preservation Officer and was appointed to this office twice, first by Governor Jerry Brown and again by Governor Gray Davis who also appointed him as State Director of the Office of Historic Preservation.

Knox served most recently as the California Missions Foundation's Executive Director from 2004 – 2012. He relocated the foundation to the Carmel in 2010.

Through the efforts of Knox and his wife Carlotta, and their relentless advocacy for the preservation of the California Missions, four Missions were awarded significant resources from the US Interior Department's Save America's Treasures' Grant. This included our own Carmel Mission and Missions San Miguel also in the Diocese of Monterey.

Carlotta continues to be a devoted parishioner at Carmel Mission, as she was with her beloved Knox for many years. Before Covid-19 Carlotta faithfully served the community as a lector and extraordinary minister of Holy Communion at the 11am Mass on Sundays. We look forward to her return when it is safe to do so.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Carlotta and the entire Mellon family, and we mourn and celebrate with them a remarkable life of service.

Breaking Bread 2020

We have a limited number of Breaking Bread books available to our community for individual purchase. While we cannot use communal books for worship at this time, you are very welcome to bring your own copy to our Outdoor Masses, or use it while viewing the streaming Mass from home.

Books can be purchased, while supplies last, by emailing Laura at liturgy@carmelmission.org. These books include the Daily Mass Propers as well as the Order of Mass, Weekly Readings and Hymns. Books can be mailed to you (at an additional cost) or you can pick up previously reserved orders on Sunday if you attend the Outdoor Mass.

Each Breaking Bread book is $15, a significant discount from ordering individually from the OCP website.

The Statue of St. Charles Borroméo

When they picked a patron saint for the Carmel Mission, they could not have made a better choice. The statue of St. Charles Borroméo sits high on top of the Reredos of the main altar.

He was the son of the Count of Arona and Margarita de' Medici and was born in northern Italy in 1538. When he was about 12 years old, his uncle resigned as the Abbot of Sts. Gratinian and Felinus Abbey and Carlo became the new Abbot. Later, he studied civil and canon law at Pavia and obtained his doctoral degree.

A year later another uncle, Cardinal Angelo de' Medici, was raised to the pontificate as Pius IV. Borroméo became, at the age of 22, practically the leading statesman of the papal court as the Secretary of State and was designated a Cardinal. Soon after, he became the Archbishop of Milan.

He was a very skillful papal diplomat and politician. He was instrumental in completing the final deliberations of the Council of Trent which determined Church doctrines in response to the Protestant reformation. He was ordained a priest in 1563 at the age of 25.

After some additional service in Rome, he devoted himself to reforming the Milan diocese which had not had the Archbishop in residence in 80 years. He proved to be a great reformer of the local church and was instrumental in guiding the Milanese people through the great plagues in 1576. He established seminaries, colleges and communities for the education of the clergy. He died in 1584 at age 46.

The Borroméo family is still well known in Milan and St. Charles is buried in the crypt of the Milan Cathedral. He became a Cardinal, then a Bishop and then, finally, a priest. Usually, you ascend the hierarchy of the Church in the opposite order!

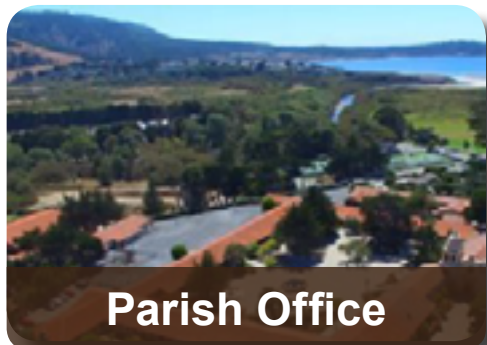

This insight into the Mission history was provided by the Carmel Mission Docent Association.

Carmel Mission Bible Study

The Bible Study meets every Wednesday at 10:30 AM via ZOOM

As you may know, we have a very active Bible Study group each Wednesday morning here at Carmel Mission. Dick Gorman leads the group. He has been teaching Catholic Bible Study classes for about 20 years.

The group is just starting a study of John's Gospel on January 6, so this would be a great time for you to join the class and see if this is for you. Each Holy Father back at least to Pope Pius XII has urged Catholic Bible study for the faithful.

Father Rodrigo and I urge you to look and see if this is for you. Class starts at 10:30 each Wednesday on ZOOM and lasts about an hour. There is no cost, and the only homework is to read the one chapter for the upcoming class so that you are familiar with it.

For any information, email Dick Gorman at dickgorman@att.net. He will email you a ZOOM invite by which to sign in.

Or call him at 595-6363

Carmel Mission Book Club

We meet via ZOOM on Mondays at 1:30pm.

On Monday, January 4th, book club began reading JERUSALEM: THE BIOGRAPHY by Simon Montefiore accompanied each week by tiny sections of THE IGNATIAN ADVENTURE (Experiencing the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Ignatius in Daily Life) by Kevin O'Brien, SJ.

Please feel free to join us at any time.

Welcome to Carmel Mission Basilica.

When you enter our courtyard you will be stepping into a sacred space where people have gathered to worship our loving Creator for hundreds of years. We are blessed to be able to continue this tradition during the COVID-19 pandemic by offering the Sacraments in an outdoor setting.

While we are fortunate to have such a beautiful and historic outdoor setting, being outside presents challenges that are largely beyond our control. Heat, smoke and poor air quality, and rain all require us to adjust in various ways, and in extreme situations may force us to cancel our celebrations on short notice. We encourage you to please visit our website for the most current advisories pertaining to our outdoor liturgies. We ask for your patience and consideration as we work to seat you safely in the most comfortable manner given the conditions.

The safety of our parishioners, staff, and celebrants is critically important as we come together. Per Diocesan guidelines Parishioners who are medically vulnerable or over the age of 65 should remain at home for now.

Parking: Parking for Sunday Masses will be available in the school lot. Access to the Mission will only be available through the Parishioner Parking lot gate.

Weather and Outdoor Conditions: We are very fortunate to have such a large beautiful outdoor space in our Central Courtyard where we can celebrate Mass comfortably with appropriate social distancing.

In addition to distancing, we require attendees, including children, to stay in their seats and not move about the courtyard for any reason.

We are very concerned about the health of all who attend Mass and we must ensure that everyone maintains appropriate distancing and also hope that everyone can be comfortable in our outdoor setting. The weather can change suddenly, so please dress for variable conditions. We have limited seats in the shade, so please be prepared for the sun by bringing a hat or umbrella.

If at any time you are not comfortable, please get the attention of an Usher, who will assist with relocating you.

Financial stewardship: We will be taking up a collection at the Masses on Sundays. Electronic giving through carmelmission.org remains a preferred option, but also feel free to bring your weekly offering to Sunday Mass.
