1) RODNEY AND ROSANNE THE ULTIMATE IN TOGETHERNESS (:23)

Hi, I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on American Country Countdown Rodney Crowell and Rosanne Cash experienced the ultimate in togetherness for two singer-songwriters as this husband and wife team scored the #1 song in the nation with their first duet. Find out who it is among your favorite stars that gets together with the #1 spot in country music this week on American Country Countdown.

2) BATTLE FOR NUMBER ONE BETWEEN A HIGHWAY AND A BIRD (:29)

I'm Bob Kingsley with American Country Countdown and this week the battle for the #1 spot on Billboard Magazine's Country Chart is between a highway and a bird. The highway is Highway 101 the group at #2 last week and the bird is Raven, as in Eddie Raven, who was coming on strong at #3. Well, find out if Highway 101 finds the road to the top or if Eddy Raven flies over them to the #1 spot this week on American Country Countdown.

3) TWO IMPORTANT TRIOS, ONE TEMPORARY AND ONE PERMANENT (:24)

I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on American Country Countdown we had two important trios moving up our survey, one part time trio and one permanent threesome. The partimers are simply called Trio, as in Dolly, Linda and Emmylou. The permanent trio is called, the Gatlins, as in Larry, Steve and Rudy. They're close together in our survey and both are headed closer to the top this week on American Country Countdown.

4) FALLING AGAIN RISES TO DEBUT (:24)

I'm Bob Kingsley and last week on A.C.C. Alabama's new song "FALLING AGAIN" was on the rise to debut into Billboard Magazine's Country Top 40. Now also rising to the occasion were debuts from Vern Gosdin and Conway Twitty. They've joined in the action with all of your favorite stars and'll be there this week when we begin a brand new survey of America's biggest country hits on American Country Countdown.
