REFLECTION & SCRIPTURE READINGS

As we continue in this Easter season, we want to invite you to reflect on the Sacraments you have been privileged to receive throughout your life. If you don't frequent the reflection of the Sacraments, specifically how you are asked to live out those graces, I urge you to begin breaking this open with Jesus and each other. Let's begin with Baptism.

Do you know when you were baptized? Try to find this date out, who was the celebrant? Are there any stories that folks who were there recall? The Sacraments use tangible signs to lead us to encounter the invisible they represent. Water, candle, oil, simple words—all point to the God of Love, our Creator! Receive from a fellow parishioner the impact this Sacrament has had on him.

ON LOAN FROM GOD

Some Reflections Centered Upon The Sacrament of Baptism

Contained within the vows exchanged during a sacramental marriage is the promise to raise any children in the 'practice of the faith.' While it is true that children, irrespective of their age, are to be cared for by their parents, I find myself frequently contemplating the wisdom shared by a mother of teenagers some decades ago when she reminded me that our children are, in reality, 'on loan to us from God.' The faithful receive their children as gifts from God, and parents, with the entire faith community, are to be faithful servants by dedicating love, time and resources to their upbringing, particularly regarding matters of the faith. The proper destiny of our children and ourselves, as well, since we are also 'on loan,' is to live in the embrace of the Blessed Trinity for all eternity. The first sacramental step which is absolutely necessary toward that end is Baptism. The Book of Genesis recounts Adam and Eve's misuse of their free wills, which resulted in a fall from grace, scarring the depth of the intimate covenant which God shared with them. God did not prevent their (or my own) frequent misuse of free will since an honest, loving covenant relationship cannot exist by any mandate of compliance. The fall from grace by Adam and Eve impaired for themselves, and as a consequence for all of us as their prodigy, the purity of their covenant relationship with God. Even so, our Heavenly Father already at that time was setting into motion his design by which all are offered the opportunity to begin anew a covenant relationship with Him as His adopted sons and daughters. That opportunity is the Sacrament of Baptism, which is sometimes referred to as the first of the three sacraments of initiation, the latter two being the Sacraments of the Eucharist and Confirmation.

One receives a special eternal 'mark' upon one's soul through this Sacrament, which is received only once. The wearing of a white garment during the Sacrament serves as an outward sign of the dignity received as one newly adopted by the Father. As a sinner, subsequent to my own Baptism, I have defiled the dignity of the 'white garment' of my adoption through my misuse of my free will. God continually refuses to abandon me for my offenses against his Goodness by offering me His mercy through His Sacrament of Reconciliation. In gratitude for His mercy, I renew my resolution to handle the 'loans' in my care in a manner more pleasing to Him.

Considering a quote by Eleanor Powell in which she said, 'What we are is God's gift to us. What we become is our gift to God,' may we all give glory to our Heavenly Father as we strive to be more faithful stewards through the prayerful manner by which we love those He has entrusted as 'loans' to our care. May we trust that all things will work toward His glory if we seek to 'Meet Christ, Know Christ, Love Christ, and Serve Christ' and love our 'loans' as ourselves.

~Dave Vogt
Parishioner at St. Charles

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Reflection questions for Sunday, May 8th

- We hear today how Paul and Barnabas were met with resistance and hostility in Pisidian Antioch on their first missionary journey. How do you not get discouraged when your spiritual journey is difficult?
- During John's vision of heaven, he often has "one of the elders" teach him about the vision he is seeing. Who has been a good spiritual guide for you?
- Jesus speaks of an unbreakable solidarity between him and those who follow him ("my sheep"). In what ways do you experience this unity with Jesus already in your faith?

EASTER BLESSINGS AND THANK YOU'S

Many thanks to all of the ministers who shared their time and talent to make our Triduum and Easter liturgies so beautiful and prayerful: Lectors, Ushers, Servers, Eucharistic Ministers, Environment Ministers, Adult Choir, Children's Choirs, Cantors, Psalmists, Musicians, Seminarians, Deacon Rob, and our wonderful priests. The scouts built an incredible Easter Fire that Father Ken said was just like the ones he experienced in Rome. The choirs gave us goosebumps and helped us lift our voices in praise. The Foot Washing was moving and the Veneration of the Cross so powerful. What a blessing to celebrate the high point of the church year with the beautiful St. Charles community!

Please pray for
DEACON MATHEW KIRK
(son of our parish)
who will be ordained to the Priesthood
on May 21st at the 10:30 am

Congratulations to son of St. Charles Parish Deacon Michael Courchaine, who was ordained to the Transitional Diaconate by Bishop James P. Schuerman on Saturday, April 23 at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist. St. Charles Parish is proud of this young man!

Sign up today for the St. Charles Photo Directory! It's easy! Scan the QR code, go to the link or visit the St. Charles website. Photo sessions are available for 14 days between June 10 - 28, so there are plenty of options to fit your family's schedule.

It's time to get to know your fellow parishioners and update that family photo! St. Charles is partnering with a Milwaukee neighbor, In-Focus Photography, located in St. Francis. They are an award-winning photography group of talented professionals ready to assist us in creating a beautiful photo directory of parishioners. Parishioner photos and names only will be included in the directory. For those interested, photo packages will be available to purchase. Every family that participates will receive a directory! Photo sessions take only 10 minutes (families of 5 or more 20 minutes). Please direct questions to infocusphotography7@gmail.com or 414-483-2526.

Love one another
 as I have loved you.
