

94th Carolinas Amateur Championship
Cape Fear Country Club,
Wilmington, NC
July 9-13, 2008
Champion: Ben Kohles
Cary, NC

Ben Kohles of Cary, NC won the Carolinas Amateur Championship defeating Kyle Wilson of Mt. Airy, NC, 3 & 2 at Cape Fear Country Club.

Kohles, a graduate of Green Hope High School, overcame an early deficit to take the title. Wilson took an early 2-up lead before Kohles evened the match at the turn. Kohles dominated the back nine with wins on holes 10, 12 and 14 before closing the match with halved pars on the 16th.

Kohles and Wilson, both 18, now play for the University of Virginia and Western Carolina University respectively.

The semifinal matches were contested in the morning as Wilson ousted Tripp McAllister of Lake City, SC, 1 up and Kohles handily defeated Scott Harvey of Greensboro, NC 4 & 3. Harvey is the son of three time Carolinas Amateur Champion, Bill Harvey. Due to thunderstorm delays early in the week, the championship's final match was reduced from a 36 hole final to an 18 hole final match in order to accommodate a Sunday finish.

The Carolinas Amateur was first played in 1910 and is one of the oldest amateur championships in the country. Cape Fear Country Club is one of five charter members of the Carolinas Golf Association.
