BIBLE STUDY GUIDE

There is so much life-changing power in Scripture! God promises that His Word "will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it" (Isaiah 55:11). This fourteen-week Bible study is designed to help you dig deeper into the scriptural principles surrounding each chapter of Having a Mary Spirit. (Group leaders, if a twelve-week format works better for you, check page 259 in the book for adaptation suggestions.)

I recommend using a translation of the Bible that you enjoy and understand.

Before each lesson and as you read the corresponding chapter or chapters, ask the Holy Spirit to increase your understanding, helping you apply the truths you discover.

Each lesson starts with questions for individual reflection or group discussion, then moves to a "Going Deeper" study of Scripture. At the end of the lesson you'll have an opportunity to write about or discuss what most impacted you in that chapter. The stories, quotes and sidebars within the chapters may provide further opportunities for discussion or reflection.

As we reprogram our hearts and our minds to operate according to God's truth, our lives are changed. This study may feel a bit personal at times, and you may find that your natural self (I call her Flesh Woman) puts up a fight. But that is because she knows she'll lose ground as the Holy Spirit leads you into all truth. Prayerfully commit yourself to this study. Give God access to every part of your life. And prepare to be changed...

For God has a holy makeover waiting for you!

WEEK ONE

Read chapter 1, "A Mary Spirit," and chapter 2, "Change Me, Lord."

Questions for Discussion or Reflection
1. If you could change one thing about yourself, what would it be?
2. How do you tend to view God? As I did – up in the sky with a holy fly swatter, waiting for me to make a mistake? As loving, but detached and distant from what's going on in your life? Or actively involved in your life, wanting to help you succeed?
Going Deeper
3. To which of the types of Pharisees listed on pages 11-12 do you most relate? Why?
4. What realities do the following scriptures say humans tend to whitewash, and what the actual truth?
Matthew 23:25
1 John 1:8
Revelation 3:17

5. What does James 2:10 say about our inability to achieve self-induced	holiness?
6. Read Brother Lawrence's story on page 16. How would your life be deconfessing your sin to God, you gave yourself "no further uneasiness abo
7. Read Philippians 3:12-14. Circle key words and meditate on these ver	•

Paul look a	t his difficulties and weak spots?
8. What sp	ooke most to you in this chapter?

WEEK FIVE

Read chapter 6, "Dying to Live."

Questions for Discussion or Reflection
1. If your Flesh Woman were starring in a major motion picture, would it be a romance an action thriller, a horror flick, or a comedy? Explain.
2. What kind of "muscle memory" behavior do you struggle with (page 80)? Where do you think it came from (e.g., was it ingrained by repetition, inherited from family patterns or genetic traits, influenced by society), etc.?
Going Deeper
3. What do the following verses have to say about sin's work in us?
Romans 6:16
Romans 7:17-20
James 1:15
4. What do the following verses have to say concerning Christ's work for us?
Romans 8:1-2
2 Corinthians 5:21

1 John 2:1 _____

5. Read Romans 6	11-13. List the five things Paul	tells us to do – and not to do!
6. In what specific	ways would your life be differen	nt if you truly understood you are no longer under Puppe	t Master's reign but under grace	(Romans 6:14)?

8. What spoke mos	st to you in this chapter?

WEEK SIX

Read chapter 7, "A Willing Spirit."

1. Though we want to do God's will, each of us probably has one or two things about which we've said, "God, I'll do whatever you want, but please don't ask me to"
Mine was "I'll go anywhere but Africa!" What's yours?
2. Try to imagine what it would have been like to be Mary – to have an angel tell you you're going to be the mother of the Son of God. How would you have felt when you neard Gabriel's announcement? What would you have said in response to the angel?
Going Deeper
3. God often asks us to do things that don't make sense to us. What were the following people asked to do, and what was the result?
Abraham (Genesis 12:1-5; Galatians 3:6-9)
Gideon (Judges 7:1-22)
Philip (Acts 8:26-39)
4. Sometimes we don't feel qualified to be used by God. What qualifications did Paul say he had in Philippians 3:4-6? How did he view them in verses 7-8?

5. Sometimes we fear that the price of saying yes might be too high. According to 2 Corinthians 11:23-28, what difficulties did Paul face in order to follow the call of God on his life? What does 2 Timothy 4:6-8 say about Paul's response and what his reward would be?
6. Read 1 Corinthians 6:19-20. What three facts about our relationship to God does the passage list? According to the verses, what should be our response?
7. Read Isaiah 6:8. Do you sense God asking you to do something specific at this particular moment? It may not be as grand as what is described in this scripture, but in order to say yes to this call, what would be your next step? Write out a prayer consecrating your life to God and His purposed, asking that He lead you as you obey.
8. What spoke most to you in this chapter?

WEEK SEVEN

Read chapter 8. "Mind Control."

Questions for Discussion or Reflection
1. If you could trade mental capabilities with anyone in the world, past or present, who would it be?
2. What does most of your self-talk sound like? In other words, how do you treat yourself in your mind? What kind of repetitive tapes do you tend to play? How do they affect you?
Going Deeper
3. Read Uncle Screwtape's letter to Wormwood on page 110. What does Satan usually do to distract you from hearing God's voice?
4. Read Ephesians 4:25-32. List some changes in behavior that should result from our being "made new in the attitude of [our] minds? (verse 23). Circle the changes you would like the Holy Spirit to help you with.

5. Read the Joyce Meyer quote on page 115. How would you characterize the effectiveness of your mental border patrol. Nothing slips by? Policed somewhat diligently? The guards are usually on a coffee break? Protection is nonexistent?
6. What do the following verses say about the importance of our minds and what we think about?
Isaiah 26:3
Matthew 16:23
Romans 8:6
7. Identify a negative thought that the enemy often uses against you. Using the "Five R for Managing Your Thoughts" on page 118, consider how you would take that thought captive. The next time it attacks, go through these steps. Take it to Christ and let Him deal with it. Accept His freedom and forgiveness and don't be entangled by this particular lie anymore.
8. What spoke most to you in this chapter?

WEEK EIGHT

about it?

Read chapter 9, "Guarding the Wellspring."

Questions for Discussion or Reflection
1. What kind of boundaries or restriction	ns did you experience as a child growing up?
How did you feel about them then, and how do you feel about them now?
2. Read the "Others May –You Cannot"	'sidebar on pages 130-31. Why do you think
God convicts some people of certain this	ngs while He doesn't seem to convict others?
Going Deeper
3. Praise God we are no longer under the	e law! But the Bible is clear that we must manage our freedom correctly to avoid ((a) harming ourselves, (b) harming others, or (c) hurting God. For each of the scriptures l	isted below, write a, b, or c to indicate who's affected by the behavior discussed.
1 Corinthians 8:9	1 Peter 2:15-16
1 Corinthians 10:23	Romans 14:13
Hebrews 6:6	1 Thessalonians 4:7-8
4. Paul warned in 1 Corinthians 4:4 that	t we can't trust our consciences completely.
Still, the conscience is an important gift	from God. What do the following verses say

Acts 24:16
1 John 3:21-22
5. Consider Lauraine's story on pages 1	128-29. Are you reaping the consequences of your own actions or someone else's acti	ons? What new attitude could you "sow" today that would affect tomorrow's harvest? _
6. God blesses those who keep His Wo	rd. Match the benefits below to the following scriptures: (a) Joshua 1:8; (b) 2 Peter 1:4	4; (c) 1 Timothy 4:16; (d) James 1:25.
Partake in divine nature	Be blessed in what one does
Be successful	Escape corruption
Save oneself and others	Prosper
7. List the temptations and experiences	that tend to block or taint the living water in your life. Read 1 John 1:9. Take a mome	ent to ask the Holy Spirit, our Keeper of the Spring, to purify your heart and to make	e you aware when those things try to reenter your life.
8. What spoke most to you in this chape	ter?

WEEK NINE

Read chapter 10, "A Fearless Beauty."

Questions for Discussion or Reflection
1. How would you rate yourself on the fear-filled worrier scale? Let 1 be "I don't worr at all" and 10 be "I worry about everything!"
2. How do you rate yourself, naturally speaking, on the scale of being quiet and gentle with 1 being a little lamb and 10 being a tiger? Perhaps another animal describes you best. If so, what is it?
Going Deeper
3. Read Proverbs 31:10-31. Which aspects of this woman's description fall into the "gentle beauty" categories suggested by 1 Peter 3:3-6 (listed below)? Be creative. Ther are no right and wrong answers!
Beauty inward not outward Gentle and quiet spirit
Puts hope in God
Submissive to husband
Does what is right
Doesn't give way to fear
4. What do the following verses say about whom we are to submit to and why?
Romans 13:1
1 Peter 2:18, 20
Ephesians 5:21
Hebrews 12:9

5. How does John 15:9-10 explain the connection between loving and obeying?
6. What does 1 John 3:1 tell us about the love God has for us? Why is it hard to receive this kind of love? What would change about us if we really did?
7. If you've ever lived under the dark cloud I describe on page 142 (or know someone who has) look at how The Message paraphrases Romans 8:1-2. Underline key phrases or words. Then thank Christ for what He's done for you.
With the arrival of Jesus, the Messiah, that fateful dilemma is resolved. Those who enter into Christ's being-here-for-us no longer have to live under a continuous, low-lying black cloud. A new power is in operation. The Spirit of life in Christ, like a strong wind, has magnificently cleared the air, freeing you from a fated lifetime of brutal tyranny at the hands of sin and death.
8. What spoke most to you in this chapter?

WEEK TEN

Read chapter 11, "Rooting out Bitterness."

1. Have you ever struggled to forgive someone, as R.T. Kendall did? What	truth finally turned your heart around? If you're struggling with forgiveness issues right now what part of his advice spoke to you?
2. Read "Avoiding the Shriveled Soul Syndrome" sidebar on pages 156-57	. Which weed-control strategy described could you use the most right now? Why?
Going Deeper
3. What does Matthew 6:14-15 say about our need to forgive?
3. What does Matthew 6:14-15 say about our need to forgive?

- 4. Read Kendall's "daily commitment to forgive" on page 160. Which of the following release points are the hardest for you to accept? Why?
 - "They won't get caught or found out."
 - "Nobody will ever know what they did."
 - "They will prosper and be blessed as if they had done no wrong."

5. According to Romans 12:14-21, how are we to respond to difficult people? Make a list of responses from the passage and underline the item that comes easiest to you.
Circle the one that is most difficult. Ask God to help you grow in every area.
6. Read the story about Booker T. Washington on page 167. While he had every reason to be offended, he chose not to. What Hebrews 12:14-15 steps could you take to avoid bitterness taking root the next time someone acts in an offensive manner toward you?
7. When you are faced with a hurt you can't seem to overcome, Donna Partow suggests writing the other person's side of the story. Looking at the situation from his or her perspective can bring understanding, and understanding can bring healing. Take a moment to write down the other person's perspective. Resist adding editorial comments Doing this exercise doesn't mean the other person was justified in hurting you, but it may help you let it go. After you finish, give both sides of the story to God- and do your best to leave them in His hands.
8. What spoke most to you in this chapter?

WEEK ELEVEN

Read chapter 12, "Broken and Blessed."

Questions for	Discussion of	or Reflection
---------------	---------------	---------------

1. Write do	wn or share (with discretion, of course) your most embarrassing moment or

3. Describe in detail the types of spiritual training the following verses promote:
Healthy diet (Hebrews 5:14)
Running (1Timothy 6:11)
Weight training (2 Peter 1:5-8)
4. Read Colossians 2:20-23. How should we view the world's approach to self-discipline? What warning signs does Colossians give for discerning what is good and what is harmful?

5. According to the following scriptures, why is the person we are on the inside more important than the person we are on the outside?
Matthew 15:17-20
Matthew 23:27-28
Luke 6:45
6. Remember my issue with Christian fiction? Is there a seemingly innocent area of your life that God has been asking you to give up so He can give you more of Himself?
If not, let the Lord know you are willing to do so if He asks. If there is an area, don't be afraid - He will help you. Write a prayer of consecration asking the Holy Spirit to enable you to follow through.
7. Read Hebrews 12:1. Memorize this passage phrase by phrase. Write it on an index card and refer to it frequently, repeating it until it becomes a part of you.
8. What spoke most to you in this chapter?

WEEK THIRTEEN

Read chapter 14, "Speaking Love."

1. Who is the most encouraging person you've ever met? What qualities make him or her that way? What does this person do that encourages you?
	the "Keep Still!" sidebar on page 207. What methods do you use to keep your-saying things you shouldn't? Do you ever have a problem with not saying ou should? What keeps you from speaking in such cases?
	eeper James 3:2-12 and answer the following questions: 1 verses 3-7, what metaphors did James use to describe the tongue?
• H	Iow did James describe the tongue in verse 8?
• V	What examples of the tongue's destructive power did he give in verses 9-12?
■ A	according to verse 2, what should we strive for, and what will result?

register relative to the human body?
98.6 - healthy and life-giving	104.6 - hot and dangerous
86.3 - cold and cutting	Other
6. Read Psalm 19:14 and Matthew 12:36-37. V	Vrite out a prayer of confession, asking
God to forgive your careless use of words. Clos	se with Psalm 19:14, written in your own words.
7. Do you have a friend who is going through a	a rough time? Take a moment to pray for her right now. Ask the Lord to give you a verse	to encourage her. Then write a note expressing your love and God's love for her. No	ow go find a stamp and actually mail it.
(I forget that part sometimes!)
8. What spoke most to you in this chapter?

WEEK FOURTEEN

Read chapter 15, "Wearing Jesus," and chapter 16, "Step by Step."

1. C.S. Lewis suggests we dress up as Christ (page 221). Read his quote about putting on "a friendly manner." Have you ever taken this kind of "fake it till you make it" approach to change? Why does this approach help? Can you see some potential pitfalls
2. Read "Doing the 27 Fling (Spiritual) Boogie" on pages 216-17. Select three items from this list that you could discard today. What additions could you make to the list?
Going Deeper
3. Read the description of the demon-possessed man in Mark 5:1-5. It's hard to imagin the transformation Mary Magdalene experienced when she met Christ. While your encounter was probably not that dramatic, can you remember a time when the description in Mark 5:15 of being fully dressed and in your right mind applied to you?
Describe it. In what ways has knowing Christ changed you up to this point?

ham of Issue's robe and was he	named woman with "an issue of blood" (KJV) touched the nem of Jesus 8 fore and was no	ealed. We all have issues. What kind of transformations did the following people exper	ience when they met Jesus?
Zacchaeus (Luke 19:1-9	9)
Young Man (Luke 7:11	-15)
Woman (John 8:3-11)
5. While Jesus has purchased	our salvation, we must learn to live in the new life He gives. What do the following v	verses say we should put off and put on?
Put Off	Put On
Ephesians 4:22	Ephesians 4:24
Ephesians 4:25	Ephesians 6:14
Romans 13:12	Ephesians 6:11

JOURNAL THE JOURNEY

While many people keep journals of daily events and feelings, a Bible Reading Highlights Journal records what God is saying to us through his Word and our response to him. Here is the format that I've found works well for me.
