

COPIAH-LINCOLN COMMUNITY COLLEGE

PRESIDENT'S REPORT 2019-2020

EMBRACING THE CARPE DIEM ATTITUDE

A Message from Dr. Jane G. Hulon

My second year as president was definitely one to remember! I started off the year with high hopes and great expectations. The college was in a position to complete some very important projects in an effort to promote institutional growth. The charge for the year was “Carpe Diem” or Seize the Day. I challenged the faculty and staff members to continue their important efforts to grow the institution.

Four Presidential Priorities guided my efforts this year:

1. Data-Driven Decisions: There was a new emphasis for Co-Lin to focus on working smarter not harder. Efficiency and effectiveness were the goals as we analyzed data for decision-making.

2. Customer Care: It was my desire to see exceptional customer service provided in every situation possible.

3. Safety and Preparedness: As we began to update and implement safety plans this year, we had no idea that we would be facing a global pandemic. I have been so pleased and especially proud of the manner in which both the Co-Lin student body and employee team have responded to COVID-19.

4. External Funding: Identifying and obtaining external funding is becoming more of the norm as state appropriations are limited for community colleges in Mississippi. In response to COVID-19, much-needed funding was provided for both eligible students as well as the institution.

As the college prepares to re-open its doors and resume face-to-face instruction this fall, there is a feeling of optimism met with a great deal of caution. We truly love our Co-Lin students and eagerly await their safe return. As president, I feel an enormous amount of pride as I witness the passion and dedication of our Co-Lin employees as they meet the unprecedented challenges of the present time.

I hope you enjoy this annual report and are able to see evidence of many of the wonderful accomplishments that took place during 2019-2020 at The Place to Be.
