"I am proud to represent Rodan + Fields Dermatologists. These uniquely effective skincare products are designed by two of the most respected dermatologists in the country with a legacy of delivering on what they promise. I believe that using Rodan + Fields is as close as you can get to visiting a dermatologist ... without an appointment.

Dr. Rodan and Dr. Fields have also taught me that achieving great skin requires more than great products. While you are here make sure to check out the tips from the Doctors, experience our exclusive Solution Tool and read up on the Doctors' seasonal skin-care recommendations."

Stanford-trained dermatologists, Dr. Katie Rodan and Dr. Kathy Fields, founded Rodan + Fields® to extend their vision of bringing dermatology-inspired skincare to everyone. Many of their ideas came from seeing patients in their practices. They have dedicated their careers to making visible, life-changing results possible without a trip to the doctor's office.

PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

Our North Hills Pittsburgh Branch is 70 members strong and dedicated to fulfilling the mission of AAUW, working on the issues that affect women. The upcoming year will have many challenges as we strive to keep women's issues on the front burner. When will pay equity become the standard? Will the advances made toward ending discrimination be in retreat? We need to keep moving forward, knowing that these issues have been championed by AAUW for 135 years.

Our branch has a rich history of contributions to the community which, over-time, has evolved in its focus. We remember, however, that our groundbreaking foremothers bestowed upon us the obligation to pay it forward. We continue to support the community through advocacy, educational/scholarships and grants, philanthropy, and research.

Advocacy – Engage in public policy on the local, state and national levels giving voice to issues of concern for women, girls and families.

Education – Promote continuous learning, through community outreach and scholarships,

Philanthropy – Make a difference locally through scholarships, grants and support to local non-profits. Our fundraising and dues support the fellowships, grants, and award programs administered by AAUW National.

Research – Research is funded collectively by nationwide AAUW branches through our dues and contributions to National.

However, our branch is not all work and no play. We have fun interacting through book groups, lunch outings, IPODS (In Place of Dinner Social), playing bridge, etc.

We are members of AAUW because we want to actively participate in empowering women. We are honored to be your branch co-presidents for the 2017-2018 year to continue this legacy.

Thank you for your support,
Debbie Rosenfelder and Betty Kroniser

Please welcome the following new members to our Branch.

Janine Bayer, Carol Costa, Holly Hampe

Be sure to look for them at our meetings and events and introduce yourselves: Their contact information will be in our new Directory available at the September Branch meeting. On a side note, when you receive your Directory, carefully review your information and notify me immediately if corrections need to be made.

Thanks so much!

Maripat Kwaczala, Membership VP

Proposed Fundraiser Letter from Dr. Linda Clautti

September, 2017

Dear AAUW Members,

SUBJECT: Proposed Fundraiser

In our review with AAUW National, we all are happy to know that our proposed ad campaign is supported by the National and State AAUW. We have made some very minor changes. Therefore, our new ad papers are attached.

As we look forward to many exciting programs for our upcoming year, we need to keep our focus on the mission and goals of AAUW. We are noted for giving service to others, and, as a group, we do an outstanding job of helping those in need. This year, we are trying to engage the more members of our community in supporting our wonderful programs. If we can do that, we will have more funds available to put into our service projects.

To that end, we are initiating a program booklet that will inform the public of our programs especially Great Decisions, which is a hallmark of our branch. Let's do what we can to bring guests to our programs, beginning in September. Not only will more people be able to see first-hand what we are doing; they will also, hopefully, be motivated to donate to our projects on a volunteer basis.

In order to jump start and motivate our community to support our efforts, I have put together this ad campaign. I am enlisting your help by requesting each member to bring either one $10.00 Patron ad or other ad to our September 20th meeting. Attached is all the paperwork that you need to do just that. I hope that you can do that by our very first meeting for the 2017-2018 year....what a wonderful thing that would be! And, by doing so, we will energize ourselves as well as our community.

Please review the attached information regarding the ad program. At the very least, for a mere $10.00, a person can add their name or business to a list of supporters. Let's all do our part and make this happen! Please call or email me with any questions. The booklet will be printed once Great Decisions information is available. I will make sure that all those who purchase a printed ad, receive a copy of our booklet.

Thanks for all you do to help put our local AAUW branch on the map! We all appreciate that.

Sincerely,

Dr. Linda Clautti VP of Programs

September 2017

Dear Supporters of AAUW,

The American Association of University Women (AAUW) has been empowering women as individuals and as a community since 1881. For more than 130 years, we have worked together as a national grassroots organization to improve the lives of millions of women and their families.

Our first annual ad campaign is an endeavor to promote our assistance to people in need in our local communities. Our programs bring education and help in the following areas:

- Great Decisions: America's largest discussion program on world affairs offered FREE to the community
- Educational Funding
- Research
- Stem Education
- Campus Initiatives
- Public Policy
- Case Support
- Global Initiatives
- Membership Leadership
- Salary Negotiations

We are hoping that, for as little as $10.00, you will join us in our endeavor to help us grow our financial and membership base. By promoting our programs, we promote our community. By promoting our community, everybody benefits. Thank you in advance for your donation.

Sincerely,

Jinda M. Clough

It Happened in DC

(Reflections on the AAUW National Convention) by Linda Tozier

The 2017 AAUW Convention was held in Washington DC from June 14 – 17. I took the train from Harrisburg to Philadelphia to DC a day early to allow me time to visit our new national headquarters at 1310 L Street NW. AAUW has offices on the fourth and fifth floors. The number of national staff is surprisingly small considering they are meeting the needs of AAUW members in almost 1000 branches, over 500 college/university affiliates plus almost 45,000 national members. The building always is open to visits from AAUW members, so plan to do so on your next trip to DC. The convention was housed in the Renaissance Hotel, which was updated after our 2005 convention took place there.

Because I have been part of the national membership committee from 2013 – 2017, I was asked to participate in a one-hour daily dialogue with Christy Jones, AAUW Vice President of Membership, and Claudia Richards, AAUW Branch Relations Senior Manager, during which we answered questions focused on the theme “Is Younger Relative? A Conversation about Redefining Recruitment.” On Friday I was a presenter in the workshop entitled “The AAUW Recruitment Cook-Off: What are the Ingredients to Success?” This workshop is archived on the AAUW website if you’d like to check it out. During the convention, I was informed that the new national board had appointed me co-chair of the membership committee for the next two years. Also the membership department has asked me to be the spokesperson for the one-year membership campaign to recruit 155 new paid life members by June 30, 2018. By typing In It for Life in the search bar at the top of the AAUW home page, you can find out how to become a paid life member. Some of you may remember when I decided to become a life member in 1985 to honor my late mother who was president of her AAUW branch when I was born.

My personal highlight from this convention occurred on Friday evening during the Funds Dinner which honored the 100-year tradition of awarding AAUW International Fellowships and the accomplishments of both the AAUW Alumnae Recognition Awardee Dr. Tererai Treni and the AAUW Achievement Awardee Supreme Court Associate Justice Sonia Sotomayor. AAUW’s new dynamic CEO Kimberly Churches was interviewing Sonia Sotomayor while eight secret service men and women stood close by. Suddenly Ms. Sotomayor announced she was most comfortable answering questions when she could walk through her audience. When she passed by my table, I was able to shake her hand. This was followed by a pat on my shoulder from Kim Churches. Afterwards, I floated back to my room reflecting on just how much AAUW has meant to me for almost forty years. Our branch has been my rock and support through both thick and thin. Please accept my thanks for paying part of my registration fee so that I could participate in this national convention.

The results of voting were announced during the final session on Saturday morning. All public policy priorities (listed in your latest Outlook) passed. Three proposed bylaws did NOT pass: creating an advocate category of membership, eliminating the education degree requirement for membership and reducing the quorum from 5% to 3%. It should be noted that in 2017, 11.49% of our members voted. The new national board officers are: Chair, Julia Brown; Vice Chair Peggy Ryan Williams; and thirteen Directors-at-Large - Joanna Amberger, Sue Barley, Janet Bunger, Melody Jackson, Melissa Johnsen, Karen Kirkwood, Dot McLane (PA), Eileen Menton, Susan Nenstiel (PA), Leah Sakacs, Cheryl Sorokin, Mardy Stevens and Mary Zupanc.
