Activating the Prosperity Code

1st Phase: Personal Transformation

Since the beginning of 2014, we have been enduring unequivocally one of the biggest frequency upgrades that we have taken as a collective, initiating us into a completely new system of energy.

When we enter into its rhythm, more is dropping away as if it never mattered anyway. No praying is required because all prayers are already heard before they are even prayed. It is another consciousness octave that allows for spontaneous manifestation, yet not according to our personal whims.

We are meeting face to face with a destined and willed akashic force and right now it is pushing our every button to lighten up the obscurities that shroud our divine remembrance. Through its loving pressure, more layers are being disrobed that keep us slogging through the mud of limitation.

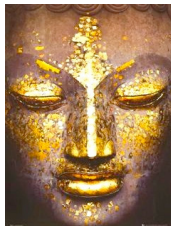

Recently, we brought to light the sabotaging energy of doubt. Next, we are illuminating another major troublemaker. This hooligan goes by the name of 'lack'. The submission that is constantly given to its manipulative mask has kept humanity confused under the money spell since time immemorial.

Standing side by side with its cousins... the fear of death and low self worth... lack consciousness is one of the strongest distortions of the human psyche. However big or small the reflection may be, many of us are still influenced by the belief that there is not enough.

This belief is constantly being coerced and affirmed through an entire global culture and a wide spectrum of manipulating influences. These delusions are transferred from generation to generation through gene pools, memory fields and all forms of societal programming.

Put your golden helmets on everybody, because we are going on to the playing field to bring peace to an enormous front line transgression.

Our Responsibility as an Emerging Race Consciousness

Rather than spending our precious moments calling out all that is in distortion regarding the world's money game, we are looking, instead, deeply within ourselves to get some core understanding and then to determine how to co-create lasting shifts.

As an awakened group consciousness, it's a proven fact that we are a major economic catalyst for the multitude. It is time to rise into our greater potential as prosperous wayshowers and true teachers of the Golden Age.

The only real way that we can most effectively serve the unfolding Divine Plan in this regard is to have as many of us as possible perceiving and educating from levels of unlimited plentitude. To have the ability to realize wealth, whether we desire it or not, is to walk our talk as liberated Earth masters.

This subject matter is being addressed from 5th dimensional templates, where our new consciousness reality is vibrating, in very simple and practical terms. This is to help bridge our understanding and to avoid any trappings in guru complexes and the glamour-filled spiritual commercialism that we see rising all around us.

Activating the Prosperity Code

There is a Prosperity Code in every person that, when activated, hands over the papers to our divine inheritance, free and clear. Embodying and radiating this code is more important than the current method of monetary exchange or any new system developed around it.

A true and lasting shift to unlimited abundance for each of us will occur when this code is active and operating within the majority of members of our intimate soul grouping. No one can advance too far out in front, until the whole group is well on its way.

This is one of the qualifications of our advancement into unity consciousness as deemed by evolutionary law. We are being initiated to no longer function singularly or with selfish pursuits. If we are engaged in self-seeking desire while proclaiming unity, our life is guaranteed to become increasingly challenging as the group transparency strengthens.

This gives some reason to why Planetary Light Servers, as a grouping, have not yet been gifted large sums of expected financial support for the bigger visions and projects. There seems to be more surrendering required of our separated identities and the polarized egoic holds.

The same holds true for the world. Financial stability will not be realized on this planet until we have authentic cooperation amongst all countries and the dominating factions are neutralized. Any attempt to redevelop global economies before this happens will be a wasted effort.

The Solution is found in the Divine Principle

The emerging consciousness for our new era has been called by many names including the new root race, divine-humans, avatar blueprint, 5th dimension, superhumans, the I AM race, Christ Consciousness and so forth.

These terms all refer to an evolved human nature that has transitioned into a unified consciousness living as one heart-mind through group coherence. This is the natural course of evolution; from the divisive human personality into an interconnected unit of stability.

The one single characteristic of this new consciousness that drastically differs from the current human matrix is that it lives and abides unswervingly with Divine Principle. These are the immutable Universal Laws that are the foundation stones upon which our new world is being built. They are the same laws or principles by which everything in the universe is governed.

It is in Divine Principle, along with the understanding of how energy truly flows, that awakens the Code of Prosperity within us. This is the main key to changing the circumstances of our personal financial situation into one of a boundless reality.

The vast majority of us chose to incarnate with a highly polarized ancestral blueprint of lack. It has been our mission to transcend its deeply etched imprints in order to program the new consciousness grid with our actualized codes and self-realizations. We have spent decades addressing this issue and yet its appearance is still being felt.

The time for wallowing in any form of lack, however, has come to a close. We are making our final shifts now in order to greatly empower the advancing group consciousness, and then, to address the global scene as an influential catalyst.

Remember the Principle and How Energy Moves

To have any level of lack appear in your reality is to be, first and foremost, not remembering Divine Principle. This is indicative of not having an authentic relationship with your spiritual core, the guiding Presence of your being.

The condition that staunchly frames the reflection of lack is 'self-reference' and giving our power to external influences as the controlling factor of our source of supply. This creates instant blindness to the wellspring of abundance that exists at all times for every person, as a divine birthright.

To lose sight of our benevolent originating source creates an experience of constant struggle to remain afloat in the mass soup of a glamorized world.

Know your Source of Supply

The one Universal Law that expresses; we are always taken care of and provided for, is so simple and profound that it is one of the most challenging truths to embrace.

Let's feel into a few more...

 The Divine Presence is the only acting intelligence in your life.*

 The Divine Presence governs all manifestation in your life perfectly. It is the power producing it and the force sustaining it.*

 To know the Divine Presence as your only source of supply is to be instantly prosperous.*

If you live by these principles, you automatically enter into the truth that brings all freedom. Your life becomes a path of non-stop opening doors.

Faith is the means through which Divine Principle is discerned and applied. This is to have complete reliance upon that which moves in the deepest side of your nature and what has been referred to before as, the God within. This Presence is the inward action of love from which the Divine Principle flows.

If you are experiencing lack in this moment, remove the attention off of the appearance and place it, instead, upon the Divine Presence of your being, the only giver of prosperity that there is. If you stand firm and determined in this, your reality is guaranteed to reflect a dramatically different picture.

"Being made in God's image, man too has that omnipotent will and self-confidence hidden within his soul, empowering him to create or accomplish anything he can imagine.

When one dislodges from his soul the octopus grip of human habits and hereditary beliefs, replacing impossibility consciousness with the realized power of faith, one gains over the natural order a supernatural sovereignty."

Paramahansa Yogananda

The New Meaning of 'Need'

 Everything is always here and always present.*

 The moment we recognize a need, it is already being fulfilled.*

When we stand unified with Divine Principle, all is magnetized to us in spontaneous flow, in perfect timing and in just the right quantity. No strenuous effort is required. No affirmations are needed and even prayer becomes obsolete. Want and need become signals to what is already in manifesting motion.

It is absolutely impossible for us to need anything if it were not already in existence. This is indicated by the very fact that 'need' has shown up and is expressing. We confidently accept the fact implied in the need that the solution is already coming towards us. If it were not already in momentum, the thought would not even enter into our awareness.

As soon as we observe the need arising, we simply know with great certainty that this is the beacon alerting us that it is being fulfilled. The moment that we realize our unity with the completed condition, it begins to express outwardly. In this, the energy of need become a magnetic tool.

We can apply this principle to all of our grand visions and humanitarian projects requiring money. The moment that we realize the financial support already exists for us, the condition is manifesting. The key is to hold clear vision and not to disrupt the manifestation with any form of doubt.

In invoking prayer, we clasp our hands together, not to ask for something again and again, but to give thanks for its accomplishment. This is the new energy. We are living life through Divine Principle and this can be applied to everything in our reality.

- * Abundance through Divine Principle.
- * Health through Divine Principle.
- * Partnership through Divine Principle.
- * Abilities through Divine Principle.
- * Knowledge through Divine Principle.
- * and so on.

Deep Intimacy is the Requirement

To live through Divine Principle is to know and have intimate relationship with your source of life... your dearest beloved and most trusted friend.

Many people, even those who claim to be spiritually awake, are without this endearment. This is the main reason why we lack anything. To be estranged from our Creator, we are simply not operating from the wholeness of life.

In place of this intimacy, our intelligence is often asserted to understand evolutionary concepts. We can only go so far with the ambiguous mind, and eventually, the door closes and we cannot make the destined leap.

Much deepening is required in the feeling body to really know our one true guardian, referred to by many as the 'I AM Presence'. This is the flame of life that is individualized within each of us as the nucleus of our entire being. It is this that we have been seeking to return for millennia of lifetimes, the great God Self, which never misuses life's energy.

When we know and experience ourselves as one with this eternal identity, all doubt vanishes and we live in sacred rhythm with the universal flow of abundance. Seeming miracles begin to happen including instant manifestation, spontaneous transformation and absolute knowing.

Through constant adoration given to this abiding and imperishable Presence, we come to unquestionably understand the Law of Supply.

The Economy of Giving

We receive back in life what we give to it.

Western culture, in particular, is built upon a "money back guarantee" syndrome. This concerns the value of what is tangibly felt and experienced. There must be perceived equal value in the transactions of giving and receiving. What about what is not being seen from the standpoint of the spiritual influence?

There are few who truly give for the sake of giving. The principle of giving is one of the main governing laws of our emerging new reality. The most significant maxim of this illumined era is: "To those who give all, all is given."

As we express selfless generosity in service to others, we release the unlimited universal storehouse of supply. If we genuinely love, we cannot help but to give. To give is to expand and thus the Law of Love is fulfilled.

The purity of our greater love gives constantly as its inherent nature, requiring nothing back in return. With no expectation of return, it is impossible to avoid receiving! The energy of giving is returned to us, amplified, through the natural fulfillment of the law.

As we come to live in greater alignment with these governing principles, all sense of lack evaporates for we humbly know that it is through the act of giving that we shall receive.

In Summary

There is an infinite supply of abundance available for all. The experience of lack is an illusion that comes from the pull of matter and the human attachment to the material plane.

To experience wealth at every level, we live first and foremost in the perfect freedom of Divine Immanence. In knowing the inner Presence as our originating source of supply, we become powerful magnets, drawing to us all that is needed and required to fulfill our life purpose.

Outer appearances no longer delude us. Rushing from point to point is not necessary. We are not creating opportunities; rather, we meet them and simply walk through the opening door in front of us.

As wayshowers of the new race, we exemplify Divine Principle, not motivated by anything external. Our ideas are not forced. Our motives are not driven primarily for financial gain. We are coming from a standpoint of service to humanity with the knowing that all is being taken care of. There is no need to even ask. As need arises, it is already accomplishing.

Through our understanding of principle, all is already present. It is simply a matter of awakening to the awareness of what is. This is the new energy. It is already here; the moment the thought arises.

With an appreciation for the value of money and what it can accomplish as a creative energy, we welcome its presence in our life for the accomplishment of our service role in fulfillment of the Divine Plan.
