HARMONICAS

Hohner Blues Rocker 4-Pack Harmonicas

HARPS IN THE KEYS OF C, G, A & D

Hohner

“Blues Rock” describes the music of artists who carried forward the early blues traditions of Robert Johnson and Muddy Waters. Being faster, and featuring a heavier sound and extended jam sessions, Blues Rock harmonica players in the early '70s – such as John Mayall, Paul Butterfield, Junior Wells, Roger Daltry, Mick Jagger and Robert Plant – solidified this musical style. The new Hohner Blues Rocker harps have been designed to put an edge into your playing by evoking the gritty, dirty sound found in Blues Rock music. The product has a thicker reed plate for improved response; longer lasting, easy bending reeds; and a powerful tone that sounds fantastic when amplified.
