New Ticket Prices

We have raised some of our ticket prices by 50¢ in order to offset increased operating costs. The increase was effective November 1, 2007.

Basic Membership Prices Will Increase Next Year

We will be increasing our basic membership prices, effective March 1, 2008. If you are currently a member, however, you can renew at the old rates prior to July 1, 2008.

*Also be aware that as of March 1, 2008, members' admission will increase by 25¢ to $4.75.

When will films play?

Main Attractions

Film Booking. Our main films play week-to-week from Friday through Thursday. Every Monday we determine what new films will start on Friday, what current films will end on Thursday, and what current films will continue through Friday for another week. All films are subject to this week-to-week decision-making process. We try to play all of our Main Attraction films as soon as possible. (For more info on the business of booking films and why some films play longer or sooner than others, visit our website.)

When Will a Film's Run Start?

After we decide on Monday (Tuesday at the latest) what new films will start on Friday, we immediately let you know on our website and on our hotline.

We'll send you an email message every Tuesday as to what is coming and going on Friday. (Sign up by emailing us at comments@AmblerTheater.org.)

Make Sure That We Have Your Email Address

We can keep you up-to-date on all our events and scheduling via our weekly email notices. Visit our web site to sign up, and then stay plugged into our latest programming news.

Special Programs

Our Special Programs are scheduled for specific dates and times, which are listed in this PREVIEWS brochure. Check our website and hotline for any additions or changes.

Support the Ambler Theater.

What is the Ambler Theater?

The Ambler Theater is a non-profit movie theater that shows independent, art, and foreign films, as well as special events like Saturday Kids Matinees and classic Hollywood films.

We also have filmmaker appearances, discussion groups, and lectures.

Who is running the Theater?

"Ambler Theater, Inc.", is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit corporation which owns and runs the theater. Its local Board of Directors oversees all operations.

Become a Member!

Your membership is the foundation of our success. Please fill out and return the attached membership form. (Or join online - it's easy and secure.) Your financial support is tax-deductible. Memberships run for one year from date of joining.

Put your star in the sidewalk!

We need your help to continue our theater renovations. Your donations are fully tax-deductible. And you can put your name on a bronze star in the sidewalk! Contact our Business Office at (215) 348-1878.

Become a Business Sponsor!

Receive prominent recognition for your business in exchange for helping our nonprofit theater. Recognition comes in a variety of ways – on our silver screens, in our brochures, and on our website. Call us at (215) 348-1878 for details.

Parties and Meetings

State-of-the-art auditoriums available for private parties and corporate meetings. We also host birthday parties and special events. We are able to accommodate everything from video projection to PowerPoint presentations to conferencing, to internet projection. And we'll provide catering and other amenities.

Contact Ross Grieve at (215) 345-7855 x 7 or rgrieve@renewtheaters.org or visit our web site AmblerTheater.org for more details.

Fine Print

The official registration and financial information of the Ambler Theater, Inc. may be obtained from the Pennsylvania Department of State by calling toll-free, within Pennsylvania,

1-800-732-0999. Registration does not imply endorsement.

Special Thanks

The Ambler Theater receives funding support through a grant from the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts, a state agency funded by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency.

PENNSYLVANIA
ON THE

MAIN ATTRACTIONS

There Will Be Blood

USA - 2 hr 38 min - Paul Thomas Anderson

Paul Thomas Anderson returns with this ambitious western epic about a turn-of-the-20th-century Texan prospector who discovers oil. It's a compelling parable set in a world dominated by family, greed, religion, and oil—a world that bears no small resemblance to the world of today. Based on the novel Oil! by Upton Sinclair and starring Daniel Day-Lewis.

Margot at the Wedding

USA - 1 hr 32 min - Noah Baumbach

Noah Baumbach (The Squid and the Whale) continues to examine domestic life with this film about a woman who attends her sister's wedding. It's a small character piece that's darkly satiric and perversely funny. Funny because the characters are narcissistically self-absorbed to the point of absurdity. Neurotic doesn't begin to describe them. The ensemble cast includes Nicole Kidman, Jennifer Jason Leigh and Jack Black.

The Kite Runner

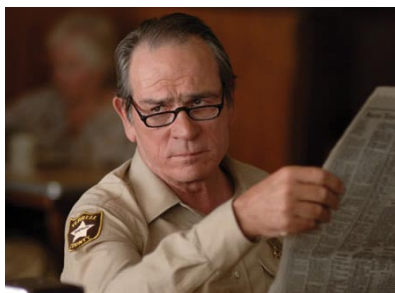

USA - 2 hr 2 min - Marc Forster
with subtitles

Based on one of the most acclaimed novels of recent memory, THE KITE RUNNER is a powerful tale of friendship, family, devastating mistakes, and redeeming love. In a divided Afghanistan, two childhood best-friends are torn apart by a fearful act of betrayal. Now, years later, one of the friends living in America returns to a perilous Afghanistan under the Taliban to face dark secrets and to make things right.

A Word About Our Main Attractions:

We try to play each of the films on these two pages as soon as possible. Sometimes, however, because of scheduling conflicts or problems with print availability, we are unable to play a film before its video release. (The "theatrical window" is getting shorter and shorter.) We apologize for when this happens. Know that it is our top priority to play as many great films for you as possible. (For more information, visit our website.) Thank you.

No Country for Old Men

USA - 2 hr 2 min - Joel and Ethan Coen

The Coen Brothers return to form with this scorching blast of neo-noir filmmaking. Near the Rio Grande, a man stumbles upon dead bodies, a hoard of heroin, and 2 million dollars. What follows is a series of violent and chaotic events that combine to make a film full of excitement, down-home philosophy, and dark, dark humor. Starring Tommy Lee Jones, Javier Bardem, and Josh Brolin.

Youth Without Youth

USA - 2 hr 4 min - Francis Ford Coppola

YOUTH marks Francis Ford Coppola's highly-anticipated return to directing after a ten year hiatus. When an aging linguistics professor tries to take his own life on the eve of WWII, forces of nature intervene and he is struck by lightning. Not only does this save his life, but it also reverses the effects of old age, returning the man to a state of youth. However, this "miracle" is not without consequences. Tim Roth stars in this uncompromisingly adventurous film.

Juno

USA - 1 hr 36 min - Jason Reitman

JUNO is a funny film about a wise-cracking 16-year-old who gets pregnant and decides to place her baby for adoption. Ellen Page is excellent in the lead and she delivers her razor-sharp dialogue perfectly. Director Jason Reitman acquits himself well with what could be the feel good film of the season. Also with Michael Cera, Jason Bateman and Jennifer Garner.

Atonement

UK - 2 hr 3 min - Joe Wright

An enthralling period piece, set in WWII-era England, about a young girl who misconstrues an adult situation and sets in motion a devastating chain of events that alters the lives of two families. ANTONEMENT is beautifully directed by Joe Wright, who reunites with his Pride and Prejudice star Keira Knightley. The film contains gorgeous cinematography, a lilting score, and wonderful performances. Co-starring James McAvoy.

The Diving Bell and the Butterfly

France - 1 hr 54 min - Julian Schnabel
with subtitles

This deeply moving drama explores the life of Elle editor Jean-Dominique Bauby, who suffered a stroke that left his entire body paralyzed except for one eye. DIVING BELL deftly reveals the interior life of Bauby through innovative camera work, creating a dreamlike collage of memories and fantasies. This gorgeous film is a small miracle in bringing such an emotionally powerful story to the screen.

The Orphanage

Mexico - 1 hr 45 min - Juan Antonio Bayona - with subtitles

From the producers of last year's Pan's Labyrinth, THE ORPHANAGE is a surreal and eerie ghost story about a woman and her son who travel to the orphanage that she grew up in. Events take a chilling turn when her precocious son develops a relationship with an imaginary friend. An atmospheric and spooky film with a formidable sense of visual elegance.

Persepolis

France - 1 hr 35 min - Vincent Paronnaud and Marjane Satrapi

Adapted from the graphic novel memoir by Marjane Satrapi, PERSEPOLIS is an amazingly realized coming-of-age story, told from the perspective of a nine-year-old girl growing up in Iran during the Islamic revolution. Featuring beautiful and imaginative black and white animation, this film is alternately moving and funny - and a remarkable artistic achievement. It's an autobiographical tour de force and is completely involving and accessible as an animated film.

The Savages

USA - 1 hr 53 min - Tamara Jenkins

Two siblings are forced together to care for their aging father, producing equal amounts of humor and pathos. Laura Linney, playing a long-aspiring playwright, and Philip Seymour Hoffman, a professor of drama, give wonderful performances that are real and emotionally textured. Are there two better actors working today? This superb film is a complete pleasure.
