Alumni Global Adventures

May 28-June 9, 2022 (13 days)

with Professor of Classical Studies Marc Mastrangelo

Extend your tour in the Greek Isles June 9-13 (5 days)

While we are physically at home, your mind is probably wandering to far off lands and thrilling destinations. When it's safe to travel again, it will look different. New policies and procedures are being implemented at every level, from airports to hotels to vehicles, all designed to protect travelers' health. While these safety measures are new, the essence of travel remains unchanged: it's a chance to learn about a different culture, to discover more about the world and to expand our outlook.

Dickinson College Faculty Leader

Professor Marc Mastrangelo has taught Classics at Dickinson College for 24 years and has published widely on Greek tragedy, Greco-Roman intellectual history, and early Christianity. He has led multiple trips with students and faculty to Greece, focusing on ancient Greek literature, history, and archaeology from the age of Homer to the travels of St. Paul. Prof. Mastrangelo will be your resource for ancient sites in the Peloponnese and mainland, including the Athenian Acropolis and Agora where Socrates philosophized, tragic and comic theater blossomed, and democracy was born. Prof. Mastrangelo will share his knowledge and passion for ancient Greek civilization that continues to fascinate and influence the world.

Dear alumni, parents and friends,

We're moving forward optimistically to offer you this fantastic Alumni Global Adventure to Greece. Because things will continue to change both for you personally and in the world, we have a generous new cancellation policy: you may now cancel up to six months prior to departure (until November 29, 2021) and receive a full refund of your deposit. We are working with our partners to safeguard your health, while allowing for an enjoyable travel experience.

I invite you to delve into the world of ancient Greek mythology, religion, drama, literature, art and history with Dickinson's Marc Mastrangelo, Professor of Classical Studies, on this small-group exploration of mainland Greece and the Peloponnese peninsula. Professor Mastrangelo plus an expert Greek guide will provide discussions about and insights to all the wondrous sites and museums. In addition, a professional trip manager handles all of the logistics, so you can relax, enjoy and learn.

- Visit SIX UNESCO World Heritage Sites:
 - Athens' Acropolis, with its stunning Parthenon and Erechtheion temples, plus the nearby Acropolis Museum;
 - the 10th-century monastery of Hosios Loukas, on the slopes of Mount Helicon, which has some of the country's finest Byzantine frescoes;
 - the greatest ancient oracle, Delphi, located in a spectacular mountain setting;
 - Olympia, the original site of the Olympic Games for 1,000 years, starting in 776 B.C.;
 - the Bronze Age fortress-palace of Mycenae, legendary home of Agamemnon and Clytemnestra;
 - and the ancient sanctuary of Epidaurus, with its well-preserved, 4th-century B.C. theater.
- Marvel at world-class museum collections with marble and bronze sculptures, exquisite gold jewelry, splendid pottery and mosaics, Byzantine icons and more.
- Explore ancient Greek religion and mythology while visiting sites associated with the rites and stories, such as Eleusis, center of the ancient mystery cult called the Eleusinian Mysteries; and the oracle of Trophonius, which predates Delphi.
- Gaze upon brehtaking mountain vistas and seascapes.
- Relax at centrally-located, comfortable (often luxurious) hotels and savor delicious, healthy Mediterranean cuisine.
- Choose to extend your adventure with a four-night, post-tour journey to the classic, sun- and history-drenched Cycladic Islands of Mykonos, Delos and Santorini.

I hope you will seize this opportunity to explore with fellow Dickinsonians and Professor Mastrangelo on this custom-designed itinerary! Feel free to share this brochure with family and friends who may be interested in traveling with you. Our group is limited to just 20 guests, so we suggest you reserve your spot today. We can't wait to see the world with you again!

Saturday, May 28, 2022: Depart home on flights to Athens, Greece

Sunday, May 29: Arrive in Athens | Private transfer to hotel

Upon arrival at Athens' Eleftherios Venizelos International Airport (ATH), you are met for a private transfer to our centrally-located hotel, which has views of the Acropolis. The balance of the day is at leisure for you to settle in, rest, and perhaps start to get acquainted with the very walkable area around our hotel. Overnight at the 4-star Herodion Hotel for four nights.

Monday, May 30: Athens - Acropolis, Acropolis Museum, PM at leisure | Welcome dinner

Set out this morning to ascend the Acropolis (a UNESCO World Heritage Site) and learn about its Parthenon and Erechtheion temples. We will also view from above the Odeon of Herodes Atticus and the Theater of Dionysos, set on the southern slope of the Acropolis, before we explore the stunning, nearby Acropolis Museum. Enjoy a traditional Greek lunch in the Plaka, Athens' ancient center, at the foot of the Acropolis, with its narrow, labyrinthine streets. The rest of the afternoon is at leisure, perhaps to explore the Plaka's shop-lined alleys and/or return to the Acropolis Museum. Gather this evening for a welcome reception and dinner, hosted by your faculty leader. (B,L,R,D)

Tuesday, May 31: Athens - AM walking tour: Kerameikos, Agora, Roman Agora | PM at leisure

This morning's walking tour begins with the Kerameikos, which was the city's cemetery from the 12th century B.C. through the 6th century A.D. and is something of an urban oasis today. It is populated by marble stelae (grave markers), many of which are carved with portraits. Continue our walk to the ancient Agora, the marketplace that was the center of ancient Athens' economic, social, and political life, to stroll its paths to the Temple of Hephaestus and visit the Agora Museum, housed in the reconstructed Stoa of Attalos. Our final stop of the morning is at the Roman Agora, where we see the octagonal, 1st-century B.C. Tower of the Winds and the monumental 1st-century A.D. Gate of Athens Archegetis. After a group lunch, the rest of the day is at leisure. Your guide and/or trip manager can suggest dinner options and independent activities. (B,L)

Wednesday, June 1: Athens - National Archaeological Museum | Brauron | Cape Sounion | Athens

Spend the morning exploring the National Archaeological Museum, which contains the richest collection of Greek antiquities in the world, including Neolithic, Cycladic, and Mycenaean artifacts. After lunch we drive to the Sanctuary of Artemis at Brauron, a site often associated with the story of Iphigenia, who came to Brauron after Artemis saved her from sacrifice at the hands of her father, Agamemnon. We continue on to Cape Sounion, at the southernmost tip of mainland Greece, with its 5th-century B.C. Temple of Poseidon, spectacularly situated more than 200 feet above the Aegean Sea. Mythology tells us that the Sea acquired its name because King Aegeus of Athens leaped off this cliff to his death when his heroic son, Theseus, upon his return from killing the Minotaur, forgot to change his ship's black sail to white to indicate that he was alive. We return to Athens and enjoy dinner at leisure. (B,L)

Thursday, June 2: Eleusis | Corinth | Nafplion

Set out from Athens for the small site of Eleusis, center of the ancient mystery cult called the Eleusinian Mysteries. At Eleusis, where we find the Sanctuary of Demeter, secret religious rites took place based on Hades' seasonal abduction and return of Persephone to her mother, Demeter. We then drive to ancient Corinth, where we see the 6th-century B.C. Doric Temple of Apollo, the 1st-century A.D. Roman Odeion, and the site museum. Continue driving to the delightful port town of Nafplion, which was the first capital of modern Greece. Check-in to our hotel and get settled before gathering this evening for dinner. Overnight at the 4-star Ippoliti Hotel for three nights. (B,L,D)

Friday, June 3: Epidaurus | Nafplion: PM at leisure

We spend the morning at the site of Epidaurus, an ancient sanctuary that was dedicated to Asclepius, the god of medicine, and today is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Admire the well-preserved, 4th-century B.C. theater with its extraordinary acoustics, and visit the small site museum with ancient medical instruments. After a group lunch, the balance of the day is at leisure in Nafplion. (B,L)

Saturday, June 4: Mycenae | Nafplion: PM at leisure

En route to Mycenae we drive past Tiryns for a view of its impressive Cyclopean walls. Tiryns and Mycenae are together a UNESCO World Heritage Site. At Mycenae, we start with a visit to the Treasury of Atreus, a well-preserved tholos (beehive-shaped) tomb, and then pass through the celebrated Lion Gate into the ruins of the fortress-palace of legendary Agamemnon and Clytemnestra. Also explore the wonderful site museum. After a group lunch, the balance of the day is at leisure in Nafplion. (B,L)

Sunday, June 5: Olympia

Enjoy a scenic drive (approx. 3 hrs.) from Nafplion across the Peloponnese peninsula to the Pan-Hellenic sanctuary of Olympia, where the Olympic Games originated in 776 B.C. and were held every four years until the 4th century A.D. This extensive site, which is today a UNESCO World Heritage Site, includes the original stadium and the ruins of the immense 5th-century Doric Temple of Zeus and the well-preserved 6th-century Doric Temple of Hera, plus we will visit the excellent site museum. Check-in to our hotel in the town of Olympia and then gather for dinner this evening. Overnight at the 5-star Arty Grand Hotel. (B,L,D)

Monday, June 6: Olympia | Arachova

The morning may begin with a return visit to the Olympia site museum, if we did not have a thorough visit the previous day. Then we take a beautiful drive (approx. 3.5 hrs.) crossing the Gulf of Corinth via the Rio-Antirrio

Above, Praxiteles' Hermes and the Infant Dionysus, on display at the Olympia Museum; (below) a shallow bowl (kylix) with an unusual depiction of the god Apollo, found in a grave underneath the Delphi Archaeological Museum, where it is currently displayed bridge, one of the world's longest multi-span, cable-stayed bridges. Arrive at the mountain resort town Arachova, at the foot of Mount Parnassus, where we check-in to our hotel and have some time this afternoon to settle in before we gather this evening for dinner. Overnight at the 4-star Aegli Arachova for two nights. (B,L,D)

Tuesday, June 7: Delphi | Arachova

We spend today at Delphi, a UNESCO World Heritage Site spectacularly situated on the slope of Mount Parnassus. This was the most celebrated oracle in antiquity, believed by the ancient Greeks to be the center of the Earth. We walk up the slope, along the Sacred Way, past monuments and treasuries to the theater and up even farther to the stadium where the Pythian Games were held. After a lunch in town, we explore the Delphi Archaeological Museum, whose excellent collection includes the celebrated bronze Charioteer statue and a colossal marble group of three dancing women. Return to our hotel in nearby Arachova and gather this evening for dinner. (B,L,D)

Wednesday, June 8: Hosios Loukas | Livadia | Athens | Farewell dinner

Set out this morning on a drive to the 10th-century monastery of Hosios Loukas. A UNESCO World Heritage Site on the slopes of Mount Helicon, the monastery contains some of the country's finest Byzantine frescoes. We then drive to Livadia to visit the site of the oracle of Trophonius, which predates the more famous oracle at Delphi, and onward to Athens. This evening we gather for our farewell dinner. Overnight at the 4-star Herodion Hotel. (B,L,R,D)

Thursday, June 9: Private transfer to Athens Airport | Fly home OR Fly to Mykonos for the Extended Tour

You are met at the hotel for a private transfer to Athens' Eleftherios Venizelos International Airport (ATH) for your flights homeward or to Mykonos to begin your extended tour. (B)

What to Expect

You must be able to make long walks, unassisted, over uneven terrain and up and down steps that may be steep and without handrails. Participants who are not able to walk or stand unassisted for extended periods are kindly advised not to join this tour. All participants are expected to be physically active and not be an impediment to others on excursions, to enjoy traveling as part of a group, and to be ready to experience cultural differences. Some sites require strenuous and/or brisk walking or climbing, sometimes with difficult footing. If the tour manager decides that a participant cannot visit a site safely or in a timely manner, their judgment will be final. Where possible, an alternate activity may be suggested; additional costs may apply. If you have any questions about your ability to participate, we suggest that you visit your personal physician with this brochure in hand and discuss whether or not this program is appropriate for you. Hotels have been chosen for their excellent locations and generous comfort. At the time of year that we visit this region the weather is generally sunny and pleasant, with average temperatures in the 70s and 80s (F) during the day, dropping to the high 50s and 60s at night. There is always a chance of light to moderate rain showers. Complete pre-departure details and what to pack will be sent to participants.
