Hampton Bays— Open All Year Long

Welcome to the Hamlet of Hampton Bays, one of the jewels of the “Hamptons”

Hampton Bays was known as “Good Ground” because of the natural abundance of life on land and in the sea. The Indians would fish and hunt along the shoreline and throughout the many inlets and creeks that create the pattern of our land, leaving their canoes at the spot now marked by the historic site of the Canoe Place Inn. Colonists built Fort Lookout atop the high ground on the west bank of the canal, affording them excellent views of the approaches from the Peconic & Shinnecock Bays. During the Revolutionary War in 1776, some of the battles of Long Island took place right here in our hamlet leaving our area steeped in history and lore. The name was changed to align our town with the emerging Hampton “Celebrity” scene during the 1920’s, when we were host to such notables as Cary Grant, Helen Hayes, boxing champ John L. Sullivan, and then NY Governor Alfred E. Smith.

Today, although we may host and house celebrities from many walks of life and entertainment, we are primarily a quiet, laid back community with strong ties to our families and friends.

It is here that you will have access to the most pristine bay and ocean beaches on Long Island, while casting your fishing line into waters abundant with all varieties of fish and shellfish.

As the only Hampton to have access to all surrounding waterways, Hampton Bays is known as “The boat way to the Hamptons.” From Shinnecock and Tiana Bays, boaters can reach the Atlantic Ocean through the Shinnecock Inlet or north to the Great Peconic Bay via the Shinnecock Canal. We have over 100 miles of waterfront property. Boaters and jet skiers use the Shinnecock Canal to ‘play’ in both bays, and the beautiful Ponquogue Bridge affords access to Dune Road’s beaches, clubs, and magnificent restaurants with water-front views. This unique and fragile strip of land is home to the Shinnecock Commercial Fishing Fleet, the second largest commercial fleet in the State of New York. Avid fishermen can experience serious deep-sea fishing by going aboard one of the areas many charter boats.

We welcome you as a visitor or potential ‘settler’ in our hamlet. Enjoy our bright sunny days and beautiful sunsets. Swim or sail in our waters. Dine in our local restaurants. Party in our clubs. Picnic or camp in our parks. Browse through our Main Street shops. Visit us anytime—we’re open all year long.

The Chamber of Commerce is here to assist you in finding the right vacation or visitor’s package to fit your time, budget and interests. We do suggest you make reservations for your accommodations before you arrive in our hamlet. Enjoy your stay and feel free to contact the Hampton Bays Chamber of Commerce at 631-728-2211 for further information.

By 1738 the Hamlet of Good Ground was settled. It was called "Good Ground" due to the rich soil located in what is now downtown Hampton Bays. The Hamlet was, and is, a collection of smaller communities (i.e.) Squiretown, Red Creek, Newtown, Canoe Place, Ponquogue, Springville, Rampasture, East Tiana, West Tiana, Southport and Atlanticville.

As summer tourists returned year after year, many decided to build their own residences. "Estates" may be a more adequate word to use when describing private properties of 400 to 500 acres. Few of the magnificent homes still exist. Many were lost to fire, storms or economic reversals.
