AWARE, Inc. Board President Report

Greetings,

I would like to begin this letter by thanking the dedicated staff, volunteers, corporate donors and individual supporters that make it possible for AWARE, Inc. to provide valuable services to the Jackson community.

In 2019 and through the leadership of our Executive Director, Angelita Velasco Gunn, we expanded services to sexual assault survivors. With funding secured in 2018, Angelita increased the AWARE team to provide more robust services, build critical partnerships and mature Jackson's sexual assault response. This work has enabled our community to provide better services with a victim-centered approach.

The expansion comes in addition to the ongoing work to support victims of domestic violence. These services reach beyond our shelter and include counseling, legal advocacy and overseeing the supervised visitation for parents and children where domestic violence has been present.

Angelita, Lee Knapp, Operations Manager, our staff and the AWARE Board Finance Committee diligently worked over the last three years to ensure that our funding streams support our priorities, which are core services for survivors.

In 2019, we added a team member to focus efforts on marketing and fundraising. This position will increase our online presence, broaden our communities' understanding of our services, and work on short-term and long-term funding strategies to bring our budget into alignment.

It remains our desire to partner with others in the community to provide services and to change views and behaviors regarding domestic violence and sexual assault.

Again, thank you to this community for making it possible for us to invest in those that use our services.

Sincerely,

Amber McKee

Program Services

Jackson County Family Visitation

The Jackson County Visitation Center is a collaborative project between Jackson County and AWARE, Inc. that provides visits or exchanges between parents and children where domestic violence has affected the family, and where contact between the parent and child could not otherwise occur safely or legally.

Our staff team works cooperatively with courts and service providers to enhance the safety of children and adult victims from any abuse before, during and after visits at the Center.

The Center provided 698 supervised visits, and 220 exchanges, serving 220 adults and children.

"This program has changed my life for the better in so many ways. I've been able to see my son every week now and grow our bond as father and son."

Residential Services

The Shelter provides emergency shelter in a safe and supportive setting. The Shelter provided 5,525 nights of shelter to 146 adults and 104 children during this fiscal year. While in our shelter, staff work with survivors on goals to facilitate healing and self-sufficiency.

24-hour Crisis Line Services

During this fiscal year, 834 crisis calls were received by our advocacy staff who provided supportive listening, intake for shelter, and referrals to other agencies.
