Regent's Thoughts

Dear Court Members,

On the Feast of the Assumption of Blessed Mary, I reflected on a picture of our Blessed Mother being lifted into heaven on a blue mantle held by angels-softly, lovingly and headed to her son's waiting arms. With closed eyes, a warm breeze touched my face. I felt surrounded by love and peace. She knew I needed that. I didn't want to leave. My life as been anything but peaceful lately and I've struggled with trying to control situations, even though I can't. Can you relate?

After leaving my "special place" and returning home, I opened my Bible and this was the verse I saw first. "I will lead the blind on their journey; by paths unknown I will guide them. I will turn darkness into light before them and make crooked ways straight. These things I do for them and I will not forsake them" _Isaiah 43:16 WOW!

Letting God be our pilot, Jesus our navigator and Mary our guide isn't always easy. Those unknown paths and darkness are scary; but our willingness will make our journey through life the true course God has planned for all of us. So as we continue this year of uncertainties, trials and hardships, let's keep each other in our prayers and pray for the day when we can all be together again-enjoying each other's company. Take care.

Carol

Annual World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen's Books and Catholic Television series, Life is Worth Living! and The Fulton Sheen Program

By Pattie, Quality of Life Chair (Continued on page 6)

Ever wonder where you could watch past episodes, read a collection of quotes, or read about how to find true happiness? Do you want to learn about the series which won two Emmys? Check out these resources:

Several of us gathered at different times and in different homes, and then all together to watch “Archbishop Fulton Sheen: Servant of All”, followed by five of his episodes from his television series, “Life is Worth Living!” The three and a half hours time spent was well worth it! We were brought back in time, to a time when the now Venerable Sheen had us nodding in agreement or laughing with the rest, during various topics of interest. Fulton Sheen had such an uncanny way of making sense out of nonsense and making something which felt beyond our grasp, right within it. An awesome archbishop and believer in all things, made by God. I trust you won’t go wrong by spending some time in front of the television or with one of the many books written by or for, the Venerable Fulton J. Sheen.

“As a custom which started in kindergarten, I always wrote ‘JMJ’ at the top of the blackboard, as I do on every piece of paper before I write — and which I hope will someday be on my tombstone. In answer to many letters, the public finally recognized me and the words Jesus, Mary, and Joseph.” — From “Treasure in Clay: The Autobiography of Fulton J. Sheen” <https://thecatholicpost.com/2019/08/14/the-jmj-on-the-blackboard/>

Journey of a Motion!

By Patricia Gildea, State Parliamentarian

As seen on page 13 of the Fall 2018-2 Pennsylvania State Newsletter

<https://cdapa.com/newsletters/archives/029-fall-2018-2.pdf>

Submitted by Pattie and used with Pat's ongoing permission.

A proposal or issue to come to the court assembly is done by the "motion" process. "I move to" or "I move that" the court do... Needs a second, so that more than one member is in favor of getting it on the floor for discussion. Discussion follows: Member stands and says I speak in favor of (or against) this motion for this reason... What is Next? Regent asks, "is there any further discussion?"

Subsidiary motion could be made: ...To "postpone indefinitely" ...To "amend" ...To add something, strike out something, or strike out some words and add new words ...To "refer to a committee" for further investigation ...To "postpone to a definite time"

- ♥ If a subsidiary motion comes forth, it needs a second, discussion, and a vote taken.
- ♥ Whatever action results, will be applied to the main motion.
- ♥ If no subsidiary motion is made, regent asks if there is any further discussion.
- ♥ If none, a vote is taken: "All those in favor, say, "Aye," all those opposed, say "No."
- ♥ Result of vote is announced by regent; Ayes have it (or Nos have it).
- ♥ The motion is adopted (or lost).
- ♥ If in doubt about a vote, take a show of hands, or a standing vote. The chair could be challenged, if there is a doubt.

Rules of Order.

So what is to be done, brothers? When you assemble, one has a psalm, another an instruction, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Everything should be done for building up.

1 Corinthians 14:26

Prayer for Labor Day

Submitted by Pattie, Quality of Life Chair

<https://www.usccb.org/prayers/dignity-work-and-rights-workers>

Lord God, Master of the Vineyard,
How wonderful that you have invited us who labor by the sweat of our brow
to be workers in the vineyard and assist your work
to shape the world around us.

As we seek to respond to this call,
make us attentive to those who seek work
but cannot find it.

Help us listen to the struggles of those who work hard to provide for their families
but still have trouble making ends meet.

Open our eyes to the struggles of those exploited
and help us speak for just wages and safe conditions,
the freedom to organize, and time for renewal.

For work was made for humankind and not humankind for work.

Let it not be a vehicle for exploitation
but a radiant expression of our human dignity.

Give all who labor listening hearts that we may pause from our work
to receive your gift of rest.

Fill us with your Holy Spirit that you might work through us to let your justice reign.
Amen.
