DECOLORES EVERONE

MAKE FRIENDS, BE FRIENDS, BRING FRIENDS TO CHRIST

The year 2007 has been an eventful year for the Cursillo community with the exit of some parishes and some close friends. We will remember this year especially by the passing of our beloved friend, the Reverend Marshall Lowell. He was our leader, mentor, pastor, and above all, our friend. Our prayers, our friendship and love extend to Dottie who has weathered this tragic loss with grace and dignity. Please take this very moment to life Dottie and family up in prayer and give thanks to God for the joy that Marshall brought to each of our lives. Amen.

Thanks go to all who sent in green palanca for the new glass luminary jars and tea lights. They will be used on the upcoming men's weekend.

We would like to welcome The Reverend Dennis O'Neill who has accepted the Bishop's appointment as the new Spiritual Director for Cursillo. Thank you, dear friend.

Many of us have been staying in the staff cabin on Sat. night at Cursillo to help out and enjoy and evening of fellowship. We will have a spaghetti dinner downstairs. Bring your own drinks and libation of your choice. I'll bring the food and you can pitch in money for the meal. The cost is $25.00 for the bunk and you must pay at the conference center. I need a head count for the number for dinner as we bring what we need with us. Please contact me at my email obstef@bellsouth.net (please mark Cursillo) or by phone at 904-745-3506 to reserve. You must arrive between 2pm and 5pm and take the lake road by Mandy's Chapel to the staff cabin while the candidates are in the rollo room. It's great fellowship and we have a wonderful time. Remember to bring all your bedding needs, you'll be on a bunk. There are plenty of rooms at the Conference Center and of course, you may always camp at the campsite. All who want to join us for dinner, let me know.

Please, make every effort to attend wakeup and clausura.

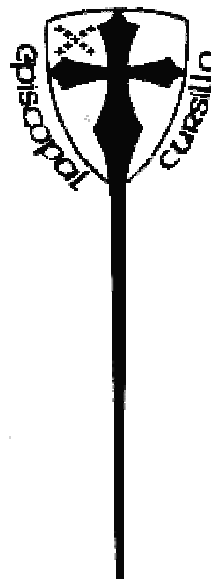

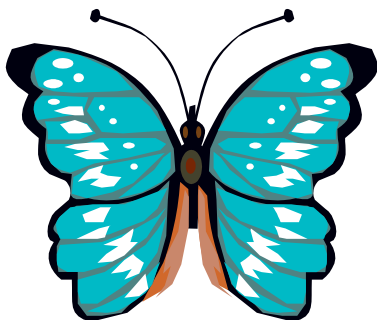

Please make an extra effort for poster palanca for the upcoming weekends. I know I have mentioned this before, but it is a necessary part of the Faith talk by the clergy and there has been a serious shortage. This palanca must be done for each weekend, so please help. It is not just for the Faith talk, but it is truly inspirational to have not just a lot of palanca, but so many different kinds of palanca.

God bless each of you and all your ministries. I know I am blessed to serve.

The Lord be with you.
