FROM PASTOR'S DESK

ON FACING THE HUMAN COMPLEXITY

As we commemorate this Palm or Passion Sunday, Jesus' entrance into the city of Jerusalem, the place of his crucifixion and death, I think of Jesus' courage and relentless spirit to follow his Father's will to save us and the whole world. I also think of Jesus' "human" experiences of pain, suffering, rejection, disappointment, empathy, and compassion.

Furthermore, I reflect on our lives in the present time—how we also confront the complexity of human experience with all we are going through: the pandemic, the war, and the seemingly never-ending racial, political and ideological tensions in society.

Indeed, these are trying times. Pope Francis describes these times in his book, Let Us Dream:

I see this time as a reckoning. I think of what Jesus tells Peter in Luke 22:31, that the devil wants him to be sifted like wheat. To enter into crisis is to be sifted. Your categories and ways of thinking get shaken up; your priorities and lifestyles are challenged. You cross a threshold either by your own choice or by necessity because there are crises, like the one we're going through that you can't avoid.

So how do we face this complex world and confront our fears, helplessness, and anxieties?

First, it is by choosing to step into the arena of life with courage despite our insecurities and shadows. By saying "Yes" to life daily amid fears, sickness, and uncertainties. In the Book of Deuteronomy (30:19), God says to the Israelites in the wilderness: "I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse; therefore, choose life."

In his book, Alive in God, A Christian Imagination, Fr. Timothy Radcliff OP writes that this "Yes" is the essence of being alive. All the Abrahamic religions share the idea of living as an affirmative response to an invitation to life.

Second, it is by listening to God's constant call to engage in the world by offering our gifts, to make a difference in big and small ways. As I would say, God's call does not retire; it keeps nudging us to do something good for others, to be part of a larger purpose or vision for a better world and humanity.

To respond to this call, we must shake off the dust of indifference, pessimism, cynicism, self-judgment, fear of failure, and selfish motives. Instead, we must walk the world with eyes and hearts open to the joys, sufferings, and everyday struggles that unfold us. By doing so, we come to an ever-deeper sense of solidarity. We must also be open to dialogue with others to enter into fierce conversations on how we could treat one another more humanly.

Finally, we must never forget that every thought and action must be grounded in prayer. While fully immersed in the world, we must remember that we are not fully "of" the world. God constantly calls us to withdraw daily to pray, reflect, feel grateful for all we have, and remind ourselves of our values and beliefs. In short, we must be men and women of prayer.

May these thoughts help you reflect on your life as we begin Holy Week and look forward with joy to the celebration of Easter.

Your loving Pastor,

Fr. Rodel "Odey" Balagtas

The summit of the Liturgical Year is the Easter Triduum—from the evening of Holy Thursday to the evening of Easter Sunday. Though chronologically three days, they are liturgically one day unfolding for us the unity of Christ's Paschal Mystery. The single celebration of the Triduum marks the end of the Lenten season, and leads to the Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord at the Easter Vigil. The liturgical services that take place during the Triduum are: Mass of the Lord's Supper, Good Friday of the Lord's Passion and Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord

GOOD FRIDAY IS A DAY OF FASTING AND ABSTINENCE

Fast obliges those between 18 and 59. On fast days we limit ourselves to one full meal and two other meals sufficient to maintain strength. Abstinence obliges those 14 and older. On days of abstinence no meat is allowed.

The Paschal Fast

Most Catholics know that Good Friday is a day of fast and abstinence. This is not, though, the penitential fast of Lent. It is rather a fast of preparation and anticipation: "Let the paschal fast be kept sacred. Let it be observed everywhere on Good Friday and, where possible, prolonged through Holy Saturday, as a way of coming to the joys of the Sunday resurrection with uplifted and welcoming heart."

– Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, #110
