REFLECT

FIRST READING

Luke gives us a glimpse into the solidarity of heart and mind with the original community of believers in Jerusalem. How does your current community of faith compare to this first-generation Jerusalem church?

SECOND READING

John speaks of the power of faith and love for believers in conquering evil in the world. How does the faith and love in your life sustain you?

GOSPEL READING

The story of Thomas' doubt in the resurrected Jesus is one of the most well-known resurrection narratives. Why do you think Christians throughout the ages are drawn to this story?

HOMEBOUND SACRAMENTS

If you or your loved one is shut-in and in need of the sacraments, a member of the immediate family should notify the parish office to arrange for a visit from Fr Ptak.

Our deepest sympathies and prayers go out to the families of the recently deceased:

MARY GARDAI
FRANK SULTANA

May they rest in the light of God's face

WHAT'S NEW IN FAITH FORMATION

On April 4, Easter Sunday, the following adults completed their Sacraments of Initiation by celebrating their Confirmation/First Eucharist at the Easter Vigil. They were...

True Zschunke

Charles Crosby

We congratulate them and give thanks to God for their faith! Please keep them in your prayers as they continue to deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church.

On March 20, a group of seven Confirmation Candidates from St. Maria Goretti, along with other Jr. High age children throughout the Archdiocese of Detroit, attended the Catholic Youth Trek Service Event held at St. Kateri. During the event, the Candidates prayed the Stations of the Cross, which are located outside on the parish grounds. It was a beautiful day and a great experience for our 8th graders. Then they decorated Easter Egg cards for the Easter baskets that were distributed during Holy Week. They also made bookmarks and cards for our children who will be celebrating First Holy Communion this year. We would like to thank Julie from Sacred Heart, along with everyone on the Catholic Youth Trek team for providing us this service opportunity. Great Job Candidates!

Has the last year put strain on your marriage or made it harder to communicate? Want some marital enrichment but aren't sure about being in proximity with others? Want to make a Marriage Encounter weekend, but can't escape for a whole weekend? Restore, Rekindle, Renew Enrichment (3RE for short) is all the content of a Marriage Encounter weekend presented in weekly sessions over a 7-week period. This spring, grow your marriage and your faith by attending the Virtual 3RE! Apply today at wwme.org and put Michigan in the search bar.

For questions, contact Terry & Cathy Hirsch at 888-322-9963

A MINUTE OF YOUR TIME

Deacon Regis

He is Risen! Alleluia!

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday which, fittingly, officially ends the Octave of Easter. Remember that Easter is so important that, like Christmas, we celebrate the event for eight days. The Easter "Season" will continue until Pentecost! What a party!

But what about this Divine Mercy Business? What's that all about?

Well, in Poland in the 1930's a young uneducated nun, Sister Faustina, began to receive messages from Our Lord who asked her to promote this Feast among the Faithful; that's us! He showed her the Divine Mercy Image and she, through her spiritual advisor, had the now familiar painting commissioned. He also gave her the formula for the Divine Mercy Chaplet which is recommended to be recited at 3:00 PM, the hour that Our Lord died on the cross. Sister Faustina was canonized by Pope Saint John Paul the Great in 2000.

The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC:

A - Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

B - Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

C - Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that all the graces of His mercy can only be received by our trust. The more we open the door of our hearts and lives to Him with trust, the more we can receive.

For more information on Divine Mercy, go to the Divine Mercy website at www.thedivinemercy.org

God Is Good All the Time!
All the Time God Is Good!

Today is Divine Mercy Sunday. Don't forget, join us this Friday and every Friday at 3PM to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet on ZOOM. See the ad in our bulletin or on the parish website for details on how to join in. Hope to see you there!

PRIESTLY VOCATIONS: DISCERNMENT GROUP

The Office of Priestly Vocations' discernment group for men (18-55) considering the priesthood is having its next meeting on Thursday, April 22, 2021, 7:00-8:30pm. New members can join at any time, as there is no requirement to have been at the last meeting. The previous nights have been a great success with many men excited to talk about their possible vocation to the priesthood. Meetings are led by Fr. Craig Giera, Director of Priestly Vocations, and will include prayer, group discussion on discernment, light refreshments, and fellowship with other like-minded men.

Please contact the vocation office for more info: <https://detroitpriestlyvocations.com/discernment-groups/>.
