

FROM THE RABBI

In observing the holiday of Passover, we are instructed in the traditional Haggadah that every Jew is to feel that he/she was personally liberated from Egyptian slavery. We are each commanded to think of ourselves as having been slaves in Egypt. It was we who were whipped by our Egyptian taskmasters. It was our tears that were mixed with the mortar. It was our backs that were bent from serving as slaves in Egypt. It wasn't some ancient people who were placed under the burden of Egyptian slavery. We were the ones who suffered the burdens of slavery.

This command has great relevance to our daily lives. It stresses the importance of placing ourselves in someone else's shoes. It stresses the importance of developing one of the most important qualities for compassionate living – the ability to put ourselves in the place of another human being. We need to have a sympathetic imagination that enables us to get under another human being's skin. The Talmudic rabbis instructed us not to judge our fellow human being until we are in his place.

Empathy is a very praiseworthy human characteristic.

Perhaps we would all be more charitable if we were able experience what it's like to go to bed hungry at night or to be a homeless person living on the streets. Perhaps hospital patients would get more thoughtful treatment if their doctors had to spend one week a year in a hospital bed. And maybe patients would be more understanding of their doctors if they could follow them on their daily rounds. And maybe we would all visit people we know in assisted living facilities or nursing homes if we could understand how much a visit can relieve the burden of loneliness and a sense of being unwanted.

Victoria Farnsworth wrote, "Not until I became a mother did I understand how much my mother had sacrificed for me; not until I became a mother did I feel how hurt my mother was when I disobeyed; not until I became a mother did I know how proud my mother was when I achieved; not until I became a mother did I realize how much my mother loves me."

Sometimes we feel we have scored a triumph over another person, and we gloat in self-congratulation, "Boy, did I put him in his place." But perhaps there is something far more praiseworthy than putting another person in his place and that is putting YOURSELF IN HIS PLACE.

FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Presidents Message

Fist, I want to thank you all for your prayers, good wishes, visits and words of encouragement on behalf of my beloved Ze'ev. It might be a long haul but we will get there.

Please don't forget the Passover Seder is on April 22nd. The Seder will be held at the Temple and your check is your reservation. The Seder form is in the bulletin. Please mail it before April 12. 2016.

Thank you to all those that made a donation to the Holocaust Butterfly Monument fund. The dedication will take place on May 1st at Crabtree lane in Market Commons. It is a very important occasion for the Jewish community to come together. The City of Myrtle Beach has been wonderful to us by giving us the land for the monument. I hope all of you will plan to attend this special dedication.

In May we will have our Congregational meeting. Elections for four Board Positions and two Executive Positions will be held. It is so important that each of you consider serving on the board. If you have any questions please call Linda Post -she is chair of the nominating committee.

I wish you all a wonderful Passover.

Lily Ann Revitch

Thank you to everyone who called, sent cards and visited Bob in the hospital. Your concern was very much appreciated. It is nice to know that our Temple Shalom family is there to support us. Thanks again,

Mi Sheberach list

We all pray that those who are mentioned on the Mi Sheberach list each Shabbat regain their health and continue to join us. However, Beginning immediately, persons whose names are on the list will be mentioned each Shabbat for a period of 30 days. If you want to extend that mention beyond the 30 days, please contact Rabbi Weissman each month as appropriate. As always, at Shabbat services you can add a name to the Mi Sheberach list.

ONEG NEWS

Happy Spring everyone! I hope that by the time you read this our "yellow snow" will have gone and we can enjoy the great weather and beautiful flowers this season brings. We had no one step up to provide an oneg on April 1, so the Temple will supply a challah and wine/grape juice. No joke on April Fool's Day! If you would like to celebrate an occasion, or honor a departed loved one, or just perform a mitzvah for your fellow temple family members, you can provide an oneg after July 1. Most dates are still available. Dave and I will be traveling until mid May, so contact me by email and I'll respond when I can access the internet. Thanks all!
