Ahlan wa Sahlan: Functional Modern Standard Arabic for Beginners: With Online Media

Mahdi Alish

Hbk | 704pp | 9780300219890 | 28/06/2009
A$129 | NZ$156 | Yale University Press

The second edition of this widely used text covers the first year of instruction in Modern Standard Arabic. It will teach students to read, speak, and write Arabic, while presenting an engaging story that involves Adnan, a Syrian student studying in the United States, and Michael, an American student studying in Cairo. In diaries, letters, and postcards, the two students describe their thoughts and activities, revealing how a non-American views American culture and how the Arabic culture is experienced by an American student.

Arabic as One Language: Integrating Dialect in the Arabic Language Curriculum

Mahmoud Al-Batal

Pbk | 352pp | 9781626165045 | 4/12/2017
A$82 | NZ$99 | Georgetown University Press

For decades, students learning the Arabic language have begun with Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) and then transitioned to learning spoken Arabic. While the MSA-first approach neither reflects the sociolinguistic reality of the language nor gives students the communicative skills required to fully function in Arabic, the field continues to debate the widespread adoption of this approach. In this seminal volume, Mahmoud Al-Batal gathers key scholars who have implemented integration to present data and research on the method's success.

Write Arabic Now! A Handwriting Workbook for Letters and Words

Barbara Romaine

Pbk | 56pp | 9781626165687 | 2/04/2018
A$39.99 | NZ$46.99 | Georgetown University Press

Learning to write fluidly in Arabic takes practice. This short workbook helps beginning learners practice each letter in all of its forms by tracing real Arabic words. Learners trace different words across each line to practice letter formation on tracing paper that is bound into the book. The words, handwritten by a native Arabic speaker, show a natural flow and present a model of clean handwriting.
