Dear Inspector General Horowitz,

It is with very careful deliberation and purpose, I bring before you many serious matters of what I have come to regard as deliberate criminal acts perpetrated by specific and non-specific individuals, who have been criminally misrepresenting themselves as lawful public officers.

I have concluded these criminal actors are currently and have been operating for some time as impostors. Individuals and agencies, by the nature of their criminal activity, have by default, compromised and/or dissolved any legitimacy they once may have had and are no longer protected by any immunity which might have been conferred upon those individuals who act within the lawful scope of the delegated authority granted by the governed.

While many specific issues are revealed in the following sections of this document, more specific details are available upon request. You will note several items notated are copies of earlier effort to resolve matters in a peaceful and responsible manner.

Sadly, in all cases, there was no one who even offered to act lawfully and honor their oath of office, to initiate the appropriate actions to resolve the criminal matters when they were reported. All those contacted violated the federal law of misprision of felony.

The Travis Allen Affair – District 72 – California

The seriousness of the breach of the public trust is only partially revealed in the randomly selected items included. The criminal abuse and abuse of power far exceeds the imaginations of most of the people with whom I come in daily contact. I can say with great confidence the deliberate censorship control over all forms of organized media systems is well entrenched and effective.

Mr. Trump has declared publicly and internationally the true status of the individual sovereign American. However, it seems many of those engaged in public service have been deliberately misinformed to the point, the public servants have no idea for whom they work and on whom their very existence is dependent. In many cases the lack of proper recognition and respect is very apparent.

That must be clarified immediately! And there are many American sovereigns, currently unlawfully incarcerated against their will of false crimes perpetrated by members of corporate service organizations who are unlawfully operating outside of the authority and scope of their contracts.

Attention Mr. Trump...Restore-Promote and Empower – American hero's...who were right!

Because of the manor in which their criminal escapades are so well protected, I am beginning to suspect they may be operating on secret and unlawful Letters of Marque, issued by international criminal elements...and creating the false impression these individuals are free to commit acts of on-land piracy with impunity.

Because of just the number of Americans currently incarcerated, and the existence of for profit prisons, the Department of Justice has lost a great deal of credibility and is regarded by many as untrustworthy. My thoughts are echoed in that sentiment.

I am writing to you directly as when I contacted the Office of the US Attorney in California, the lack of seriousness in the manner in which my conversation was treated... convinced me they were not any more credible than the rest of those in government with whom I attempted to constructively interact over the last 8 plus years.

A small example...

The End of a Perfectly Good public servant relationship.

This document is being hand-carried to you by process server to ensure you receive this item personally.

Should you have any questions, my contact information is provided.

A personal acknowledgment from you would be greatly appreciated and go along way to restoring confidence in that under Mr. Trump's administration, the American people can count of those in government to do the right things for the right reasons.

Unless otherwise requested...This message will be made a matter of the public record by Noon Pacific time on Wednesday May 30, 2018.
