WORKING WITH HEALING STONES AND MINERALS

Shiva Speaks of Shiva Eye Agate

“You have been placed back in contact with the earthly incarnation of the divine presence and all that it can offer. Through this family of divine energies, one can offer to themselves a reliable and effortless way to feel connected!

YOU ARE NOT ALONE and as your family returns you will begin to notice a deepening in our connection and communication.

As you connect with me through these stones you will discover that those who may seek to project negative thoughts and energies toward you will be unsuccessful. You will discover that all of your dreams will soften and any frightening energies that would seem to appear through your dream-space will be a distant memory.

For those who have an unbalanced energy or are working with many who have unbalanced energies, holding a stone in each hand often will continually offer an energetic charge that will sustain you and lift you into the vibratory realms that are far beyond the planetary thought body of fear and doubt and chaos.

Relax and discover that each stone carries a unique vibration, color and universal light code. Each is as individual as the person who it is called to reunify with. You, (referring to Kira Raa), will need to surround yourself with many of different sizes to accomplish the gift of a universal grid of divine crystalline ascension frequency that can then be lovingly offered to those who wish to lift into the frequencies of the ascension portals.

Beware that many stones have been recklessly sold solely for the sake of financial gain. To many they are simply inanimate objects and will go dormant until reunified with their family of spirit. Even those who are of loving heart may have in their possession a dormant stone that is simply that...a stone...yet holds the energy of awakening.

The stones that are for the family of spirit that will hear my words through you, will be sent to you as you will be guided to re-discover them. Your connection with me will guide your hands to select and hear them as they dance to their families once more.

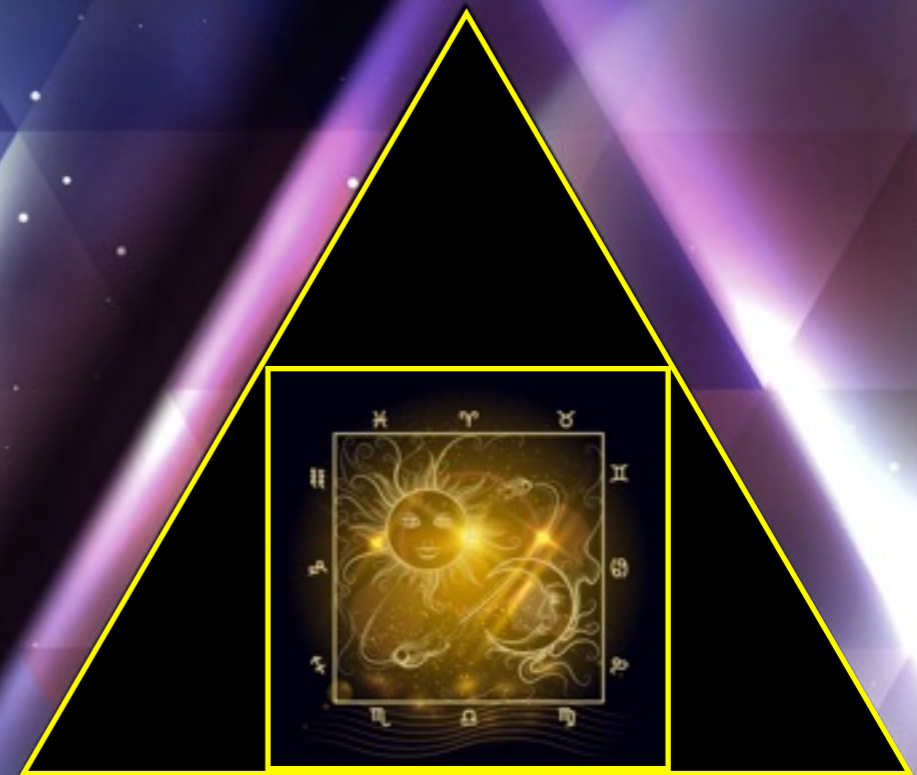

There is not any magic needed to activate the stones once they find their way to the family member that they are seeking. Simply gaze deeply into the center of the stones as you breathe, relax and smile. Hold them often, either in both hands or by switching one stone between the two hands. Place them on your body where you are called to place them. Keep them in your workspace and then by your bed at night. Surround yourself with cosmic family through their presence and keep records of the vast communications.

The presence of these Eyes in your life will consistently hold open your Star Consciousness and ignite the stability of the Ascended Heart to flourish. With this stable presence ignited, the miracle presence will call to you and the co-creative centers of the universe will send clear and uninterrupted signals of divine light.”

Sacred Partners Share their Love & Experiences

Maria Sigurdson

"I love, love, love ALL of my Shivoam design pieces! They are my best friends, and the best spiritual jewelry I have ever owned. I usually mix and match, and wear them as layers depending on the day. In the morning I intuitively choose the pieces and they carry me through the day. If I want to feel more beautiful, or "lighten up" the energy, I wear Maha Laxmi Lotus earrings & pendant with the Shiva eye Energy Transmitter pendant. I have 3 Energy transmitter pendants, as every Shiva Eye is so unique and carry different energy. My absolute favorite is the Cosmic Heart Connector with rudraksha and clear quartz: I reach for it everyday- and the energy "lift" is tangible and absolutely amazing. I also adore my Ultimate OM ring with amethyst and Shiva's Power hessonite ring- both carry very powerful and distinct energies".

Sacred Partner Elizabeth also shares her beautiful and energetically powerful Shiva's Power Ring w/ Vintage Hessonite, Ultimate OM ring, and Trishul protector. All enjoying sharing sacred time with some of her Shiva eye family!

Elizabeth Llewellyn

"Placing these energetic sacred "allies" on my temporal form, I am immediately reminded that I AM a temple of beauty and grace. I feel uplifted, loved and nourished!

The wearing of Shivoam sacred malas and jewelry transforms my sense of the day. I feel the peace that blesses my form as I bring the sense of sacred to those I meet in my daily life.

When feeling the sacred energies of Shivoam jewelry, I feel the constant connection to my inner spiritual support bringing blessings to me and those I encounter, throughout the day."
