CERTIFICATE COURSE (With certificate of participation)

Positive thinking - Living life with joy with Swami Kailasananda, Yoga Acharya

Arrival: 3pm, Wednesday 12 May

Departure: 2pm, Monday 17 May

“Thought is the greatest force on earth. Thought is the most powerful weapon in the armour of a Yogi. Constructive thought transforms, renews and builds”. Swami Sivananda

With our thoughts we hold in our hands the most powerful tools of self-transformation. Thoughts are the source of all our actions, they are the silent bricks that build our lives. We carry the responsibility for the quality of our thoughts, for the way we develop our thoughts and so choose the direction in which our life will go. We come to realise that we are the authors of our own life. Thought is the most creative power in the universe and when the potential contained in the thought is realised, it is the beginning of great spiritual growth. Yoga encourages us to live to our fullest capacity in accordance with the universal law of harmony. Such a life reflects an effort to share whatever we have with others and to actively promote peace and mutual understanding. In order to achieve this, we have to learn the most precious art of positive thinking.

Topics :

- What is a thought, how are habitual thought patterns formed
- Transforming negative thoughts and emotions
- Creative visualisation: yogic techniques to focus on the positive and to kindle creativity
- Channel emotions, soothe the nervous system and benefit one’s overall psychological well-being through the chanting of mantras

The rest of the programme follows the yoga vacation daily schedule.

Swami Kailasananda is Yoga Acharya and director of the Ashram de Yoga Sivananda. She is a long-time disciple of Swami Vishnudevanda and teaches in Sivananda Yoga Teachers’ Training (TTC), Advanced Teachers’ Training (ATTC) and Sadhana Intensive courses with much clarity, generosity and deep insight. Children who learn yoga at an early age have a healthy head start in life. Yoga teaches children in a playful way how to concentrate, increase self-confidence and improve their motor skills. Regular yoga practice for children offers effective help with hyperactivity and stress. But above all, yoga for children is a lot of fun.

Topics :

- Simple postures, inventive and well suited to children's daily life
- Basic classes for children of different age-groups
- How to help children breathe better, develop concentration and relaxation,
- How to incorporate yoga in the family
- Mantra chanting for children to develop early meditation
- Spiritual stories for inspiration

Parvati comes from England, she has been part of the Ashram team for several years. She teaches yoga and anatomy in the Sivananda teacher training courses at the Ashram. She is responsible for our website, and shares her talents with enthusiasm for the development of the Ashram.

Savitri is a long term and dedicated teacher of the Sivananda London Centre and teaches with great clarity, insight and enthusiasm.
