

AT LORD FAIRFAX COMMUNITY COLLEGE,

“Your Future Is Our Focus!”

Your Future Is Our Focus!

What makes LFCC a great institution, besides its diverse students and friendly employees? LFCC students will tell you it's the College's:

- Affordable tuition rates
- Career planning and job preparation assistance
- Convenient locations
- Easy enrollment process
- Financial aid and scholarship program
- Flexible scheduling options, including Web-based courses
- One-on-one attention in the classroom
- Professional development courses
- Small class sizes
- Transfer agreements with four-year institutions
- Variety of degree and certificate programs

Let LFCC help you obtain a degree, certificate or training that will significantly increase your opportunities for success and future earning potential.

"I came to LFCC, because I wanted to have a better grasp on what I wanted to do with my life. What I found at LFCC were small classes and great faculty. It's nice to have faculty who remember you by name!"

Fizah Javed Malik is an LFCC student majoring in communications. With a passion for reporting, Malik plans to transfer to a four-year institution to study the art of broadcast journalism. As a self-proclaimed "big city girl," Malik aspires to start her journalism career in Washington, D.C. or New York City.

Focusing on the Community

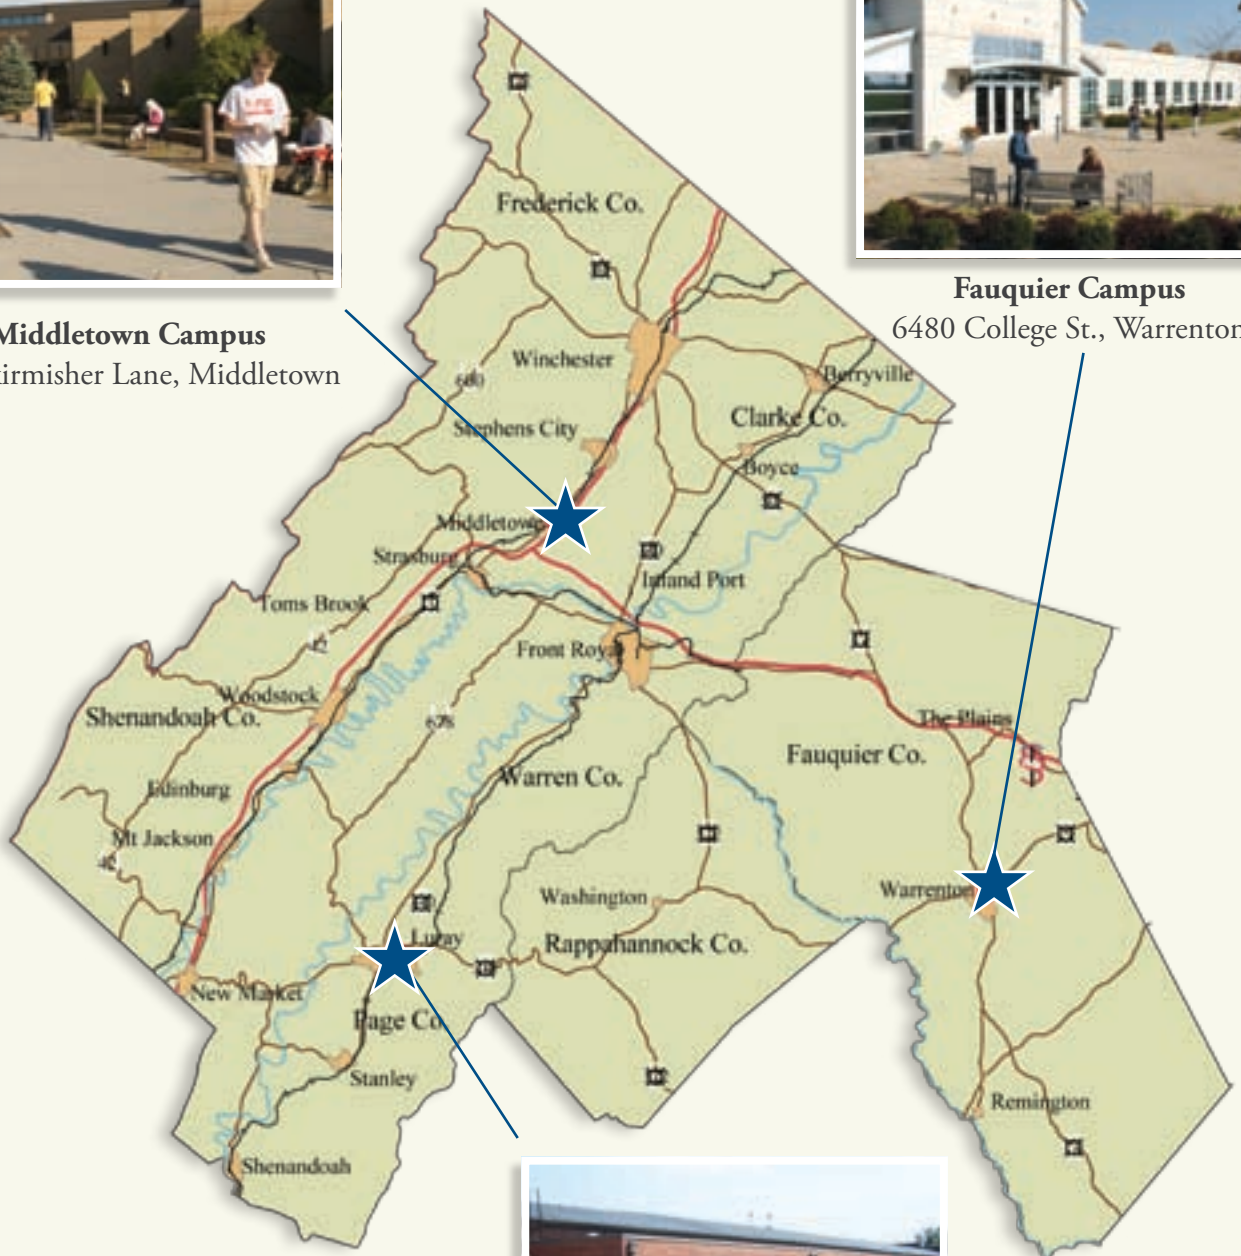

Founded in 1970, LFCC instructs more than 7,600 credit students and more than 10,900 individuals in professional development and business and industry courses annually. The College serves the counties of Clarke, Fauquier, Frederick, Page, Rappahannock, Shenandoah and Warren and the City of Winchester. Students can take classes at three primary locations in the area:

"LFCC is a great place to start your college career! I decided to attend LFCC, because it made sense to get my core classes out of the way at a lesser cost."

Christopher Anderson is an LFCC student majoring in science. After graduating from LFCC, he plans to transfer to Virginia Tech and pursue a bachelor's degree in engineering.

Focusing on the Future

To make the transition between LFCC and a four-year college or university more seamless, transfer agreements ease the admissions process and the transfer of credits. A large percentage of LFCC students continue on with their education. In fact, 25 percent of all LFCC graduates transfer to four-year institutions within Virginia. Of graduates earning an associate of arts and sciences degree, more than half transfer to another Virginia college or university.

LFCC benefits from more than 20 guaranteed admissions agreements developed by the Virginia Community College System (VCCS). The following are institutions that have guaranteed admissions agreements:

- Christopher Newport University
- The College of William and Mary
- Emory & Henry College
- James Madison University
- Longwood University
- Lynchburg College
- Mary Baldwin College
- Norfolk State University
- Old Dominion University
- Radford University
- Randolph College
- Regent University
- Regis University
- Strayer University
- Sweet Briar College
- University of Mary Washington
- University of Phoenix
- University of Virginia
- University of Virginia's College at Wise
- Virginia Commonwealth University
- Virginia State University
- Virginia Tech
- Virginia Union University
- Virginia Wesleyan College

"The College has done so much for me and others. I enjoy assisting with various student activities and programs. It's a way for me to give back to LFCC."

Renee McCue aspires to one day open her own gourmet restaurant. As someone who loves to cook and enjoys serving others, she is a natural fit for the food industry. McCue plans to graduate from LFCC with an associate degree in business management. McCue's associate degree and zest for cooking and learning are the perfect ingredients to move her toward her goal of earning a bachelor's degree in hospitality and tourism.

As an added bonus, thanks to the Virginia Transfer Grant, in-state students who attend LFCC or another Virginia community college have an opportunity to receive up to $2,000 annually for three years (or 70 credit hours) upon transferring to a four-year institution.

To qualify, students must complete a transfer associate degree with a 3.0 grade point average and meet financial aid eligibility requirements. The grant provides $1,000 for all eligible students, with an extra $1,000 for students who pursue undergraduate work in engineering, math, technology, teaching or science. Students must maintain a 3.0 grade point average and continue to demonstrate financial need to receive the award for each of the three years.

Visit <http://www.lfcc.edu/transfer/index.htm> for the latest transfer and guaranteed admissions agreements and the specific requirements for each institution.

Focusing on Professional Development

The Office of Workforce Solutions and Continuing Education is the provider of choice in the region for employee development and short-term credential programs. These programs help individuals to continue their general education interests and update their knowledge and skills through various courses and programs, such as:

- Apprenticeship course work
- Business and industry educational partnerships
- Career and technical offerings (such as information technology and leadership training)
- Command Spanish®
- Small business development assistance
- Workshops, seminars, cultural events, public lectures, forums, conferences and meetings

For more information about these and other services, including customized training programs, offered through the Office of Workforce Solutions and Continuing Education, individuals may call the Fauquier Campus at 540-351-1524 or the Middletown Campus at 540-868-7021.

Focusing on Student Involvement

In addition to academic programs, LFCC offers a number of services and activities that are equally important to student success at the College, such as:

- Academic advising
- Career services (career counseling, internship assistance and job-searching tips)
- Honors program
- Library services
- Services for students with disabilities
- Student activities and athletics (LFCC Cannons men's and women's soccer teams and intramural sports)
- TRIO Program (First-generation, low-income students and/or students with disabilities may be eligible for special services and activities available through the TRIO Program. These include advising, counseling, mentoring, social/cultural activities, transfer assistance and tutoring.)
- Tutoring
- Veterans educational benefits

Interacting with classmates and developing friendships is another important aspect of college life.

At LFCC, students can participate in a variety of clubs and student organizations that provide a social outlet for students. In addition to interacting with their peers, many clubs are active in the community through service projects and planned events.

- Ambassadors
- Chi Alpha Christian Fellowship
- Dance Club
- Fine and Performing Arts Club
- Forensics
- FUEL Ministry Club
- History Club
- Phi Beta Lambda
- Phi Theta Kappa
- Project International Education
- Rotoract Club
- Scientific Society
- Student Alliance for Diversity Awareness/Acceptance
- Student American Dental Hygienists' Association
- Student Government Association

"LFCC gave me the opportunity to meet a wide variety of people, learn from awesome professors and be actively involved in countless other extracurricular interests."

Julie Gaven began attending LFCC at age 14 as a part-time dual-enrolled student, enabling her to receive both high school and college credit for her courses. One year later, Gaven became a full-time student. Gaven is now attending James Madison University (JMU), where she is pursuing a double major in English and communication sciences and disorders in JMU's honors program.

Focusing on Financial Assistance

Of special importance to many students in need of financial assistance is the scholarship program available through the LFCC Educational Foundation Inc. More than 100 scholarships are offered to students to help defray the costs of tuition and applicable fees. Scholarships are awarded each year to students meeting the specific criteria for each scholarship. To learn more, visit <http://www.lfcc.edu/scholarships>.

In addition to scholarships, other financial aid is available at the College. There are many programs to assist those who are unable to pay for their education. Comprehensive financial aid information may be picked up in the Financial Aid Office, including information about the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Financial aid programs include:

- Academic Competitiveness Grant
- College Scholarship Assistance Program
- Federal Work-Study Program
- Part-time Tuition Assistance Program
- Pell Grant
- Supplementary Educational Opportunity Grant
- Virginia Commonwealth Awards
- Virginia Guaranteed Assistance Program

"It's a pretty close-knit family."

Patrick Hansen decided to attend LFCC, because it was cost effective and convenient to his Amissville hometown. The College led him to a number of friends and provided the study environment he wanted. Hansen is now studying physics at James Madison University.

Focusing on You!

LFCC is dedicated to assisting individuals of all ages, races and backgrounds to achieve success through education, whether pursuing a degree, upgrading skills or seeking personal satisfaction.

LFCC fosters the dreams of its students and helps them realize their goals, while at the same time instilling in students a sense of community and citizenship. One student put it this way: “My experience at LFCC shaped and molded me into the person that I am today.” Now that is true success! Remember, at LFCC, “Your Future is Our Focus.”
