SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

In your observance of the commandments of the LORD, your God, which I enjoin upon you, you shall not add to what I command you nor subtract from it. (Dt 4:2)

Psalm:

The one who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord. (Ps 15)

Second Reading:

Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves. (Jas 1:22)

Gospel:

"You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition." (Mk 7:8)

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile."
 - Mk 7:14-15

Reflection from Father Rich

"The theme of the liturgy is the law of God. God's law is just, it demands careful observation, and it is the key to life on earth. It is not a matter of clinging to what is human tradition but rather of practicing justice: "He who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord."

The Pharisees misunderstood what the law was all about, or as Isaiah foretold, "they teach as dogmas mere human precepts." For them obeying the law meant such things as "scrupulously washing their hands and the washing of cups and jugs and kettles."

'The law of God forbids all those things that set people against each other: theft, murder, greed, etc. The positive command of God's law is "to serve God in each other," to walk blamelessly, do justice, and to not harm one's fellow-man.

The codes of Israel reflect the norms of the covenant: reciprocal responsibility, mercy, and truthfulness. They embody a life in freedom from oppression: worship of the One God, rejection of idolatry, mutual respect among people, care and protection for every member of the social body. Being free and being a co-responsible community are God's intentions for us."

Community Garden Update:

As many parishioners have enjoyed, The Community Garden continues to be successful. To date our harvest has included kohlrabi, broccoli, beans, peas, cabbage, zucchini, cucumbers and tomatoes. Soon we will also be harvesting potatoes. To date we have picked 626 lbs. of vegetables. We have donated 225 lbs of vegetables to the food pantry; for which they are very grateful. Many thanks to our volunteers (first and foremost) John Modjewski, Kathy Lingle, and Art and Debbie Plantiko for their help picking the vegetables. We are at a stage where we are picking something almost every day. All parishioners are invited to help themselves to these vegetables as they leave mass.
