Joyful News

NOVEMBER 6, 2016 • 32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The weather in November is not usually what we would consider “nice” weather. It is usually filled with cloudy days and chilly rain. The beautiful colored leaves of October are now making a mess in our yards. In our part of the world, the earth is slowing down, preparing for the deep freeze to come.

We don't normally have snow, which would cover the ground with a sparkling white blanket. Daylight grows shorter and the darkness takes over. It's just kind of yucky.

Our bodies and our spirits also need some time to adjust to the upcoming winter months. We pull out our winter clothing and hang them up to get rid of the wrinkles. We look for last year's boots and clean them up. We no longer use our barbeques for cooking and start making more pots of soup and chili. We spend less time outside of our homes.

Just as we know how to prepare for the winter, we should know how to prepare our spirits for the upcoming months. I find that this time of the year is the easiest season in which to pray. The distractions of summer with the long days have gone. I spend more time inside. God calls me to look a little more sincerely inside myself. It's also a great time to strengthen my relationship with God. Light a candle. Watch the flame flicker. Listen to God. Feel His presence fill the room and your heart as well, more than that warm soup fills your body. Be spiritually invigorated.

Many of you may not like the prospect of preparing for winter. Some of you may even “escape” to warmer climates for a few months. But for those of us who remain, remember that we are Michiganders. We are a hearty lot of people. God has made us this way. I, for one, wouldn't have it any other way.

Prayer for Vocations

Loving and generous God,
you called the prophets
to bring your word to your chosen people.
Your Son, Jesus, called the first disciples to be bold proclaimers of the good news.
In the modern world, you continue to call your sons and daughters to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life.
Calm the chaos and soothe the sounds of our world,
and allow more to hear your soft voice
calling them to pick up their cross and follow.
May the Holy Spirit fall upon your church in a profound way,
so that we may experience a tremendous harvest of grace.
May vocations increase ever abundantly and may your church stand as a witness to the world of the good news of your Son, Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Parish Mission Statement

Our Parish Family, under the influence of the Gospel, strives to be bold and fearless disciples of Jesus Christ. We witness to our Catholic faith by living the Eucharist. We are the hands and feet of Christ in our service and in our joyful proclamation of the goodness of God.

IN FORMATION

Daylight Saving Time - Did you enjoy your extra hour of sleep when you set your alarm clock back an hour before retiring? I did.

Breakfast in Bethlehem - Meal Tickets are on sale now for this Dec. 10 event. Only 100 tickets will be sold for breakfast. The Children's Christmas Pageant is free to everyone. I am grateful to our Holy Name Fraternity for preparing their famous menu.

Children's Liturgy of the Word -I am wishing more people would train for this rewarding ministry. We could offer it more often if we had more Leaders. Hint. Hint. Please let me know if YOU are interested.

Secular Franciscans - Next Sunday Carmen Menconi will make her Solemn Profession as a Secular Franciscan at the Noon Mass. We rejoice with her, praise God, and wish her abundant blessings!

The Bottom Line One morning a fellow finds himself standing at the Pearly Gates. St. Peter explains that it's not easy to get into heaven. There are some criteria that must be met before entry is allowed. For example, was the man a churchgoer? No? St. Peter tells him that's not good. Was he generous, giving money to the poor or to charities? No? St. Peter tells him this, too, is bad. Did he do any good deeds, such as helping his neighbor? Anything? No? St. Peter is becoming concerned. Exasperated, he says, "Look, everybody does something nice sometime. Work with me—I'm trying to help. Think!" The man thinks for a minute, then says, "Oh—I did help this old lady once. I came out of a store and saw that a dozen Hell's Angels had taken her purse and were shoving her around. I threw my bags down and got her purse back, then I called the biggest biker a coward and spat in his face." St. Peter is impressed. "When did this happen?" he asks. "Oh, about 15 minutes ago," the man replied.

Prayer for Veterans

Heavenly Father,
On this day, help us remember those who gave of themselves to keep us safe and secure Enkindle in our consciences a desire to serve those who served their country selflessly.
Give us the grace to aid those who have given aid and protection to us and others both here and overseas.
Let us never forget the causes for which they fought or the bravery they showed on the battlefield.
May we be always be mindful of those who paid the price for our freedom, just as your Son gave his life to free us from the bondage of sin.
Amen.

The Jubilee Year of Mercy With Pope Francis

Room for All Men and Women

As far as faith, the hinge of the Christian life, is concerned, the Mother of God shared our condition....Our pilgrimage of faith has been inseparably linked to Mary ever since Jesus, dying on the cross, gave her to us as our mother saying, "Behold your mother!" (Jn 19:27).

These words serve as a testament, bequeathing to the world a mother. From that moment on, the Mother of God also became our mother!....Her sorrowing heart was enlarged to make room for all men and women, all, whether good or bad, and she loves them as she loved Jesus.

- Homily, January 1, 2014

Reflection: In the hour of his death, the hour of his greatest mercy, Jesus gave us Mary to be our mother. What role does Mary play in your life? Is she important? Are you indifferent? Do you need to learn more about her? Mary wants to be your mother. She wants to help you know and love Jesus more. Open up your life to her even in a small way.

When help and hope are needed, we share the Love of Christ

In this year of Mercy, Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan will bring help, healing and hope to more than 20,000 people in our region regardless of religion, race or ethnicity. We see the face of Christ in all we have the blessing serve. At our Masses on the weekend of November 20th, the Feast of Christ the King, a special collection will provide you with an opportunity to support our many works of mercy:

Adoption and Foster Care; All Saints Soup Kitchen and Food Pantry in Detroit; Services for Seniors; Project Hope Pro-life Ministry; Mental Health and Substance Abuse Counseling; Journey to Housing Homelessness Prevention; Bridges to HOPE Poverty Reduction in Detroit; Christian Service and Healthcare Ministries; Special Needs Ministry; Hispanic Outreach Services; Immigration and refugee Resettlement Services.

Special envelopes will be provided later this month for this collection. All funds received will support works of mercy right here in southeast Michigan.

"The works of Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan are works of mercy. We are an instrument of God's love and mercy." The Most Reverend Allen H. Vigneron, Archbishop of Detroit and President of Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan.
