WHO DOESN'T LOVE A STORY?
w/RABBANIT BRACHA

There is a Yiddish expression: "God created the world because God loves stories." Aggadeta are timeless stories found in the Talmud. Through our reading of these stories we will get to know them in the context of Talmudic times as well as modern times, connecting us to both our past and our present. Every once in a while we will take a detour into a topic that interests the class.

YOUTH DEPARTMENT PROGRAMMING & RESOURCES

TOT SHABBAT 10:30am

SHABBAT MORNING GROUPS - PRE-K - 4TH GRADE

Children are expected to observe the appropriate hygiene, masking and distancing protocols. Each group will spend time both outdoors on the playground and indoors. We will conclude with a snack to go and pickup in the Main Lobby. Reminder: All children must be picked up! Weekly sign up is no longer required. If your child has not attended groups in a while please make sure we know about any allergies or other health issues that we should be aware of while your child is enjoying our programs.

SHABBAT MORNING OFFERING FOR KIDS IN GRADES 3 & 4

Do you have a 3rd and 4th grader who tends to shy away from groups? Would they prefer to hang out with friends, read a book, or play Pokemon cards? Are they not quite in the right space for the 1st/2nd grade group, but not yet ready for hanging out with middle schoolers? We are now offering a supervised hangout space on the third floor for 3rd and 4th graders that gives kids the option to opt out of the traditional "groups" framework while being in a safe and supervised space. Yali and the youth leaders will encourage kids to try out this space on Shabbat. Questions? Email yali@thebayit.org!

CALLING ALL TEENS 11-16 YEARS! Sundays 2:45pm - 3:30pm

Please join "Across Generations". This is an intergenerational program where two teens pair up with an elderly resident of the Atria assisted living facility in Riverdale. On a weekly basis, teens will meet in person with seniors to talk, share stories, discuss current events, and more. This is a terrific opportunity to volunteer, bond with the elderly, participate in an act of kindness, and enjoy friendships. Please contact: shapiro.sofia1770@gmail.com for more information and to sign up (masks required in the Atria, 3718-3726 Henry Hudson Pkwy, Bronx, NY 10463).
