Feeling Elf Cards & Games

Elizabeth Crary, Peaco Todd

Summary

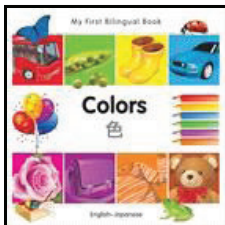

Full-color elves grin, grimace, groan and gesture through 20 emotions to help children learn how to identify and express such different feelings as pride, anger, excitement and disappointment. Each elf appears on two cards; one is printed with the emotion's name in three languages — English, Spanish and Japanese. The corresponding cards use only elves, so the cards can be used in matching games like Old Maid and Go Fish. Designed for use in emotional literacy lessons, in rehabilitation therapy and in foreign language and English as a Second Language classes. Appropriate for both genders and all ethnic groups. Approved by the California Department of Education for supplemental use in the classroom.

Author Bio

Elizabeth Crary is the award-winning author of more than 40 children's and child-guidance publications. She has taught parenting education, with an emphasis on problem-solving and skill-building methods, and established Parenting Press in 1979. She lives in Seattle. Peaco Todd is an illustrator, author, and cartoonist. She is the illustrator of Family Matters, Teaching Conflict Resolution with the Rainbow Kids Program, Talk It Out, and The Ultimate Guide to Transforming Anger.
