New Releases
Fall 2021

Thank you

At the core of what we do is provide support. From financial investment, sharing market intelligence, and brokering like-minded international partnerships, our primary goal is enabling creative ambitions to be realized. This fall, we are offering stories from some of the best storytellers in the world. From blue chip natural history specials 'Osprey: Sea Raptor,' narrated by Sean Bean, to adrenaline fuelled 'Cops on the Rock,' to kids & family scripted series 'My Buddy Bonemasher,' we pride ourselves on serving up entertainment for all ages. So thank you to all of our global partners. Your trust and support allows us to do what we do!

This year we would also like to say a special thank you to the Government of Canada for their support through the Creative Export Canada program.

Cops on the Rock

COPS ON THE ROCK shows the extraordinary work of Gibraltar's police and customs forces as they work to uphold the law on this tiny British overseas territory, home to just over 30,000 people. But Gibraltar's no sleepy holiday town. Its location at the gateway to the Mediterranean and with Morocco just nine miles across the sea, means its cops deal with international smugglers and drug dealers on a regular basis. These officers are all fiercely proud of their Mediterranean home and go to extraordinary lengths to protect it; they are the COPS ON THE ROCK.

Osprey: Sea Raptor

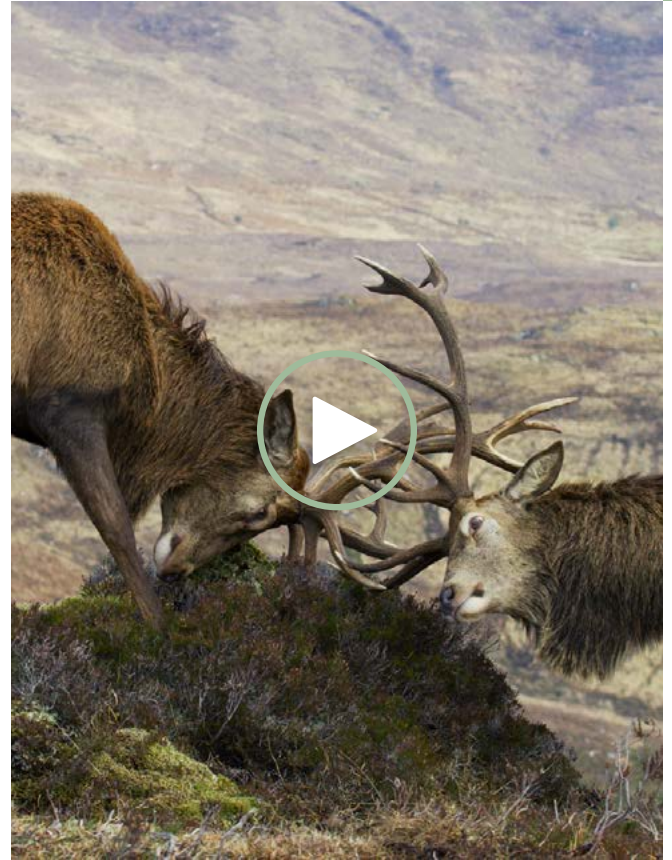

An osprey soars over a tiny saltmarsh at the Connecticut River. He has just flown 6000 kilometres, to the place that's imprinted on his memory since birth, to re-join his mate. As the pair mates and broods their eggs, foxes, deer and migrating shorebirds bring summer's hustle and bustle back to the saltmarsh. Other osprey pairs see their eggs snatched by predators that prowl the night. But this osprey pair are battle tested. Over the course of one summer they fend off enemies, catch hundreds of fish, and raise their tiny chicks into the next generation of sea raptors. Narrated by Emmy (TM) Award winner Sean Bean.

Shadowlands

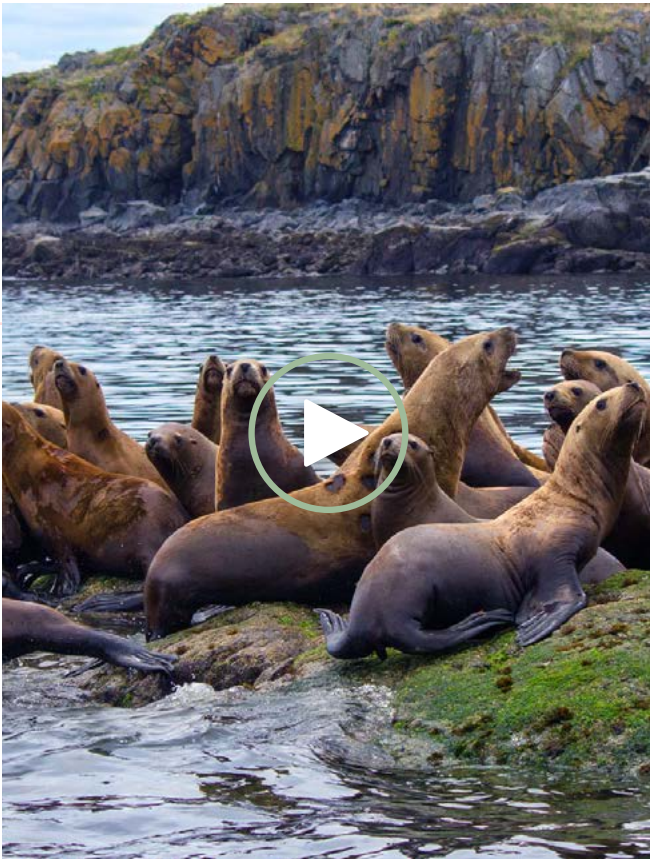

The SHADOWLANDS are a diverse group of habitats in the remote southern latitudes of our planet. Here, high-stakes wildlife dramas play out in snow-capped fiords where saltwater mixes with fresh, where warm currents meet cold Antarctic waters. The creatures who make their home here must be tough to endure the extreme weather here at the best of times, but increasingly unpredictable climate patterns are making their lives even harder. Those who are born in the cold southern seas need all their animal cunning to grow up and to ensure their kind survives in the SHADOWLANDS.

Forest School

The concept of FOREST SCHOOL, or a form of early education delivered entirely outdoors, is a concept that is taking off around the world. Rain or shine or snow, students explore nature to learn personal, social and technical skills. By using twigs to write in the mud they draw their favorite animals, the trees become storytellers as they imagine the great adventures they can have, and animals become teachers of empathy and kindness.
