

Brief Contents

Preface xvii
Acknowledgments xxi
About the Authors xxiv

PART ONE: Get Ready to Speak 1

Chapter 1: Building Confidence and Your First Speech 2
Chapter 2: Public Speaking in a Global World: Inclusion, Ethics, and Critical Thinking 30

PART TWO: Listen and Look 51

Chapter 3: Listening Critically 52
Chapter 4: Analyzing and Adapting to the Audience 74

PART THREE: Topic and Research 95

Chapter 5: Selecting a Topic and Purpose 96
Chapter 6: Finding and Evaluating Research 118
Chapter 7: Integrating Support 142

PART FOUR: Organize and Outline 165

Chapter 8: Organizing the Main Points of Your Speech 166
Chapter 9: Outlining Your Speech 180

PART FIVE: Present Your Speech 201

Chapter 10: Beginning and Ending Your Speech 202

Chapter 11: Wording the Speech 224
Chapter 12: Delivery Modes and Practice 246
Chapter 13: Delivering Your Speech: Nonverbal Messages Matter 262
Chapter 14: Using Presentation Aids 286

PART SIX: Speak to Inform 313

Chapter 15: Speak to Inform 314

PART SEVEN: Speak to Persuade 333

Chapter 16: Prepare to Persuade 334
Chapter 17: Methods of Persuasion 360

PART EIGHT: Specialized Speaking Contexts 387

Chapter 18: Planning and Presenting in Small Groups 388
Chapter 19: Special Occasion Speeches 408
Chapter 20: Business and Professional Speaking 434
Chapter 21: Storytelling 452
Chapter 22: Speaking Across College Courses 466
Chapter 23: Presenting Online 478
Chapter 24: Answering Questions 494

Glossary G-1
Notes N-1
Index I-1

Detailed Contents

Preface	xvii
Acknowledgments	xxi
About the Authors	xxiv

PART ONE: Get Ready to Speak 1

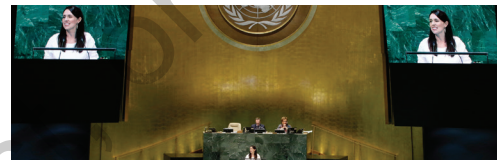

Leontura/Getty Images

Chapter 1: Building Confidence and Your First Speech 2

Section 1.1 Identify Speechmaking's Benefits	4
1.1a Benefits for Your Personal Life	4
1.1b Benefits for Your Career	4
1.1c Benefits for Society	5
Section 1.2 Discuss the Context of Public Speaking	6
1.2a Picture the Parts Working Together	7
1.2b Consider Audience Expectations	8
Section 1.3 Assess and Build Your Speechmaking Confidence	10
1.3a Understand Public Speaking Anxiety	11
1.3b Address the Physical Effects of Speech Anxiety	12
1.3c Address the Mental Effects of Speech Anxiety	13
1.3d Use Skills Training	14
1.3e Anxiety Can Be Transformative	14
Section 1.4 Approach Giving a Speech Systematically	16
1.4a Select Your Topic	16
1.4b Develop, Support, and Organize Your Speech	18

1.4c Practice Delivery	21
1.4d Conduct a Post-Presentation Analysis	22
Exercises	24
Recap and Review	28
Key Terms	28

AP Photo/Frank Franklin II

Chapter 2: Public Speaking in a Global World: Inclusion, Ethics, and Critical Thinking 30

Section 2.1 Respect Different Cultures	32
2.1a Attune Yourself to Difference	33
2.1b Assess Your Understanding of Cultural Diversity	34
2.1c Reflect Cultural Values	34
2.1d Understand Cultural Identity	36
2.1e Consider Preferred Learning Styles	38
2.1f Understand Difference to Build Bridges and Confidence	38
Section 2.2 Speak Ethically	39
2.2a What Audiences Expect of Speakers	40
2.2b What Speakers Expect of Audiences	44
Section 2.3 Think Critically	45
2.3a Set Goals	45
2.3b Analyze Consequences	46

2.3c Assess Outcomes and Their Effects 47

Exercises 48

Recap and Review 50

Key Terms 50

PART TWO: Listen and Look 51

Daniel Koebel/Corbis/MCG/Getty Images

Chapter 3: Listening Critically 52

Section 3.1 The Six Stages of Listening 55

3.1a Stage 1: Hearing 55

3.1b Stage 2: Understanding 55

3.1c Stage 3: Remembering 56

3.1d Stage 4: Interpreting 56

3.1e Stage 5: Evaluating 56

3.1f Stage 6: Responding 57

Section 3.2 Listening and Cultural Differences 58

Section 3.3 The Benefits of Critical Listening 59

3.3a Reduced Stress 59

3.3b More Learning 59

3.3c Improved Speaker–Audience Relationship 59

3.3d Improved Decision Making 59

3.3e Improved Speaking 60

3.3f A Better Society 60

Section 3.4 The Four Types of Listening 61

3.4a Type 1: Appreciative: Listening for Pleasure 61

3.4b Type 2: Empathic: Listening to Provide Emotional Support 61

3.4c Type 3: Comprehensive: Listening to Get Information 61

3.4d Type 4: Critical/Deliberative: Listening to Make an Evaluation 62

Section 3.5 Listening Styles 63

3.5a People-Oriented Listening 63

3.5b Action-Oriented Listening 63

3.5c Content-Oriented Listening 63

3.5d Time-Oriented Listening 63

Section 3.6 Improving Listening Behaviors 64

3.6a Stay Tuned In 65

3.6b React Honestly 65

3.6c Give a Fair Hearing 65

3.6d Control Emotional Reactions 66

3.6e Challenge Yourself 67

3.6f Focus on the Value in the Speech 67

3.6g Control the Physical Environment 68

3.6h Use Time Wisely 69

Exercises 70

Recap and Review 73

Key Terms 73

Leave room for credit line.

Chapter 4: Analyzing and Adapting to the Audience 74

Section 4.1 Reach Out to Your Audience 76

4.1a Consider the Audience's Makeup—Explore and Celebrate Its Diversity 76

4.1b Be Audience Centered—Use Empathy 76

Section 4.2 Answer Preliminary Questions 78

Section 4.3 Compose a Demographic Snapshot 79

4.3a Consider Age 79

4.3b Consider Gender 80

4.3c Respect Affectional Orientation 81

4.3d Gauge Knowledge Level 81

4.3e Understand Racial, Ethnic, Religious, and Cultural Ties 81

- 4.3f Identify Affiliations 82
- 4.3g Consider Socioeconomics 82

Section 4.4 Compose a Psychographic Snapshot 83

- 4.4a Understand Values, Beliefs, and Attitudes 83
- 4.4b Understand How the Audience Perceives Your Topic 84
- 4.4c Understand How the Audience Perceives You 84

Section 4.5 Consider the Speaking Situation 85

- 4.5a Analyze the Occasion 85
- 4.5b Consider the Location 85
- 4.5c Consider the Time 86
- 4.5d Gauge Audience Size 86

Section 4.6 Get Information About Your Audience 87

- 4.6a Ask Your Contacts 87
- 4.6b Use Personal Knowledge and Observations 88
- 4.6c Research Audience Attitudes 88

Exercises 92

Recap and Review 93

Key Terms 93

PART THREE: Topic and Research 95

BremecR/Getty Images

Chapter 5: Selecting a Topic and Purpose 96

Section 5.1 Formulate a Topic 98

- 5.1a Use Brainstorming Techniques 98
- 5.1b Use Other Topic Selection Techniques 102

Section 5.2 Formulate General and Specific Purposes 104

- 5.2a Formulate the General Purpose 104

- 5.2b Formulate the Specific Purpose 105

- 5.2c Consider the Audience's Perspective 107

Section 5.3 Formulate the Thesis Statement or Central Idea 109

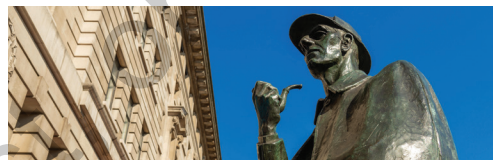

- 5.3a Thesis Statements for Informative Speeches 109
- 5.3b Thesis Statements for Persuasive Speeches 109
- 5.3c Evaluating the Thesis Statement or Central Idea 110

Exercises 111

Recap and Review 116

Key Terms 116

Alex Segre/Alamy Stock Photo

Chapter 6: Finding and Evaluating Research 118

Section 6.1 Use Primary Research 120

- 6.1a Use Personal Knowledge and Experience 120
- 6.1b Interview Others With Specialized Knowledge 120

Section 6.2 Gather Secondary Research 125

- 6.2a Library Resources 125
- 6.2b Online Sources—Ask Questions 127
- 6.2c Websites—Consider Trustworthiness 128
- 6.2d Blogs—Be Cautious 129
- 6.2e Wikis—Be Wary 129

Section 6.3 Why to Critically Assess Research 130

- 6.3a Assess Traditional Research Sources 130
- 6.3b Evaluate Online Sources 130

Section 6.4 Keep a Research Record 132

6.4a Take Good Notes 132
 6.4b Cite Source Materials Carefully 134
 Exercises 138
 Recap and Review 141
 Key Terms 141

Dan Fenwick's Photography / Getty Images

Chapter 7: Integrating Support 142

Section 7.1 Use Examples 144
 7.1a Short Examples 144
 7.1b Narrative Examples 144
 7.1c Hypothetical Examples 145
 7.1d Assess the Power of Your Examples 146
 Section 7.2 Use Explanations and Descriptions 148
 7.2a Explanations 148
 7.2b Descriptions 148
 7.2c Assess the Power of Your Explanations and Descriptions 149
 Section 7.3 Use Definitions 150
 7.3a Which Words Should You Define? 150
 7.3b How Do You Define a Word? 151
 7.3c Assess the Power of Your Definitions 151
 Section 7.4 Use Analogies 152
 7.4a Literal Analogies 152
 7.4b Figurative Analogies 152
 7.4c Assess the Power of Your Analogies 153
 Section 7.5 Use Statistics 154
 7.5a Understand What Statistics Mean 154
 7.5b Put Statistics to Use 155
 7.5c Use Statistics Ethically 155
 7.5d Present Statistics Visually 156
 7.5e Assess Your Use of Statistics 156

Section 7.6 Use Testimony 159
 7.6a Expert Testimony 159
 7.6b Peer or Lay Testimony 159
 7.6c Assess the Power of Your Testimony 160
 Section 7.7 Citing Sources in Your Speech 161
 Exercises 163
 Recap and Review 164
 Key Terms 164

PART FOUR: Organize and Outline 165

AP Photo/Seth Weng

Chapter 8: Organizing the Main Points of Your Speech 166

Section 8.1 Understand Speech Patterns: Organization 168
 Section 8.2 Use Linear Organizational Formats to Arrange a Speech's Main Points 169
 8.2a Time Order: It's Chronological 169
 8.2b Spatial Order: It's Directional 171
 8.2c Cause-and-Effect Order: It's Relational 172
 8.2d Problem-Solution Order: It's Workable 173
 8.2e Topical Order: It's Part of the Whole 174
 Section 8.3 Use Less Direct Configural Formats 175
 Exercises 178
 Recap and Review 179
 Key Terms 179

Chapter 9: Outlining Your Speech 180

Section 9.1 Create an Outline That Works for You 182

- 9.1a Identify Your Main Points 183
- 9.1b Support Main Points With Subordinate Points 185
- 9.1c Use Coordinate Points 187
- 9.1d Exhibit Parallelism 187
- 9.1e Label All Parts 188

Section 9.2 Facilitate Speech Flow 189

- 9.2a Use Transitions 189
- 9.2b Use Internal Previews 190
- 9.2c Use Internal Summaries 191
- 9.2d Use Signposts 191

Section 9.3 Practice Speaking With Your Outline 196

- 9.3a Prepare Your Extemporaneous or Presentation Outline, Also Known as Speaker's Notes 197

Exercises 198

Recap and Review 199

Key Terms 199

PART FIVE: Present Your Speech 201

Chapter 10: Beginning and Ending Your Speech 202

Section 10.1 Capture Attention 204

- 10.1a Startle or Shock the Audience 206
- 10.1b Involve the Audience 207
- 10.1c Arouse Curiosity and Build Suspense 207

10.1d Quote a Relevant Source 207

10.1e Use Humor 208

10.1f Arouse Emotion 209

Section 10.2 Build Credibility 210

10.2a See Yourself Through Their Eyes 210

10.2b Demonstrate Your Credibility 211

10.2c Establish Topic Credibility and Relevance 212

10.2d Connect Credibility and Culture 212

Section 10.3 Preview the Big Ideas 214

Section 10.4 End Strong 215

10.4a Keep It Short 216

10.4b Forecast the Finish Line 216

10.4c Restate the Thesis or Central Idea 217

10.4d Motivate the Audience (Again) 217

10.4e Achieve Closure 218

Section 10.5 Avoid Common Pitfalls 219

Exercises 221

Recap and Review 223

Key Terms 223

Chapter 11: Wording the Speech 224

Section 11.1 Understand How Words Work 226

Section 11.2 Use Words to Connect 227

Section 11.3 Consider Your Audience 228

11.3a Overcome Communication Obstacles 228

11.3b Consider Time and Place 229

11.3c Observe Reasoning and Thinking Preferences 229

11.3d Use Plain, Unbiased Language 231

- Section 11.4 Be Strategic 232
 - 11.4a Keep It Simple 232
 - 11.4b Keep It Concrete 233
 - 11.4c Keep It Appropriate 234
 - 11.4d Keep It Distinctive and Vivid 236
 - 11.4e Keep It Personal 240

Section 11.5 Use Oral Style 241

- Exercises 243
- Recap and Review 244
- Key Terms 244

Ira L. Black/Corbis via Getty Images

Chapter 12: Delivery Modes and Practice 246

Section 12.1 Choose a Delivery Mode 248

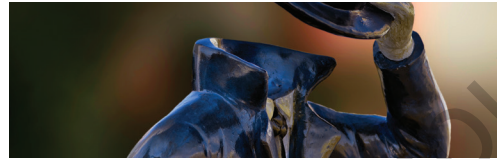

- 12.1a Impromptu Speaking 249
- 12.1b Manuscript Reading 250
- 12.1c Extemporaneous Speaking 251
- 12.1d Speaking From Memory 252
- 12.1e Sound Bite Speaking (Twitter-Speak) 253

Section 12.2 Prepare and Practice 254

- 12.2a Schedule Multiple Early Practices 255
- 12.2b Verbalize Everything 255
- 12.2c Practice With Your Visual, Audio, and Memory Aids 255
- 12.2d Check Your Time 256
- 12.2e Replicate Actual Speechmaking Conditions 256
- 12.2f Watch and Listen to Yourself Alone and With Others 256
- 12.2g Give Yourself a Preliminary Evaluation 256
- 12.2h Refine, Practice, and Refine 256
- 12.2i Attend to Nonverbal Aspects of Delivery 257
- 12.2j Hold a Mock Q&A Session 257

Section 12.3 Avoid Common Delivery Bloopers 258

- Exercises 259
- Recap and Review 261
- Key Terms 261

Raw Edgus / Alamy Stock Photo

Chapter 13: Delivering Your Speech: Nonverbal Messages Matter 262

Section 13.1 Nonverbal Messages: Beyond the Speaker's Words 264

Section 13.2 Take Control of How You Sound 265

Section 13.3 Properly Use Pitch, Volume, Rate, Articulation, and Pronunciation 267

- 13.3a Vary Pitch 267
- 13.3b Adapt Volume to the Situation and Cultural Norms 268
- 13.3c Adjust Rate, Use Silent Pauses, Avoid Fillers 269
- 13.3d Attend to Articulation and Pronunciation 271

Section 13.4 Be Aware of Accents, Dialects, and Regionalisms 273

Section 13.5 Make the Most of the Setting 275

- 13.5a Aim for Immediacy 275
- 13.5b Decide Where to Speak From 275

Section 13.6 Coordinate Your Body Language and Spoken Words 276

- 13.6a Gesture Meaningfully 276
- 13.6b Remember, Posture Matters 278
- 13.6c Use Facial Expressions and Eye Contact to Connect 279
- 13.6d Use Appearance to Support Performance 281
- 13.6e Approach the Audience Confidently 281

- Exercises 283
- Recap and Review 285
- Key Terms 285

Chapter 14: Using Presentation Aids 286

- Section 14.1 Use Presentation Aids Strategically 288
- Section 14.2 The Right and Wrong Ways to Work With Presentation Aids 290
- Section 14.3 Select the Best Aids 291
 - 14.3a Real People 291
 - 14.3b Props and Models 292
 - 14.3c Photographs 293
 - 14.3d Graphs 293
 - 14.3e Charts, Drawings, and Maps 298
 - 14.3f Audio and Video Clips 301
- Section 14.4 Be Familiar With Presentation Software 303
- Section 14.5 Get the Most From Your Presentation Aids 306
 - 14.5a Devise the Content and Design the Look 306
 - 14.5b Choose the Right Presentation Aids 307
 - 14.5c Use Presentation Aids During Your Speech 308
- Exercises 309
- Recap and Review 312
- Key Terms 312

PART SIX: Speak to Inform 313

Chapter 15: Speak to Inform 314

- Section 15.1 Speeches About Objects and Ideas or Theories 317

- 15.1a Speaking About an Object 317
- 15.1b Speaking About an Idea or Theory 318

Section 15.2 Speeches About Events and People 319

- 15.2a Speaking of Events 319
- 15.2b Speaking of People 319
- 15.2c Frameworks for Speaking of Events and People 319

Section 15.3 Speeches About Processes, Procedures, and Demonstrations 320

- 15.3a Frameworks for Speaking of Processes, Procedures, and Demonstrations 321

Section 15.4 Achieving Informative Speaking Goals 322

- 15.4a Be Organized, Clear, and Accurate 322
- 15.4b Convey the Right Amount of Information 323
- 15.4c Create Hunger for Information 324
- 15.4d Be Memorable 325

Exercises 326

Recap and Review 331

Key Terms 331

PART SEVEN: Speak to Persuade 333

Chapter 16: Prepare to Persuade 334

Section 16.1 We All Practice Persuasion 336

- 16.1a Assess Attitudes 336
- 16.1b Build on Beliefs 337
- 16.1c Validate Values 337
- 16.1d Integrate Attitudes, Beliefs, and Values 337

Section 16.2 Goals and Purposes of Persuasive Speech 339

- 16.2a Identify a Goal 339
- 16.2b Specify the Change You Seek 340

Section 16.3 Categorize Propositions and Use Different Persuasive Approaches to Organize the Persuasive Speech 341

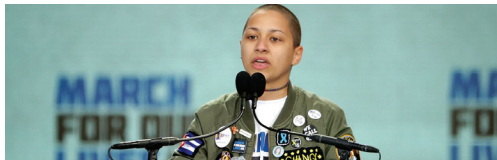

- 16.3a Speak on a Question of Fact 341
- 16.3b Speak on a Question of Value 342
- 16.3c Speak on a Question of Policy 344

Section 16.4 Understand and Use Monroe's Motivated Sequence 346

Exercises 350

Recap and Review 358

Key Terms 358

Chip Somodevilla/Getty Images

Chapter 17: Methods of Persuasion 360

Section 17.1 Varying Viewpoints and Your Target Audience 362

Section 17.2 Build Ethos or Persuasive Credibility 363

Section 17.3 Use Logos or Sound Evidence and Reasoning 364

- 17.3a Make Valid Inferences 366
- 17.3b Use Effective Reasoning to Develop Arguments 366
- 17.3c Deductive Reasoning 368
- 17.3d Inductive Reasoning 369
- 17.3e Causal Reasoning 369
- 17.3f Reasoning From Analogy 371

Section 17.4 Arouse Pathos or Emotion 372

Section 17.5 Use Three Tenets of Persuasion 374

- 17.5a Think Small to Avoid a Big Fall 374
- 17.5b Use the Desire for Consistency 374
- 17.5c Don't Put the Best in the Middle 374

Section 17.6 Practice Ethical Persuasion: Avoid Fallacies and Slip-ups 375

Exercises 378

Recap and Review 385

Key Terms 385

PART EIGHT: Specialized Speaking Contexts 387

Paul Morley/Getty Images

Chapter 18: Planning and Presenting in Small Groups 388

Section 18.1 Groups at Work 391

- 18.1a Preparing Together 391
- 18.1b The Dynamics of a Group's Development 392
- 18.1c Member Roles and Responsibilities 393
- 18.1d Enacting Leadership 396

Section 18.2 Solving Problems Together 397

- 18.2a Advantages of Group Problem Solving 397
- 18.2b Disadvantages of Group Problem Solving 398
- 18.2c Use a Systematic Problem-Solving Framework 399
- 18.2d Brainstorm While Problem Solving 401

Section 18.3 Presenting the Group's Work 402

- 18.3a The Oral Group Report 402
- 18.3b The Round Table 402
- 18.3c The Panel Discussion 402
- 18.3d The Symposium 403
- 18.3e The Forum Presentation 403

Section 18.4 Assessing the Group's Performance 404

Exercises 405

Recap and Review 407

Key Terms 407

Chapter 19: Special Occasion Speeches 408

Section 19.1 Goals and Functions of Special Occasion Speeches 410

Section 19.2 Types of Ceremonial
Speeches 411

Section 19.3 The Speech of
Introduction 412

19.3a Your Responsibilities as an
Introducer 412

19.3b Sample Speech of
Introduction 413

Section 19.4 The Speech
of Presentation 414

19.4a Your Responsibilities as a Presenter 414

19.4b Sample Speech
of Presentation 415

Section 19.5 The Speech
of Acceptance 416

19.5a Your Responsibilities Giving an Acceptance Speech 416

19.5b Sample Acceptance Speech 416

Section 19.6 The Commencement
Address 418

19.6a Your Responsibilities as a
Commencement Speaker 418

19.6b Sample Commencement
Address 418

Section 19.7 The Keynote Address 422

19.7a Your Responsibilities as a
Keynote Speaker 422

19.7b Sample Keynote Address 422

Section 19.8 The Toast 424

19.8a Your Responsibilities When Delivering a Toast 424

19.8b Sample Toast 424

Section 19.9 The Speech of Tribute 425

19.9a Your Responsibilities Giving a
Speech of Tribute 425

19.9b Sample Speech of Tribute 425

Section 19.10 The Eulogy 428

19.10a Your Responsibilities
Delivering a Eulogy 428

19.10b Sample Eulogy 428

Section 19.11 The After-Dinner
Speech 430

19.11a Your Responsibilities Delivering an After-Dinner Speech 430

19.11b Sample After-Dinner Speech 430

Exercises 432

Recap and Review 433

Key Terms 433

Chapter 20: Business and Professional Speaking 434

Section 20.1 First, Get the Job: How to Handle a Job Interview 436

20.1a Research the Job and the Position 436

20.1b Plan the Conversation 437

20.1c Get to the Heart of the Questions 438

20.1d Be an Active Interview
Participant 439

20.1e Make a Positive Impression 439

Section 20.2 Speaking in a Meeting 441

20.2a Participating in the Meeting 441

20.2b Leading the Meeting 442

Section 20.3 Pitching an Idea 443

Section 20.4 Delivering a Briefing
or Report 445

Section 20.5 Conducting a
Training Session 447

Exercises 449

Recap and Review 451

Key Terms 451

Yanick Foley/AFP/Getty Images

Chapter 21: Storytelling 452

Section 21.1 Discover Your Inner Storyteller 454

- 21.1a Find Your Voice 454
- 21.1b Give Voice to Your Goals 455
- 21.1c Use a Narrative to Frame Your Goals 455
- 21.1d Remember That Timing Matters 457
- 21.1e Lead With Stories 458

Section 21.2 Use Language to Connect 459

- 21.2a Develop Language Sensitivity 459
- 21.2b Keep It Simple 460
- 21.2c Strategize About Word Choices 460
- 21.2d Use Word Pictures 460
- 21.2e Repeat/Repeat/Repeat 461
- 21.2f Speak of “I” and “We” 461
- 21.2g Generate Involvement and Participation 461

Exercises 463

Recap and Review 464

Key Terms 464

FP Library/Alamy Stock Photo

Chapter 22: Speaking Across College Courses 466

Section 22.1 Presenting Across College Courses 468

22.1a Communicate Your Ideas to Others 468

22.1b Pay Attention to Context 468

Section 22.2 Educational Contexts for Speaking Assignments 469

22.2a Review a Scholarly or Professional Article 469

22.2b Deliver a Poster Presentation 470

22.2c Present or Debate a Position 471

22.2d Report on a Service Learning or Internship Experience 473

Exercises 474

Recap and Review 476

Key Terms 476

Fisher/Thatcher/Getty Images

Chapter 23: Presenting Online 478

Section 23.1 The Technological Difference 480

23.1a Technology-Dependent Delivery 480

23.1b Presentation Cues and Miscues for Online Speeches 480

Section 23.2 Formats for Online Presentations 482

23.2a Choose a Synchronous or Asynchronous Format 482

23.2b When It's Just You 483

23.2c When It's You With Others 484

23.2d When It's an Interview 485

23.2e When It's a Digital Story 485

Section 23.3 Online Presentation Platforms: Screens and Sound 487

23.3a Video 487

23.3b Podcast 487

23.3c Webinar 488

23.3d PowerPoint/Graphical Presentation 489

Exercises 490
Recap and Review 492
Key Terms 492

Steve Diebenport/
Getty Images

Chapter 24: Answering Questions 494

Section 24.1 The Timing of the Q&A Session 496

- 24.1a Before Presenting 496
- 24.1b While Presenting 497
- 24.1c After Presenting 497

Section 24.2 Managing the Q&A 498

- 24.2a Anticipate Questions— Especially Hard Ones 498

- 24.2b Don't Pontificate 498
- 24.2c Understand Every Question Asked 498
- 24.2d Give Audience Members the Green Light 499
- 24.2e Stay on Course 499
- 24.2f Think Through Your Answer 499
- 24.2g Keep Defensiveness at Bay 499
- 24.2h Address Answers to Both the Questioner and the Audience 500
- 24.2i Gracefully Bring the Q&A Session to a Close 500

Exercises 501

Recap and Review 502

Key Terms 502

Glossary G-1

Notes N-1

Index I-1