Tyaughton Vacation Rentals

Spring Lake Ranch

A mere 400 kilometers north of Vancouver and 350 km northwest of Kelowna lies the 12,600,000-hectare Cariboo Chilcotin Coast - a bold and beautiful country. Easily accessible by car, train and plane, the region has thick forests and jagged mountains, expansive ice fields; valleys lined with 8,000 lakes and 17,000 km of rivers and streams, more than any other region in B.C. In short it's a place where you can pursue outdoor sports and activities during the day, and recharge yourself among magnificent surroundings at night.

To give you ideas of what is available, imagine cruising a snowmobile or cross-country skiing through darkened snow and ice caked forests. Or while snowshoeing to your cozy ice fishing hut, dogsledders shoot past you blasting up snow as the peaks of the Cariboo Mountains emerge from behind low hills. Now go to a map and note how close you are to the Cariboo Chilcotin Coast, an ideal destination in the heart of B.C. As you suspect, the Cariboo Chilcotin Coast is renowned for its winter activities - there is hardly a community that does not offer excellent amenities and surrounding trails.

Indeed, there's no better time than winter to escape cabin fever and everyday grind. Head to the Cariboo Chilcotin Coast, undeniably one of nature's all time winter playgrounds.

Nakusp Hot Springs

Whether it is alpine, cross-country, snowmobiling, cat or Heli-skiing you are seeking, the BC Rockies region abounds in winter activities.

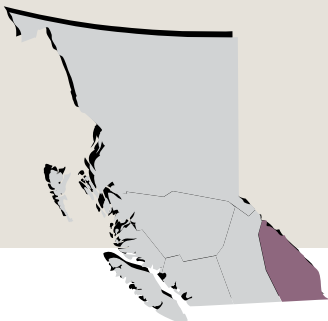

Conditions permitting most resorts open in early December each year. Chose from the resorts of Red Mountain at Rossland or Whitewater Ski area near Nelson, both close to the border and known for their incredible snow. Red offers 1200 acres of famous BC Rockies powder at two great mountains and over 83 runs. Whitewater, situated 13 km south of Nelson in the Ymir Mountains, has deep bowls and glades, groomed runs, chutes and backcountry terrain and a base elevation of 5,400 ft.

Stay on the mountain or downtown in Fernie and Kimberley where the ski areas are right in the town's backyard. The powder at Fernie is second to none and the bowl skiing is world-famous. Kimberley is nestled in the Purcell Mountain range and offers a variety of terrain for all types of skiers and has a fun, family atmosphere. Both have a variety of on-hill accommodations to choose from.

A little north of the town of Invermere is Panorama Mountain Village. Offering a true mountain village with ski to your door accommodation and amenities, Panorama has the exciting Taynton Bowl, a wide expanse of untouched powder stashes and gladed chutes covering over 800 acres.

Near to Panorama is the truly relaxing hot springs resort of Fairmont. Stay in Fairmont's 140 room 4 ½ star lodge and enjoy the natural, odourless hot springs pool and their great family ski area.

North at Golden you will find Kicking Horse Resort which boasts the second highest vertical in North America, a state-of-the-art 8 passenger gondola, taking you to the Eagles Nest Mountain Top restaurant and bowl after bowl of incredible skiing.

Vancouver Island & The Islands

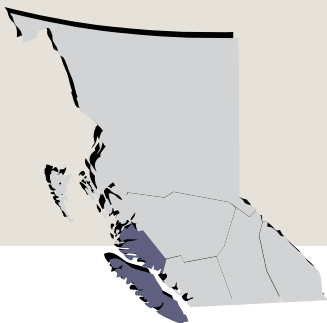

Just "click" on any of the links below for a vacation of a lifetime!

Vancouver Island

Terrace Beach Resort

Black Rock Oceanfront Resort

Wickaninnish Inn

Victoria & the Gulf Islands have the mildest winter climate in Canada, but the higher elevations are rewarded with an abundance of snow. While golfers are teeing off on the year-round courses at lower elevations, others are strapping on their skis and snowboards and heading for the snow at Mt. Washington Alpine Resort or Mt. Cain Alpine Resort.

Mt. Washington Alpine Resort, above Courtenay and the Comox Valley, is the biggest ski area on Vancouver Island, flaunting the deepest all-natural snow base in Canada. With the Pacific Ocean as a backdrop on one side and scenic Strathcona Park bordering the other, this world-class ski resort offers a wide choice of winter activities including skiing, snowboarding, 2 terrain parks, cross-country, biathlon, night skiing, snow tubing, ski schools, children's programs, day care facilities, a progressive snow school and instructor training programs. Skiers and snowboarders will enjoy over 81 alpine trails accessed by 9 lifts or carpets, while Nordic sport enthusiasts have access to 55kms of scenic cross-country trails and a world class Nordic Centre that was home to international Olympic teams as they acclimatized and prepared for the 2010 Olympics. Mt. Washington is accessible via the Strathcona Parkway off Hwy. 19. Accommodation is available at the resort, as well as in Courtenay and Campbell River.

Mount Cain, situated on the north end of Vancouver Island, offers a unique experience to skiers, snowboarders and backcountry skiers. At Mount Cain you'll find deep powder, 21 runs, with 1499 vertical feet of terrain. Mt. Cain has few line-ups and the welcoming atmosphere of a family oriented mountain. Mount Cain has the highest base elevation of any coastal ski hill in BC, Alaska and Washington State. Our peak elevation is second only to Whistler. Mount Cain is about 75 km NW of Sayward and is easily accessed from Highway 19.

Come explore Vancouver Island for your family winter vacation.
