Where Else Can I Research Buffalo Theatres?	13

INTRODUCTION

The Grosvenor Room of the Buffalo and Erie County Public Library has a number of resources to help you research theaters and theatre history in Buffalo.

While no published book covers all of Buffalo's illustrious theater history, we are lucky to have a copy of compiled history created by a local researcher. This source lists brief historical information on many theatres, such as known addresses, dates of operation, and related newspaper article citations. It is an excellent starting point for theater research:

Sandhu, Ranjit. Buffalo Theatres prior to 1930: An ever-growing index of references. [Tonawanda, NY. 2002.] Available at the Grosvenor Room reference desk.

*For architecture research on theater buildings, see the separate guide: Buffalo Architecture Research: Selected Sources in the Buffalo & Erie County Public Library

*Please note:

Items in the RBR (Rare Book Room) must be viewed by appointment. Please call 716-858-8900 or see a Grosvenor Room Librarian.

INDEXES & STARTING POINTS
Resource	Time period	Location
Sandhu, Ranjit. Buffalo Theatres prior to 1930: An ever-growing index of references. An extensive compilation of references on local theaters, including general history, saloons, concert halls, burlesque, vaudeville, and cinemas. Look up venue by name or address. Sources for general Buffalo theater history are listed in the preface. A key resource for researchers.	1815-1930	Grosvenor Room Reference Desk. See a librarian for access.
Local History File: A card index for Buffalo newspapers, magazines, and some books. Locate citations for articles about theaters and theater owners. Look under the subject heading of Theaters and the owner's name.	Primarily 1930s to the 1980s, with some earlier and later entries.	Grosvenor Room. For later newspaper articles, see the Newspapers section for the Buffalo News, 1989-present.
Famous Speakers and Visitors File: Card index. Search by name of actor. Includes name and date of production, and theater. Articles from newspapers are also referenced.	Mid 1800's through the 1960's, some1970's.	Grosvenor Room card files.
Vertical Files on Theaters Vertical Files contain newspaper clippings and periodical articles, pamphlets, and miscellaneous material.	Primarily 1970- present. Some earlier items.	Grosvenor Room. See a librarian.
Theatre Program Card Index. Indexed by title of play. Programs are in the library collection; see the Playbills & Programs section.	c. 1890s-1950s	Closed Stacks. See a librarian
Erlanger Theatre Index Indexed by performer name and title of play.	1927-1956	Closed Stacks. See a librarian.

CITY DIRECTORIES

The Grosvenor Room has Buffalo City Directories in print from 1828 to the present. Directories list individual residents, as well as businesses. Check listings to learn where (and for what years) a particular theater was located. See also R. Sandhu's Buffalo Theatres prior to 1930.

Buffalo city directories from 1832 to 1993 are also available on microfilm in the Grosvenor Room.

NEW!: Our Buffalo City Directories 1832-1893 are now digitized online: http://www.buffalolib.org/content/digital-collections

Buffalo directories 1861-1960 are also in the Ancestry Library Edition database. http://www.buffalolib.org/content/research

Look for the "U.S. City Directories, 1821-1989" in the card catalog feature; directories can be browsed by year or searched.

PHOTOGRAPHS

Pictures of performers may have been published in programs/playbills, newspaper articles and news "picture pages," as well as theatre magazines (see Journals & Periodicals listed in this guide).

Photographs (original or copies) may be harder to locate. We have a "Performing Artists Photograph Collection" of about 300 photos of musicians and actors, most from 1900 to 1950: <a href="https://bepl.ent.sirsi.net/client/en_US/default/search/detailnonmodal/ent:$002f$002f$D_ILS$002f0$002f$D_ILS$1902450/one

For additional image resources, see our related guide, Buffalo Illustrations, which goes into greater detail on finding vintage photographs of Buffalo buildings in books and other publications in our collection: http://www.buffalolib.org/sites/default/files/pdf/genealogy/subject-guides/BuffaloIllustrations%20updated%207-2014.pdf

The Buffalo History Museum also has an extensive photograph collection that may include some Buffalo theaters. See "Where else can I research Buffalo Theaters?" in this guide.
