LEGISLATION PROGRESSING SLOWLY.

OUTSIDE MATTERS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DELAY.

The Decks to De Cleared Next Week and More Advancement Is Expected. The Election of State Treasurer and the Resignation of the State Comptroller-Great Demands For Money.

[Special Correspondence.]

TREATON, Feb. 13.—The house passed four bills Tuesday, the first of the session. One was the measure providing for the erection of a monument upon Antietam battlefield.

Another matter interfered with the progress of the legislature this weeknamely, the election of State Treasurer Briggs. This delay in the advancement of legislation has been due to the nu-merous matters outside which have occupled the attention of the legislators. The time lost can be accounted for in the following manner: First week, or-ganization of the legislature; second, inauguration of Governor Murphy; third, selection of a United States senator; fourth, selection of a state treasurer; fifth, selection of a state comptroller.

Governor Murphy has not sent any important nominations to the senate as yet, and it is not expected at this writing that he will do so until another few weeks at least.

The principal interest centers in the office of secretary of state, concerning which there is still considerable doubt Some claim that the present incum-bent, George Werts of Passaic, will be continued in that office through the in-fluence of his friend, ex-Governor John W. Griggs, while others contend that the office will go to Colonel Samuel D. Dickinson of Hudson as a reward for his energetic work in the campaign which elected Governor Murphy. There is comparatively little interest in the other offices because of the fact that it is almost practically known what ap-pointments will be made by the new State Treasurer Elected.

The joint session of the legislature on Tuesday resulted in the election of Frank O. Briggs of Trenton to the office of state treasurer, succeeding the late George B. Swain. Opposed to Mr. Briggs was Lawyer W. Holf Apgar, also of this city, whom the Democratic legislators named as their candidate on Monday night. The election of Mr. Briggs was by a strictly party vote. A term of three years with an annual salary of $6,000 is attached to the office of state treasurer.
State Comptroller William S. Han

cock's resignation, which was tendered to Governor Murphy on Monday, was the political surprise of the west dethe political surprise of the week de-spite the fact that rumers of his inten-tion to take the step had been in circu-lation since before the recent choice of Mr. Briggs as the Republican numines for treasurer. Some days before the caucus which determined upon Mr. Briggs was held an announcement was made that Mr. Hancock had declared his intention to resign in the event of Mr. Briggs' selection. The act was prompted, the report insinuated, by Mr. Hancock's unwillingness to serve on the same board (the statehouse commission) with Mr. Briggs.

Comptroller Hancock's Statement But Mr. Hancock in a statement to the press issued simultaneously with the proffering of his resignation to Govthe professing of his realisation to dovernor Murphy entered a vigorous denial to the assertion that there was friction between himself and Mr. Briggs. The self explanatory statefollows:

'I have handed my resignation to the governor, to take effect on acceptance and not later than the 20th inst., and make this statement in regard to it:

that there is no personal feeling or controversy between myself and Treasurer Briggs. I have known him dur ing his residence in Trenton as a gen-tleman of the highest standing and with qualities that fit him to fill the office he now occupies, and he has my best wishes for his success.

"Politically I find myself in a post

tion where if I attempt to continue the active participation in the affairs of our county that I have heretofore tak-en it means factional differences. This I have never contemplated in any of my political plans, my aim always having been to exert all of my energies to the defeat of our Democratic oppo-nents, and I have not the inclination now to alter my original intention. I therefore relinquish officeholding and with it my active connection with the management of political affairs of Mercer county, my idea being that office-holders, and particularly those holding the best in the gift of their party, owe an obligation to their party to give it their best efforts for success. This realize it is impossible for me to de without the result heretofore stated.

"I also realize that success can only come in the future, as in the past, by unity of action, and not desiring in the least to jeopardize the successes of the future is another reason I take this

Washington, Feb. 10, 1963.

In an interview which Senator Osville H Platt granted to your correspondent yesterday, in the Marble Room of the Senate ha infirmed the rumor that he is favorably disosed towards the President's wish to grant reciprocal concessions to Cuba, in the following language:

"I am a thorough believer in the doctrine of protection and have so warmly advocated it as to have been charged with being a partisan; I am in favor of granting certain con-cessions to Cuba in return for similar concessions from the island. I believe that such oncessions can be granted without serious detriment to American industries and with material benefit to American foreign markets. The granting of reasonable concessions would in my opinion, greatly benefit the trade of both countries. Without receding one loss from my position as a protectionist, I believe that at the present time protection is in danger of greater injury from its friends who hold out for immoderate and unne duties then from the open advocates of free trade."

The Senator refused to go further into d tails in regard to the policy to be pursued. dealing with Cuba, but his position as chair, man of the Senate committee on Relations with Cuba makes his statment a sufficient guarantee of the position which the Se will adopt in regard to the matter.

Another statement on this subje will be received with respect is that of Pea-ator Proctor of Vermont, who has said, after prefacing his remarks with the state that he is to-day as good a protectionist as in ever was: "In my judgment we would be hurt any industry in this country by dealer generously with Cubs. It is also my juice ment that if we take any other than a gr ous course towards Cuba we shall injure a cause of protection in the United States. the state treasurer deposit funds in banks designated by the governor and relieving the trensurer and his bonds-

Brain-Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain and still kind of food is needed for brain and still another for muscles, and still another for bonns. A correct dict will not only nourish a particular part of the hody, but it will sustain every other part. Yet however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by, indigestion or dispersia. The Automobile Measure.

Another measure which is being strongly opposed is Senator McKee's bill prohibiting local authorities from requiring a less rate of speed from automobiles than eight miles an hour along streets and roads in built up sections and fifteen miles an hour in sections not so thickly populated. The contention of the opponents of the bill is that each community should ordain speed rates and that the state should not interfere. The friends of the bill however, claim that there should be a uniform law regulating the rate of automobiles.

Raids on the Treasury.

If all the demands on the state treas ury now contemplated are complied with, the surplus now on hand will be more than completely wiped out. Because of the large amounts which the state nets on the granting of charters to corporations there has been an enor mous balance in the state treasury for the past several years, and each year frequent attempts have been made to have large sums of money diverted from the state's funds for various uses, but the appropriations committees each year have zealously guarded the state's cash box, and the sums that have been appropriated have been comparatively and reasonably small.

But this year there seems to be no merous designs on the state's surplus and unless the appropriations commit tee exercises the greatest care an ex-tra large slice of the state's funds will be made away with. Governor Murphy's recommendation in his inaugural address that the bal-ance in the state's treasury be expended judiciously for state improvements has inspired many requests for a share of the money. Among the most im-portant of these requests is one for the establishment of a state normal school in north Jersey. There are already two bills before the legislature providing for such a school. One of these provides for the school in Essex coun-The other gives the normal school to Hudson county and fixes the appropriation at $300,000. A bill introduced by Senator Hutchinson of Mercer provides for the appropriation of $200,000 for the erection of a new senate cham-ber at the statebouse and other adornments to the state's capitol building.

Many Demands For Money. An appropriation of $50,000 is asked for the Trenton armory, and a like sun is requested for a similar purpose for the Red Bank cavalry troop. There is a bill in the house providing that the Jerseymen who served in the Spanish war be reimbursed for the money they paid to the government for clothing. If this measure becomes a law, it will mean the expenditure of more than $100.000. A bill of like characte killed in the house last year, and it is not expected that the present one will pass. Another bill provides for the appropriation of $20,000 for an equestrian statue of the late General Wil liam J. Sewell in front of the state house here. Still another appropriates $10,000 for a silver service for the bat tleship New Jersey, another appropriates $15,000 for the erection of a mon ument to General Mercer at Prince on, another sets aside the sum of $10, 000 for the scientific investigation of the mosquito question and the exter-mination of this pest if any means can be found for such extermination, an other appropriates $6,000 for the erec tion of a monument to the New Jersey soldlers who fell at Antietam and still another appropriates $20,000 for a new dormitory at the Soldiers' home at Kearney.

ADVICE FROM A WIFE.

Some Forceful "Don'ts" For Girls Old Enough to Marry. Don't marry a man to reform him. If he needs to reform and does not before marriage it is a fallacious hope to expect to change him after.

Don't marry a man who has only his love to recommend him. There are other qualities requisite in husbands quite as important as this.

Don't marry a man because you mistake sympathy for love. It is a thousand times better for both that the "yes" should be changed into "no" be-fore the wedding day unless you truly love him. Sympathy is a poor founda-tion for marriage.

Don't marry a man unless he has a head as well as a heart. Household expenses are not met with anything except a bank account.

Don't marry a man for a home. You deserve to be unhappy if you do, and you usually will be. There are many more honorable ways by which a self respecting woman can accomplish this less able because or his vanity.

Don't marry for looks. A good looking man is no more able to provide for the necessities of life for his family than any other man and frequently less able because of his vanity.

Don't say "yes" to your first proposal unless you are sure of yourself.

Never to receive another proposal is not the worst fate that can befall a girl. There are many old maids who are happier than some wives. Don't marry for spite or out of pique or because he says he can't live with-out you. But do not remain unmar-ried if the man you love is good, brave and industrious, even though he be poor as the proverbial church mouse, right sort of wife can exert wonder-ful influence for good or failure over her husband. By a gracious general manner she can win hosts of friends for him and help him along in nearly every walk of life on the road to suc cess and prosperity. The right sort of wife stands by her husband when business and other troubles depress and worry him. She infuses hope into him and points the way to a new start, however small. She works with and for him, helps him plan and save and provide for the future and is indeed a helpmate, chum and wife all in one and when so married her life is ideally happy.—Mrs. George Nelson in Amer

COVERS THE HAPPENINGS OF THE STATE

NEWARK EVENING and SUNDAY NEWS the best medium for attaining their desire. The NEWS is not only a paper for Jenseymen, made by Jerseymer but it is a newspaper in the widest sense of the term. It contains each day more news of the world in general than any afternoon paper printed in New York or Phila delphia, in addition to making a specialty of all matters of importance in the State.

BETTER THAN EVER IN 1902.

The facilities of the NEWS for the production of a great newspaper have been largely increased in the past year and many improvements have been made. But in the coming year greater progress than ever before is promised. New features are being added constantly, which make the NEWS more and more attractive as a newspaper for the home.

INDEPENDENT IN POLITICS.

The NEWS is absolutely independent in politics, and is always the champion of every measure which has for its object the greatest good to the greatest number. Its reports of the Legislature are full, but discriminating. Uninteresting details of the routine work have eliminated, and attention is, devoted to the important bills presented, and the bearing of all these measures as related to the welfare of the people is made public. A special study of the political situation is made and unbiased protts are given. The enviable reputation that the NEWS has held in the past in this regard will be maintained in the future.

SENATOR TILLMAN, of South Carolina loudly veciferated in the Senate the other day that his sympathies were with the rem nant of the Filipinos who are still in a state of insurrection against the United States. Vallandigham, who was a prototype of the treasonable Tillman, was in his day invited by President Lincoln to take himself off and make his peace speeches among his Southern friends. Why wouldn't it be a good thing to deport Tillman ?

To CARNEGIE'S munificence there is no end. The latest instance reported is his gift of $100,000 to Stavens Institute of Technology, Hoboken, as an endowment for the Carnegie Laboratory of Engineering, built at a cost of $65 000, which sum, as the name implies, was also furnished by Carnegie The $100,000 check was received by President Henry Morton on Monday.

LORD KITCHENER again reports, "with re grets," that the redoubtable General De Wet whom he supposed he had safely enmeshe by converging columns of British troops, had somehow managed to break through the ene my's lines under cover of the night and es cape into the open country. It has got to be an old story.

A new departure in newspaper publishing will be tried by The Daily News, London The paper has changed hands and its new owners announce that all betting and tur news will be excluded from its columns and that a special frature will be made of social

FREEHOLDERS NOT ALARMED.

Second Presentment of Grand Jury Does Not Worry Them.

The Board of Chosen Freeholders, at their monthly meeting on Wednesday busied themselves with routine matters only, al though previous to the meeting rumors of the appointment of a new road comm ceed Thomas Malley, and new ful talk. filled the air. The meeting was called to orde late, for there was much caucusing among the powers that be. Fome seventeen men wish to supply a suitable successor in the per son of themselves for Mr. Malley and thi nerfluity of candidates makes a choice difficult, especially as the spring election is close at hand. Of course, only one man will get the job and sixteen disappoin'ed mer and their friends who desire to see them in the office of road inspector may control a considerable number of votes. Hence th question of appointing Mr. Malley's successor is being handled gingerly, or better, handled not at all. A considerable delegation, com-posed of Mayor Peters, W. L. R. Lynd, super intendent of the Richardson & Boynt in stoy works, and a committee from the Centra Labor Union of Dover were on hand in the interests of Thomas Buffy, of Bowlbyville, who wants the appointment as a labor caudi date. However, the matter was religiously avoided by the board and Mr. Malley will con-tions to be road inspector for another month at least, if not longer.

The Finance Committee reported having examined the books and vouchers of the county collector and found them correct. The committee presented approved bills to the amount of $2,593 43, which were ordered paid.

The clerk read the presentment of the Grand Jury in the matter of the condition of the County Jail, but the members of the board believing, or affecting to believe, that they have done all they can do, did not seem greatly concerned at this second presentment, for never a word did the jul committee have to say in regard to either building or remodeling.

A communication from the Essex County

State Chartres Aid Association asking that delegates be sent to the State Convention in Trenton on February 20 and 21 was read by the clerk and Director Hoagland appointed Mr. Norris, of the Alms House Committee, and Mr. Fancher, of the Court House and Morris County. The Court House and Juil Committee reported that there are twenty six prisoners in the juil, thirty two baving been committed and thirty-nine discharged during the month Of the sixty five prisoners confined during the month twenty-nine, the committee stated, were "drunks." The committee reported approved hills to the amount of $889 08 for current expenses, which were ordered paid. The Alms House Committee reported apmound hills to the amount of $1.019.10 o children's home account, all of which were ordered paid. There are one hundred inmates in the sims house and sixty six children in the Children's Home.

Approved bills to the amount of $1,420.62 ance and Miscellany and ordered paid.

The Road Committee presented approved bills to the amount of $2,468.60, which were ordered paid. Mr. Bowman, of the Road Committee, reported that the committee had, spec fications outlining a new plan for receiv-ing bids for road work by which it is boped to obtain better and prompter work and en-courage to anall local contractor; also to prevent a repetition of what occurred a secured all the work in the county and took a year in which to do it. The plan, as ex plained by the committee, is to make each township a road district on which senarate nishing stone in required sizes; for furnish ing stone and doing the work, or for doing the work slone. Bids will be on the tonnage havis except for sprinkling, rolling and open ing gutters, which must name the price pe authorized to advertise for bids on the above

N this sort of weather it's a nuisance doing the family wash at home, honestly, now isn't it? The house full of steam, the risk of colds from draughts if you venture to ventilate, the worriment, the wear and tear on mind, body and household furnishings. How much easier and more sensible to have the DOVER STEAM LAUNDRY supply you with a neat, clean laundry bag in which to drop the soiled articles, collect them, wash them properly in a sanitary laundry and return them to you in another clean bag rough dry " at 4 cents per pound; or if collected on Friday and delivered Saturday or Monday 3 1-2 cents per pound. This is the fair way of doing family washes, and you'd certainly be surprised at how much less your wash weighs than you think it does. Just try it and see! Of course if you want the ironing done too, I'm at your service at reasonable cost. A postal card to me will relieve you of all bother and worry about your family wash, or any description of laundry work,

Disastrous Fire in Paterson. Paterson was visited on Sunday last by the most disastrous fire ever known in the State of New Jersey. The business center was entirely eaten out to the extent of a half a mile in width and a mile in length. The fire broke out shortly after midnight and raged inceasingly until sundown on Sunday ever ing. Commencing in the car stables at the corner of Broadway and VanHouten streets, th fire spread rapidly, owing to the extremely high wind The new City Hall, which cost $450,000, all the banks, the high school, five burches, the largest stores, telephone exchanges, police besidquarters and several hundred residences were laid in ruins, renderany families bomeless. The firemen bravely fought the flames for twenty four hours, with help which was gladly received from he neighboring cities. The Young Men's Christian Association and the beautiful Hamilton Club House, which was one of the finest in the State, were also laid in ruins. The loss is estimated at from $8,000,000 to $10,000,000, about one third of which is Herr Soland, who was down on the programme for the third number, "Der Wander er," a bartone sole, was unable to be present as a result of the Faterson fife, but William Hockenjos, of the same city, proved a more acceptable substitute. His "turns" were all of a come nature and he convulsed the sand ence with his declarations and songs. A better entertainer could hardly have been secured. John Moller, with a comic solo, "Der Fourer whoman," kept his hearers in roars of languister. "Dar Geprellte Dorfolisist," a humorous duet, was sung by Emil G. Katter mann and Anton Rusenberg and each port trayed the character he represented true to the life.

George A. Shields has not exhausted his vitality in naming his hotel but is still able to stand sponsor for his opponents. He has recently issued a new batch of names for those most active against his application for license. Mr. Day has been dubbed as King Edward; Paul Day as Don Alphonso; William Weiler as "Happy Hooligan;" and Mr. Schultz, as "Mr. Gaston," but as we have ever been taught that gas was light it would seem rather like a sad admission that Mr Shields has been struck by a ton of it (gas. ton), and the question now is whether a ton of bricks or a ton of gas burts most or lays a fellow out the worst.

Plenty of Work for the Drills. The Lackawanua officials concluded last week that there were too many "drills" at vork here and so they took off a day and a night drill, but after getting behind with some of the work it was found necessary to put them back again for several days. The older men from these drills were assigned to other yard drills—Michael Duffy going on the day freight drill; William White and "Pat" was about to encounter day freight drill; William White and "Pat" one of the most ferccious beasts of the forest. Railroad News. A number of our road crews, including Conductors Ringlets, Harveys and McCather-ins, are learning the main line from Scranton down and have made a few experimental trips. A number of locomotives have been sent away from here to other points, but as there are more than enough here yet to fill up our roundhouse our citizens are not near so much alarmed as some of our near neighbors seem to be. A couple of firecleaners and a "shifting" engineer have been laid off here and five engineers and three firemen have been sent to Hoboken to fill vacancies and runs from runs are to be in use here and this would be ample for Port Morris needs, but if Mr. Gould acquires the controlling interest it would make the Lackawanna a link in the greatest trans continental line of the world, extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific and there is no telling how much Port Morris may be benefitted. It is also asserted that Port Morris is to have a complete modern car shop with all the latest appliances and if this should come to pass would not some of our neighbors feel their pity wasted? Wires are now being strung to hang a standard clock in the round house (which up to this time has never been honored so highly) to furnish correct time to engineers and firemen

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great-difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and threat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, deranges the stomach and affects the appetite.

ach and affects the appetite.

To cure catarri, treatment must be constitutional—alterative and tonic.

"I was afflicted with catarri. I took mediches of different kinds, giving each a fair trial; but gradually grew worse until I could hardly bear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Hond's Sarssparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." Eccent Fonnes, Lebanon, Kan.

Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membrane and builds up the whole system.

John S. Woodhull is building an ice house We are sorry to announce that our Sunday shool has closed for the winter.

Louis McPeak and Elmer Dickerson have filled their ice houses with ice of an excellent anality. The public school is in a flourishing condi-

Work on the cemetery chapel is at a standstill on account of the committee not being able to procure suitable lumber. It is hope that operations will soon commence.

May Hunt That Cat Some Other Day. Recently there assembled near the village of Chester a little band of disciples of Nim rod who were quite enthusiastic in anticipa tion of a fox hunt. The day was cold and clear and a few inches of snow afforded an excellent opportunity for tracking the game. They set out in high spirits with the expec-tation of starting reynard in a short time and upon arriving at a point near Pleasant Hill a track was discovered by the veteran leader which was supposed to be that of a panther ceeded to dig a hole for the coveted prize and after tearing away a part of the foundation and removing floors, etc., the object of their search was discovered, but, alas, it had been transformed, by some magical influence no yet accounted for, into a large white cat which probably belonged to some neighbor ing farmer and was probably about in search of wild game. At this juncture a council of war was held and the leader, with a heart o steel, seemed determined to have the co executed, but more humane feelings prevailed and the object which had caused so muc trouble was spared, probably for another chase. Although the party had started out in great expectation their chase ended, alas! like the miller's dream of gold, only in disappointment. Still there remains the con-solation embodied in the old couplet, slightly altered from the original :

"They who hant a cat and go away May live to bunt that cat some other day."

All Doctors have tried to cure CATARRH
by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs to paste form. Their powders dry up the mucuous membranes causing them to cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of CATARRH, has at last perfected a treatment which, when fatthfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures CATARRH, by removing the

Martin J. Willis and Miss Minnle T. Osborne were married at the M. E. parsonage guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morgau Lunger on by the Rev. W. C. Timbrell on Monday, Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Willis left for an extended wedding trip. They will probably not return before April 1. February 13 is the date set for hearing the rgument of the case of the Liondale Bleach, Dye and Print Works against the Borough of Rockaway on certiorari. The writ of cer tiorari was secured by the Liondale Works to prevent a levy being made on their property by the tax collector for the borough taxes of 1901, which the company claims they are exempted from. P. B. Pierson, Master in Chancery, has been taking the testimony for

The Borough Council in November, 1895, passed a resolution exempting the Liondale Bleach, Dye and Print Works from borough taxes for five years from the time they started to manufacture. The company states that the actual start was made in the spring of 1897. In 1896 the tax collector of the borough rendered a bill for county and State taxes and allowed the exemption for borough taxes, but at that time the valuation was on real estate only and not like the present assessment on buildings, machinery and improved real satate. The taxes that were then exempted amounted to a little less than $100. By an oversight the owners of the property allowed this exemption to pass, the excuse being that they were in the midst of building and equipping their plant and that they did not They had a very pleasant time. recall the exact terms of the resolutions.
The contention of the company is that the resolution was in reality not in effect until after they started to manufacture in the spring of 1897. Basing their claims on an spring of 1897. Basing their claims on an Arlington Euchre Club at the Boulevard exemption of five years from that time they House on Thursday evening, February 20. would still be exempt from borough taxes for 1901. These taxes amount to about $1,200, as against less than $100 in 1896. The owners of the Liondale Works contend that the then existing borough council, who passed the resolution of exemption in November, 1895, the gentlemen's second, H. Kispaugh taking did not expect or intend to put into effect the five-year exemption when only the unim. At the eucline held last Thursday at the proved real estate was assessed. With a view to having the matter definitely settled the Liondale Works secured a writ of certiorari to prevent the tax collector from making s levy on their property and to have the matter reviewed by the court.

Care of Infants.

In the care of young infants the eyes and nose are important items, any neglect of either being likely to result in serious and possibly permanent injury. When any redness or soreness of the eyes between apparent, additional care should be bestowed upon them, though the well rained nurse will not wait for the appearance of unfavorable symptoms before giving her attention to these important organs. At all times the eyes must be kept scrupulously clean, the lides and corrers being carefully hathed each day and wiped dry with a piece of soft, clean old linen, while, if soreness supervene in pite of these precautions, they should be bathed three or four times a day with a weak solution of boracic seld. The nose, too, requires constant and careful attention, especially in the trencherous northern climate, with its tendency to bring about catarrhal troubles. In the case of a young baby a stoppage of the nasal passages is a serious matter, as the child is then unable to breathe while in the act of nursing, a condition which is often responsible for serious affections of the throat and ears. In many instances a rupture of the sensitive drum membrane, with consequent deafness, has been known to result from a simple case of inupture of the sensitive drum membrane, with consequent deafness, has been known to result from a simple case of infantile "snuffles," while the most common result is a confirmed habit of mouth breathing, which is the parent of an endless line of throat and chest troubles. In most cases the stoppage can be easily and quickly removed if treated in its initial stage by simple external applications of vaseline and goose oil, but if allowed to continue it soon assumes a chronic form.

Sleeping Apartments. Eight hours out of the twenty-four, enesthind of every day, are spent in sleep. Twenty years of absolute unconsciousness in an average human life! How much the usefulness and extent of that life are determined by the quality of the air breathed while nsleep who shall say? Twenty years of soft, unconscious respiration, not the vigorous breathing of active consciousners; twenty yours or semiasphyxiation, of repeated in-halations of one's own effete, tainted breath mingled perhaps with that of another; twenty years of carbonic acid poison or twenty years of life giving ozone-which will you choose? Think of it every night when you go to bed. "Close bedrooms," says Dr. Hall, "make the graves of thousands."

There is a tradition to the effect that night air is injurious. What air can you have at night but night air? No noxious gases arising from the earth's surface at night when there is no sunlight to dissipate them are half so deadly as the emanations from the

If air were taxed, we should probably use it more lavishly to get our money's worth; but, being free, we are content to take it as we do some medicines, in homeopathic doses.

Monogram Sofa Pillows So much money has been expended on sofa cushiens, so much beautiful embroidery and handsome brocade have been used and wasted, that it is now the chie thing to have sofa cushions covered in a perfectly plain double square of denim or twilled cotton ma-terial. The edges are either bordered with silk or velvet ribbon or bound with bands of the denim. The fad is to work your crest in very large, coarse letters. The embroidery may take up nearly the entire front of the cushion, leaving just space for a scroll pattern or vine in the same rough crewel stitch for a border. Simple denim and linen covers have quite taken the place of silks, satins and brocades.

Brass and Copper. Brass and copper articles, such as fenders, fire irons, etc., should be rub-bed with a little sweet oil and finely powdered rottenstone, then polished with a leather. If, however, they are in a very bad state, the following paste should be used: One ounce oxalic acid. six ounces rottenstone, half ounce gum arabic made into a little paste with one ounce sweet oil and a little water. Rub on with a piece of flannel, then polish with a soft cloth and a leather.

You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce la grippe, pneumonia or a serious throat affection. You need something that will give you strength and build up the body.
