Calumet's Largest-Ever Demo Sale

Choose from hundreds of fantastic deals on some of today's most popular photographic equipment. Calumet is clearing out large amounts of demonstration products from each of its 10 retail centers and its trade-show stock. All demo gear has never been sold, is in new or like-new condition and comes with a manufacturer's warranty. There are only limited quantities of these items available and these prices are limited to quantities on hand only. Don't delay, order today!

This a company-wide event. Please feel free to place orders any way you choose:

Web customers please write to us at weborders@calumetphoto.com, and let us know what you are interested in. If it is still available, we will contact you so that you may place an order.

Direct mail-order customers call 1-800-CALUMET (225-8638) and our staff of technical sales representatives will assist you.

Each of our 10 retail centers has at least one designated individual who is available to answer your questions about the specific equipment at their location. If you wish to contact them directly, here are their names and phone numbers:
