Junior African Writers Series

WELCOME TO JAWS 2015

Dear Educator

Developed in Africa for African learners, the Junior African Writers Series (JAWS) is a collection of high-quality supplementary readers for schools.

Each strand within JAWS caters for different reading interests, abilities and ages to offer something for every learner.

JAWS titles are written by authors from all over Africa.

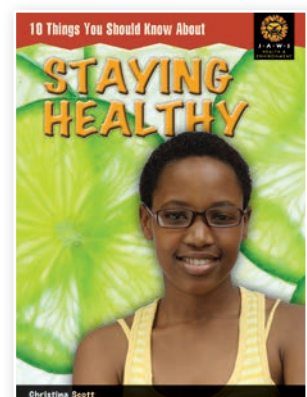

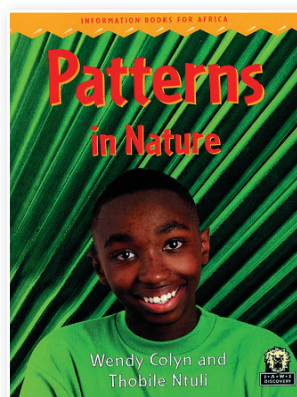

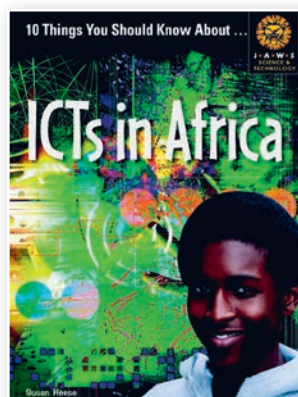

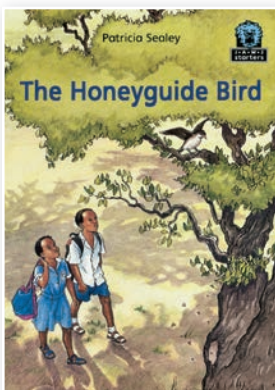

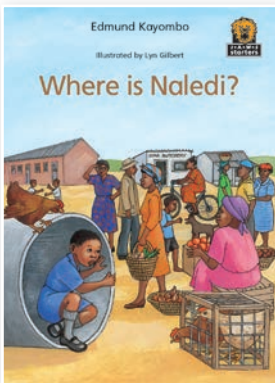

JAWS readers are:

- Locally relevant
- Topical and current
- Carefully levelled for all abilities
- Visually stimulating.

“The Junior African Writers series are simple, easy to read, engaging stories perfect for younger or reluctant readers.”

– Book Aid International

Go to page 17 to find out which JAWS reader is suitable for your learners, or go to page 18 to find out which themes are covered in the JAWS series. To find out which titles are available in various languages, go to page 19.

The boys arrived at the market. Kwabena suddenly stopped. 'Look at that man,' he said to Kofi. 'He's the driver of the lorry that nearly hit us.' 'Let's go and see what he's doing,' Kofi said.

The boys hid behind a tree. The driver was talking to another man. 'It's in my lorry,' he said. 'Take it away now. There are too many policemen round here.' Kwabena and Kofi looked at each other. What was the man hiding?

Level 1 is suited to learners who have been studying English for 3-4 years. The sentences are short and easy to understand. The pictures help children to follow the stories. Widely varying in location and theme, they are sure to give pleasure to learners in class or at home.

JAWS FICTION LEVEL 5

Level 5 is the upper level in the Fiction strand. It is aimed at advanced learners who are looking for stories that are challenging but which still use controlled language and content. At this level the series does not hesitate to ask learners to think hard, or occasionally to shock them into looking again at what is happening around them.

The JAWS HIV/AIDS readers are a series of 28 story and information books with reading and developmental levels graded appropriately for learners from lower primary through to upper secondary school.

THE CONTENT

- The story and information books cover the central themes in HIV/AIDS education.
- Age appropriate subject matter, themes and messages are introduced at each level.

HOW SHOULD I USE THEM?

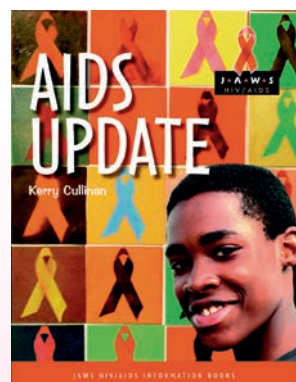

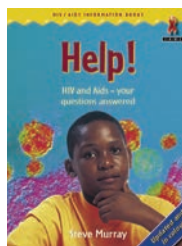

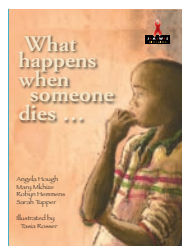

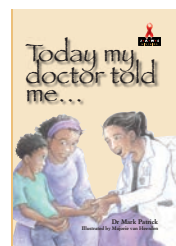

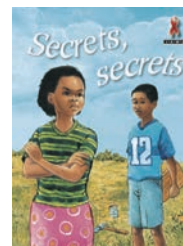

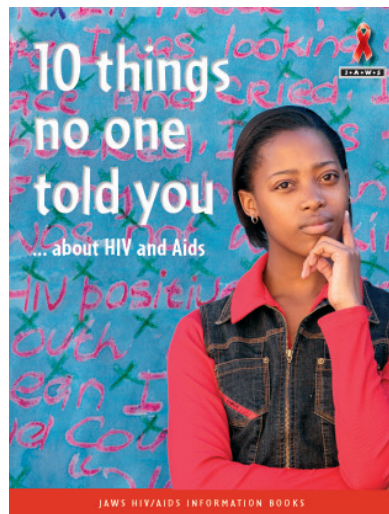

- The series can be used on its own as a standalone HIV/AIDS programme.
- The Readers can be used to supplement other lessons and programmes.
- The Readers can be used in health, social studies and life skills lessons.

TEACHER'S NOTES

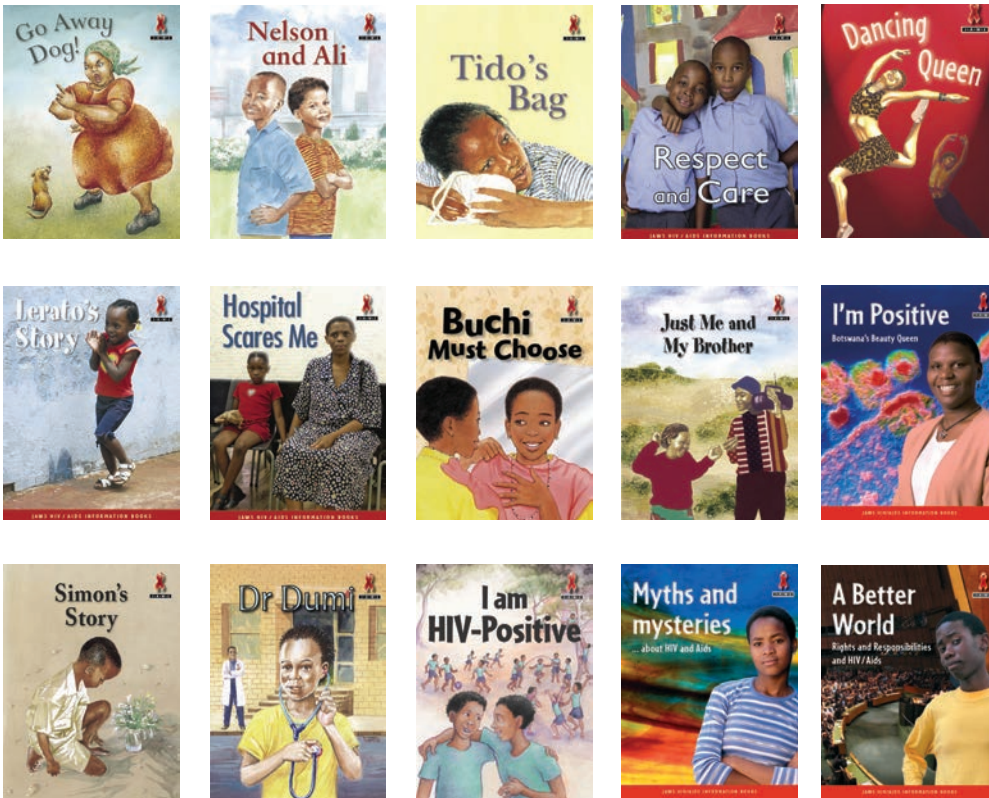

A Teacher's Guide provides tips and guidance for teaching this difficult topic. There is guidance on:

- how to use the content of the books for discussion purposes
- how to extract the key facts from the books
- learner activities to enforce understanding of the topics.
